KATS KRUSH KANGAROOS

WE

By Jane Barr

In these articles I will deal with topics that will interest you as American students in the light of what I understand of the European mind.

The university I attended last year was the University of St. Andrews in Scotland. Thirty-five nations were represented. In our discussions with one another we came to the realization that our basic problems as students and citizens were identical. First last and always is the necessity of freedom—freedom to think, freedom to become a human being, freedom to find your God. It is the expression of needed freedoms of which I wish to speak in the next few columns.

There is this saying in Africa: "The white man taught us to pray with our eyes closed, while we were thus praying he came in and took away our land." This is the spirit of Africa, this was the spirit of the Mau Mau. The African developed his culture, his God, his life—yet he must be judged by white man's ten

Student Council Answers Questions Of Student Body

The new plan endorsed by Mike Cody, by which the students could learn more about the Student Council and its duties through questions directed to certain Student Council members, was begun Wednesday, October 16, in student assembly.

The week before students had been given the opportunity to present written questions, and this week some of the questions were answered.

The first question discussed concerned a vital need, that of a Student Union building. Students had wanted to know plans concerning this project. Mike referred this question to Robert Templeton. He explained that a letter had been drawn up and presented to President Rhodes and the Board of Directors, which resulted in President Rhodes's talk in chapel to the student body. Because the Student Council was concerned about this problem, they suggested that ODK and the deans undertake this project. ODK has suggested an essay contest in which students could state what they believe to be the most needed building. According to this suggestion essays might be published in the Sou'wester, and the winning essay printed in "Southwestern News" which goes out to all parents of students, alumni, members of the Board of Directors, and any other interested persons.

The second question was: "What happened to the voting on the hour of supper?" Mike stated that many students wanted to eat between 5:15 and 6:15, but the dining hall will be open at 5:00 and will serve until 6:15.

Frosh Class Officers Named After Three Run-Off Elections

After campaigning all day Thursday and voting Friday, and in the runoffs Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday, the Freshman Class has completed the selection of its officers.

Those who will lead the class in all of its activities this year are: Dan Whipple, president; Bob Fulghum, vice-president; Judy Glisson, secretary-treasurer; Margaret Sewell McGavock, student council representative; and Marily Davis, representative to the Publications Board.

President

Heading the slate of officers is a Memphian, Dan Whipple, who was president of his Senior class at East High. Dan, Sigma Nu pledge president, was elected in the first run-off.

Two Memphians

The freshman vice-president, Bob Fulghum, is vice-president of the KA pledge class and was also president of the student body at Central High in Memphis.

Still another Memphian is secretary-treasurer Judy Glisson who was class chaplain for three years at East High. Judy is Tri Delta pledge vice-president and is here on the Ada Norfleet Tuller scholarship.

Leadership Award

An Alabama lass, Margaret Sewell McGavock, who will represent the freshmen to the student council, was president of the student council at Deshler High in Tuscumbia. Margaret, the Tri Delta pledge class treasurer, is a leadership award winner.

Honor Scholar

Marilyn Davis, an honor scholarship student from Jackson, Miss., has had plenty of experience with publications in high school where she worked on the newspaper, the literary magazine, and the annual.

Underwood Chosen Queen Stephens, Smith in Court

Chosen by the student body to reign as 1957 Homecoming Queen is Anne Underwood, senior from Oak Ridge, Tennessee.

Attending her will be Clara Stephens, S Club Princess and Marilyn Smith, Football Princess.

Homecoming Events Slated

Although game time is not until 2:00 Saturday, the official kickoff for the '57 homecoming weekend will be tonight at 6:00 at the Chi Omega Open House, which will be followed by the traditional bonfire and a sockhop in Voorhies basement. All women students will have 11:00 permission. Dan Whipple will be in charge of the dance, serving in his first official duty as president of the freshman class. Saturday morning the activities will open at 10:15 when the Southwestern vs. Union cross country teams meet. Mr. William Dor, vice president of the Southwestern Alumni Association, announces the following judges for the homecoming decorations: Miss Elizabeth Sledge, principal of Macon School; the Reverend Robertson Epps, minister of All Saint Episcopal Mission, and Mr. George R. McVay, Jr., director of Advertising and Publicity, Union Planters National Bank of Memphis. The judging will begin promptly at 10:45 a.m.

A luncheon will be held in Catherine Burrow Hall at 11:45 for the alums, the homecoming queen, and her court. It will be sponsored by the Southwestern Men and Women's organizations of Memphis.

The Southwestern Lynx will meet the Austin College Kangaroos on the Fargason Field of Battle at 2:00. Halftime of the game there will be the presentation of Queen Anne Underwood, princesses Clara Stephens and Marilyn Smith by their escorts Mike Ivey, Louis Zbinden, and Robert Templeton. The Queen in turn will announce the winners of the lawn decorations and present the trophies. All fraternities will hold open houses from 4-6. Everyone will then collapse and re-coop for the dance from 8-12 featuring Tuff Greene and his orchestra. Tickets for the dance will be $1.50 drag—$1.00 stag. So y'all come for an exhausting weekend which will of course end up in a general unprepared epidemic Monday morning, but you'll have lots of company if that's any compensation.

Trio To Reign Over Homecoming

Following a luncheon in Catherine Burrow Hall at 11:45 for alumnae, the Queen and her court will reign over the Homecoming game. At halftime, the presentation will be held and the Queen will announce the winners of the lawn decorations and award the trophies.

Queen Anne, a member of Kappa Delta sorority, is this year's Commissioner of Undergraduate Women. She is a member of STAB Intersorority, WAA, and is Social Chairman of KD.

Russel Selected as Speaker In Fall Religious Evaluation

Religious Evaluation Week begins Sunday, October 27, with a five o'clock vesper service in Hardie Auditorium. The opening address will be given by Dr. Henry Edward Russell, pastor of Trinity Presbyterian Church in Montgomery, Alabama, who will be the featured speaker for the week.

On Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday at ten o'clock, Dr. Russell will give a sermon address, following the theme: "God's Glory Our Chief End." The Southwestern Singers will present a special number at each convocation.

Each address will be followed by grouped discussions, led by Memphis ministers and lay workers: Mrs. Paul T. (Teapot) Jones, lay worker; the Reverend Wayne Meeks, Presbyterian Student pastor; Mr. Clarence Hampton, Director of Methodist Student Move-

JACK THOMPSON AND MARGARET HAIGLER were elected as the freshman class representatives to the Honor Council. Margaret Haigler, from Hayneville, Alabama, received the DAR good citizenship award, and was president of her high school senior class. Jack Thompson, Blytheville, Arkansas, was president of his student body, and served as Moderator of the East Arkansas Presbytery.

Religious Activities

Plans for a very active year are being made by the various religious groups on the campus of Southwestern.

Sunday afternoon, October 20, at 4:00, the Westminster Fellowship is taking part in a city-wide outing at Shelby Forest. There will be students there from Southwestern, U. T. Med school, and Memphis State.

Every Sunday evening at six o'clock, the Westminster Fellowship meets at Evergreen Presbyterian Church for supper, and has a meeting following this at six-thirty. The programs are led by students and outside speakers. Before the church service begins, a hymn-sing is held on the steps of the church. Recreation and refreshments are being planned for every other Sunday night after the church service.

Throughout the year, the WF will sponsor parties for the entire student body, and it will emphasize programs on foreign missions. "Forming a Christian Home" is the subject of a series of programs being taught to the Canterbury Club on Wednesday nights by Father Carrier, pastor of the Church of the Good Shepherd.

On the fourth Wednesday of each month, the Canterbury Club attends communion at Father Carrier's church and, also, has a supper meeting.

Plans are being made to have a communion service every Thursday morning at seven o'clock in the chapel in Voorhies with Father Carrier officiating.

Visiting the different missions in Memphis is one of the major projects planned by the Canterbury Club on which occasion they will serve as a choir in the service directed by Father Carrier.

On October 25, 26, and 27, the members of the Baptist Student Union are planning to attend a fall retreat at Cordova.

Another important date in the B. S. U. calendar is November 1, 2, and 3, on which days the State B. S. U. Convention will be held at the Bellevue Baptist Church here in Memphis. Miss Princess Hughes, president of the B. S. U. at Southwestern, has been nominated for the state office of Baptist Student Representative.

The Methodist Student Movement is conducting a series of Bible study programs which are led by various students at their regular meetings every other week.

Working in the Wesley Houses is one of the services included in their plans for the year. Another project which they are undertaking is working with rural churches around Memphis in developing an effective visitation program.

'Superb Musicianship' Describes Concert

by Jocelyn Agnew

Professor Myron Myers awed his capacity audience at the College of Music's Bohlmann Hall Tuesday night, with an exhibition of superb musicianship. Mr. Myers, professor of piano at Southwestern, opened the year's series of faculty recitals with a piano concert.

First on the program was Mr. Myers' presentation of a Beethoven sonata. He also played a sonata by contemporary composer Dello Joio, and a Prelude and Fugue by Bach-Busoni.

The climax of the evening's performance was reached in his last two numbers. As Mr. Myers with his usual perfection of technique and imaginative interpretation ended Debussy's intricate Feux d'artifice and L'isle joyeuse, the audience burst into appreciative and admiring applause.

Opportunities For Foreign Graduate Work; Three Sources Offer Grants

Various scholarships and grants are awarded each year to students interested in doing graduate study in a foreign country; interested students who are eligible for any of the following are encouraged to apply.

Fulbright and Buenos Aires Convention

Competition for Fulbright and Buenos Aires Convention scholarships for graduate study abroad for 1958-59 will close November 1, was announced by Kenneth Holland, President of the Institute of International Education.

Fulbright awards for pre-doctoral study and research in Europe, Latin America and Asia cover transportation, tuition, books, and maintenance for one academic year. The Buenos Aires Convention scholarships provide transportation from the U. S. government and maintenance from the government of the host country.

Eligibility requirements for these foreign study fellowships are United States citizenship, a college degree or its equivalent by the time the award will be used, knowledge of the language of the country of application sufficient to carry on the proposed study, and good health. Preference is given to applicants not more than 35 years of age.

The Peacock's Tale

by Bates Peacock

Well, everyone else has had his say about school spirit so I suppose it's in order for me to say my piece. Naturally, I'm for it. Really and Truly. And it's not (or shouldn't be) beneath the dignity of us to yell — better still scream. Now I know we don't have the manpower of a big school, or the "spirits" either, but nevertheless let's really show those Kangaroos we can Krush 'em—physically and vocally! I'll see you there. . . .

One thing has been worrying me all week—Is Tuff Green the name of a band or has the Student Council imported a golf course (miniature) to Mallory (memorial)?

Since I really don't have much to say this week I'll tell a story on one of my friends (ex-friends?). She teaches Sunday School at Idlewild, and it has been reported that one of her favorite pupils told his mother that Jayne Mansfield was his teacher!

Oh yes—congratulations Hervey for being Pi's newest member.

Athletics commissioner announced that the S Club will hold its first meeting October 17 in order to elect a Homecoming princess.

Religious Activities commissioner reported on the P. R. C.'s approval of referring study groups to the Student Council for further development.

Social commissioner gave the schedule of Homecoming events beginning with the Chi Omega Open House from 6-8 Friday, followed by a bonfire and the sock hop in Voorhies basement of which Dan Whipple, newly elected president of the freshman class, will be in charge.

Elections commissioner reported that one more run-off will be held for freshman elections. He asked Dan Whipple to head a committee evaluating this year's hazing program.

In the committee reports that followed, Beverly Bowden reported that the April Fool Robe Committee, after pricing velvet, is now figuring on the cost to have the robes made.

Sam Martin reported the Hall of Fame Committee is setting down some definite principles on which to base the selection of members to the Hall of Fame. It was agreed that the committee might work on the assumption that their decision will be final.

The president reported that a committee headed by Linda Hardesty is looking into a letter from a Kentucky family, checking on the possibility of a school-wide Christmas project.

Suggestion Box

Dear Maxwell House,

After your letter of last week displaying such varied and interesting attributes of your nature I have this to say to you:

Nobody cares whether you like the coffee or not. I suggest that you drink milk in the hope that it will give you strength to conquer your great problem.

If this is to no avail, I suggest you go out for coffee if lack of the stimulant reveals so vividly a character I deem wise and expedient to keep hidden—

Torch Will Sponsor 'Backward Dance' And Select 'Dream Man' As Ideal Male

Girls, take heed! That time of year when the men on campus are completely dependent on the fairer sex for dates will soon be here, for Torch plans to hold its annual backwards dance on October 25.

As is the tradition, a Torch Dream Man will be selected by all the women students and will be presented at the dance. Because all votes for the Dream Man will be feminine ones, all boys interested in obtaining this honor can probably be spotted being especially nice to the girls.

Torch, the honorary senior women's society which recognizes girls who are outstanding in scholarship and extra-curricular activities, will use the proceeds of the dance to pay for its luncheon given in honor of all girls who maintain a B average the first eight weeks. As well as honoring senior girls with membership and underclassmen girls with a luncheon, Torch also selects an outstanding sophomore each year.

A Halloween theme will be carried out in the decorations at the dance which will be held at the Chi Omega lodge from seven until eleven on the 25th of this month. An additional feature at the dance will be two fortune tellers who will avail their services to all. Refreshments for the night will be cider and donuts.

Voting for the Dream Man will be held in chapel next Wednesday. Boys, do you want to be the Torch Dream Man of the year? If you do, begin now to smile brightly or to bribe and your desire might be fulfilled.

Girls, this is your one big chance to be able to ask boys for a date, cut in at the dance, and vote for the Dream Man of your choice. Since the admission price to the dance is only $.50, you can't afford to let this opportunity pass you by.

Good luck to all—Torch, boys, and girls.

OPINION PLEASE

by Mary Ann Lee

What do you think of school spirit on this campus? In what ways do you think the spirit might be improved?

Anonymous, sophomore: It seems to lag sometimes. Many people don't even seem to enjoy attending the football games. One thing that might revive the spirit is to build that much needed student center.

John Bryan, senior: In the first place I don't think there's a big lack of it. The freshmen have a lot of it; it's the upperclassmen who have the least spirit. I don't see that there's a thing to be done for it, except to continue planned activities such as pep rallies.

Ann Vines, sophomore: I think it's pretty good, especially at the first of the year. During football and basketball seasons the spirit is at its highest peak.

Bobby Rose, senior: What difference does it make? If it'll help the food in the dining hall, I'm all for it!

Mike Lupfer, junior: The lack of school spirit is the price we have to pay for the non-subsidized athletic program that we have. Any sort of spirit that the students have is taken up by sorority and fraternity activities.

Weenie Wisdom, sophomore: The only solution is bottled spirits!

Campus Delegates Attend Conference On National Affairs

Southwestern is sending delegates for the second year to the Student Conference on National Affairs, held annually at Texas A & M College. Annette Ranier and Drane Adams, along with Dr. Ross Pritchard, Professor of International Studies, will attend the conference, which will be held December 11-14. Both students are participants in the recently created Department of International Studies at Southwestern.

Night Out

By Tennessee

WELL! Praise the Lord and pass the ammunition because it's gonna be a good old weekend! Never before has there been such good news to report. You have your choice of Homecoming, movies, and anything else your pitiful little heart might desire. Hollywood has actually seen fit to give us some excellent movies this week, and Mike Lupfer is surely going to provide us with a good homecoming. So throw your hat in the air and let us have a Ball!

The pick of the crop this week is Pursuit of the Graf Spee, which concerns the capture of a German submarine at the mouth of the Rio Plata. Pursuit is a British cinema, and is one of those Lord-knows-how-many-awards deals. It stars Peter Finch, named by Sir Laurence Olivier as the greatest living actor, and Anthony Quayle, of Shakespeare fame. This pic, no kidding, is No. 1 and if you've got a brain in your head you'll go see it. It's at the Strand and I hope it will be held over for many many weeks.

All present students of Basileus Frey and all past students of ex-Prof. George Toulitatos will make a dromos for the Guild to see Bed of Grass, which is IN GREEK!!! Modern greek, of course, but that's beside the point. Greek movies are pretty rare around ole Memphis, and you'd better catch it while you can. It will broaden your Liberal Ed. by making you realize that all Greeks are not like Aristotle Onassis and Maria Menenghi Callas. It is also reputed to be rather sexy, which will no doubt appeal to all students who haven't had Greek.

The Malco has The 3 Faces of Eve, recommended for all students of Dr. Queener. Also for anybody else who likes to see a good movie. I haven't seen it, but all my few miserable friends tell me it's excellent. Split Personality is the subject, so go see a forecast of what you'll be like after 3 years and a month at S'western.

Another nicety on the agenda is The Master Builder, (surely you remember Ibsen), which Ray Hill's Center Theater is doing tonite and tomorrow nite in the Adult Ed. The Cast of Thousands includes such Southwesternites as Lamar Rickey and Joanna Kindig, bless that girl. It ought to be worth going to see, just for Joanna.

On Satiddy, Oct. 26, Ballet Theatre will come to this hick town and feed those who are able to afford it huge masses of culture. By casually examining the inside of my pockets, I am able to foresee that I will remain uncultured. Pigeons on the Grass, Alas, but that's the way the cookie crumbles.

There's really nothing else left to do but make 30 minute collect phone calls to your most intimate friends in Alaska, throw rocks at Mr. Pack, or go on a Sputnik hunt. But I beg of you on bended caloused knee to go and see Pursuit of the Graf Spee. You won't regret it.

Remember, white folks, the motto for today:

When in doubt: commit suicide. HOMECOMING!!!

apply for next year's Marshall Scholarship awards enabling them to study at a British University for two years. Applications must be in by October 31, 1957.

The Marshall Scholarship scheme was started in 1953 as a token of Britain's thanks for Marshall Aid.

Twelve scholarships are awarded every year. Any American student of either sex, married or single, may apply, but they must be under 28 on October 1, 1958, and have graduated from an American university.

Each award is worth 550 pounds ($1,540) a year. Passage is paid to and from the United Kingdom. Married men get an extra allowance.

Successful candidates are chosen for their character as well as scholastic attainments.

Four Regional Committees—the Eastern, Southern, Middle Western and Pacific—consider the applications first and would-be winners should apply to the British Consul-General in one of the following

Elections Commission Head Explains Action

To the Student Body:

As a consequence of an over-all looseness in wording of the Elections Commission constitution and a resulting lack of specific statement of run-off procedures for campus elections, there has arisen this week a situation which has been unfortunate both for the Commission and for the individuals concerned.

This situation necessitated a unanimous ruling of the Election Commission allowing only votes cast for people whose names appeared on the ballot in the final election for Homecoming Queen to be counted.

I would like to make two points clear. First, this ruling was made entirely within the powers of the Elections Commission as they are enumerated in the Student Body constitution. Second, this ruling was fully in accord with the standing policies of the Commission in administering elections, and was not therefore a precedent-setting move in any way.

four-day meeting will include numerous other world-prominent figures from the fields of business, politics and education.

The Student Conference on National Affairs, which will be attended by outstanding students from approximately 65 colleges in the United States, Mexico and Canada, is planned and presented by students of Texas A. & M. College as an activity of the Memorial Student Center, the College union.

SCONA is financed entirely through the fund-raising efforts of its student workers, who must "sell" SCONA to individuals, foundations and corporations before the conference can be held.

In an early fall meeting, the conference program was set to cover United States relations in the following general areas: (1) The Middle East, (2) Europe, (3) The Western Hemisphere, (4) Africa, and (5) The Far East. The meeting will feature individual speakers, and both roundtable and panel discussions, with conferees expected to hold the usual informal after-meeting sessions common to such a conference.

Lynx Aim To Remove Kangaroo's Bounce

Southwestern and Austin will match identical 1-2 records for the season when they clash in tomorrow's Homecoming tilt at Fargason Field.

Statistically there is little to go by in picking the stronger team. Southwestern's line averages about 190 pounds, while Austin scales 193. Kangaroo backfield averages 174 pounds per man, heavier than the Lynx's 165. Southwestern offense has produced seven touchdowns while Austin has scored only three touchdowns in three games.

8. And it came to pass that King Ike spake the words given unto him by Herbert Brownell saying, "Hearken unto me, my people, and give ear unto me, oh, my nation, for an order shall proceed from me, an order like unto none ever to be given by those who reigned before me."

10. Thus spake King Ike of the House of Eisenhower, "And, it came to pass that the NAACPites marvelled at the wisdom of their King, but there was wailing and gnashing of teeth among those in Both clubs have veteran lines. The Kangaroo backfield is relatively inexperienced. Chief backs for Austin are fullback Jerry Hodges who ran 65 yards last Saturday against Ouachita as the kangaroos won their first game 21-7. Coach Joe Spenser also has another highly rated scoring threat in halfback Claude Burton, a junior college transfer. The only letterman in the starting backfield is halfback Paul Branum. Probable starting quarterback is freshman Charles Miller of Dallas, one of the few freshmen in the last five years to step into the starting booth for the hoppers. Defensive line stand-outs include Gerry Boren, topnotch pass receiver and end, center Bob Cavender, and guard Jack Manes.

Southwestern's fans can expect an offensive battle. Though Austin touchdown production has been at a minimum so far this season, the Kangaroos are coached by former pro Joe Spenser who utilizes many tricks of the pro trade. Austin plays a tougher schedule than Southwestern, and in the last season the Lynx bowed 52-20.

Quarterback Bill Young, severely bruised in the Centre game, has not worked out this week at all, but will be ready to play tomorrow. Fullback Bobby Fulghum is a doubtful starter due to a cleat injury. Other backs are in top shape including touchdown leaders Tommy Clinton and Dick Foster. This game will probably be won up front. Southwestern's forward wall, outcharged against Centre, will have to tighten up defensively and as they have done all season give the Lynx attack a chance to roll.

11. "What manner of king is this that would in the twinkling of an eye change that which since the memory of man runneth not to the contrary and is foreign to the covenant handed down to us by our fathers . . .?"

12. And it came to pass that King Ike closed his ears to their protests, and a people who believed in constitutional government rose up and smote him down election year 1960.

Harrier Meet Held Here

Contributing to the homecoming festivities tomorrow morning will be the Lynx first cross-country meet over Southwestern's course. The Red and Black harriers go against Union University of Jackson Tennessee in an effort to even the Lynx' 1-2 season record.

Even while running on their own track, the Lynx may find Union a tough match. Earlier in the season the Bulldog thinclads made a strong Memphis State team hustle before the Tigers could muster a victory.

A considerable handicap to this year's cross-country team has been the unusually large number of injuries. The Lynx have had to run at half or two-thirds strength and have not as yet realized their full potential. While the greater part of early season injuries have healed, it has just been learned that team captain Bob Welsh will be sidelined for two more weeks and is not expected to compete before the last meet.

Centre Upends Lynx, 21-13

A line that seemed to make no mistakes and third quarter ball control kept Centre in the driver's seat as they ground out a 21-13 victory over Southwestern in Danville, Kentucky, Saturday night.

Centre had stomped to a 7-0 lead by half-time. In the third quarter they dominated the offensive side of the game and pushed for their second score, picked up the P.A.T. and led 14-0.

The fourth quarter produced three drives to pay dirt—one by Centre which iced the game. This was the Lynx's quarter. Speedy Dick Foster sailed into the end zone twice, with Shep Crigler putting his toe to the ball for an extra point.

Quarterback Billy Young, the mighty midget, danced 84 yards on the ground and unleashed a passing attack for 56 more to end up with 140 yards net gain for the night. Bobby Fulghum picked up 44 from the power slot. All in all, Southwestern rolled up 292 yards total offense.

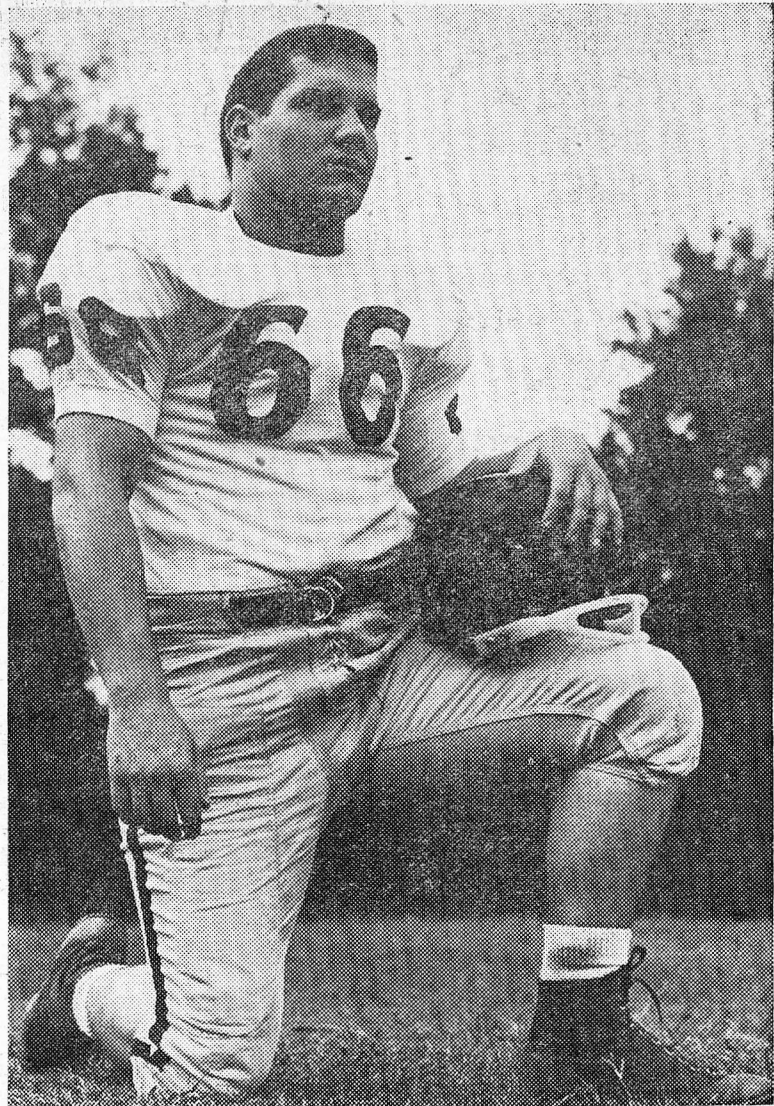

Centre is history—it is said history sometimes repeats itself—Young gained 204 yards and completed 17 of 24 passes against Austin last year—tomorrow we play Austin. Our lines average about even in the weight department. The Kangaroos may concentrate on Young after his performance last year. If this happens, keep your eyes open, for we have a good forward wall, led by Little All-American candidate John Kopsinis, and a speedy backfield to carry the mail to victory as quarterback Billy hands off the ball.

ment; the Reverend Homer C. Carrier, rector of the Church of the Good Shepherd; the Reverend Don W. Davidson, pastor of Glenview Presbyterian Church; and Dean Alfred O. Canon, Dean of Alumni of Southwestern.

Dr. Russell is regarded as one of the outstanding ministers of the Alabama Synod. He received his B.A. degree from Davidson College in 1930, his B.D. from Columbia Theological Seminary and his M.A. from the University of Georgia in 1933, and was awarded a Doctor of Divinity degree by Presbyterian College in Clinton, South Carolina, in 1945. He has held a number of pastorates in Georgia and Alabama, and has been pastor of Trinity Church since 1944.

A NUMBER TO WATCH—is 66, worn by 210 pound guard John Kopsinis, who is a likely claimant for Little All-America honors this season. Kopsinis will be in action when the Lynx tackle Austin in tomorrow's Homecoming game.

commandments and white man's customs. With the expellation of basic freedoms of God, land and family, the Mau Mau arose. There were atrocities on both sides, but the principle of the African was necessary to his life, and that of his children—thus he fought.

The problem of difference is an apparent one, not only in the states but the world over. It resides in the persecution of the untouchables in India. The problem of black versus white is a great one in France and Britain. In Japan it is the Chinese who are undermined.

The students and leaders of the world are looking to the greatest symbol of freedom today for a mature answer. Their criticism lies not in our problem but in the method. It is the Faubuses of America that we credit the name "barbaric," it is the violence of Arkansas for which we gain the name "immature." Generally it's the uneducated who fear the rise of the negro but to those who have seen the greatness of the negro the problem presents a challenge to secure the place in the story of man's development that he deserves. He will receive his due in Africa for his mind is great, wise and noble, his heart true. We, too could raise the American negro to a position of contribution. This is my hope and the hope of serious students of all creeds, all nationalities, all colors in the free world today.

Bob Welsh, Commissioner of Athletics, next discussed school spirit. It had been suggested that a pep squad be formed and a small committee to suggest better ways to promote school spirit work with Bob. He suggested that the pep squad not be formed because of the number of organizations on campus already.

"Will the Student Council sell Southwestern stickers?" was the question directed to Anne Underwood. She stated that these sheets of decals will go on sale Monday, October 21, in the cloister from 11:30 until 1:00. The price will be twenty-five cents per sheet.

Louis Zbinden discussed possible ways to speed up the lunch lines. Louis had talked to Mr. Pack who said that the fault of confusion was in the construction of the building. The main conflict seems to be at lunch with three lines. It is suggested that if anyone wants to eat in the new dining room, he must come in the new door.
