Freshman Elections Now Being Held

Top Place To Weber, Duffy or Shrader

NOMINATED MONDAY
Final Ballot Expected To Be Cast Tomorrow

Balloting for Freshman class officers will take place tomorrow morning as the first year students vote in the run-off election to choose their leaders, the Election Commission announces.

Nominations for Freshman class officers were made in Chapel last Monday and Louis Weber, Bill Duffy, and Mike Shrader are in the contest for the office of President.

Nominated for the Vice-Presidency are Bill Metzger, Jimmy James, and Bob Crumby.

Elma Wiley, Greta Graham, Sue Pingree, and Mary Nell Wendt are candidates for the position of Secretary-Treasurer.

Traditionally, Freshman elections are as hotly contested as any on the campus. Balloting is expected to be heavy and the vote close.

A primary vote was taken yesterday and tomorrow's elections will probably be the final one.

Students are reminded of the Election Commission rule that there will be no campaigning the day of the election. Neither will there be any attempts to influence voting or to aid voters at the voting places.

Get Cuts Excused Within One Week

To Ease Rush At End Of Semester

Students are to report to Dean Johnson's office within one week after taking a class or chapel cut to make application for excuse. This is to ease the end-of-semester rush for cut excuses which has been traditional for so many years, Dean Johnson announces. It will also cause students to apply for excuse while their reason for doing so is still fresh in mind.

Three unexcused cuts will still be permitted without penalty. As nine cuts are allowed in chapel, the need to excuse cuts in it is not so pressing, though it is advisable to clear these soon after taking them, too. Class cuts, however, should be cleared through the Dean's office as soon as possible each time.

Backward Dance On November 2

Girls Invite Boys To Annual Affair

The luckiest day of the year for many a Southwestern co-ed will be November 2. For the annual Torch Backward Dance will take place that afternoon from 5 to 8 in the Voorhies Playroom, giving the girls a chance to give that aloof Tall Dark and Handsome an "Invitation to the Dance."

Tickets for each girl, stag or drag, will be fifty cents. Proceeds will go towards paying for the semester's Torch Luncheon for all women students making a 'B' average.

The big moment of the evening will be the unveiling of said co-ed's own Dream Man, whom she will elect in chapel on October 27 and 28. A special dance with the Torch Dream Man will be awarded to the fortunate girl whose ticket bears the lucky number.

Date of Faculty Recital Changed

The date of the faculty recital to be given by Burnet C. Tuthill, Miles Markuseh, and Myron Myers, has been changed from November 1 to November 15.

Hill Chooses Cast Of Lost Horizon; One Part Open

Job First Reading For Man Class

Professor Raymond S. Hill has selected the cast for Lost Horizon, which will be presented in Hardie Auditorium on November 30 and December 1 and 2. The play is dramatized by Anne Coulter Martens and Christopher Sergel from the novel by James Hilton.

The cast, in order of appearance, is as follows:

Myra, Ann Brown; Elizabeth, Joan Stewart; Wyland, Woody Morris; Rutherford, David Morelock; Chang, Albert Nelius; Conway, Walter Lazenby; Mallinson, Bob Craven; Miss Brinklow, Marie Norment; Mr. Henry Barnard, Jack Vincent; Lo Tsen, Peggy Au Yang; Helen Briac, Louise Tate; The High Lama, Tommy Killough; Tashi, Vivienne Chilton.

Reading Of Job

The part of Ai-Ling is still to be chosen and any girl of small stature who would be interested is urged to try out. The production staff will be announced later.

At two-thirty in the afternoon of November 1, The Players will give a reading performance of the Biblical book of Job in Hardie Auditorium. This will be followed in later weeks by similar reading performances, Aeschylus' "Prometheus Bound," Sophocles' "Oedipus Rex," Aristophanes' "The Clouds," and Plautus' "The Rope," which are primarily for the Man class but will be free to the public also.

Reading Cast

The cast for the presentation of the book of Job is:
Narrator, Ann Brown; Jehovah, David Morelock; Satan and Eli-phaz, Albert Nelius; Bildad, Bob Craven; Zophar, Walter Lazenby; Elihu, Tommy Killough; Job, Professor Hill; Job's wife, Vivienne Chilton.

Supporting roles will be played by Robert Bennett, Martha McClanahan, Elizabeth Moore, Jackie Newman, Jackie Roland, Nancy Schroeder, Joan Stewart, and Louise Tate.

Campus Maid To Be Named—Enter Now

Sororities and fraternities are reminded that they have only a little more than two weeks to get their entry in the Campus Maid of Cotton contest to be held in Hardie Auditorium November 14. Fame and fortune awaits the lovely chosen as the 1950 Maid of Cotton.

Intercollegiate Meet To Be Held Here December 28

Speakers and Discussions Will Be Featured

By MARY REESE
The Intercollegiate Forum, sponsored by the Student Council of Southwestern, will be held at the college on December 28. This is the annual event in which Memphis students who attend colleges and universities all over the United States are invited to discuss matters common to them all and to foster a spirit of unity among them.

These student representatives, home for Christmas holidays, are chosen by their respective schools on the basis of campus leadership, scholarship, character, and service. However, this is by no means an exclusive meeting — any person may come, provided he makes his reservation two weeks in advance.

One Day Affair

The one-day affair is to begin at ten o'clock in the morning, continue through lunch, hold an afternoon session, and close with an open house. The program is made up of speakers and round table discussions on topics chosen by the representatives themselves. The subjects therefore will be interesting and enlightening to all students in general, because they will be about things which the students wish to know.

Each year an out-of-town speaker (who last year was Bill Welsh, president of the National Student Association), is brought in for one of the main topics, which is supplemented by other talks. The whole meeting is free with the exception that non-representatives must pay for their own lunch in Neely Hall.

Royalty Named For Homecoming; Smith, Hill, Roberds Reign

Patty Smith won the student body election to gain the title of Homecoming Queen for 1949, the first year the position has been an elective one. Other members of the royal court are Nancy Hill, S Club Princess and Jeanne Roberds, Football Team Princess.

Patty, an officer in Alpha Omicron Pi sorority, was a Princess last year. She is a Junior, a member of the YWCA, and is a model for Frances Ross Shops.

Nancy, also a Princess last year, is Rush Chairman for Chi Omega, a member of SABA, the YWCA, and is President of the French Club.

Jeanne is Pledge Mistress of Chi Omega, Publicity Chairman of the Christian Union Cabinet, Secretary of the Junior Class, and Vice-President of STAB.

All three of the girls were in the run-offs for the student body election of Homecoming Queen.

Freshmen Find Fault In Sou'wester, But Most Approve It

"Give a criticism of The Sou'wester" was the assignment Prof. Vowles gave his Freshman English classes a few days ago.

Most of the Freshmen voiced approval of the make-up and literary quality of the paper, but one poor Freshman confessed his difficulty with the numerous "five dollar words." The sports page received universal approval and ran in close competition with Prof. Sprunt's column ("Chapel Chimes" in the October 13 issue) in reader interest.

Note Repetition

The feature lacking but most desired seemed to be one giving short biographies of students with unusual interests and abilities—not "B.M.O.C.'s," they said, just human beings. Naturally all the students denied interest in gossip columns.

Some students noticed repetition in headlines and others found the article "Upstairs in Palmer" lacking in actual information about the library and its books.

Prof. Vowles expressed pleasure at the pride shown by the students in their school paper.

(EDITOR'S NOTE: We appreciate any and all intelligent criticism of The Sou'wester. If you have any fault to find or suggestions to make, notify the editors or leave a note in the office. We can't put out a perfect paper — we can probably find more mistakes than any of you. But with your help we will try to put out a perfect paper and we hope to come close to our goal.)

Rhodes To Attend AUU Meeting In Chicago

Dr. Rhodes plans to attend the annual meeting of the Association of Urban Universities, of which Southwestern is a member, in Chicago Monday, October 31.

He and Mrs. Rhodes plan to be present at the inauguration of Dr. Boylston Green as Vice-Chancellor and President of the University of the South at Sewanee November 4.

Homecoming Activity Climaxed Saturday

Dance To Wind Up Celebration; Royalty To Be Introduced

The Student Council will climax Saturday's Homecoming festivities with an alumni-student body dance from 9-12 in the gym. The dance will be formal for women, but men may wear business suits.

Jim Carey's band will play. There will be two no-breaks, the football team leadout, and a special no-break for the actives and alumni of the fraternity selling the most tickets.

Decorations in the gym will feature clusters of multi-colored balloons and multi-colored crepe paper streamers.

To Present Trophies

The first no-break will be at 9:45. At 10:30 Commissioner of Social Activities Robert Edington will introduce the Queen and Princesses after which will be the football team's leadout. At 11:00 Franklin Kimbrough, President of the Alumni Association, will present the traveling trophies to the sorority and fraternity adjudged to have the best homecoming decorations.

At this time, Mr. Kimbrough will also present a prize of $10.00 credit for records to the fraternity selling the most dance tickets. A special no-break for the actives and alumni of the winning fraternity will immediately follow.

Chaperones for the event will include Dr. and Mrs. W. Raymond Cooper, Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Hon, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Springfield, Prof. and Mrs. Gordon Southard, and Prof. Julian Nall.

Debate Members Named By Hill

Nationalization Of Basic Industry Is Topic

This year's debaters, as announced by Professor Hill of the Speech Department, will be: Bill Rawlins, Jack Vincent, Bill Sharp, Lee Fisher, Bob Starr, Walter Harris, Kenneth Forbes, Henry Freund, John Van den Bosch, Duncan Clark, Gerald Pierce, and Mrs. Doris Harwood.

At least one more woman debater is sought as a partner for Mrs. Harwood, as two is the minimum number for a debating unit, and women are not permitted to team with men debaters.

The topic for debate will be: Resolved that the United States should nationalize all basic non-agricultural industries.

Time and place for the debate tournaments will be announced when the debate manuals arrive.

Ball Game, Dancing Features of Day

NO CLASSES MEET

Banquet For Alumni In Field House

By SUE CARRELL

Student and alumni events will fill Saturday, October 29, the official Homecoming Day. Saturday has been declared a holiday, and no classes will meet.

Members of the Freshman class will assemble at 9:30 outside the gym to decorate the parade cars with black and red crepe paper streamers.

Judging at 12:30

Sorority and fraternity members will spend this time decorating the front and lawns of their lodges. Each organization may follow any theme it desires. The decoration will be judged on the basis of originality of design, but beauty, workmanship, and arrangement of detail will be considered.

Judging of the decorations will take place at 12:30, following the parade. The winners will be announced and cups awarded at the dance.

A parade through the downtown section will begin at 11:00. The Homecoming Queen, her two princesses, and members of the student body will ride down Main Street in gaily decorated automobiles.

Parade Route

All cars in the parade are to meet downtown by 11:30 at a place to be announced later. The order of the parade will be: the parade marshal's car, the Southwestern Band, the Queen, the Princesses, and the cheerleaders in convertibles, and then the Greek organizations in alphabetical order. A police escort will lead the parade.

The route to be followed is as follows: South on Main to Linden, down Linden to Central, and out Central to Memphis State College. Everyone is urged to remain in the parade and to go no faster than the lead car.

Southwestern will play Hendrix at Hodge Field at 2:30 in the afternoon. After the game, all Greek letter groups will hold open houses, the sorority houses remaining open until 8:00 in the evening and the fraternity lodges until 9:00. The fraternity lodges will remain open to the later hour to give visiting alumni a place to (Continued on Page 4)

Chi O To Honor Football Squad

To Open House Friday Before Homecoming

Starting off a gay Homecoming weekend will be the Chi Omega Open House Friday honoring the football team. The Chi O House will be decorated to carry out the football theme. All the student body is invited to attend the event, which will begin at 5 and end at 7 in the afternoon.

Jane Beasley is in charge of decorations. Refreshments will be arranged by a committee headed by Mary Clay Farr. Ann Marie Caskey will arrange entertainment.

The Open House will end at 7 in order to permit those attending to go to a pep rally, which will be followed by informal dancing in the gym.

Dean's Office Announces Six Pledge Sororities

The following girls were pledged by sororities Wednesday, October 12:

Chi Omega: Sarah Loaring-Clark; Delta Delta Delta: Dianne Dennison, Betty Guthrie and Barbara Wilbur; Kappa Delta: Gloria Brown and Mary Joyce Inman.

Announcement of this pledging is made by Mrs. Noble Hicks, the assistant Dean of Women.

THE LYNX CATS AND COACHES MAP OUT strategy to be used against the Hendrix Warriors in the Homecoming game Saturday. Athletic Director Al Clemens, (right) and Backfield Coach Parker Hall use a chalk talk period to make plans for the Lynx attack.

Southwestern has defeated Hendrix for the last two years, but the Warriors are reported to have a stronger team this year than anytime since the war.

Read Frosh's Traits From Their Tags? Could Be So

Staff Photo

FRESHMAN SIGNS ARE MORE THAN NAMEPLATES, as evidenced by the variety of tags shown above. The psychologists might read character from the signs which range from the solid, dependable block-lettered name and home town to the dignified Old English and the warm and friendly script.

Something of the nature of the wearer might be guessed from the art work adorning many of the signs. The cute little Rebel on the left probably came to Southwestern because she read last year's April Fool edition of THE SOU'WESTER.

Homecoming Not Homegoing

Again the administration has granted a holiday for the Homecoming celebration. It would be wise for students to remember that it is "Homecoming" and not "Homegoing" day.

In the past, when such holidays have been granted, students participated in a mass exodus rather than the planned activities. Since it is not practical to have the annual Homecoming celebration in Union Station, Southwesterners are advised to remain in Memphis and participate in the activities here.

The Student Council has worked many hours planning the events scheduled for the day and deserve the cooperation of all students. A grand time is promised all who attend.

Official Fight Song For College

Now in progress is a contest by which it is hoped that Southwestern will gain an official fight song that will become traditional. This contest has the whole-hearted support and cooperation of THE SOUTHWESTER. One of the most valuable assets of any college is a rich tradition that fosters what is usually called "school spirit" but is actually much more than that.

Southwestern is rich in a tradition of a very high quality. But much of this tradition is not met from day to day. It is a tradition that is found in books and speeches and thought of at certain events but yet, it is not ever-present in the student body. Our tradition is a little too much OF the past instead of FROM the past.

A good, stirring pep song will, we feel, do much to unify the student body, arouse the now dormant school spirit, and bring the tradition of your college to you.

Let's Sing The Alma Mater

While on the subject of tradition and school spirits, a suggestion came up in Student Council meeting that we would like to support and add to. It was suggested that the Alma Mater be sung by the students in Chapel every Friday and Saturday morning. Some do not know the tune, was the reason given.

Not only is it a good idea to sing the Alma Mater a little oftener than Convocation and Graduation, but we think it would be a good idea to establish the tradition of singing the Alma Mater as the students leave the Chapel. Perhaps it would help to end the mad rush that now takes place.

Musical Memphis

By JIMMY COBB
The Southwestern Chamber Music Society has announced its plans for the 1949-50 season. As in the past, four concerts will be given, three by The Southwestern String Quartet, composed of Noel Gilbert and Mary Jane Kirkendol, violins; Ruth Wood Tuthill, viola; and Phyllis Thornburg, violon-cello, assisted by various guest artists, and one will be given by a visiting group.

The first concert will be given on Tuesday evening, November 8, at The Memphis College of Music, where tickets are now on sale.

A lot of mail comes into town these days addressed to 1822 Overton Park Avenue, The Memphis College of Music, Southwestern's music department. It's mail from all over the country, letters from former students now in New York, California, Canada, or Mexico, or correspondence from prominent American musicians; for the director of the college, Dr. Burnet C. Tuthill, is secretary of the National Association of Schools of Music, and as such, he sees to it that Southwestern's music department ranks with the best.

Prominent Backgrounds
Far from the picture that an unfamiliar person might have, our music faculty is a group of people active in many fields: teachers of piano, voice, violin, harp, band instruments, music theory, music history, conducting and a number of other things, who do not stop with their routine work, but carry their interests over into orchestra work, theater work, church work, and many other phases of activity.

Looking at the backgrounds of a lot of our professors, you can see the names of many prominent people who had a part in their training. You'll see names like Schumann-Heinek, Artur Schnabel, Egon Petri, or Carlos Salzedo.

Never Ending Vigil
Many of you drop over occasionally to see some nervous student suffer through the ordeals of a senior recital, and after sweating the evening out with him, return to normal life. But the music students—theirs is a never-ending vigil: daily pilgrimages through the zoo to practice rooms where we either beat out scales at the piano, exercises on the bassoon, or the hours and hours of OH's OH-AH's and OH-WE AH's of the voice student.

May Hit Bigtime
Of course there's always the fear that when we're out of school people won't flock to hear us just as they somehow don't seem to hang around the practice rooms now. But we can't think about that. We figure that somebody's got to take Horowitz's place sooner or later, and that Bing Crosby can't last forever.

Quota: A Latin word meaning "Boy! How surprised we'll be if we get anything like that much."

It was a case of love at purse sight.

By HELMINTH
The Bookworm

This is the age of titles by quotations. Gone are the days when one could rightly guess the contents of a volume by the title. Some bemoan the passing of such forthright titles as The History of Pendernis, The Cloister and the Hearth or the provocative title as Can You Forgive Her?

But as for me, I find it rather intriguing to encounter a title which sounds vaguely familiar, and then proceed to track it down to its source.

In my literary wanderings I've compiled a short list of quotation-titles.

The following are titles of well-known novels, quoted from literature. Can you name the author and the work from which it comes?

1. This Above All—Eric Knight
2. Gone With The Wind—Margaret Mitchell
3. Far From The Madding Crowd—Thomas Hardy
4. Told By An Idiot—Rose Macauley
5. Sound and Fury—William Faulkner
6. Now I Lay Me Down To Sleep—Ludwig Bemelmann
7. Even As The Sun—Elizabeth D'Oyley
8. Fame In The Spur—Howard Spring
9. So Red The Rose—Stark Young
10. Eyeless In Gaza—Aldous Huxley

De Rerum Natura

By BOB CRAVEN

My good friend, Joe, the truck-driver, and I were talking the other night and he was telling me about his night at the Ballet. It seems that he had been standing on a street corner, just whiling away an evening, when a stranger walked up to him, put a ticket in his hand and said, "Here bub, go to the Ballet. I can't use this tonight."

And so Joe, obliging person that he is, went. This is what he saw, in his own words:

"Well, de foist thing that happens, is dat a lot of guys in monkey suits comes out with fiddles, horns, drums, and all kinds of funny lookin' instruments and sits down underneath the stage. Then they starts to play, but they can't get together, so the guy what runs the whole woiks has to come out and scare them into playin' right. De way he does this is to stand up in front of them and wave a stick at them. Then they gets so scared that they plays together.

Then, de next thing that happens is dat a goil dressed up in a bathin' suit with stockings on and feathers in her hair, comes out onto the stage. Now she's more scared than these guys what plays the instruments, 'cause she starts running around like maybe something's after her. Then after a while I figure maybe she's beginnin' to see things, like snakes or something, 'cause besides all dis runnin' around she's doing, she starts to jump up and down all de time.

"Then, things begin to get kinda' confusing 'cause a whole bunch of dames comes runnin' out onto the stage, and they is all dressed just like this foist babe what looks like she's just scared stiff. Now I figure at foist, that the gal with the feathers is running' from all the rest, but foist thing you know, she's runnin' up to every one of them and puttin' her arms around them like they was her long lost sisters.

"So after that the only thing I can figure is that this whole bunch just don't know what the whole things about and just need a little more rehearsing. But just about de time I'm gettin' up to go home, the funniest thing you ever seen happens. A guy comes jumpin' out onto de stage dressed up in blue underwear.

"I figure that this guy has been asleep and forgot about bein' in dis ballet and when he wakes up he don't have time to dress. And so I think this is about the funniest thing what ever happened so I starts to laugh, but there ain't nobody else what thinks its funny, so I figured right then that maybe people ain't got much of no sense of humor.

"Now after this guy in de underwear comes out, de gal with feathers starts runnin' around and jumpin' more than ever, so now I'm beginning to figure that this here's the guy she's scared of. And sure enough, that's it. He starts chasing her all over the stage, and then when he can't catch her he gets so mad he jumps up in the air and stamps his feet all over the place. Then he gets madder and madder and he chases all the other dames around a while, and they get so scared that they all runs off the stage.

"Now while he's runnin' after the other dames, the gal with the feathers in her hair hides behind a tree, and when the guy in de underwear starts lookin' for her again he's so sleepy still that he can't find her.

"Then another guy what's dressed in underwear too comes out onto de stage, and both of them starts fightin' and chasin' each other around. Then both of them sees the dame hidin' behind the tree so they decides to team up and catch her. And sure enough they do.

"Then they starts throwin' that poor little gal around like she's a sack of flour, until all the rest of the dames come out again. Now I figure they must have changed their minds 'cause they start chasin' these here two men now, and when they catch up with them, they all crowd around and bend down and start kissin' each other's feet.

"Now I can't figure this, so I gets up and leave. And if I ever see that guy what gave me a ticket and said go see the ballet, I'm goin' to bust him in the mouth."

Man's goings are of the Lord; how can a man then understand his own way?—Prov. XX 24.

Be quiet, why this anxious heed About thy tangled ways? God knows them all, He giveth speed, And He allows delays.

—E. W.

We complain of the slow, dull life we are forced to lead, of our humble sphere of action, of our low position in the scale of society, of our having no room to make ourselves known, of our wasted energies, of our years of patience.

So do we say that we have no Father who is directing our life; so do we say that God has forgotten us; so do we boldly judge what life is best for us; and so by our complaining do we lose the use and profit of the quiet years.

O men of little faith! Because you are not sent out yet into your labor, do you think God has ceased to remember you? Because you are forced to be outwardly inactive, do you think you, also, may not be, in your years of quiet, "about your Father's business."

It is a period given to us in which to mature ourselves for the work which God will give us to do. —Stopford A. Brooke Fargason Field was well decorated for the Mississippi State game last Saturday. There was little confusion in getting seats for the crowd. The goal posts carried colors of the two teams that seemed to beckon each eleven to cross them. Some 4,000 people attended the game and were promptly escorted to the waiting seats.

Through the courtesy of Lloyd (Bucky) Harris, manager, Southwestern is to broadcast a program over WMC each Friday night until the football season is over. This means has been adopted to advertise the weekly football games played by Southwestern Lynx at Fargason Field every Saturday afternoon at three o'clock.

Through an error made by the staff last week it was stated in the story about the YWCA Halloween party that entertainment "would consist of music and dancing." Naturally, the statement created quite a stir. There will be dancing, but it will be aesthetic dancing. Pardon, please.

Opera 'Super' Success As Southwestern Students Star; Idiots Enjoy Evening In Rear Of Footlights

Last Minute Addition to the Program:
New "Characters"
Village Idiot.....Roscoe Feild
Just as Idiomatic.....David Morelock, Walter Bustard, Bob Matthews, Morton McMilland.

Our College students will do anything to save money, actually anything. Saturday night was a perfect example. We were all ready to begin the calm, uneventful job of having a leading part in the theater—ushering—so as to see the Opera for nothing. We wound up seeing nothing because of the Opera. Because I happened to be standing on an inconspicuous step at the moment of choosing I was picked as one of the "five tall boys needed as supernumeraries."

We didn't like that title from the beginning, but as we came closer to five large trunks filled with glittering costumes our spirits rose with the visions of ourselves as gay troubadours in feathered hats, golden sashes, and footlights too.

But the wardrobe lady didn't stop us until we had gone far beyond the glamour and stood before five little bundles of rags complete with nothing but the olfactory remains of last seasons supers.

By some strong coercion, it may have been by mesmerism, we soon were with ten other suspicious looking characters who all but harnessed us to keep us with them while they ran all over the stage throwing their arms around, drinking, shouting, and kissing all the pretty chorus girls. We caught on very quickly. That is, until we discovered that everyone spoke Italian. But under those circumstances language was not a hindrance anyway. Why, very soon we were singing as if we had seen the music, if that would have helped! True S'Sillyians we were.

Later in the evening we spotted a vague shadowy figure just beyond the footlights who seemed to want to help us. Or maybe he needed help—he had an awfully hard time keeping his balance. But after a couple of extra ding dongs, from the chorus of the same name, by our tallest member, he completely ignored us. We called our tallest member the "Village Idiot." I think an explanation is unnecessary.

Everyone was very nice to us, even Marguerite McClelland—from a distance. She said we were the nicest horses she had ever been pulled by. We had never pulled anything nicer either.

We soon learned that the chorus girls were definitely indecorous. They kept the off-stage action much more entertaining.

We were rather hurt at the absence of any comment by the critics. Poor people—they give the best jeers of their lives to the theater.

We received another blow the next day when someone told us that we were supposed to have received one dollar per head for our services. They not only dressed us as idiots but treated us the same way.

Moral—"Art Never Pays" and "Never Volunteer."

To the Editor:

Two years ago someone made such a sensible suggestion in this "Letters to the Editor" column that I am still aghast that it has not been carried out. You'd think college men and women would know a good thing when they see it (especially in newspaper print)!

The suggestion was that some agency for selling second hand books should be set up somewhere on the campus. I know how it is with me: at the first of school I'm usually too rushed to be able to hunt for second hand books or to try to sell my own. Then think of the poor Senior who can't come back to the campus just to sell his accumulation of text-books, but who would like to get a little of his investment back if he could.

Having a book-store would solve the problem for all of us. You could leave your own discards there at one trip, or at one trip check on second-hand copies of ones you want. That's the way you save both money and time.

Couldn't the Student Council, if not the regular book store, take on this project? It would win the blessing of a lot of us for who ever took the project on, I'm sure.

Yours truly,

Choctaws Defeat Lynx In Close 19-13 Game

Doyle Snags Passes For Both Touchdowns

Southwestern dropped its second consecutive contest to Mississippi College last Saturday night in Clinton, Mississippi, by a score of 19-13. The Lynx saw Mississippi College take a 6-0 lead in the second quarter, tied it up in the third, then fell behind once more as the Choctaws came rushing back.

Mississippi College opened the scoring in the waning moments on the first half. The score culminated a march of some 35 yards after a 30 yard punt return by James Henderson. David Lee and James Coleman alternated in punching at the Lynx forward wall, with Lee finally driving across. Wilson's conversion attempt was unsuccessful, the half ending with the Chocs leading 6-0.

Lynx Tie Game

Southwestern got back in the game immediately after the second half began. Bob Crumby brought the kickoff back to the Lynx 31. On the first play Jack Doyle went in motion, and sprinted down the right sidelines, where Crumby found him with a pass on the middle field stripe. Doyle hauled it in and outran the defensive backfield to knot the game. Bill Sparks' place kick was wide.

Mississippi College took the lead again midway in the third period on a 40 yard drive following a Southwestern fumble. Coleman set up the score with a 20 yard sweep, and Buddy Sanderford went over from the five. John Massey booted the extra point.

Choctaws Score

Neither team could get into the scoring column again until midway in the final quarter. The Choctaws reached pay dirt on a 56 yard march initiated by Cassell's interception of an errant Lynx pass. Jimmy Pittman made the touchdown on a short plunge.

The Lynx completed the scoring by moving 82 yards from the en-

JACK DOYLE, A CONSISTANT GROUND GAINER and a thorn in the side of all Lynx opponents this year will start at his regular halfback position in the Hendrix game. He scored two touchdowns against Mississippi College.

Chi Omega, Frosh Are Undeclared In WAA Battle

Probable Champion Is One of These Two

It's actually a battle of the giants in this year's basketball tourney, a fact that is well demonstrated by such high scoring forwards as Jackie Newman, Betty Jo Carter, Sara Cooper, and Marilyn Butler. This quartet of tall gals chalked up a total of 72 points in last week's play, a period that left only the powerful Chi Omega and Freshman teams undefeated.

KD's Give Chi O's Run

Last Thursday the Frosh overcame a hard fighting Tri Delt team 30-13. Led by Carter and Butler, who put through 16 and 12 points respectively, the Freshmen held the lead from the first minutes of play and never was the outcome in doubt. However, in spite of the one-sided score, the triple Deltas played a very good game of basketball, with pledge Betty Guthrie and Senior Shirley Sibley increasing their previous strength.

The KD's gave the Chi O's a run for their money in the best game of the season thus far. The first half ended with the Chi O's leading 11-9, but immediately after the second half began the KD's tied the score with a well-placed shot.

Zeta's Fall

The KD's were unable to hold their pace as Jackie Newman began pouring the ball through the hoop with a series of six straight baskets, after being held to four points in the first half. Sara Cooper also used her height to throw eight tallies over the guards heads, thus holding up the Kappa Deltas throughout the final quarter, which ended Chi O 29, KD 18.

Not satisfied with one victory the Chi O's returned to the floor the next afternoon to smother Zeta 24-15. The Zeta's guards were unable to hold down the invincible Newman who scored twenty points in the course of the game, and who

Southwestern To Play Hendrix In Homecoming Day Game At Hodges Field Saturday

Warriors Use Split T On Offense

IN GOOD CONDITION

Have Won Four, Lost Three To Date

Special To The Sou'wester

By CHARLES MILLER

CONWAY, Ark.—The Hendrix Warriors will travel to Memphis Saturday to attack the Southwestern Lynx on its home gridiron and renew a long-standing and hard-fought pigskin rivalry.

The Warriors, lightest team in the Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference, have a 20-0 win over College of the Ozarks, a 38-7 win over Missouri Baptist, and losses to Magnolia A. and M., 19-0, Henderson State Teachers College, 33-7, and Arkansas A. and M., 19-6, on their record.

In Good Shape

The Methodist Tribe is for the first time this year working from a split T formation with Dick Farr of Wynne or sub-captain Grayson Lewis of Clinton in the quarterback slot. Though not a general adherent to the T, Hendrix Coach Ivan H. Grove, feels it best suits his light shifty backfield. Farr, a Sophomore, is an able field general and a good passer. His passes have set up most Warrior scores this year.

On the ground, the Hendrix attack will rely on the line busting of Captain Dick Broadaway, 230 pound fullback from Biscoe, and the breakaway magic of Jim Tennyson of Smackover and Walter Hodges of Conway. The Warriors are in generally good physical condition for the Lynx battle.

Lynx Seek Second Win Of Season

IN FAIR CONDITION

Cats Have Won Both Contests Since War

Southwestern will meet Hendrix next Saturday afternoon at 2:30 at Hodges Field in the feature of what promises to be a gala Homecoming Day. Hendrix has won two of its five games, Southwestern has won one out of four, and a thriller is promised.

In two meetings since the war the Lynx have come out on top. In 1947 at a rainsoaked Homecoming Southwestern won 19-0, while last year in Conway, Southwestern took the game 12-6 with a last half rally.

No More Injuries

The Lynx came through the Mississippi College game in fairly good shape and with no serious injuries. However, Billy Joe Crisamore and Bob Whiteside may not be able to operate at full speed due to leg injuries.

The usual starting backfield of Crumby, Doyle, Flaniken, and Bryant is expected to carry the brunt of the offensive burden for the Lynx. Flaniken was a consistent gainer against Mississippi College, and Crumby's passing was sharp. The line, although short in reserves, should be in fairly good shape.

Is On INTRAMURALS

By BILL BOYCE Sports Editor

The Independents and SAE were the only remaining undefeated teams in the Intramural touch football league after two weeks of play. Each has won two games. Rain forced the postponement of the game. From the 18 yard line Doyle hurled a pass to Dick Kinsinger which was ruled complete on the Southwestern 45 on an interference penalty. From that point Ronald "Red" Davis faded far back and fired a tremendous pass to Doyle, who took it on the Choc 10 and scored easily. Sparks' kick was good.

half of the week's scheduled games; these contests have been rescheduled for the second week of November.

Two games were played on Tuesday. Sigma Nu defeated ATO on the penetration rule after the game had ended in a 6-6 deadlock. A penetration is recorded each time a team moves inside the 10 yard line of its opponents, and Sigma Nu led in these, two to none.

The Sigma Nu touchdown came in the opening quarter on a short pass from George Bugbee to Gerry Bugbee. George Bugbee's run for the extra point was unsuccessful. ATO tied up the contest in the final period on a pass from Bill Boyce to Brady Whitehead, but a pass for the extra point was unsuccessful.

Kappa Sig Falls

The same day the Independents maintained their unbeaten record by topping hitherto undefeated Kappa Sigma 6-0. Dudley Wardlaw was responsible for the only score of the game. The winners also led in penetrations 2-1 and in first downs 6-5.

The games slated for Thursday, SAE-PiKA and Sigma Nu-KA, were rained out, and will be played later.

The standings as of Monday, Oct. 24:

Great Books Has Plato As Subject

Discussions and Lectures To Teach Citizenship

Southwestern's Great Books Program will be continued this season, with the topic of interest being The Dialogues of Plato. Professors John Osman and Laurence F. Kinney will lead the group in round-table discussions.

The group will analyze Plato's works, in an effort to learn and use his ways of thinking and acting.

Registration for this program will be in The Cloister in Palmer Hall, and the fee for the entire year's course is ten dollars. If enrollment demands, two groups will be formed. One will consist of those who have had experience in such a program, and the other will be the entirely new participants.

Everyone participating will meet on the evening of Wednesday, October 26, at 7:30, in Hardie Auditorium, where there will be two twenty minute lectures. The first will be, "Plato's World" by Professor Kinney, and the other, "The Socratic Method" by Professor Osman.

Printed below, is a schedule of the Program:

1. Plato, The Man, and His Times .....October 26
2. Apology and Crito .....November 9
3. Euthyphro .....November 30
4. Meno .....December 14
5. Philebus .....January 4
6. Cratylus .....January 18
7. Symposium .....February 1
8. Phaedrus .....February 15
9. Phaedo .....March 1
10. Theatetus .....March 15
11. Sophist .....March 29
12. Statesman .....April 12
13. Timaeus .....April 26

Homecoming . . .

relax between the Alumni Banquet and the dance.

At the game, the Queen and the Princesses will be presented with flowers by the Captain and Co-Captain of the football team and the President of the S Club. The traditional pajama race will take place at the half.

The Alumni Banquet will be held at 6 o'clock in the gymnasium. Charles A. Dukes, director of Alumni activities at Duke University, will be the guest speaker. Mr. Dukes was graduated from Duke University with an A.B. degree in 1929. From 1929-1932 he served as business director and assistant director of Public Relations and Alumni Affairs. Then in the next ten years he worked up to the position which he now holds.

Following the dinner there will be the annual student body-alumni Homecoming Dance which will begin at 9 o'clock and last until 12. Ten dollars credit for records will be given to the fraternity selling the most dance tickets. A special leadout at the dance will also be given to this fraternity and its alumni.

General chairman of Homecoming Day festivities is Commissioner of Social Activities, Robert Edington. Other committees and their chairmen include: Election of Homecoming Queen and Princesses, and Chairman of Freshman Activities, Judd Williford; Orchestra, Chaperones, and Judging of Decorations, Goodbar Morgan; Parade, Curtis Kent; Publicity, Frances Crouch; Car Decorations, Shirley Burdick and Sammy Reese; Dance Decorations, Mary Ann Judging for the fraternity and sorority house decoration contest are: Mrs. Clyde Hudson, former director of the Memphis Academy of Arts and Mr. Robert Swan, a graduate of the University of Oregon, and now an instructor at the Memphis Academy of Arts.

Franklin S. Kimbrough is President of the Alumni Association. A member of the class of 1933, he was a letterman in football, Vice-President of his Senior Class, and President of the Boosters Club. Vice-President in Charge of Reunions is Harry Webb. Mr. Webb graduated in 1937. He was a member of the basketball team here at Southwestern and worked on the staff of The Sou'wester.

was well assisted by teammates Ellen Fitts and Jean Arnold. Wendell Phillips, captain of ZTA, played an inspired game, tossing in eleven of her team's fifteen tallies in a beautiful display of grace and skill.

Thus at the end of the initial third of the intramural tourney the line of destiny seems already set, falling somewhere between the cardinal and straw of Chi Omega and the blue and white of the Freshmen.

But just as women are unpredictable, so are the games they play. An upset seems somewhere in the making. Watch this column for weekly results.

ATO Entertains Rushees With Party In Lodge

Alpha Tau Omega held its annual rush party last Saturday in the Chapter Lodge. The house was arranged to give the effect of "Toni's Tavern," a waterfront dive.

After a mid-evening snack, Janet Canada, Jane McAtee, Mary Katherine Hurt, Dottie Steindorf, Charlie Mosby and Jimmy Cobb presented a variety of entertainment in the way of an old-fashioned show. Jimmy Caldwell acted as master of ceremonies. Later there was dancing, ping-pong and bridge games for everyone.

Chaperones included Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Diehl, Mrs. Adams, and Mr. and Mrs. Goodlett Brown. Charlie Mosby and Jere Nash were in charge of arrangements.

the most dangerous Lynx running threat, although Southwestern was never able to launch a sustained offensive on the ground. The Lynx defense was generally good, coming through with a couple of goal line stands at crucial moments.

Billy Joe Crisamore was forced to leave the game in the first period due to a leg injury. Bob Whiteside aggravated an old injury, and was taken out of the game in the last half. Hamlet and Milo Hyde also suffered minor injuries but were able to stay in the contest.

Intercollege Forum

a means for students from large state universities and from private and church colleges to mingle together and exchange ideas. It represents a cross section of American college life and reflects the attitude of the students of today.

Since its beginning its attendance and scope has almost doubled, its membership reaching an all time high of seventy-two people from thirty-one schools in 1948. This year it is hoped the number will increase to one hundred.

Make Plans Now

Three hundred and forty-two schools have been sent announcements of the meeting by the Forum committee which consists of Virginia Jones, Chairman, Erlene Downs, Ethel Hurt, Margie Boisen, Marian Neudecker, Ed Boldt, Ben Shawhan, and Gerald Pierce. In addition to the committee members, many other Southwestern students have contributed to the Forum by typing, mimeographing, and turning in names of students.

"Students, make your plans to attend now; don't let this important event go by without your participation," Virginia said. "It is putting Southwestern on the map as a leader of thought and action among college students of today; and who knows—perhaps someday the school will be known as 'The Home of the Intercollegiate Forum'."

Ministerial Club Has First Meet

Psychology and Religion Is Subject of Talk

The Ministerial Club is back in swing this year. In its first meeting October 6, Mr. Sprunt discussed the "Responsibility of Ministerial Students at Southwestern." Last Thursday, October 20, Dr. E. L. Queener spoke on "The Relation of Psychology and Religion." The talk provoked a great deal of discussion on the subject.

At the next meeting Mr. Raymond Womeldorf, a missionary from China, will speak to the group. At present he is traveling for the Executive Committee of Foreign Missions in the Presbyterian Church, U. S.

To Preach

The Ministerial Club has taken on the project of filling empty pulpits in nearby churches. It is arranged so that no one has the responsibility of preaching every Sunday in the same church. In this way many of the members can receive valuable speaking experience without having so much time consumed in preparing sermons.

There are approximately 40 ministerial students on the campus. The Club is not only open to all of these but also to all others interested in Christian work.

Major Ed Wall, Harvard, '40 - Flying Executive, U.S. Air Force!

Born in Newark, N. J., he moved to Boston at an early age, graduated from the public Latin high school in 1936, entered Harvard the same year, where he majored in economics and government.

"Active on the campus" — he played football, earned his letter on the boxing team. He worked part-time in a variety of jobs from bouncer to baby sitter, received his AB degree in 1940.

He enrolled in Harvard Law School, left at the beginning of the war to become an Aviation Cadet. In December, 1942, he won his pilot's wings, received a Reserve commission as Second Lieutenant.

Assigned to anti-sub patrol duty, he flew B-25's and B-17's before going overseas in 1944, where he flew 30 missions as a B-24 pilot. Shot down over Germany, he was a prisoner of war for 3 months.

Back in the States with his English wife, he earned his Regular commission. Then he returned to Harvard under the Air Force college training program, receiving his LLB degree in 1949.

Now, he is confident about his future and security. As a pilot and legal officer of Bolling Air Force Base, D. C., Major Ed Wall is a typical U. S. Air Force flying executive . . . with a challenging career.

If you are single, between the ages of 20 and 26½, with at least two years of college, consider a flying career as an officer in the U. S. Air Force. You may be able to meet the high physical and moral requirements and be selected for training as an Aviation Cadet. If you do not complete Aviation Cadet training, you may return to civilian life or have opportunity to train at Officer Candidate School for an important officer assignment in non-flying fields.

Air Force officer procurement teams are visiting many colleges and universities to explain these career opportunities. Watch for their arrival—or get full details at your nearest Air Force Base, local recruiting station, or by writing to the Chief of Staff, U. S. Air Force, Attention: Aviation Cadet Branch, Washington 25, D. C.
