Girls' Society Begins Their Activity

POINT SYSTEM TO GOVERN ALL CLASS EVENTS

Class To Receive Prize; Individual Honor Also

LETTERS GIVEN

Seat On Student Council Is Being Sought

Girls are coming to their own on Southwestern's campus. More than ever before the girl undergraduates are beginning to enter into college activities.

This increased activity is due to the Girls' Undergraduate Society which was organized last year, of which Frances Gray is president, Alice Patrick, vice-president, and Elizabeth McKee, secretary-treasurer. Other officers include presidents of the society in the individual classes who are Harriet Shepherd, junior class; Anna T. Hudson, sophomore class, and Martha McFadden, freshman class.

One of the fundamental purposes of the Undergraduate Society is to transfer girls' activities from inter-sorority contests to inter-class contests. With this purpose in view all activities have been established on a point basis. A banner will be given at the end of the year to the class possessing the greatest number of points. To any class team winning in an athletic tournament 20 points will be given. The class taking second place will be given 15 points; third place, ten points, and fourth place five points.

Twenty points will be given to the class selling the most tickets for the play, "Am I intruding?" which the Southwestern Players will give Dec. 6.

CHOICE OF PRIZE

Individual honors will be awarded also. To the girl out of all the classes amassing the greatest number of individual points for active participation in any college activity open to girls a silver loving cup will be given and the choice of a bathing suit or a tennis racket. The girl following second with the greatest number of points will be given a silver loving cup.

Two points will be given a girl for each active participation in any college activity. Any girl winning a place on a team which wins in a major sport will receive a letter.

Activities open to girls are divided into two groups, the literary group and the athletic group. Points will be given only to those girls actively engaged in these activities. The activities in the literary group include work in the Y. W. C. A., Chi Delta, Chi Delta Phi, Sou'wester, Lynx, Journal or any literary publication of the college, Women's Glee Club or orchestra, Southwestern Players, Southwestern Bible Class. The sports have been divided into two groups, major and minor sports. Major sports include basketball, hockey and track. Minor sports are tennis, swimming, volleyball, baseball, archery and golf.

The Undergraduate Society has petitioned the Student Council for a seat. This petition was not passed upon at the last meeting of the Council. Further action will be taken at the next meeting of the Council.

"Faculty Wants To Cooperate With The Students," Says Dean Hartley

Ruling On Parties Has Been Amended to Allow One Party On a Night Besides Saturday

Edmund McGivaren, president of the Men's Panhellenic Council, Fritz Heidelberg and Marion Painter, officers of the Council, met with members of the Administration Committee of the faculty Monday to discuss the students' attitude towards the recent faculty ruling that student parties be excluded to Saturday night alone.

An excerpt from the minutes of the Administration Committee explains the amendment to the ruling:

"After a conference with student representatives the Administration Committee voted to recommend to the faculty the following action: That the rule passed by the Committee on Sept. 28, providing that no parties should be given by a Southwestern organization on any night but Saturday and that they should not be held at the same hour as an athletic event, should be amended to read as follows: That a party may be given any week on any desired night for or by one group or organization, but that no one group or organization may have a party oftener than once a month and that all such parties must close by 11:30 p.m. with the exception of the four Panhellenics which must close by 12 midnight. This rule is operative the present semester only."

The rule passed by the Committee Sept. 28 caused a stir on the campus and the Men's Panhellenic Council and the Women's Panhellenic Council immediately set about seeking a repeal to the rule. Dean R. W. Hartley, president of the Administration Committee, said in regard to the change: "The main idea is that we are trying to co-operate with the students. We felt that their desires in this case were not unreasonable and that by giving them what they wanted hoped that they would co-operate in the fulfillment of the regulations."

The clause included in the first rule, "that parties should not be given at the same hour as an athletic event," was omitted from the amended ruling. "The faculty reasons thus," said Dr. Hartley, "Athletic events and other student activities belong to the students alone, and they should have enough pride to support them, thus helping to create a better spirit at Southwestern." The matter of preventing parties from being held at the time of any student event athletic or literary is left up to the honor of the students entirely.

All parties must be registered with Dr. Hartley ahead of time, so if any group wants to give a party on any one week it is advised to register as far ahead as possible.

Lynx To Radio Via WMC Tonite

Through the courtesy of Lloyd (Bucky) Harris, manager, Southwestern is to broadcast a program over W.M.C. each Friday night until the football season is over. This means has been adopted to advertise the weekly football games played by the Southwestern Lynx at Fargason Field every Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The Southwestern Athletic Association has chartered a special car for Friday night to convey the school band, glee club, and other entertainers to the studio in the Commercial Appeal building. The car will leave the campus promptly at nine, arriving downtown in ample time to start broadcasting at ten.

The program for Friday, Oct. 25, is as follows:

Led by "Peewee" Hines "Alma Mater" Southwestern Glee Club

Piano Solo, "W. & L. Swing," Robert Russell

Address by Southwestern's oldest campus figure John Henry Hatchett Vocal Solo (to be selected)

FRESHMEN TO FORM S AND M

Fine Spirit Shown by Fellows

The letters "S" and "M" will be formed by Southwestern freshmen between the halves of the game Saturday when the Lynx and Millsaps clash.

Freshmen, under the direction of Cheer Leader "Peewee" Hines, formed a boosters club Thursday for the purpose of staging stunts at games and promoting school spirit.

The freshmen forming the letters, are doing it of their own accord. They were not compelled to by the Sanhedrin.

CINDER MEN DOWN TO WORK

Wright and Huffman Showing Form

Mississippi College is going to bring her cross-country team along with her football team when they invade the air of the Lynx on Thanksgiving day, according to an announcement.

Mississippi College will place her hopes for winning in the fleetness and stability of Price, Johnson, and Kent. In the S. I. A. A. track meet last spring, Price barely managed to nose Roger Wright, Southwestern's own Flying Scotchman, out of first place after Wright had just finished running the fastest mile that was ever run in any S. I. A. A. meet. On Thanksgiving, both men will be fresh and will compete on an even basis. A strong friendly rivalry, almost a grudge, exists between these two distance men, so each one will be out to show the other up when they meet late in the evening.

Elbert Huffman is one of the best long distance men on the squad, and Coach Rasberry is expecting him to make a fine showing. Besides Wright and Huffman, Perry Bynum, Malcolm McMillan, Fiore Caltigirone, Malcolm Gibbons, Jimmie Spencer and Enoch Webb have been showing class.

Rasberry plans to enter all his men in the race against Mississippi College, but the first six men that finish will be counted as the team representing Southwestern.

On November 11, Rasberry has entered both the varsity and the frosh teams in the first annual American Legion Three Mile Run. This meet is another attraction to the American Legion week of jubilee.

Southwestern trackmen will run in the Y. M. C. A. open meet the following week. Southwestern encountered no difficulty in winning the cup offered last year, and Rasberry feels confident that the Lynx will add another year toward permanent possession of the cup this year. To gain permanent possession of the cup, a team must win first place three consecutive years.

"Am I Intruding?"

FOUR ONE-ACT PLAYS WILL BE NEW OFFERINGS

Tragedy, Farce, Pathos, Fantasy Shown

SHOW STARTS 8:15

Judges Unable To Find Three; Pick Four

Southwestern Players' initial public performance for the year will be given tonight in Hardie Auditorium at 8:15 when four one-act plays will be presented.

The plays which will be given are "The Valiant," "Will O' The Wisp," "Gas, Air and Earl" and "When The Clock Strikes." These four plays were selected Monday night by a committee of judges including Dr. and Mrs. C. L. Townsend, Dr. Samuel H. Monk and Mrs. George Graham, out of seven plays given.

More than unusual talent was displayed by the Players Monday night, and the performance tonight will be one polished to perfection since the successful play groups have been practicing all week.

Fritz Heidelberg plays the leading role in "The Valiant," which is a tragedy with the setting laid in the warden's office of a penitentiary just before an execution is to take place. Those supporting Mr. Heidelberg in the part are Virginia Finch, Charles Simmons, J. P. Hollifield, Harry Champlain, and William Martin.

The second play will be "Will O' The Wisp," a mystic fantasy directed by Alice Rogers. The scene is laid in a farm house located in some God-forsaken part of the land o'er which the wind blows and the spirits dance. Those in the cast are Dorothy Correll, Betty Lake Jones, Fay Simpson and Phyllis Brownell.

"Gas, Air and Earl" takes one's mind off the tragedy and weirdness of the two plays mentioned above with the rollicking fun and laughter it brings. This play was directed by Meredith Davis who plays the leading role. She is supported by Virginia Davis, Erle Howry, Addie Louise Murray and Jimmie Spencer.

Everyone had better watch out "When The Clock Strikes" because some one's going to get shot. If you hear a gun go off have no fear some one else is merely committing suicide. This play directed by John Hagan, is a farce, given by a cast including Dorothy Smith, Anna Galbreath, Golden Seats Marion Painter, Ward Harris, George Whitaker and Garrett Ratcliff.

The judges were placed in a dilemma when it came to selecting three plays Monday night, because four distinct types of drama were represented in the above plays, so it was decided to select four instead of three.

The other plays were especially good. Hazel Edmund's "No 'Count Boy," who, incidentally, was Percy Bynum giving a great performance with his French harp, included besides herself Virginia Richmond and John Hughes.

"The Marriage of Little Eva" gave life behind the scenes at a tent show. The cast included George Paullus, Elizabeth Hagan, Rachel Baker, Harvey Drake, Russell Cross, and Marjorie Peoples. Elizabeth Smith was director.

"So's Your Old Antique" directed by Robert Sanders, presented troubles of an antique collector. The cast included James Byram, Helen Lowrance, James Hughes and Kenneth Eddins.

Eleven Sects In Student Body

Although Southwestern is maintained by the Presbyterian Synods of Tennessee, Alabama, Louisiana and Mississippi the school is non-denominational. This fact is evidenced by the figures that reveal there are eleven different denominations represented on the campus.

Presbyterians number 195 with Methodists following close, having 114. Baptists number 41.

Twenty-nine Episcopalians are included as members of the student body; twenty-two members of the Church of Christ and seventeen Catholics. There are nine members of the Jewish faith.

Five Lutherans, eight Christian Scientists and four Congregationalists are registered. There is one member of the Mennanite Church.

SCALPING by SHERRY-KEE

Dear Kee—

Have you heard about June Davidson's latest ambition? To ride on the cow-catcher of the morning train on the campus. Just at the time June longingly let such a statement escape through his lips, Prof. Cooper sighted Sloan Williams and Helen Crump walking across the campus. He asked June if he wouldn't prefer Sloan's ambition. Hard question, isn't it, June?

Ellen Goodman has returned to her Alma Mater to continue her studies. Glad you are with us again, Ellen.

Kee, ask Lois Johnson what she knows about honeymoons anyway. A prof was tracing a route on a map and in order to make the way more interesting he suggested that the students make believe that they were on their honeymoon. Lois ups and says in a pretty way, "Oh, if you were on your honeymoon you wouldn't realize where you were."

There is certainly a lot of competition going on among the A. P. O. (Ain't Puttin' Out), the O. K.'s (haven't yet found out what they stand for), and the F. T. F. I.'s (Forced to Form It). I don't know whether to feel hurt or flattered since I haven't one of the three emblems. Maybe I will have to form a fourth group under the name F. T. O. (For Those Omitted).

My dear, Jo-Jo and Raz are causing a riot at the girls' swimming classes because the young ladies are begging for lessons under these two Adonises. They will be Boy Scouts yet. Don't fight, girls.

Shingles are on the roof and furniture in the house of the Kappa Sigma lodge. It is surely most attractive. I'll hand it to the boys for their success.

Do you think you will get to play in the game Saturday? Maybe coach will give you a break. Yours,
SHERRY.

CAMPUS NEWS

There were several mothers and dads of Southwestern students at the game Saturday. It sure would be great if more students took pride in showing their parents their Alma Mater in action, wouldn't it?

W. W. Wilson, father of Jimmie Wilson, was there, and so was Mrs. H. P. Walton, Sr., and son, Tommie Harris, of Yazoo City, Miss. Mrs. Walton and Tommie came up to watch son and brother, "Light Horse" Harry in action at the game. Then Mr. and Mrs. John Gant of Columbia were there also. They are Freshman John Gant's parents. Jack Watson's parents from Birmingham were also up visiting him over the week-end. They took in the game.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Collins, recently married, were at the game and rooting for the Lynx, besides Gerald Seagle, Palmer Farnsworth, and Maury Sifford. Dr. and Mrs. Lucius McGehee and Lucius, Jr., were at the game too. They are Lila McGehee's parents. Frances McCowan and Mae Pearl Williams were rooting for the Lynx too. They don't go to Southwestern but they're loyal boosters. Another student of last year, recently married, was at the game. That was Nannie Sue Williams, now Mrs. W. B. Morrow. Sara Frances Clarke of Covington came down for the game too.

Ike Taber held down a perfectly good seat in the bleachers, and so did Carolyn Stockley, Catherine Underwood, Sid Latiolais and Margaret Tayloe. Count and Countess were also there rooting. Mrs. R. P. Strickler and daughter, Mary, accompanied Dr. Strickler to the game and helped him root for Southwestern.

Paul Caldwell came up for the game Saturday and visited on the campus for a few days.

Mrs. Hen Boyd, Polly, Boyd and Scott Henning were also rootin' for the team.

Billy Barnes spent last week-end at Jackson, Miss.

Mrs. J. C. Barrett came up last week-end to visit her son, Joe, and take in the game.

President Charles E. Diehl will make a talk in Chattanooga Nov. 1 before the Civitan Club about Southwestern.

Among the town girls that spent the week-end in Evergreen Hall were Margaret Williams, Louise Nowlin and Josephine Barker.

Judge Harry U. Simms, visitor at the meeting of the American Bar Association, spoke at chapel Saturday morning.

BLAZERS FOR BOYS ONLY

The new Lynx Club blazers will be on hand for the game Saturday. These coats are bought by Southwestern and are awarded members of the Lynx Club as a reward for service. However, there is one condition which it might be well to again state. These blazers are not to be worn by co-eds, not that the co-eds are going to hurt the coats. The fact is they would grace them. It is merely a business transaction between Southwestern and the boys. The school spends a lot of money on these blazers and gives them to Lynx Club members who in turn serve the school. It's a business transaction any way you take it, and co-eds must not be seen wearing a Lynx Club coat. The member who does allow his best girl wear the coat forfeits his right to retain it as his own.

STUDENTS SIT TOGETHER

Bars have recently been placed on the east side of the stadium reserving a section for Southwestern's student body. Anyone that claims to be a loyal student of Southwestern and who is not ashamed to yell and cheer for her honor is requested to occupy a seat in this section. Sit together, people, it's much easier for the cheer leaders to direct you and the effect is much greater. Show some pep Saturday and let Millsaps see what you can do. There will be Millsaps supporters showing you their ability. Freshmen, go to the game. That's what you're good for!

EXCUSEZ-NOUS, S'IL VOUS PLAIT

Through an error made by the staff last week it was stated in the story about the Y. W. C. A. Halloween party that entertainment "would consist of music and dancing." Naturally the statement created quite a stir. There will be dancing but it will be aesthetic dancing. Pardon, please.

K. D. PLEDGES TO GIVE TEA PARTY

Kappa Delta pledges will entertain with a tea dance Saturday afternoon. Pledges and their dates are Mary Woosley and John Gant, Mary Moore and John Hagan, Ruth Harris and Jack DuBose, Golden Seats and Bill Daniels, Martha Bancroft and Ward Harris, Phyllis Brownell and Billy Hughes, Helen Pointer and Jimmie Hughes, Elmer Draughton and Jimmie Spencer, Virginia Finch and Albert Erskine, Marjorie Peeples and George Paullus, Elizabeth Alley and Horace Harwell, Catherine Yard and Dallas Spencer, Martha Tabb, and Goodlett Brown.

Dr. Diehl Speaker

President Charles E. Diehl spoke before the Memphis Daughters of the American Revolution Tuesday at the Gayoso Hotel. His subject was "The Task of the Daughters of the American Revolution in Holding High the Standards of Patriotism."

Y. W. C. A. Meets

"College Friendship" was the subject of a talk given by Mrs. Battle Malone at a meeting of the Southwestern Y. W. C. A. Monday afternoon. Jane Hyde had charge of the devotional exercises at this meeting.

LYNX FOES CLASH AT JACKSON, MISS.

Millsaps and Mississippi College, two future Lynx foes, fought it out last Friday at Jackson, Miss. Millsaps winning by a 7 to 0 score. With but three minutes to play, the score tied 0 to 0, Jackie Miller, Millsaps halfback, passed thirty yards to Bill Jacobs, end, and the latter fell across the goal line. The Lynx meet Millsaps Saturday and Mississippi November 28.

LYNX OPPONENT PLAYS GOOD GAME

Hendrix-Henderson, Lynx foe on Nov. 16, defeated Little Rock College 27 to 0 at Little Rock Saturday. The Hendrix Warriors scored touchdowns in every quarter and three of them were by the doggedly plunging Smith through the Eagle line. The game was home-coming day for Lit-

DR. KELSO TO READ PAPER TO NITISTS

Dr. A. P. Kelso will read a paper entitled "Cause" at the next meeting of The Nitists' Club which will be held Oct. 31 in the Bell Room of the Hugh M. Neely Hall.

A paper entitled "Birth Control and Prosperity" was read by Gerald Capers. The reading was followed by a spirited discussion of the subject among club members. Prof. H. B. Davis qualified for membership in the Nitists by his excellent handling of the subject from an economic point of view.

Five new men were taken into membership at this meeting and are Prof. Davis, Allan Cabaniss, William Berson, Charles Simmons and John Hagan.

"Am I Intruding?" More O. K.'s

O. K. takes great pleasure in announcing the pledging of Virginia Richmond, John Rea, Charlotte Bruce, Paul Jones and James Hamilton. O. K. was officially recognized by the faculty Tuesday, and is included in the list of Southwestern organizations.

Chi Delta Phi Holds Initiation

Six girls were initiated into the national order of Chi Delta Phi, honorary literary society Tuesday night at the Parkview Hotel, after a delightful banquet.

Covers at the banquet were laid for 24 guests. Faculty wives, active members and alumnae were present. The color scheme was carried out in blue and gold, the colors of the sorority. The new initiates are Lorraine Mitchell, Alice Rogers, Elizabeth Smith, Alice Patrick, Hazel Edmunds and Jennie Burford Puryear.

The active chapter present included Elizabeth Williams, president, Frances Arthur, Frances Gray, Margaret McKinstry and Elizabeth McKee. Other guests were Catherine Underwood, Frances Fisher, Dorothy Vanden, Catherine Richey, Lola Shepherd, Kitura Phillips, Martha Ambrose, Sara Johnson, Eleanor Richmond, Martha Carnes, Ruby Sebülsky, Mrs. W. Lynx Defeated By Ozark Boys Last Saturday

Punchless Game Ends With Southwestern At Other End of Score

Lacking the punch that was so prominent in the first two games of the season, the Southwestern Lynx went down to defeat before the mediocre onslaught that the College of the Ozarks offered by the close score of 8 to 6 last Saturday afternoon at Fargason Field. The Lynx outplayed the visitors from Clarksville, Ark. in every stage of the game, but lacked the necessary aggressiveness to put the ball over the line, after their streak that gave them their only score of the game that occurred in the first period.

The Ozark gridders were held scoreless until the third quarter when the Lynx began their donating. The Arkansans could not take the ball down the field of their own accord so the Lynx accommodated them by drawing a 15 yard penalty that put the ball on their own ten yard line. About this time, Coach Burke sent Hightower into the fray to punt out of danger, and he got excited and talked before he was supposed to, thereby placing the ball on Southwestern's five yard line. Hightower got off a long punt only to have the referee call the play back to penalize Ozark five yards for having too many men on the field, a substitute having been sent in too soon. Hightower's next attempt to punt to midfield was blocked out of bounds by Patterson for a safety.

A Lynx fumble on the 37-yard line fixed things for Douglas to make his 39-yard run through the entire Lynx team for a touchdown and victory. The Ozark quarter called for a pass, but Southwestern's line men swarmed around Douglass so quickly that he did not have a chance to throw the ball, instead striking out for the goal line without any interference to aid him. Several would be tacklers tried to force him out of bounds, but Douglas side-stepped and wriggled past every man that tried to stop him, until he finally crossed the line.

Millsaps Sends A Winning Team To Play Lynx

Lynx Ready to Avenge Last Week's Loss On Saturday

Smarting under the 8 to 6 defeat received last Saturday at the hands of the College of the Ozarks, the Southwestern Lynx meet the Millsaps Majors Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock on Fargason Field in their fourth start of the season. Millsaps has won three games and tied one at 0 to 0. The Majors defeated Clarke by the one-sided score of 53 to 12, while in their next game with Howard at Birmingham, they held to a 0 to 0 draw. Returning to their home field, Millsaps ran roughshod over Arkansas Aggies with a score of 52 to 0. Playing before the Mississippi Fair crowd last Friday, Millsaps and Mississippi College, both located in Jackson, played a hard, fast game with the Majors winning out by a nose, 7 to 0.

The Lynx meet a team Saturday that undoubtedly possesses the knack of carrying the old pigskin over the line. So far this season, the Majors have scored 112 points to their opponents' 12. Their goal line has been crossed only twice, and that by a team that they piled up 53 points against. Goat Hale sends his men into the game with the idea of piling up as large a score as they possibly can, and they have understood him so far this season. "Goofy" Wright, Millsaps captain, will lead his teammates on the field tomorrow full of fight, and ready for a good battle.

Coach Webb Burke sends his Lynx-cats into tomorrow's fight slightly the worse for wear. Jeff Davis is nursing a pair of badly blistered hands that have kept him out of most of the scrimmages of the week. Bob Logan has been hobbling around with a game leg all week as a result of the Ozark game. Both of these men will probably be in shape to play Saturday, as they will more than likely be called upon to check the Majors attack.

Burke has had the varsity team doing lots more practicing on the aerial end of the game. The Lynx show a decided weakness both in passing and breaking up passes, so the Lynx mentor has undertaken to break them of this habit. Long, tiresome practices against the freshmen have been the assignments dealt out this week, with plenty scrimmaging, running and passing on the menu.

Tomorrow's game will be the fourth start of the year for the Lynx, and the second S. I. A. A. tilt. The game last Saturday was not a conference game so Southwestern's conference slate is still clean, having won the only game played against a member of the S. I. A. A. so far.

BOBCATS CLASH WITH OLE MISS

Frosh Sally Forth After Two Weeks' Rest

With one victory and one defeat on their record, Southwestern's Bobcats leave Saturday morning for Oxford, Miss., where they will meet the Ole Miss Freshmen Saturday afternoon. The Bobcats turned in a victory over the Mississippi yearlings last year in a closely contested game, and are out for another win this season. The Bobcats will make the trip on a bus, returning Saturday night after the game.

The Ole Miss Frosh have won both the games that they have played so far this season, turning back the strong Mississippi Heights Academy eleven to the tune of 13 to 3. "Solly" Cohen, former Ole Miss football star, has returned to his Alma Mater in the role of freshman coach. He was a holy terror several years ago, and should put out a good team, as he knows the game from start to finish.

The Bobcats have been idle since they took a beating from the Delta State Teachers College two weeks ago. Wes Adams has been putting them through the mill in preparation for the Ole Miss fray. The Frosh were in a slump last week, but have come out of the kinks this week in fine shape and are anxious to try their mettle against their contemporaries at Ole Miss.

The only change that Adams will probably make in the line-up will be Newton instead of Joyner at one of the halves. Newton has been tearing things up in recent scrimmages, and should prove a hard one for the Mississippi boys to stop.

Golf Tournament Now In Progress

The fall golf tournament is now in full swing, several matches having already been played. The tournament is to determine the champion golfer of the school. A consolation match will also be run off.

Sloan Williams defeated Kenneth Eddins in their run-off; Stanton defeated Clinton; Brooks Kirk defeated Marcus Tansey. The matches yet to be run off are Odell Sanders vs. Larry Barker, Harvey Kidd vs. Russell Smith, Richard Bunting vs. Roy Wenzler, Bob Sanders vs. Buster Dial, James Shepard vs. Jack Watson, Horace Harwell vs. Fritz Heidelberg, Goodbar Morgan vs. Billy Cromwell, Pat Barrett vs. Claude McCormack, Bill Taylor vs. Dick Griffing, Harvey Drake vs. J. P. Hollifield, Claude Bowen bye.

SEWANEE WINS HER FIRST GAME

Sewanee defeated Cumberland University by the score of 33 to 6 last Saturday. The game despite the score was hard fought and each score was earned. One of the touchdowns was the result of an intercepted pass. Boyd Sewanee quarterback, featured in the work for the afternoon. He broke away time after time for good gains and did all the passing. This is Sewanee's first victory of the season. She was defeated by Transylvania in the first game and by Louisiana State week before last. Sewanee and Southwestern clash Nov. 9.

We believe that educated people should understand these truths.

Public Utilities render services that are essential to modern living standards.

These services directly contribute to the convenience and comfort of people hourly each day. They have raised living standards, brought us up to a new plane of material existence; and are, in fact, the agencies by which modern living standards are maintained.

Without these services, present-day conditions would be turned backward half a century, and we would revert to the days of the tallow candle and the ox-drawn cart.

In addition to their contribution to the convenience and comfort of people, utilities are economic factors of important worth to their communities—stimulating channels of trade and business activities with their large pay-rolls and immense purchases of supplies.

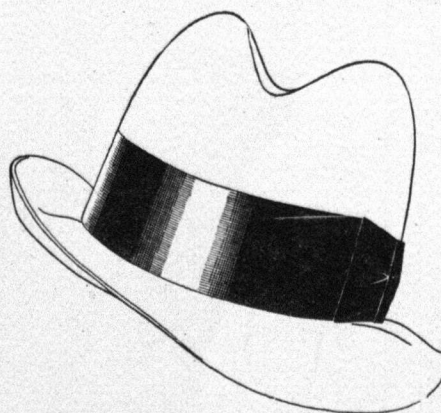

These are facts that educated people should understand.
