

LYNX CATS MEET LAMBUTH SAT.

NEW MEMBERS OF LYNX CLUB GET BLAZERS

Fourteen Men Receive Membership

COATS HERE SOON

Letter "S" Will be Given Later

Fourteen new blazers will be seen Oct. 12 when the new members of the Lynx Club sally forth in their new garb. The new members were selected by a committee composed of one faculty member of the Club and two student members.

Men were selected for the most part from the junior and senior classes, only those being taken from the sophomore class who did especial work for the Athletic Association last year. The committee was fair and impartial. Sophomores of this year will be eligible for membership next year. Freshmen who serve the Athletic Association in an official capacity at any of the games will be placed on the eligible list.

The Lynx Club's function is to make visiting teams at Southwestern feel at home and welcome. It meets trains and sees to the entertainment of the visitors while in Memphis. The Club also cares for visitors at the football games, and members act as ushers. Claude Bowen is president.

The new blazers will be the same as used last year with one exception. The letter "S" will not be placed on the upper left hand pocket until after members have earned the letter by service in the Club. Letters will be awarded at the close of the football season. The blazers will be given out this year for each athletic event. They must be returned after each game. This is to prevent students from wearing them about the campus. They will not become the sole possession of the new men until after football season when they can be worn at will.

New men that have been accepted by the club are Morris Ford, MacLin Riley, Duke Moody, William Hall, Thad Hall, Erle Howry, Dick Monk, James Hamilton, Leroy Montgomery, Harold Ohlendorf, Albert Erskine, George Paullus, Paul Jones, Richie Morgan. Old men returning this year are Ogdin Baine, Vern Baumgarten, Garner Watson, Jack DuBose, Oliver Cromwell, Herman Bevis, Gerald Capers, Bobby Carpenter, Thomas Drake, Horace Harwell, William Martin, Marion Painter, Stanford Parnell, Claude Bowen, Nate White.

Girls Enroll In Swimming Classes

More than sixty-five girls have signed up for the swimming class which the athletic department is giving for the girls every afternoon at 4:30 at the Nineteenth Century Club pool.

Miss Louise Stratmann, physical instructor for the girls, has charge of the classes. Those desiring to enroll should see Miss Stratmann and enroll in the business office.

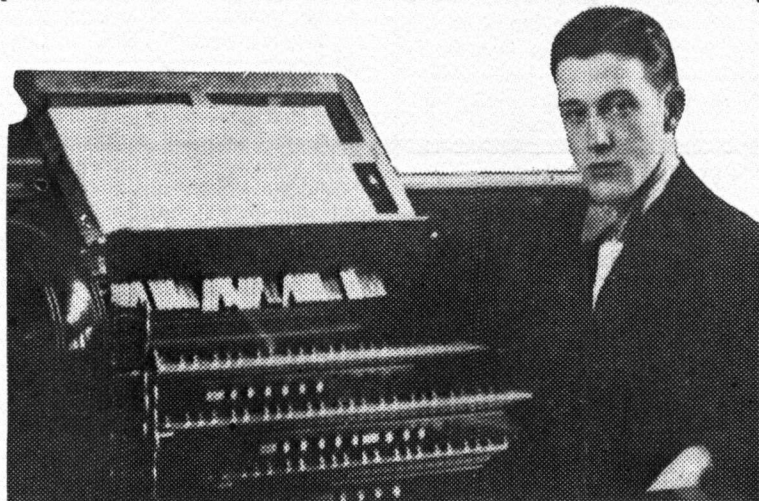

The Athletic Association rents the pool. This necessitates a charge of three dollars a semester for every one enrolled.

Chester Sutor In Damage Suit

Chester Sutor, Southwestern student, is being sued for $49,000 damages. Sutor is being sued by J. A. Goldhammer, who claims that a car driven by Mrs. Goldhammer and occupied by Miss Mae Nichols and James Harris, was struck by a car belonging to Sutor and driven by his brother, Charles Sutor, Sept. 3.

Suit for personal injuries received and damages to the Goldhammer car were filed Sept. 27.

Southwestern Senior Has Made Record for Himself as Organist and Pianist

Albert Johnson Has Had Job At School For Four Years As Choir Director and Pianist

Albert Johnson, president of Alpha Tau Omega fraternity, and vice-president of the Student Body, has made an unusual record for himself as a musician at Southwestern and in musical circles of Memphis.

During the three years that he has attended Southwestern, Albert has helped pay his way by playing the piano at chapel programs every morning, arranging special vesper programs, organizing the choir and helping with the orchestra. He is also doing this work this year. He was organist at Bellevue Baptist Church during his sophomore and junior years and will continue as organist there this year.

Albert is a member of Omicron Delta Kappa, honorary leadership fraternity, member of the Student Council, Men's Sanhedrin Council, Men's Panhellenic Council, and the Southwestern Christian Union.

He plays any kind of music. After he receives his sheepskin next June he hopes to study abroad. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Johnson of Covington.

DRAKE IS MADE PLAYERS HEAD

Heidelberg Resigns; "Too Much Work"

"Too much work and not enough time," was the reason Fritz Heidelberg gave for resigning as president of the Southwestern Players, when he handed in his resignation to the club Wednesday morning. Thomas Drake was elected to fill his place.

Heidelberg has been one of the mainstays of the Players for three years, and it is not to be understood that he is forsaking dramatic work entirely. He fully plans to take part in the plays that will be given this year. He had leading roles in "The Successful Calamity," given last year, and "Anthony and Anna" and "The Whole Town's Talking" given the year before.

Drake played leading roles in "The Whole Town's Talking" and "The Successful Calamity," besides many one-act plays. Meredith Davis is vice-president of the Players and Dick Monk is business manager.

The entire group of Players has been divided into six sections. Each section will have a chairman who will present a one-act play before members of the club in about two weeks. Judges will select three best plays, to be given before the public.

Under the system outlined above each member of the Players will receive training and experience. Following is a list of group chairmen: John Hagan, Elizabeth Smith, Fritz Heidelberg, Hazel Edmunds, Meredith Davis, and Robert Sanders.

COLLEGE RULES NO DANCES ON WEEK NIGHTS

Parties Must Be Held On Saturday

INCLUDE PAN HOPS

Formals Must End At Twelve Also

The Administration Committee of the Faculty, composed of Dean Robert W. Hartley, W. R. Atkinson, H. J. Bassett, W. R. Cooper, F. C. Huber, R. P. Strickler and Mrs. C. L. Townsend, announced a new rule Tuesday to govern student parties to be given this year.

The rule reads as follows: "The Administration Committee voted Sept. 28 that no parties given by any Southwestern organization should be given on any night but Saturday and that no parties should be held at the same hour of any athletic event."

Dean Hartley made the following statement in regard to the rule, "This rule was necessitated because of the great number of parties that were given last year in the middle of the week by fraternities and sororities. As many parties may be given on Saturday night as the organizations wish. This rule includes dances given by the Men's Panhellenic Council. All dances on Saturday night must end at twelve o'clock."

The edict went into immediate effect. However, party privileges granted before the new rule was made known will not be withdrawn.

Fraternities and sororities must register parties to be given by them with Dr. Hartley in case of a fraternity and with Mrs. Townsend in case of a sorority.

Bible Class Will Meet Each Sunday

The Southwestern Bible Class is now meeting regularly on Sunday mornings at nine o'clock in Room 100, Palmer Hall.

Dr. W. R. Cooper is in charge of the class. He will be succeeded by other members of the faculty after the first six weeks of school have passed. Drs. W. O. Shewmaker, A. P. Kelso and E. D. McDougall will continue the class work.

A short talk is made every morning. Special music and song services are features of the program which lasts only forty-five minutes, so that students get out in time to go any place for church they desire.

Everyone is invited to attend these classes.

Lab Assistants

Dr. W. O. Swan has appointed lab assistants to serve this year. They are Ogdin Baine, William Hall, Orren Pickard, and Lowell Spiers. Dr. P. N. Rhodes has appointed John Flowers physics assistant.

VARSITY READY FOR GRID TILT ON FARGASON

Team Is Light But Full of Fight

NEW COACH READY

First Game For New Lynx Mentor

By JOHN REA

Coach Webb Burke will hurl his light but scrappy Lynx Cats into action Saturday afternoon at three o'clock on Fargason Field against the Lambuth College Eagles. With the weather a bit cooler than it has been an ideal football day is predicted. Burke places the burden of his hopes in the double set of fleet, tricky backs, as the line has not measured up to his expectations in the practice sessions held so far.

Saturday's encounter is Lambuth's second start of the season, having battled Carruthersville, Mo., Junior College to a 7-7 tie last Saturday. Billy Vowell, Eagle half, proved his mettle on both the offense as well as the defense. He is a fast, scrappy back that is hard to stop once he gets started. Sharing the honors with Vowell in the backfield were Walker with his punting and plunging and Johnson's running and passing.

For the Lynx, Lloyd very nearly has his position at quarter cinched by his ability to pick out the weak spots in the opponents line and to rally the men. Lloyd is not an exceptional ball carrier, but this is more than made up by his prowess at blocking and tackling and his headwork. Hinson and Hightower will probably start the game at the halfway places. Both of these men are fleet and shifty, able passers and competent punters. Hightower is probably the fastest man on the squad, and his quick stride and change of pace caused him to score plenty for the Lynx last season, and is capable of more scoring this year. Hinson has not had any varsity experience, but this cannot be held against him, for he has been showing plenty varsity speed in recent practice sessions. Pittman will draw the fullback role and will be the big man in backing up the line, leading interference, and plunging the line.

Others who will probably get into the fray are Harry Walton, the scrappy, hard tackling back of last year's team. Walton is mighty light for varsity work, but he is an able passer, a hard tackler and a good ball totter. Hiram Girard and Bill Puddephat, both fresh from the Bobcats, are another pair of consistent ground-gainers. Girard is an outstanding defensive back, as is Puddephat, who is being groomed for a fullback. Charlie Diehl will see plenty action this season on account of his punting and running. Jack Delay and Ward Harris, who saw action on the freshman team last year, are both dependable backs in the fight for a regular berth.

The starting line will probably be Russell and Brown on the ends, Walker and Dettwiler at tackles, Davis and Logan at the guards and Thomason at center. Line material is scarce, and a few injuries would play havoc with the Lynx forward wall. Plenty end reserves are available in the Hughes twins, and June Davidson, but only two tackle understudies, Thomas and Hagan, are on hand. John Porter has shown both ability and determination lately and will prove a ready substitute when called upon.

Coach Burke has given a variety of plays to his men that should easily baffle the Eagles. Line bucks, off tackle plays, end runs, weak side runs and passes with a varied supply of trick plays constitute the bag of tricks for ground gaining.

Chi Omega's Lunch

Active members and pledges of Chi Omega sorority will have lunch together today, at the chapter house.

AGES REVEALED

Nowlin and Ratcliff Hold Records

November will bring with it the birthdays of Southwestern's two youngest students. They are Garrett Beard Ratcliff and Louise Gardner Nowlin. Both were born in November, their birthdays being seven days apart, and both are now fifteen years old. They will pass the sixteen mark the first of next month.

Ratcliff is a graduate of Central high school and so is Miss Nowlin, both in the class of 1929. The former is a pledge to Kappa Sigma fraternity and the latter a pledge to Zeta Tau Alpha sorority.

Last year Joe Wells held the record of being Southwestern's youngest. However, he is now well up in years. The average age for freshmen is eighteen. Twelve are sixteen and one is twenty-four.

Five sophomores are seventeen and two are twenty-two. Nineteen is the average for the sophomores.

The oldest junior is twenty-three. There are two eighteen-year-old juniors. Juniors average twenty years, however.

Seniors have ages running from nineteen to twenty-seven. There are three nineteen-year-old seniors, three that have reached twenty-six, and one twenty-seven.

Of the ten graduate students the youngest is nineteen and the oldest is thirty.

The average age of Southwestern students is nineteen.

Chi Delta Original

Original material was used in the program of the Chi Delta Literary Society Monday afternoon. Hazel Edmunds read several original poems and Elizabeth Williams read an original short story. Frances Arthur, president of Chi Delta, presided.

$100 To Be Given To Best Orator

Southwestern orators will again participate in the state-wide oratorical contest sponsored by the Tennessee organization of the Women's Christian Temperance Union. One hundred dollars is offered as the award to the college student making the best oration on the subject, "Eternal Vigilance Is the Price of Prohibition."

At least five men must participate in the preliminaries in each college before a representative can be selected. The colleges in the state are arranged in four groups. Each group will hold a district contest. These district contests will be held in Memphis, Nashville, Knoxville, and Johnson City. The date will be announced later.

A series of eliminations will take place. The winner of Southwestern preliminaries will enter the district contest which will be held at Memphis. The winner of the district contest will enter the final or state contest to be held in Nashville, May, 1930. The winner at Nashville will be declared state champion and will receive the $100.

An oration must be no more than twenty minutes long. Further information may be obtained from Dr. Lillian W. Johnson, corresponding secretary, Tennessee W. C. T. U., Monteagle, Tenn., or from Dr. A. P. Kelso, debating coach.

Dates regarding the Southwestern contest will be announced later.

"Remember when we fist met in the revolving door at the postoffice?"
"That wasn't the first time we met."
"Well, that's when we began going around together."

Then Freshman McCord wanted to know what hotel that big building was as he passed the Memphis Steam Laundry.

I guess you heard about Freshman Drake. He saw the Federal Reserve Bank down town and wanted to know if it was the city jail.

Elizabeth Williams says she is glad that a freshman pulled that dumb crack last week about the machinery in the Publications Office, because she was just going to ask if it wasn't a printing press herself.

MEREDITH: DARLING WHISPER SWEET NOTHINGS IN MY EAR.

RASBERRY: O. K. SWEET NOTHINGS.

Then Freshman Russell Smith wanted to know if he could get patent leathers at the Silver Slipper.

He—Were you cold coming home last night in that open car?
She—I'll say I was—good and cold.

CO-ED: I GO TO BED WITH THE CHICKENS WHEN I'M AT HOME.

DITTO: "DO THEY MIND?"

Doctor: "Your condition requires that you go to bed every night between nine and ten."

Freshman: "Now Doctor, that is just too many for one bed."

One girl: "I am through with Jimmy."

Also a girl: "How come, dearie?"
First girl: "I heard him telling John that he tried out Ethyl in his Buick last night."

Her eyes were black as jet,
This charming girl I knew;
I kissed her, and her husband came,
Now mine are jet black, too.

"Didja take your date home last night?"
"Naw, I left 'er at her house."

Lost—W. C. Rasberry's reputation in Overton Park recently at the hands of five co-eds.

Drunk (lying on the sidewalk): I'll climb this wall if it takes me all night.

"Does your fiancee know much about automobiles?"
"Heavens, no! She asked me if I cooled my car by stripping the gears."

SLOAN: "I PLAYED A WONDERFUL GAME OF GOLF THIS AFTERNOON, I FEEL LIKE A GOD."

PERCY: "WHY DONT YOU FINISH THE SENTENCE?"

"Did you hear about the terrible accident that happened on the way to the Scotchmen's picnic?"
"No, what was it?"
"Two taxicabs collided and fifteen Scotchmen were hurt."

Sweet young thing: "Well I succeeded in getting some rooms today."
He: "Suite?"
S. Y. T.: "Awfully."

Frosh: "Auntie, did God make both you and me?"
Spinster aunt: "Yes, dear."
F.: "He's doing better work lately than He used to, isn't He, auntie?"

Timid Wife (to husband who has fallen asleep at wheel): I don't mean to dictate to you, George, but isn't that billboard coming at us awfully fast?

"Mama, if I get married when I grow up, will I have a husband like papa?"
"Why yes, dear," the mother said.
"If I don't get married, will I be an old maid like Aunt Nellie?"
"Yes, dear," replied the mother.
"Well, no matter which way we go, it's a pretty tough world for us women, ain't it?"

"Here, boy," growled the tight-fisted buyer of a newspaper, "what's this you're yelling about 'Great Swindle, Sixty Victims'?"
"Great Swindle!" shouted the youth, even more loudly. "Sixty-one victims!"

Don't Complain, Help

The Sou'wester is the official weekly publication of the student body of Southwestern. Every student is a subscriber and as a subscriber has a perfect right to make suggestions for the betterment of the paper. If there is something wrong or misleading in the paper bring it to the editor and some explanation or correction will be made.

The present staff of the paper has never worked together before, and there are many problems to solve. Doubtless there will be many a slip. The purpose of this article is to let everyone know that it is not the aim of the staff to play favorites. Southwestern is too small a school in enrollment for narrow-minded cliques to be formed, and it is too big a school in idea for any kind of strife or favoritism in any organization to be shown. Help the Sou'wester in trying to eliminate mistakes. After all we're pushing or at least we should be pushing to make Southwestern the greatest school in the country, and this ideal will never be realized through selfish ambition.

Objection to New Rule

The new rule of the faculty forbidding collegiate dances on any night but Saturday has raised quite a stir on Southwestern's campus. Students take the matter too seriously. Just as much fun can be had dancing from eight o'clock until twelve on Saturday night as can be had from ten o'clock until two on some other night. The chief objection we see is that the boys will all get indigestion rushing from dinner at seven o'clock to their rooms to engage in a struggle with friend "tux" and still get to the dance on time. However, time will tell.

Be There and Yell

Southwestern's fightin' Lynx Cats will start the varsity football season Saturday in the game with Lambuth. The team is out to bring home results in every game of the season, but whether it "do or don't" it's the duty of every Southwesterner to be on Fargason Field when the whistle blows. Watch where the crowd goes and join them. There will be three cheer leaders, so display some pep. "Win or lose," "right or wrong," according as the sayings go, it's Southwestern and Southwestern men you're for, so don't be a slacker, but go and yell!

Thanks For the Boost

Publicity is a great thing. The Sou'wester appreciates the efforts of Dr. W. O. Shewmaker in furthering the cause of journalism at Southwestern.

News Bits From Other Colleges

Hitch In Figures About Collegians

BERKELEY, CALIF.—(IP)—The popular conception that college students are youths with their own cars and lots of spending money, does not "hitch" with the figures given out here by the Alumni Bureau of Occupations of the University of California, which reports that last year students at the university earned a total of more than one million dollars while taking their regular college courses. The Bureau this year is seeking to increase that earning power of the students to two million dollars this year. Five thousand students at the school are said to be either totally or partially self-supporting, which represents 75 per cent of the student body.

On Faculty 50 Years

AMHERST, MASS.—(IP)—Dr. John Mason Tyler, professor emeritus of biology at Amherst College, died recently at the age of 78, after having been a member of the faculty here for half a century.

Rescue Stranded Frosh

NEW HAVEN, CONN.—(IP)—Seeking higher education by climbing to the summit of West Rock recently, two Yale freshmen became exhausted and the New Haven fire department had to go to their rescue with a block and tackle.

Five Chinese Shot

Five Chinese youths, all in their teens, were arrested, tried, and shot within two hours at Shanghai recently when they were apprehended while distributing Communist literature. The youths were arrested in the International Settlement, and turned over to the police.—(I.P.)

Pass Or Fail

BERLIN, OHIO.—(IP)—Oberlin college has followed the lead of those higher educational institutions which have abolished the six letter grading system. Hereafter Oberlin students will either "pass" or "fail" and they'll never know whether it was a pass by "D" or an "A."

Sell Suicide Right

A well educated Vienna man has offered to sell the film rights to his suicide, which he is planning for the near future. He plans to blow himself up with a home-made infernal machine.—(I.P.)

Pledges Elect

Pledges of Zeta Tau Alpha sorority elected officers Monday. The new incumbents are Mary Carpenter, president and Josephine Barker, secretary.

SCALPING

by
SHERRY-KEE

Dear Kee:

Your letter last week was of course of great interest to me because all news is good news. It has been so long since I have heard any gossip that I fairly eat it up.

Say, Kee, do you know that one of our fair co-eds was almost caught in an embarrassing situation the other day? Here's the dope. Johnny Hagan, in the College Store, was following his usual course in the art of love-making with all demonstrations included. Well, imagine the fair damsel's surprise (it was Jenny B.) when up sprang a prof who merely said as though to himself, "I wonder if she will last two weeks?" Now just what did he mean by that?

Do you know I am beginning to think that some of us girls are dumb after all. Saturday at the football game when we made that grand ole touchdown and the crowd was yelling and whooping it up, Cordelia Jones was heard to say, "What's all the excitement about. Oh, did we really make a touchdown?" And she had been there for the whole game, too.

I wonder who Jane Barker could have been thinking of in English class the other day? She kept smelling a lone rose and appeared starry-eyed. Bobby, are you the guilty one?

Charlotte Bruce got after Dr. Shewmaker for taking that auto ride last week, and she asked him if he didn't remember one he had had with her. He, equal to all situations, calmly replied, "Maybe not the time, but how could I forget the company?" Nice comeback.

My dear Kee, I'm afraid I'm going to put you down on my "has been" list, especially since I have met Gene Shaw, a Phi Gam from Georgia Tech. Look out, Gene.

Is Pauline Barton's foot really hurt? If so why and how? When I find out the real story I'll tell you. The present one sounds fishy to me.

The latest style on Sunday afternoon seems to be a promenade along the narrow and shady lanes of Parkway. Ask Jimmie Spencer and Elmer Draughn how far they walked last Sunday.

Yours,
SHERRY.

Sugar Diamond Invented by Prof

McPHERSON, KANS.—(IP)—Professor J. Willard Hershey, of McPherson college, has made a real diamond from sugar and iron fillings.

The man-made gem, about the size of a grain of sand, was exhibited at the meeting of the American Chemical Society at Minneapolis and the scientists gathered there accepted the proof offered by the McPherson professor that the stone was a real diamond.

Dr. Hershey believes the day will come when real diamonds of large size will be manufactured for decorative as well as commercial use.

The gem was made by exerting ten tons of pressure to the square inch on pure table sugar. This was done by heating the sugar to white heat at a temperature of 5,000 degrees Fahrenheit, and then, while still white hot, dropping the mass into an ice cold brine. The theory is that the immense pressure created by such fast cooling turned the sugar into diamonds. The foreign matter in the product was then dissolved with various acids, until only the pure carbon remained—carbon now in the form of the world's most precious stone.

Spats Cause Spat

MADISON, WIS.—Warrants for the arrest of Generose and Joe Kresky, members of the University of Wisconsin football team, were issued at the request of Carl Reis, who charged he was beaten by the two men.

Reis complained that the men spoke disparagingly of his spats when he entered a lunchroom and attacked him.

The warrants charged assault.

CONTRACT HAS BEEN AWARDED

Annual Will Be Done In Modern Effect

Definite work on the annual was started Wednesday when Editor George Booth signed the final papers with Benson Printing Company of Nashville. The contract for engraving, was awarded to Jahn and Ollier, engravers, of Chicago, who did the work on the 1928 Lynx.

Contracts were awarded to the companies offering the best combination of price and quality, and were not made until after all companies had had a chance to submit bids.

The 1930 Lynx will contain a larger amount of color work this year, the main division pages and introductory pages being portrayed in glowing colors. Campus views will be in natural color. A modern theme will be carried throughout the book, modern campus life being illustrated in the drawings and sketches.

Paul Jones has been appointed associate editor, and Lois Johnson art editor. Joe Barrett will be snapshot editor for the feature section. Editor Booth has not announced other members of the staff.

"Students will start having their pictures made within the next two weeks," said Booth. An attempt is being made with the photographers to arrange to take the pictures on the campus, thus making it more accessible to dormitory students who have no transportation to the studio. This will also mean that the pictures will be finished in a shorter time.

CATALYNKS TO FURNISH JAZZ

Students Organize Own Orchestra

"The Catalynks", jazz orchestra supreme of Southwestern students, has been definitely organized and will make its first public appearance and announcement soon.

"The Catalynks" is a strictly jazz orchestra and is made up of eight pieces, banjo, three saxophones, two trumpets, one bass and piano. Albert Johnson and Edmund McGivaren are the originators and organizers of the plan. Brooks Kirk is directing.

The orchestra will synopate at open houses, fraternity parties and other school social functions. If business is good, it will play for affairs in the city of Memphis, also.

PERSONALS

Mary Prestidge was a week-end visitor of her parents at Tyconza.

Five Chi Omega's from Ole Miss, including Mary Margaret Atkinson, Ruth Ford, Gerald Estman, Mary Pat Wilkins and Betty Hudson, were in town last week the guests of Lucille Work. They were accompanied by Bob Smallwood, Lysle Bates, Bill Eggleston, John Allen Smallwood and James Taylor. There were several other Ole Miss boys at East End Saturday night.

Elizabeth Patterson, graduate in June, 1929, is studying library work at Drexel Institute in Philadelphia. From all reports she likes it fine.

Ira Woodfin, student at Southwestern for the past two years, is attending the University of Arkansas this year.

"Where Friends Meet"

The Ballad Of Texas Bill

BY THE TWINS
DIRGE

Oh, the Arctic land is a lonesome land
Soul-wracked and steeped in strife,
Where men are rude and women lewd,
And a man must fight for life.

Now "Peter Pan" was a dangerous man,
And a damn good gunman, too.
No man alive with a forty-five
Could do what Pete could do.

Why any old time he could hit a dime
At full one hundred feet.
In the Yukon land there wasn't a man
Who could shoot from the hip like Pete.

I've seen him jump to his feet and pump
Six shots fore the bat of an eye,
And none of the lot but hit the spot
And not a one went high.

But friend and foe in that land of snow
Shunned him like an evil spell,
For to speak the truth, he was in soothe
A man who'd lived in hell.

The Yukon gold had bought his soul,
And the dance hall wench's smile
Had made him sell himself to hell,
To trickery and to guile.

He spent his days in evil ways
And trod the path of sin.
He drank his rum, livid with scum,
Abhorred by decent men.

One bitter day there mushed his way
Into old Dawson town
A slender guy with sombre eye,
And moustache drooping down.

He didn't say much but his look was such
They all steered clear of him
As they noted his gun, a slick blue one,
And his fingers long and slim.

This "Texas Bill" was a man of skill,
He hailed from the sunny south.
He drank his corn like he'd been born
With a half pint in his mouth.

His history was a mystery
From Dawson clear to Nome,
And no one knew but the wild seamew
Where he made his lonely home.

Each Saturday night when the lights were bright
He'd head for the poker game.
He shot dice in that land of ice,
But at poker wide was his fame.

Now these two guys cast loving eyes
On the lady known as Lou.
You've heard the tale of this female
In the "Shooting of Dan McGrew."

Now Lou was fair with raven hair,
Indeed a bonny prize,
With sparkling glance that did enhance
Her bella donna eyes.

Right from the start Bill won her heart,
To Pete's intense dismay,
Whose hatred grew as such will do
More bitter every day.

Until at length with all his strength
He vowed he'd win her hand.
He swore he'd kill this "Texas Bill"
Or drive him from the land.

And so one night in the murky light
Of the Malamute saloon
The two men met to pay the debt
To the pistols' lively tune.

The roulette wheel of wood and steel
Gave forth a steady click,
Whilst drunken guys with bleary eyes
Conversed in voices thick.

A cloud of smoke like an inky cloak
Infested all the room
And like a pall it hung o'er all
And gave an air of gloom.

While at the bar from near and far
The miners thronged about,
With revelry and deviltry
They raised the drunken shout.

Bill and his money were pouring honey
To hard-boiled lady Lou,
When red-eyed Pete mushed up the street
To pay young Bill his due.

He crossed the door of the dance hall floor;
Then face to face with Bill,
And poor Lou screamed as his pistol gleamed
And his gun leaped out to kill.

But Bill's gun flashed like a dog whip lashed
On the frozen Arctic snow,
And Pete's gun spat like a wounded cat
But he was a second slow.

His red eyes blazed, his hand he raised,
And just before he fell
He spoke out low, intense and slow,
"We'll fight it out in hell."

Then with a groan he fell down prone
Upon the filthy floor,
And by his feet they dragged out Pete
Right through the bar-room door.

Pi and student at Southwestern last year, has spent the first two weeks of school here with friends. She left the first of the week for her home in Greenwood, Miss. However, she left the word that her return would be on the date of the first Panhellenic.

Mary Belle Thomason, Kappa Delta and graduate of Southwestern, was seen rambling around the campus Tuesday with some of her sisters.

Dr. W. R. Cooper, Harvey Creech, Leon Mapes and Russell Brigance spent Sunday in Holly Springs, Miss.

Mary McNamara was the guest of Mary Love Banks Saturday. This is Mary Love's senior year at Southwestern. She was a transfer year before last from Goucher. She is a member of Alpha Phi sorority.

Ruth Harris, Evergreen Hall resident, journeyed down Red Banks way last Saturday afternoon, and spent the week-end with her mother and dad.

Mary Carpenter skipped from Evergreen Hall Saturday and spent the week-end with friends in town.

Allison Cole, Chi Omega from Amory, was thrilled this week when her mother came to see her at Evergreen Hall.

Perry Bynum, Kappa Sigma, has returned to school. Perry is a junior this year. He is a star member of the Lynx track squad.

H. P. Drake of Ripley, Ohio, was the guest this week of his two sons, Thomas Drake and Harvey Drake.

Jim High, Jink Joyner, Eldridge Lilly and Lorinne Mitchell spent the week-end in Tupelo.

CLASS WILL BE HELD AT NIGHT

Dr. Kelso Will Teach Public Speaking

Something new in Southwestern's schedule was begun Tuesday night when the first night class of public speaking students was held by Dr. A. P. Kelso in Palmer Hall.

The class was organized this year to fill a need for those students who wanted the course and were unable to get it in the day time, as well as to offer extra credit to those that wanted it.

Class work begins at 7:30 each Tuesday night and lasts for two hours. Instruction in voice production, gesture and platform presence is given. Preparation of speeches and debates is included in the course. The class is open to anyone besides students from Memphis who is not a student at Southwestern and who wishes to enroll in the course.

Two hours credit towards a degree will be given to those passing the course successfully. Those who have taken public speaking 1 and 2 are not eligible for the night class.

KAPPA DELTA'S FETE PLEDGES

A collegiate party was given Thursday night by Kappa Delta sorority in honor of the new pledges. Dancing was enjoyed by a large number of the college crowd.

The following is a list of pledges and their dates: Elizabeth Alley and Willie Rasberry, Martha Bancroft and Schuyler Lowe, Phyllis Brownell and Marion Painter, Elmer Draughan and Horace Harwell, Mary Moore and Bill Daniels, Mary Woosley and Enoch Webb, Golden Seats and John Hagan, Helen Pointer and Jimmie Hamilton, Virginia Finch and Thomas Drake, Marjorie Peoples and Ward Harris, and Martha Lovett Tabb and Reeves Manker.

SEWANEE TIGER WINS FIRST ONE

Sewanee Purple Tigers made a fine early season showing last week when they defeated Tennessee Polytechnic Institute, score 46 to 0. The Tigers used a brilliant aerial attack and a revised version of the triple pass. The Tigers gained at will and gained a total yardage of over four hundred yards from scrimmage. Sewanee and the Lynx grapple on Fargason Field November 9.

If you're so clever, lets hear you give me a sentence with the word diver."
"I love my girl so much I'd diver."

Freshettes Give Chapel Operetta

Grand opera made its bow to Southwestern Monday when more than thirty freshettes staged a program. At the command of the omnipotent Sanhedrin they made the walls of Hardie Auditorium resound with a more or less harmonious burst of song.

The plot had to do with the misfortunes of a hero, a shero, a villain, a vamp, and a lamp post. From all accounts, the acting was done with consummate skill. The chorus, which also constituted living curtains, caused much comment—favorable and otherwise. It is recorded that they flew off key only 59 times.

Southwestern dramatic critics declare that the Southwestern Players will have close rivals in the talented freshettes, who were greeted with cheers and shouts from the peanut gallery.

COLLINS-MERCERE

Virginia Mercere, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lewis Mercere, and Harold B. Collins, son of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Collins of Sedalia, Mo., were married Thursday evening at the home of the bride.

Both the bride and the groom are former students at Southwestern. Miss Mercere is a member of Alpha Omicron Pi sorority, and Mr. Collins is a member of Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity. They will spend their honeymoon in Washington. When they return they will be at home to their friends at 1399 Agnes Place.

JOURNAL WILL APPEAR TWICE

Book To Be Improved In Quality

A proposition to limit the Journal, Southwestern's literary magazine, to two issues a year was discussed by members of the Student Council Monday.

The English department of Southwestern and Frances Arthur, editor of the Journal, proposed the plan. The same amount of money now used on the magazine would still be used. However, the Journal would be greatly increased in size, and the beauty and quality of workmanship would be greatly improved.

Heretofore the Journal has appeared quarterly, but the quality of the paper and cover was not the best because of limited funds. Under the new plan both the literary work and the beauty in make-up would be greatly improved.

The Student Council approved the proposition, and left the matter up to Dr. A. T. Johnson's approval.

CAMPUS NEWS

Janice Coke and Lois Johnson, Zeta Tau Alpha's and juniors, took a little sojourn last week-end down in Mississippi. They visited Berry Stevens at Senatobia.

Roger Wright and Malcolm Gibbons, Beta Sigma's, saw the Vandy-Ole Miss game at Nashville. They drove up in Cleo.

Geneva Jones, Zeta Tau Alpha pledge and resident of Evergreen Hall, journeyed to her home at Newbern, Tenn., last week-end.

President Charles E. Diehl attended the meeting last week of the Nashville Presbytery which was held at Clarksville.

Prof. and Mrs. Ernest Haden of Chicago were visitors on the campus last week. Prof. Haden was former French instructor here. He was succeeded by his brother, Prof. Eric G. Haden.

Ruth Harris, resident of Evergreen hall, visited home folks at Holly Grove last week-end.

Eugene Shaw, Phi Gamma Delta, is a sophomore and a transfer student from Georgia Tech. His home is Memphis. According to what Sherry has to say this week in her letter, Gene has already made friends.

Frances Owings, Chi Omega and freshette last year, is attending Gunston Hall in Washington, D. C., this year.

Former Southwestern students that have matriculated at U. T. doctors this year have been in the grand rush for the past two weeks deciding what medical frat to pledge. Those pledged to Phi Chi fraternity are Harold Avent, Raymond McCalla and "Pete" Melvin. Avent and McCalla are Members of Kappa Alpha social fraternity, and Melvin is a member of Beta Sigma. Moore Moore, a Kappa Alpha, pledged Alpha Kappa Kappa at medical school.

Coach Rasberry Wears a Smile; Likes the Prospects

After just one week's practice, Coach W. C. Rasberry is wearing a smile of satisfaction at the showing that the Lynx three-milers have made. Strengthened by Perry Bynum, ace of last year's cross country team, returning to Southwestern, Rasberry feels confident that a banner season is in store for his charges. The Red and Black trotters' first meet will probably be the Y. M. C. A. open three-mile race. Lynx runners easily won both the team trophy and first and second places in the meet sponsored by the "Y" last fall over a field of 35 of the best distance runners in this vicinity. No other meets have been definitely arranged to date, but at least two dual meets will be on the schedule.

Bynum and Wright at present seem to be the mainstays for the coming season, but they will be pushed hard by several members of last year's varsity and freshman squads. McMillan and Huffman are both game runners and showed enough grit last year with the Bobcats to make them good varsity material. Others out for the varsity are Spencer, Gibbons, Caltagirone, Webb, Ford, Cromwell, and Cobb.

Only five freshmen have reported for practice, but they have made a very creditable showing. Levitch, Drake, Brown, Shinault and McGaughran constitute the hopes for the Bobcats. No meets for them have been arranged, and it is doubtful if any will be. They will be eligible to run in the "Y" meet, but no others, as they will be against conference teams.

15 NEW VOICES IN GLEE CLUB

Recital and Programs to Be Given

Southwestern's Glee Club is entering upon what promises to be its biggest and most successful year. It has recruited some new members from the freshman class and is greatly increased in size.

More than thirty-five men tried out for membership last week before a committee of judges, composed of Prof. Eric G. Haden, director; Marion Painter and Fritz Heidelberg. Fifteen men were accepted.

A recital will probably be given this year and special programs will be given from time to time. Officers of the club this year are Painter, president; Thad Hall, secretary-treasurer; Charles Simmons, business manager.

Those who have been accepted into membership are Garret Ratcliff, John Mosby, Rodney Mills, first tenor; Bill Wright, Harvey Creech, Henry Brown, Ernest Joyner, second tenor; John Gant, Harvey Drake, Milton McCord, Albert Ford, first bass; John Rea, Lem Banks, Roger Breytspraak, Rollins Goldsby, second bass.

Frosh Wants To Buy Sanhedrin

"Oh, no, sir, I didn't do that," said Freshman John Mosby tremulously when he was called before the high disciplinary body of upperclassmen last week. He was charged with insubordination and failure to obey the edict of the Sanhedrin Council. He was taught to mend his ways. Freshman Mosby was the first one to meet the 1929-30 session of the Sanhedrin.

Freshmen William Jones and Charles Plummer were instructed in ways and means of retaining a farmer straw hat upon their heads.

Frosh Douglas Brown offered resistance when he learned that the Sanhedrin was not for sale. "I am so sorry," quoth he as his face frowned in disappointment.

Freshmen Clough Eaton and Harold High were also accused of insubordination. Sentence was made.

HENDRIX ADOPTS NAMES & SLOGANS

Students and faculty members at Hendrix-Henderson College, located at Conway, Ark., have been gradually adopting new names for all the student and college organizations, since the name of the school was changed last spring when Hendrix College and Henderson-Brown College consolidated.

The Lynx play Hendrix-Henderson in football November 16 on Fargason Field.

Thirty Students Transfer From Other Schools to Southwestern

Sophomore Class Gets Seventeen Additions; Juniors Get Eleven; Seniors Two

Sophomores seem to prefer Southwestern. At any rate, the sophomore class of this year boasts more transfer students than any of the other classes, its quota being 17. Next come the juniors, with 11, while the seniors have two. There are six specials.

Among the sophs is Francis Marion May, formerly of Emory University, whose home is at Delhi, La. and William Shinault, Union University, who hails from Somerville, Tenn. William Dallas Spencer of Memphis comes from U. T.

Martha Lovett Tabb of Houston, Miss., used to attend M. S. C. W. Charles Richardson Horton of Aliceville, Ala., transfers from the University of Ala. Geneva Jones, of Newbern, Tenn., comes from M. S. College at Holly Springs.

Wilena Patricia Lanning of Memphis attended Iowa State University last session. Sarah Gray of Memphis deserted Lambuth College for her home town this year. James Lewis Harrison, also of Memphis, comes from Sewanee.

Dick Carmack Herring of Arlington transferred from Vanderbilt. Estelle de Franchesi of Memphis went to Normal last year. Walter Hendrix Faust last attended Jonesboro A. & M. He lives at Beebe, Ark. Virginia Finch, a Memphis girl, transferred from Sweet Briar College. Milly Fry, another Memphian, came from Newcomb.

Elizabeth Stanley Beasley and Helen Porter Brown are both Memphians. The former transferred from Goucher, while the latter comes from University of Chattanooga. Norman Harry Champlin, from the University of Michigan, claims Buffalo, N. Y., as his home town.

Now for the juniors. John Alexander Chambliss, Jr., of Lookout Mountain, Tenn., drilled at Virginia Military Institute last term. Nona Elizabeth Alley of Memphis spent last year at Henderson-Brown. Mary Linn Carpenter hails from Mobile. She attended Alabama College before coming to Southwestern.

The University of Michigan lost another student in Miles Allen Freeman of Conastota, N. Y. Martha McFerrin of Collierville, Tenn., comes from Centenary College. Mary Otey McKellar, of Memphis, attended Columbia University last year. Jennie Burford Puryear, also of Memphis, transferred from Randolph-Macon.

Another former M. S. C. W. student is Lorinne Rogers Mitchell of Tupelo. Blanche Lansing of Newton, Miss., comes from Clarke Memorial College. Eleanor Tucker of Memphis transferred from Brenau, and Mary Harriet Woosley of Paragould, Ark., from

Sanhedrin Gives Lessons To Girls

The freshettes are being suppressed! Those giddy young ladies who flaunted their defiance in the face of the Sanhedrin held a session with the august members of that body from which they emerged much sadder and wiser.

In order to restrain any freshettes who might have disrespectful inclinations, the Woman's Sanhedrin Council summoned some fifteen girls to appear before it after chapel on Tuesday, October 1. Punishment was meted out for sundry offenses such as failure to attend the first freshman football game, to wear baby caps and long dresses, or to carry a potato in a spoon.

There is a lack of any meek and lowly spirit among the freshettes, but some of them showed great dramatic ability in the heart-rending scene from Grand Opera which they presented at the close of the chapel exercises on September 30. The high priestess hopes that they may some day become quite proper co-eds.

K. K. K. Established

K. K. K. is a firmly established organization at Hampden-Sydney College, Hampden-Sydney, Va. Every student is an active member. It is not a secret organization and no hood is worn. The three K's mean Keep Kampus Klean.

Cheers Increased

Will Ed Covington, student at the University of Kentucky and captain of the Wildcat football team, had a new honor bestowed upon him last week. That was the name of "papa." The U. K. cheering section is reported to have increased one hundred fold.

She: "I see by the paper that Babe Ruth walked twice today." Another: "Gosh, she should be more careful with whom she rides."

Belhaven College, at Jackson, Miss.

Those transfers in the senior class are Mary Moore, Helena, Ark., who transfers from Central College at Conway; and Olive Walker, of Springfield, Ky., formerly of Maryville College.

The specials are: Laura Harrison Davis of Tenoir, N. C. who last attended St. Mary's at Raleigh; Allie Love of Memphis former student at Wesleyan College; Eugene Adelbert Shaw, Memphian, transfer from Georgia Tech; Alice Adeline Stout, another Memphian, from Swarthmore College; Mrs. Ruth Pankratz, also of Memphis, who comes from the University of Kansas; and Paul Sylvester Hein of Memphis, who last engaged in the sacred pursuit of learning at De Paul University, Chicago.

FROSH TRAVEL FOR NEXT TILT

Two Weeks in Which to Prep

With the Bobcats idle for the next two weeks, Wes Adams, Frosh mentor, will have ample opportunity to smooth out the rough places that showed up in last week's fray with T. M. I. Both the offense and the defense of the freshman machine need grooming, and frequent scrimmage sessions and dummy tackling are expected for the Cats during the coming weeks. The youngsters have not yet played together enough to perform as smoothly as they are capable, and the game last week served to give them more confidence in each other, for even in defeat, the Bobcats made a mighty good showing.

With High, Joyner, Wenzler, Harri, and a host of other backfield material on hand, a crew of fast, passing, punting, and tackling backs should be able to make consistent gains against all their rivals of the season. The beef combined with speed on the forward wall with a little more practice, will mete out regular doses of grief to their opponents. Wilson and Perrett exhibited plenty of football ability on their wings, as did McCormack on guard.

The Bobcats travel to Cleveland, Miss., October 12 to meet the Delta State Teachers College eleven for the second encounter of the year.

SPORT LIGHTS

George Hightower, better known as "Snookums," is again after the coveted title of the laziest man out for football. He just about has the other contestants cowed, but a few are still hanging on, trying to dislodge him from his lofty perch.

By the way, Bill Walker and Ed Dettwiler are showing the old men some new tricks about this man's game called football. They are both products of Wes Adams' 1928 Bobcat eleven. . . . When you start passing out the honors among the Lynx gridders this year, don't overlook the scrappiness of both ends, Russell and Brown. They are in there with every ounce of them fighting for the honor of Southwestern. . . . Charlie Diehl must have been booting watermelons around all summer, because that boy certainly is putting a mean toe under that old pigskin. . . . Meeks Hinson, another product of Dyersburg, has quit slinging sundaes at the corner drug store, and is in much better condition than he was last season. It certainly looks bad!

Stylus Meets and Eats

"All Quiet On The Western Front" by Eric Maria Remarque, was the book reviewed by John Hagan Tuesday night at the first meeting of the Stylus Club of Sigma Upsilon in the Bell Room of Hugh M. Neely Hall. Erle Howry talked on "The Case of Sergeant Grisha." Thad Hall gave a review of "Rough Justice," by C. E. Montague. Abe Fortas is president of the club.

Chi Delta Phi

Chi Delta Phi literary sorority will meet at the home of Frances Arthur Oct. 9 to read papers which candidates have written for membership. Invitations to write for the society were issued to nineteen girls last week.

Improve Stadium

Sliding doors have been built across the cinder track in the stadium, so that gate crashers may be kept out during football games. When track meets are held the doors will be pushed back out of the way.

Bobcats Lose Game In Last Minute Play

Harold High Is Star of Bobcat Team

Southwestern Bobcats met defeat in their first start of the year at the hands of T. M. I. in a closely contested tilt at Fargason Field last Saturday. In true dime novel style, a T. M. I. back snagged a pass in the last minute of the game and raced over the line to tie the score. On try for extra point, the Tupelo Colonels bucked the line for the much needed three yards and victory, the game ending at that moment with the score board showing 13 to 12 in favor of the visitors.

Harold High proved the star of the game with his ball carrying, tackling, and head work. Time after time High would snatch a punt, then weave his way through the invaders by every known trick of a well trained back. Perrett at right end played a stellar game and caused Tupelo much grief on his side of the line. Carson on left tackle hit his stride in the second half and played a steady game for the rest of the battle.

Black carried off the individual honors for the visitors by his spectacular running and passing. Richardson, A. Daly, and Lawhorn shared honors with the fleet Black for the Colonels.

HINES IS NEW CHEER-BOY

Byram and Murphy Are Assistants

"Pee-wee" Hines, James Byram and "Chick" Murphy were elected last week as Lynx cheer leaders. "Pee-wee" is head man and will lead all parades and student demonstrations at football games and other athletic events.

Murphy and Byram will act as assistants. These three men were selected by members of the Lynx Club out of a number that had presented themselves for the job, which was left vacant by the graduation of Harold Avent and the failure of Allen Haden to return to school.

Pep meetings have been held in preparation for the opening game Saturday. Some good yelling is expected. It is thought that there will be at least one bonfire this year.
