Many Kappa Sigs Present On Gala Day

The Kappa Sig housewarming last Saturday afternoon proved to be a gala affair. Between six and seven hundred guests visited the chapter lodge during the course of the afternoon, to inspect the house and its furnishings, and to partake of the refreshments which were offered to them. The faculty and student body of Southwestern turned out en masse to enjoy this longly anticipated event. The guests were received by the officers of the fraternity, and were officially welcomed to the domicile of the Kappa Sigs.

Among the most distinguished personages at the house during the course of the afternoon were Dr. and Mrs. Chas. Diehl, Prof. and Mrs. Scott, Dr. and Mrs. Kelso, Dr. and Mrs. Strickler, Drs. Cooper, McDougall, Monk, Atkinson, and Bassett, and Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Davis. The Memphis alumni of the chapter were present in a body, and several of the younger out of town alumni graced the occasion with their shining countenances. Will Holloman, Charley Hudson, Charley Smith, Buster Smythe, Buster Thomason, Wes Livaudais, Oscar Hurt, Billy Hughes, Oral Waring, and Buster Thomason were also present to view the completion of the lodge which they started work upon. Charley "Fox" Terry, class of '29, sent his deepest sentiments to the local chapter in a telegram: "Greetings and congratulations, would give my last shirt to be there." R. E. Craig, of New Orleans, expressed his regrets for his inability to be present at the opening, and many more of the out of town alumni wired their congratulations to the Kappa Sigs.

The house has been strikingly furnished—the English tavern motif being followed to the smallest detail. The reception hall contains a smart console-table and mirror and wall-bench of hand-carved oak.

The living room of the house continues the decorating scheme. A set of twin lounges, two spacious arm-chairs, two benches, and a large refractory center table comprise the more stable furnishings. An electrically lighted replica of the Kappa Sigma pin is suspended over the massive fire-place; a mounted deer head, a mirror, several pennants, and a rosette of the fraternity colors adorn the walls of the house. Two skin rugs, a buffalo and a deer-skin, serve as sufficient coverings for the floors. Many appropriate gifts of smoking-stands, lamps, and ash-trays were received from the various fraternities and sororities and faculty members. Dr. Atkinson is the donor and placer of the two beautiful evergreens which adorn the front terrace of the lodge.

Marion Painter, president, states that the Kappa Sigs will be more than pleased to have members of the student body visit them at any convenient time and join in on the bull-sessions at the house.

Richie Speaks

"Jesus As An Example in Choosing a Vocation" will be Malcolm Richie's subject when he conducts the Southwestern Bible Class Sunday morning in Room 101, Palmer Hall.

Initiate Two

Elizabeth Beasley and Mary McKellar were given the final degree of initiation last week by Alpha Omicron Pi sorority. The grand president of the sorority, Miss Elizabeth Wyman, attended the ceremony.

Hunt Eggs

Memphis Alumnae Chapter of Alpha Omicron Pi will give a benefit Easter egg hunt on Saturday afternoon, April 19, at two-thirty o'clock. The hunt will be at Lausanne School. Admission will be 25 cents.

KING AND QUEEN REIGN AT APRIL FOOL CARNIVAL IN GYM

George Whitaker, Master of Ceremonies; Classes and Greeks Give Stunts; Zeta's Win Plaque

The student body en masse garbed in weird and peculiar and cute and attractive costumes turned out for the April Fool Carnival in the gym Tuesday night. Everyone came prepared to have fun and everyone admits that it was found.

The gym was decorated in red and black streamers hung from an iron ring in the center of the building to either end. Suspended from the ring was a large basket made of crepe paper containing hundreds of balloons, which were released by a string pulled by Robert Lloyd, president of the student body.

George Whitaker acted as master of ceremonies and carried the job out well, announcing each stunt in his usual verbose manner. Each class and Greek letter group had a stunt which was judged by Profs. J. H. Davis, S. H. Monk and W. R. Cooper. Zeta Tau Alpha sorority was awarded the mahogany plaque to have the sorority coat of arms emblazoned thereon for having the cleverest stunt. Dumb Interlude, the title of the event, was acted by Margaret Williams and Louise Nowlin, with Dorothy Whitten as announcer, and resulted in a general scandal-revealing conversation about different members of the student body. Chi Omega sorority came second and Delta Theta Pi sorority third. The Chi Omega stunt was called Jeremiah's Auto Ride, with Lorinne Mitchell and Ann Galbreath as chief actors. The Delta Theta Pi stunt was entitled Little Nell, pet of the plains.

The stunts were all performed before the King and Queen of the carnival, Robert Logan and Meredith Davis, who graciously reigned from their thrones for the evening. A spray of roses was presented Queen Meredith by Bobby Lloyd.

The class stunts caused a lot of laughter and merriment among the spectators, because of the ridiculous and in some cases scant costumes which were used. The sophomore stunt was a take-off on the faculty, being a wedding between Prof. W. R. Cooper and Mrs. Rutland. The seniors burlesqued the graduation exercises, Irene Hyman being the learned pedagogue conferring degrees, while wearing a short senior robe over a red bathing suit and doing a tap dance to the strains of the Catalinks. The junior boys caused a sensation when they came forth for the dance of the nymphs, being garbed in bath towels. The freshmen had a womanless wedding with "Kit" Carson as bride and Howell Tatum as groom.

Beta Sigma fraternity gave a fashion revue; Kappa Delta sorority had a dumb orchestra, dumb in the sense that it made no noise. The Kappa Sigs had a harmony trio of french harps, Jimmy and Johnny Hughes and Perry Bynum being the musicians. A cornet duet by Bowman Hall and William Taylor was also part of the Kappa Sigma stunt. The Alpha Omicron Pi Steppers presented a snappy dance number, led by Irene Hyman and Gertie Mayo and was well received. Alpha Tau Omega fra-

Perfect Plans For Steamer Pan

Invitations for the next Panhellenic to be held on the Steamer J. S., Wednesday night, April 16, will be sent out next week by the Men's Panhellenic Council. Only Southwestern students and alumni of the school are invited to the dance.

Sophocleans Meet

Members of the Sophoclean Club will discuss the play, "Saint Joan" by Bernard Shaw tonight at the home of Dr. C. L. Townsend.

ternity raised a lot of feathers and excitement when A Family Fuss was given, blindfolded freshmen of the chapter being placed in a ring with bags of feathers. It was a survival of the fittest.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity gave a stunt, a little shaky and tottering, but one of the best liked of the evening. It was entitled the Soldiers' Chorus, George Booth, Harry Walton, June Davidson and Buster Dial doing the singing.

A boxing match between Ray Woods, freshman, and "Peewee" Hines, sophomore, was fought to a draw in three rounds. The frosh and sophs, however, demanded a settlement of all scores so a big free-for-all took place first in the gym, fighting places being changed to Robb, Calvin and finally Stewart Hall later. Charles Plummer, freshman, took a dip in the Overton Park lily pond at the hands of upperclassmen, and several upperclassmen almost followed him in but managed to fight out of it.

Peanuts and pink lemonade were dispensed from one corner of the big hall. Between acts music, peppy, snappy and good, was furnished by the Catalinks, Southwestern's own jazz orchestra, composed of Albert Johnson, Edmund McGivaran, Leon Mapes, Harvey Creech, William Austin and Billy Marsh.

BOOKS COME TO THE BASEMENT

Supply and Book Store Now All In One

Arrangements have been completed for moving the book store from the third floor of Palmer Hall to the Supply Store headquarters in the basement of Hugh M. Neely Hall. The necessary fixtures which must be installed before the transfer can be accomplished will be finished within a week.

Miss Marjorie Gates will be in charge of both the Supply Store and the book store which have been consolidated under the new plan. Willis McCabe, who has managed the Supply Store very capably up until now will devote himself entirely to coaching the freshman teams. The personnel of the store will remain unchanged, those boys who are serving as clerks being retained.

The regular bill of fare of the Supply Store will be continued after the fixtures have been installed.

The consolidation went into effect April 1.

A. O. Pi's Elect

Alpha Omicron Pi sorority elected officers Monday for the coming school year. They are Harriet Shepherd, president; Virginia Demuth, vice-president; Martha McFerrin, recording secretary; Elizabeth Beasley, corresponding secretary; Virginia Richmond, treasurer, and Carolyn McKellar, Panhellenic Council representative.

THE MEN WORK FIGURES SHOW

It may be the women who pay but it is surely the men who work, that is if Southwestern students are to be considered as representative of humanity in general. There are only four co-eds who work to help defray their college expenses as compared with 64 boys, several of whom pay all their expenses, according to information compiled by Dr. W. R. Atkinson.

Out of 68 students who are em-

Young Manker Sorry For His Sins

"Reckless driving under the influence of liquor, resisting an officer, defying the judge, crashing into another man's car and attempting to break out of jail," are the charges which were placed against Reeves Manker, youthful sophomore Monday night by the police judge of Memphis.

Young Manker was returning from a costume party. The fact that he was in a long night gown and wearing a baby cap proved to the officer that the youth was slightly inebriated. The trial was called for Tuesday but was postponed until later. When interviewed, the sophomore said, "I'm so sorry for my sins, I repent."

MILLSAPS ON DEBATE CARD

Team Preparing for Hot Fight With Schools

The Southwestern Debating team after a successful crusade through the North will carry its burning brand of disarmament through the South when James Randle and Charles Simmons meet Millsaps and Birmingham-Southern on the question: Resolved, that the nations should adopt a policy of complete disarmament excepting those forces needed for police protection. Howard College will also be included in the campaign which is to get under way before the Easter holidays.

Abe Fortas and Randle will debate George Whitaker and Malcolm Richie on the same topic at the services of some church to be announced later, the strife to occur Monday evening, April 28. It is rumored that the teams are seeking a fire-proof building that will withstand the heated eloquence and passionate oratory that bids fair to result in spontaneous combustion.

The further schedule of the team will be announced later. Let it be said, however, that several choice esoteric, and highly delectable encounters have been arranged with teams of no mean merit and repute. The noted Harvard Debating Team will oppose Southwestern near the end of the semester on the aforementioned topic. Their men are bent down with the many oratorical medals they have won, so the local boys are burning the midnight oil scheming witty, pithy, and at once convincing repartee for their brilliant, scintillating, and scathing outbursts. More will be revealed later as the time and the situation demand.

Speaks At Blytheville

Dr. E. D. McDougall preached at Blytheville, Ark., last Sunday. The services were held at the First Presbyterian church. The text of Dr. McDougall's address was taken from Galatians: "For every man shall bear his burden."

K. A.'s Elect

Kappa Alpha fraternity has elected the following officers for the ensuing school year: Thomas Drake, president; Billy Armstrong, vice-president; Keenan Clinton, secretary; Bill Thomas, Panhellenic representative.

CINDER MEET TO START AT 2:30 O'CLOCK

Annual Meet to Be Held on Fargason Field

RHODES STARTER

Each Man Counts For Frat and Class

On your mark, get set, go! That familiar command will ring out over Fargason field Saturday afternoon to start the second annual intra-mural track meet. The first event will be called at 2:30 o'clock.

All of the events are under the direction of Coach W. C. Rasberry. He hopes to make the meet an even greater success than the one last year. The track is in fine shape and some good time should be made on the sprints.

Each man that is in good standing in the school is eligible to enter any event. The meet will be run according to the rules of the A. A. U. E. Each man will count for his fraternity and class, first place to count five points, second place, three, and third place, one.

The list of events, the time, and possible entries, follows:

- 2:30—100-yard dash, Hightower, Knight, H. High, Goldsmith and Logan.
- 2:35—Pole vault, M. Ford, McGee and Pat Barrett.
- 2:45—One-mile run, McMillan, Bynum, Bornman and Wright.
- 2:50—Shot put, Lily Baine, Hebert and G. Booth.
- 3:00—220-yard dash, M. Ford, King, Newton, Hightower and W. Hall.
- 3:10—High jump, Newton, M. Ford, and Robertson.
- 3:20—880-yd. run, McMillan, Wright and Bynum.
- 3:30—Discus throw, Davidson, M. Ford, Hebert, G. Booth and Baine.
- 3:40—440-yard dash, Newton, Lloyd, Richie, N. Walton and Russell.
- 3:45—Broad jump, M. Ford and Newton.
- 4:00—Two-mile run, McMillan, Huffman, McGaughran, Bornman.
- 4:10—220-yard low hurdles, King, M. Ford, H. Brown.
- 4:10—Javelin throw, Lloyd, McGee and Bynum.

Dr. P. N. Rhodes will be the starter for all the races.

A cup will be given the winning fraternity team and a cup to the winning class team. Last year the Alpha Tau Omega fraternity and the junior class won the cups. A hot fight is expected because the contestants have been training for the last two months.

Chi Omegas Plan Founder's Banquet

The Kappa Beta Chapter of the Chi Omega fraternity will celebrate Founder's Day with a banquet Saturday night, April 5, at the Hotel Peabody.

Attractive programs have been designed upon the theme of the convention which will be held in Hot Springs early in June, at which time a Greek amphitheater will be dedicated on the campus of the University of Arkansas, at Fayetteville, the place where Chi Omega was founded.

The color scheme will carry out the colors of the fraternity, cardinal and straw. The table will be decorated with red and yellow roses. About fifty active Chi Omega and alumni are expected.

Jane Hyde, the retiring president of the chapter, will give the official welcome to the guests. Following this, Mrs. Norman Monaghan will make a short talk about the convention. Lucille Work will talk on the subject, "Looking Backward", and Lorinne Mitchell will give a brief "Who's Who," or glimpse into the future of the present members of Kappa Beta. The singing of one or two Chi Omega songs will conclude the program.

Reports Out

Reports for the first half of the spring semester will be given out either today or tomorrow.

Campus Echoes

By JOHN REA

You know, one often hears wise cracks that are more or less wise as the case may be. Many are pointless, others are crude, and still others are placed in the wrong category altogether. It falls to Lula's lot to receive the vote for the intelligent crevice (with apologies to Lorinne Mitchell) of the week. For those who don't know, Lula is the versatile maid in Calvin Hall. She was remarking the other day about her financial condition and said that she was as broke "as the Ten Commandments." Now I ask you, doesn't that express it just about as well as you could want?

THE PROOF
Spring is here.
Here's how I tell.
I'm lazy, sick,
And feel likell.

People are awfully curious and impatient. After almost two years in the Antarctic, Byrd succeeded in mapping out an entirely new continent. The report of his discoveries had hardly reached the United States before some upstart of an astrologer made it known that he had discovered a brand new planet, not merely a few ice-covered islands. If this restless spirit prevails during the next few generations, someone may discover a bona fide cure for dandruff. Until then, we will have to struggle on as best we can. Instead of all these useless discoveries, why couldn't the geniuses of the land devote their time and money to some useful research. Long has the world searched in vain for methods to prevent a young lady from ordering "chicken salad again," to make you unafraid to love, to make you the life of the party by taking six easy lessons on any musical instrument, and any other of the countless problems that face the youth of today.

The Annual April Fool's Day Celebration has come and gone. To my way of thinking, it was a mighty good entertainment. Everybody cut loose and had a good time, still there was no rowdiness. It just goes to show that this old world isn't getting as bad as some of these old-timers would like to make us believe. The whole performance was one to be proud of, and did a lot toward keeping up that Southwestern spirit.

Fencing Gaining Ground Rapidly

Fencing, as a sport, is fast gaining ground at Southwestern. Large classes of both boys and girls have responded to the call issued by George Pahlberg, some time ago, for those interested in the sport to organize.

The boys class, meeting at 2 o'clock on Monday and Wednesday afternoons, is composed of 24 interested young swains, the most promising, in the art of stab and step, are the Hughes twins, Jimmy Smith and Stanley Frazer.

Twenty of the fair co-eds meet Monday and Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock for fencing practice. They all are progressing rapidly under the eagle eye of Prof. Tata and Pahlberg, and those showing most form are Lyle Stange, Elizabeth Gale, Jane Barker and Alice Rodgers.

Both classes are in the advanced stage, having passed through the preliminary lessons for beginners. A half hour of the time in practice is taken up in drilling, and the other hour is used in competitive work.

Uniforms are being purchased by boys and girls.

Prof. Tata and Pahlberg are arranging a great exhibition in which the members of the two classes will participate.

So They Think--

"The ultra-modern girl is just as good as the girl of forty years ago."—Jane Adams.

"We make the mistake that the college degree and culture are identical."—John Erskine.

"There is nothing of which I am more deeply convinced than that university education is destroying civilization."—G. B. Shaw.

"Present-day defenses on both land and sea may become obsolete before nations can agree on disarmament."—Lord Dewar.

"The man who succeeds in his work is the man who can keep quiet and placid when there is very severe pressure."—Charles E. Hughes.

A CASUAL REFLECTION

Someone was overheard the other day making the remark that the present student body could not compare in matter of achievement or intelligence with the student body of two years ago—the student body having as some of its members Chester Frist, Crawford McGivaren, Chester Denham, "Dumpy" Beall, Frank Heiss, Willam Orr, Harman Ayres, Richard Hunsaker and Earl McGee.

Looking over the present student body does one find so many conservative and yet progressive members, or did that student body seem to be so great then because the present writer was a freshman and the "far off" seemed great, the proximity to members of the student body now seeming to lessen their greatness? Possibly to their own classmates those men mentioned above and others were not as great as they seemed to be to an impressionable freshman.

Is the present student body gradually furnishing an illustration to the sociology department of social decadence or is that a frightful illusion in the mind of the writer? Are we deteriorating into a silly, aimless, youthful bunch of boys and co-eds, carelessly munching our cakes or candy before the victrola in the store, or was that group of students two years ago the same as we are now, only appearing a little more thoughtful to the onlooker?

Of course, that group of students, graduating in 1928 and 1929, were the first pioneers of Southwestern in its new location. Reorganization was necessary, and some fundamental things had to be done for the efficient working of student body functions. Maybe that work or responsibility on those men imbued them with more seriousness and a greater sense of responsibility for the school because they were the first pioneers.

This present student body, however, must still be a pioneer, although the clearing has already been made. It's for us to add some of the finer touches now—to complete some of the work the first pioneers began, or again, is that a silly illusion?

JUST A SUGGESTION

Each group on the campus wants publicity and feels slighted if it doesn't get that publicity. Up to the present time it's been up to members of the staff to get out and dig up fraternity and sorority news and individual club news each week. Staff members are not mind-readers, able to discern when this group or that group has a luncheon, an election, or a meeting. So may we suggest while groups are electing officers this spring for the coming year, that they also elect or appoint a press reporter to see that all club news be published. If club news is left out then, don't blame the staff.

Quips

Well, suh, the junior boys really came out Tuesday night in that bath towel chorus. Weren't Jeffie and "Sugar" adorable?

President Diehl strutted forth in a new grey hat Sunday. It was quite keen looking. Must have gotten it to match Mrs. Diehl's grey suit.

"Liz" Williams and "Hazy" Edmunds got the little habit of picking up hikers on their trip to Kentucky. Suggest they take a chaperon next time. They're tipping off all the local fans as to the favorite in the Kentucky Derby also. Hope it's good dope.

Richie Morgan really rates. Mary Moore and Nelle Martin came up Sunday afternoon and took him riding, Richie in the front seat with the two girls. The fourth member of the party, a boy, occupied the rumble seat all by himself.

Noticed the way boxes is abbreviated on the sign in the College Store? It's spelled box's. The sign was painted by the Black Hand. One wonders.

Martha McFerrin just learned this week how the Greek letter, Omicron was spelled, although a member since last September of a sorority having that letter in its name. She always spelled it Omnicron.

A.: Man is wonderful. He has learned to fly like a bird.

O. Pi.: Yes, but he hasn't learned to sit on a barbed wire fence.

GOOD AUDIENCE ATTENDS PLAYS

Players Give Fine Showing On Wednesday

The Southwestern Players opened their spring activities Wednesday night in Hardie Auditorium when they gave three one-act plays before a large audience. There was a good showing of town people as well as students.

While the curtain was down between the three plays Bill Brinkley and his "Royal Collegians" entertained with melodious ditties.

"Copy," a newspaper story, furnished the audience with plenty of excitement and melodrama, the story concerning an editor and his wife, their trials and tribulations. Tommy Drake, the managing editor, had as his co-workers, Bill Berson, city editor; Marion Painter, copy boy, and Jimmy Byram, Stanley Frazer, Norman Champlin and Paul Jones, reporters.

The second play, "The Eve In Evelyn," directed by John Hagan, was done well. Jennie Puryear, the heroine; John Hagan, her lover; Hazel Edmunds and George Paullus, her parents, and Albert Erskine, the innkeeper, were the characters.

"Dregs," a tragedy, was well-received by the audience. "Fritz" Heidelberg, playing the role of a dope fiend, an ex-convict and a crook, kidnaps a little girl, Jennie Puryear, demanding $48,000 ransom. The play was full of pathos, many a handkerchief being used Wednesday night to brush away the tears.

"WAITER, HERE'S A CHICKEN IN THIS EGG."

"WELL, WHAT DID YOU EXPECT, A BICYCLE?"

And then there was the Scotchman who carried his wife's false teeth around with him to keep her from eating between meals.

She: Are you from Harvard?
He: No, I have an ingrown tonsil.

He: Where were you all my life?
She: Where I should be now.

Hard Course and Bad Luck Beat Lynx

Southwestern's golf team lost to the Vanderbilt team last week end, score 32-3. The Lynx were greatly handicapped because they were playing on a course that they never had seen before. Also the members of the team made the bad mistake of playing too much golf on the day before the match.

Sloan Williams was the only Southwestern man to win in the match. He beat his opponent 2-1 in the morning round but lost one up in the afternoon play. He also had the best score of any Lynx man. His score for the first match was 79, and 80 for the second round. Oliver Cromwell was next with a score of 81-82. Harvey Kidd followed with 85-87. Robert Sanders played 18 holes in 91 and Jack Watson shot an 89 for 18 holes.

COLORED SANHEDRIN HELPS HELPERS TO BEHAVE ON DUTY, SAYS BOBO

"Yas suh, we is got a Sanhedrin and we whups them when dey does wrong." These were the words of Bobo (last name unknown), when asked to confirm or disprove certain rumors circulating around the campus that he was a leader of an organization for the punishment of all new hired hands that are employed by the school.

Perhaps it would be fitting at this time to give a brief history of this most active organization of the school. In the fall of 1928 Clara and Bobo saw the great need of some kind of an organization for corralling the new hired help that came on the campus. A petition was immediately drawn up and the privilege of organizing such a club was granted by the faculty and Dr. Diehl. John Henry, although he had been working on the campus for the last ten years, was the first one to be initiated by Clara and Bobo. He was duly initiated, being made to feel the resounding licks of the paddle, and now is active president of the organization. They have been active on the campus ever since the first few weeks after organization, and now their victims number up into the 20's or 30's. Everyone of the colored helpers in the dining hall and kitchen have been called up before the Dark Sanhedrin and forcefully corrected for their wicked ways.

The policy of the D. S. has been to whip new members of the working staff but when no new members are added, any colored gent'man on the campus may be subject to the beck and call of the members. To quote Clara, "When dey talks too much, talks out of turn, gets too smart, we has to take dem down."

The writer was allowed the privilege of seeing the painful correction of Vandy, Tuesday morning. It would have made Robert Russell, president of the boys Sanhedrin, hang his head in downright pity for the suffering neophyte. The regulation paddle is made of oak, two and one-half feet long, one-fourth inch thick, eight inches wide, and weighs a pound and a half. The torture chamber is situated on the first floor of Robb Hall. Vandy was given the regular tally and I thought that surely no human being had ever undergone such unmerciful treatment since the beginning of the world. Vandy was corrected for not obeying Clara in the kitchen. It is a pretty good guess that he will never do such a thing again in all his life. Clara and Bobo laid a firm hand on him while Lula meted out the punishment. John Henry presided over the proceedings and he wore a big smile of contentment as the meeting ended. Vandy made no move to resist the punishment or deny the charge.

No misbehaving at all is allowed among the new members of the working crew. There is one striking difference between the Boys Sanhedrin

Swimmers Making Rapid Progress

The boys' swimming team, under the direction of George Pahlberg, with the able assistance of Chauncey Barbour and Keenan Clinton, is making rapid progress. The boys are trying out for the team meet three times a week at the Y. M. C. A., where Pahlberg secured the pool gratis, for practice. Tuesday and Wednesday nights and Friday afternoon are the times set aside for practice.

Some of the boys are showing real ability in these practices, and the team picked from the many aspirants is sure to be a strong one, one that will be capable of holding up Southwestern's name where swimming is concerned. Goodlet Brown, Malcolm Smith, Harvey Creech, Jimmy Wilson, the Hughes twins and Billy Hughes are all showing a great deal of form in practice.

No meet has been definitely arranged as yet, but Pahlberg has under consideration a meet with the "Y" paddlers. He is also trying to arrange a big meet in which several teams, such as the Elks and the Catholic Club and the Y and Southwestern will take part.

They called her Alma Mater and she educated a lot of the old boys.

The boy stood on the burning deck With her arms around his neck, When she looked into his eyes—heck, The boy was burning, not the deck.

and the Dark Sanhedrin. The D. S. meets any time during the day when a member thinks that any one on the campus needs correcting.—By Elbert Huffman.

Evergreen Hall

Evergreen wonderland:

Wonder if someone will donate some incense to drown out the smell of cod-liver oil? Ugh!

Wonder whether it was Jeff Davis or June Davidson who sat upon one of our delicate tables, causing it to give up the ghost?

Wonder who Jack Watson will walk home from dinner with tonight? That's always a gamble.

Wonder why Miles Freeman and Jimmie Spencer never know what time it is?

Wonder who holds such lengthy conversations at Lucille Parente's window?

Wonder if Mary Moore likes blind dates?

Wonder if Bob Russell is a Scotchman "looking for a light over-head"?

Two thirds of our Holly Grove inmates went home for the week-end, Louise Mayo and Jimmie Walls. In connection with this event it was noticed that Johnnie Rollow's car was missing from the campus.

Mary Woosley is leaving April 12 for Atlanta to be gone until Sunday. She is going to attend the installation of a Kappa Delta chapter at Oglethorpe. Evergreen Hall takes this opportunity to extend its sympathy to Roger Wright.

Give Emblems To Co-Eds For Athletic Work

Awards Will Be Given On Point Basis, Says Coach

Interest of the co-eds in athletics has been greatly heightened by an announcement made by Miss Louise Stratman that a handsome emblem is to be given to every girl who presents at the end of the year as many as 15 points for work on the various teams.

Points for the emblem are to be counted as follows: Attendance, 2; membership on a class team, 3; championship, 5.

There is to be a girl's track meet on Saturday, May 3. All co-eds who are interested are urged to start training at once and come out for practice on Monday, Wednesday, or Friday, at 1:30 to 2:30.

Tennis enthusiasts among the girls will have a chance to try their skill at a tournament which will be held during the week of May 10. Those who are interested in this will find out further plans from Miss Stratman.

13 GIRLS WILL BE REWARDED

Basketball Squad Gets Sweaters, Letters

The members of the girls' basketball squad will be rewarded Saturday for their season's work when sweaters will be given some and letters others at a luncheon in the Bell Room of Hugh M. Neely Hall. Six girls will receive sweaters and seven letters.

Those girls to receive sweaters are Frances Crawford, captain; Margaret Ashley, Lyle Stange, Virginia Richmond, Blanche Sansing and Alice Rogers.

Elizabeth Gale, Catherine Bigelow, Rosabel Archer, Elsie Ellison, Floye Buford, Mary Bornman and Jane Barker will be awarded letters.

The season was brought to a close when the Kittens were defeated in their last game with St. Agnes.

The deacon got drunk on Monday, And while thus he tolled the great bell; Now the populace throughout the village Says, "He ain't done right by our knell."

Horseshoe Tourney

The Southwestern horseshoe tournament, held up by inclement weather, will get under way Wednesday when the home town champ Watson defends his title against a score of ambitious opponents.

An entry list has been posted on the bulletin board on which each aspirant should inscribe his name so that the matches can be drawn up.

Class teams will swing into action after the regular tournament is finished. All class teams will consist of two players who will play a single match each and a double match against their opponents.

Preachers Are Training Hard For Big Meet

Men Out For Almost Every Event In Unique Meet

Watch these Preachers! The ministers are not content to hold heated disputes with the Coach as to campus problems as he watches over his proteges, but they too must scamper joyfully down the track or soar lightly over the cross-bar.

Each day finds quite a few preachers training for their track meet with Union's preacher track-men on May 21. Coach Rasberry has been pleasantly surprised to find candidates out almost every event.

As many men as possible will be taken to Jackson, for it is hoped that some of the students will offer their cars to use for the trip, allowing more than just a few to enter the meet.

Plans for a team to be sent to the S. I. A. A. conference meet are still tentative, for as yet the team has not had its flame test in competition with other teams. The meet will be held on May 10, at Clinton, S. C.

Lynx to Meet Vandy Golfers

In a return engagement the Southwestern golf team plays the mashie wielders from Vanderbilt this weekend in their own back yard. The Lynx are expected to make a better showing this week because they are playing on a course that they are used to and have been playing some good golf on all the year. Oliver Cromwell and Sloan Williams are expected to give the Vandy men plenty of trouble, as they have been playing the Galloway course under 80 consistently.

The match will be held Saturday morning and Saturday afternoon over the Galloway course.

The Vanderbilt team will be lead by "Hot" Wheeler, a consistently good player that sent his Lynx opponent Kirkpatrick, Ira Parker, and Bill Warwick are the other men who will represent the Nashville school against Southwestern.

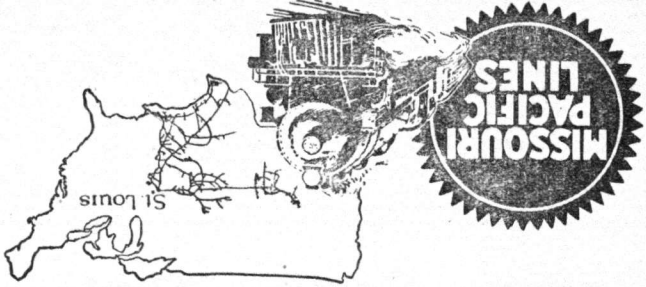

This will be the second meet for the Lynx golfers this season and they are anxious to turn in a victory as well as to get revenge on the Vanderbilt Commodores.

Chi Omegas Elect

Lucille Work of Memphis was elected president of the Kappa Beta Chapter of the Chi Omega fraternity at the meeting on March 25. Lucille is a member of the Junior Class. She attended Hollins College for three semesters before coming to Southwestern. While at Southwestern she has made an enviable record in scholarship and taken a prominent part in school activities.

Other officers elected for the coming year were: Anna Hudson, Tupelo, Miss., vice-president; Margaret Mason, G. M.; Eloise Brett, treasurer, and Jane Barker, secretary, all of Memphis.
