RHODES HONOR MEN SELECTED ON SATURDAY

Committee Picks Scholar For High Honor

CANDIDATES GATHER

Dr. R. P. Strickler Heads Selection Committee

The annual try-outs for the Rhodes Scholarship in District Three, consisting of Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, and Tennessee, will be held tomorrow in the Directors Room here at Southwestern when twelve candidates from all over the South compete before the Selection Committee for the coveted honor. This is the second time in five years that the Committee of Selection has met at Southwestern to pick the two candidates who will receive the two scholarships allotted to District Three.

The Rhodes Scholarship amounts to two years at Oxford University in England and a renewal of the scholarship, depending on the desire of the student and the Committee. This scholarship is based on an all round development of studies, sports and personality rather than on scholarship alone.

HERE'S THE COMMITTEE

The Committee of Selection is composed of: Chairman, Dr. Robert P. Strickler, Prof. of Greek, Southwestern; Vice-Chancellor B. F. Finney, University of South, Sewanee; Secretary, Prof. J. H. Davis, History Department of Southwestern; Frank Hoyt Gailor, Attorney, Memphis, and Prof. E. K. Kleine, Prof. of Spanish, University of Chattanooga.

HERE ARE CANDIDATES

The candidates are: Frank S. Besson, Jr., Nashville, Tennessee, and United States Military Academy, West Point, New York; Clayton Lee (Teddy) Burwell, Charlotte, North Carolina, University of South, Sewanee, Tennessee; Wood Bowyer Carper, Jr., Charleston, West Va., University of South, Sewanee Tennessee; O. M. Derryberry Columbia, Tennessee, University of Tennessee, Knoxville, Tennessee; Harry H. Dethero, Cleveland, Tenn., Vanderbilt University; Frank V. D. Fortune, Wooster, Ohio, University of South, Sewanee; Fenton A. Gentry, Chattanooga, Tenn., University of Virginia; Patrick S. Kirwan, Louisville, Ky., Vanderbilt University; George Savage, Mahon, Pineville, Ky., University of Tennessee College of Medicine, Memphis; Don K. Price, Jr., Middlesboro, Ky., Vanderbilt University; J. Hacey Reynolds Nashville, Tenn., Vanderbilt University; and Walter Buchanan Sharp, Nashville, Tenn., Vanderbilt University.

FOUR FIDDLERS FIDDLE AROUND

String Quartet Shames Reed and Brass

Thursday the Phi Beta Kappas heard, probably for the first time in their lives, a crowd of fiddles drowning out saxophone and trombone. When, at the invitation of Professor Johnson and the appeal of Louis Nicholas, director of the new so-called orchestra, four fiddles were heard to volunteer to play for the banquet, those of the reed and brass silently slunk away.

TWO ARE HEROES

Only two are willing to submit to the humiliation of being seen and not heard: Hal Simmons, sax, and Clough Eaton, trombone. The wielders of the horse-hair were Sarah Elizabeth Gimmell, Minnie Byrd Lockhart, Claude Capers, and Rodney Baine.

Walton Sees Lynx Play

Harry Walton, last year's Lynx captain, was up for the game Thanksgiving.

LYNX DEBATERS MEET OXFORD TOMORROW

PHI BETA KAPS GIVE FEAST ON FOUNDERS' DAY

25 Dined In Neely Hall To Hear Addresses

DR. JOHNSON SCRIBE

Meeting May Affect Group On Campus

Neely Hall was last night the scene of the annual Founders' Day Banquet of the local members of Phi Beta Kappa. At 7 p. m. 25 of the 50 members in the Memphis territory gathered under the leadership of Chancellor M. C. Ketchum, president of the local alumni, and heard an address by Dr. Etleston. Arthur L. Adams of Jonesboro, Ark., is vice-president, and Dr. A. Theodore Johnson is the present Secretary-Treasurer.

50 LOCAL ALUMNI

Phi Beta Kappa was founded at William and Mary College on Dec. 3, 1776. There are 50 members affiliated with the local alumni organization and many others resident in this territory that have never become identified with this group.

LOCAL PETITIONS

The local organization recognizing scholarship, Alpha Theta Phi is petitioning Phi Beta Kappa for a charter and although this meeting of members of the fraternity will have no definite bearing upon the status of the petitioning group, it is expected that it may have some effect in the near future.

Zeta Tau's Banquet To Honor Inspector

Members of the Zeta Tau Alpha Sorority will entertain with a banquet tonight in the Italian Room of the Hotel Peabody at 6:30 o'clock in honor of Miss May Youngberg, national inspector. The sorority colors, blue and silver, will be carried out in the decorations.

Alumni Attend Pan

Several Southwestern alums came up for the Pan-Hellenic. Among those noticed on the floor were Jeff Davis, Razz, Joe McKinnon, Lamar Pittman, Meredith Davis, George Hightower, Mary Selden Helm, Thaddeus Hall, Red Shaw, Bob Russell, Bill Hall and Fanny Owens.

Men Pick Potent Freshettes

Warning to boys: Beware of Christine Gilmore, Little Trigg, Nina Stansell, Mary Fay and Mary Hughes, for they are all guilty of grand and petty larceny. In fact, these figures (according to the boys) the most dangerous freshette heart breakers on the campus.

Besides these hardened criminals, we have many minor menaces including: Grace Braun, Katherine Stratton, Mary Katherine Whitman, Ethel Mae Rives, and Minnie Byrd Lockhart. This just about completes the roster of the rogues' gallery, which might also be called a list of the most attractive freshettes.

FORM NEW CLUB

That these girls are real public enemies is proved by the fact that the boys have had to band together to protect themselves. The most effective organization is the Women Haters' Club, whose membership is entirely recruited from the freshman class, because freshmen are regarded

O.D.K. Plays Hosts To Rhodes Scholar Herefor Tomorrow

Will Entertain Men From Southern Schools

SHOW MEN AROUND

O.D.K. Stand For Similar Qualities Rhodes Does

Southwestern O. D. K. will assist the Committee of Selection in entertaining the candidates for the Rhodes Scholarship who will be on the campus tomorrow. Twelve candidates from all over the South will compete for the two scholarships to Oxford which will be awarded by the Committee.

The Faculty Room will be turned over to the candidates for a place of rest before their individual appearances before the Committee. The members of O. D. K. will be on hand to show the visitors the college and to see that time does not drag heavy on their hands.

O. D. K., a national leadership fraternity, stands for much the same qualities that the selection committees demand of Rhodes scholar applicants and it is fitting that the local chapter of O. D. K. should act as host for the visiting men.

K. D. NEOPHYTE DANCE TONIGHT

Give Party In Honor Of Active Members

The pledges of Kappa Delta Sorority will entertain tonight from 8:00 till 11:30 with an informal open house in their lodge on the campus for the members of the active chapter. Bill Taylor and his orchestra will furnish the music. There will be two no-breaks, and an active chapter lead-out.

PLEDGE DATE LIST

Tennessee Leads In Student List

Over half of the student body of Southwestern this year are inhabitants of the state of Tennessee. The total Tennessee representation is 254.

Mississippi has a representation of 68 this year and Arkansas nosed out Alabama 19 to 18 to hold third place in numbers enrolled in the school.

Louisiana is not far behind Alabama with 14 and Kentucky comes in for sixth place with 5 students. Following Kentucky are Ohio with 4, and Illinois, Oklahoma and Texas with two each.

States that have sent one only of their population to Southwestern are California, Connecticut, Delaware, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, New York, North Carolina, Pennsylvania, Virginia, and Wisconsin.

Korea is the only foreign country represented on the campus this year.

VESPERS TO BE SUNDAY, DEC. 13

Rev. Hale to Talk. Choir Is Preparing Program

Plans for the Christmas Vesper Service of the Southwestern Choir are progressing apace. The choir, whose practices are being attended by an average of nearly two-score singers, is being carefully groomed for the performance by director Louis Nicholas, and is expected to give a program ranking well above the average. Their numbers for the coming service have been selected from the repertoire of the famous St. Olaf's Choir, and promise to be of more than usual interest. Several are to be capella, that is, without accompaniment.

The guest speaker for the occasion will be the Reverend Charles Hale, Rector of St. Luke's Episcopal Church. An added feature of the program will be the initial appearance of a newly-organized Southwestern chamber music group, and there will be several other items of interest.

It has been definitely decided to omit the processional and the recessional, and the entire musical part of the program will be given behind drawn curtains.

The complete program will be given in the Sou'wester next week.

T. N. E. DINE ON FOUNDERS' DAY

Banquet at Peabody Postponed Until Dec. 7.

The T. N. E. Founders' Day Banquet which was supposed to have been given tomorrow night, has been postponed until Monday night, Dec. 7. The banquet will be held at the Peabody Hotel at 8 o'clock.

T. N. E. was founded in 1870 at Connecticut Wesleyan.

Harvey Creech is president and J. P. Hollifield is in charge of arrangements. The tables are to be placed to carry out the idea of the crossed keys.

The fraternity flower, red carnation, will be used in the centerpiece and in carrying out the other decorations. Green tapers in black candlesticks will also be used to bring out the fraternity colors.

ORATORS FLOOD CHAPEL WITH A WAVE OF LOGIC

Debate Britishers On Big Question of the Day

LYNX MEN SKILLED

Col. Roane Waring Presides Over Speakers

"Resolved: That the American civilization is of greater danger to the world than that of Russia," is the question that will be argued tomorrow night at 8 o'clock in the Hardie Auditorium of Palmer Hall between a team from Oxford University, England, and a team representing Southwestern.

Henry Oliver, member of last year's debating team who distinguished himself on several occasions with his clear logic and forceful delivery, and James L. Highsaw, who last year gained national recognition in an oratorical competition among representatives of all parts of the country, have been chosen by the Southwestern Forensic Society as their representatives in the debate.

BRITISHERS PROMINENT

Members of the English team, making a goodwill tour of the United States in order to meet and establish more friendly relations with American students, are John Foot and John Archibald Boyd-Carpenter, both honor graduates of Balliol College, which was founded in 1263 A. D., and leaders of current student thought in England. Foot is a member of the Liberal Club and Boyd-Carpenter is a member of the Conservative and Imperial Clubs; his father is a member of the British Round Table Conference now discussing the Indian question. Both members of the debating team intend to enter public life upon completing their student activities.

COL. WARING PRESIDES

Col. Roane Waring, Past Commander of the Tennessee Division of the American Legion and prominent Memphis Attorney, will preside at the debate.

This meeting with the English team is expected to be one of the high points of an interesting schedule of debates being arranged for the coming months.

Bible Class Discuss The Spirit of Jesus

The Southwestern Bible Class will meet Sunday at 9 o'clock in 101 Science Hall. Leader for the program is Harold Thomas. The subject for discussion is "The Master's Spirit," talks on which, based on Fosdick's "The Manhood of the Master," will be given by Baxter Sloss, Thomas King, and Carol Cloar.

The class is anxious to get any new members that might be interested in coming, and requests that as many as can, attend.

See Ole Miss Play

Miriam Woods, Dorinda Quinn, Philip O'Donnell, Billie McCaslin, and Tom Underwood spent Thanksgiving at Oxford to attend the Ole Miss football game.

Chi Deltas Postpone

Chi Delta, women's literary society, postponed their bi-weekly program on last Monday, and will meet, instead, on Monday, December 7, at 1:30 p. m. in Hardie Auditorium.

KAMPUS KRAX

Newton—Trouble's just a bubble.
Barbour—You Sud it, buddy, you Sud it.

Joyner—Say, what're you washing that spoon in that glass of water for?
Bearden—You don't think that I want to get ice cream all over my pocket, do you?

Book Salesman—This book will do half of your work for you.
McGee—Good, I'll take two.

Berson—How did you like that banquet last night?

Sherman—Not so good.
Berson—Didn't you like the food?
Sherman—Yes, very much. But I ate next to a near-sighted old lady who kept eating off of my plate.

Visitor—I've never seen such a crop. How did you ever avoid the drought?

C. Perrette—Well, you see, I arranged my planting in alternate rows. The onions made the potatoes' eyes water and so irrigated the soil.

1st Ed—Can you give me a sentence with the word "eclipse" in it.

2nd Same—When the joke editor sees a "funny" joke in the paper eclipse it out.

Customer—Hey, waiter, have you frog legs?

Waiter—No, it's only my rheumatism that makes me walk that way.

Chicken—What makes girls smoke?
Wamble—I guess it's because they are too green to burn.

AND THEN THERE IS THE UNDERTAKER WHO RAN HIS BUSINESS RIGHT INTO THE GROUND.

Walker was a bit shy after the fair Grace had thrown her arms about him and kissed him for bringing her a bouquet of flowers. He arose and started to leave.

"I'm sorry if I have offended you," she said.

"Oh, no, I'm not offended," he replied. "I'm just going to get some more flowers."

"FOUR BAWLS, I WALK," SAID THE BASEBALL-PLAYING FATHER AS HE SLID OUT OF BED.

"Rastus, what's you all doing?"
"I'se a cafeteria blacksmith."
"What's all that?"
"I shoos flies, brudder, I just shoos flies."

Student—Is the editor in?
Reporter—No. Is there anything for you?

Stude—Yeah, here's a short story. You can throw it in the waste-paper basket for him.

SUE TO LOU

Dear Lou:
Here comes another one of my letters with nothing but gossip in it. But names make news, you insist on news, so what can I do but humor you?

The K. D.'s certainly are social butterflies. The pledges are trying their hand at giving a party and boast they are going to show the activities how it is done Friday night. I heard Nancy Dinsmore and Jimmie Kate Johnson discussing the plans the other day so I got my information thus.

You should have seen the Pre-Med vs. Pre-Ministerial football game Saturday. Dot Jane Kerr and Virginia Weeks were the fair sponsors and the parsons came through gallantly to win 6-0. By the way, Camel Cabaniss would make somebody a good press agent, wouldn't he? And he is just too ravishing in football togs. Omi-dear!

It's being noised around that we now have numerous tea-hounds since the A. Q. Pi's starting soving tea on Thoisdays. Prominent among the tea-swiggers are such lads as "Luscious" Cook, the Kelly boys, Jimmy Harrison, Cave-man Coleman, Eaton Govan and others.

I see Virginia Reynolds and Shelby Ruffin sitting out under a tree apparently not aware the thermometer is rapidly falling. Also Roder Trigg and Doug Huer are placidly braving the cold winter wind. I'm so near frozen myself that I'm going to give up the uneven struggle and seek a radiator.

Yours for balmier days,
Sue.

BE AT THE VESPERS

Sunday, December 13, the Southwestern Christian Union will give a Christmas vesper service. Plans have been made to have an excellent speaker and an attractive program.

All students should attend the vespers.

Southwestern is founded on the Christian religion. It is being run according to the principles of that religion. Certainly students of a school so founded and so run should have a great interest in any activity of the school pertaining toward the religious.

One never gets in church the peculiar feeling of brotherhood one gets in vespers such as this one will be. The fact that most of those present at the vespers are usually students makes the service take on a more personal touch.

An able speaker has been invited and it will be a shame to have him come here to speak before a handful although much good would come from that. Numbers do not make a religion but the zeal of its followers.

Make it a point to be present at the Christmas vespers December 13. You will help and you will be helped.

INTRAMURALS RESURRECTED

At last a healthy interest in intramural sports has arisen and challenges are flying thick and fast. Groups are pitted against their rivals and the campus is being kept agog with a whirl of games.

It didn't take much to set the intramurals on fire. All that was needed was a few energetic souls to start things going. This has been done.

Even the Boosters' Club, legal father of intramurals, has awakened from its lethargy and is busy planning a program. They can do much good if given the proper support.

There is a chance in the intramurals for everybody to satisfy a yen for athletics. Weight doesn't mean much in touchball. And that is where the value of intramurals comes. Everybody gets to take a part.

EVERGREEN HALL

A post card arrived this morning from Imogene Carmichael, former resident of Evergreen Hall. Addressed from the Chi Omega house at Florida State College at Tallahassee, the postal stated that she is having a marvelous year and that nothing can compare to that Florida weather.

Love and Womble—you know those Arkansas blonds—ventured into the social room the other night. Must have been too many co-eds around, and yet they don't look bashful. Perhaps the right one wasn't in, because they didn't stay nearly long enough; it least that's what two certain girls were heard to remark.

This Street-Rives affair seems to be becoming a nightly affair. They seem to have lots of fun together. And Streeter isn't the only who seems to find freshettes attractive.

Louise Taylor has returned from Columbus, Miss., where she visited friends and former school-mates at M. S. C. W.

VOX POPULI

Editor's Note: The Sou'wester welcomes comments from its readers on any subject. Such comments must be properly addressed to the editor and must be signed. However, names will be withheld from letters printed if such is the desire of the writer.

Dear Mr. Editor:

I am not an authority on women, in fact I don't mess with them. However, when I was asked my opinion on the southern babe some two months ago I could not give an answer; now I am prepared, Mr. Editor.

The southern girl seems to me the most insincere piece of effeminate architecture I have ever seen. My reason? Listen. When a boy takes a girl to a dance he evidently takes her because he likes her and likes to dance with her. Well, personally the only satisfaction I've noticed any boy get is to carry his date's compact around. When a boy breaks on a girl she sweetly says: "HELLO, JIMMY; I am so glad you broke me. I just adore dancing with you." That goes on until some other sucker breaks you and before your back is turned the same thing is repeated. Such lines are too evident to fool anyone. No matter how thin you slice it, it is still baloney.

However, the southern girls have a lot of good points, believe it or not. They certainly are not the gold digging type which is so evident in the North. Satisfied with a coke and a napkin, when the northern babe would ask for roast turkey and probably get it.

I like the cordial way in which a southern girl receives a boy in her home. They say, "Come in"; up north they say, "What do you want?" Nevertheless, I disagree with Phil O. Donnell about the southern babe being more affectionate, but I suppose Phil has lots more power than I.

Southern girls are nice. Northern girls are nice. When I settle down to raise packages for the subway it will be with a nice little yankee babe. I AM NOT A NORTHERNER.

I'm The Gink

I'm the gink who moans about everything on the campus. I'm a perpetual griper from way back yonder and I take any and every opportunity to air my grouches.

I think the dining hall food rotten and I mumble so. I think morning compulsory chapel a crime and I grunt my dissatisfaction to what friends I have. I believe all the profs are slave-driving us students to death this year and I moan over that.

I get a kick out of whining and complaining, though. It's sorta in me. I used not to fuss so much but I kinda let the habit grow and now I wouldn't miss doing it for the world.

Maybe I'm not liked and maybe I'm even shunned but anyway I'll go on griping endlessly, destructively criticizing, because you see—I'm the Gink!

FINAL WHISTLE FOR LYNX CATS

Victory Over Spring Hill Concludes Season Of Football.

The fightin' Lynx of '31 have completed their first season, and a successful one, under the direction of Messrs. Haygood and Miller. The Lynx ended their season with a record of four wins, two defeats, and three ties. The victories included two wins over their opponents in the Dixie Conference and two over S. I. A. A. teams. They gained ties with two Southern Conference teams and one with a Dixie conference foe. The losses were suffered at the hands of Hattiesburg Teachers and the aggregation at A. & M.

The season brought out many features, the most spectacular being the 92 yard sprint of Chicken High against Howard. The "never say die spirit" of the Lynx displayed against Ole Miss was another feature of the current season. It was the first time in the history of the school that a Lynx team had never been beaten by the Mississippians.

LOSE SIX MEN

The Lynx lose six players from their roster for the next edition of moleskinners. They are Capt. William Walker, Alternate Capt. Johnny Hughes, Jimmy Hughes, Meeks Hinson, Chauncey Barbour, and Joe Wells. These men will be sorely missed from the lineup in '32, but a crew is coming up from the frosh eleven to take their places.

The Southwestern team will have as a nucleus for next season a number of seasoned performers. Among those returning are Harold High, Herbert Newton, Sheriff Knight, Cotton Perrette, Claude McCormick, Johnny Burnett, Soak Sanderson, Arthur Womble, Butch Love, Jerome Brown, Shelby Ruffin, Sid Hebert, Jimmy Wilson, June Davidson, Bill Pickens, Fred Bearden, Grover Durant, Andrew Eddington, Frank Kimbrough, Gordon Fox, Raymond Sanders, Toxey Fortenberry. With these performers on hand Southwestern should be able to put the strongest team ever on the field next year.

FROSH COME UP

The freshman team will also furnish some excellent players for the varsity in '32. The heavy frosh line which played such a fine brand of ball will advance to the varsity and no doubt will make some of the present varsity men hustle for their jobs. Among some of the more promising men eligible for varsity service next year will be McMath Givens, McLemore Elder, Tom Huckabee, Lucien Connell, "Papa Red" McLarty, Paul Strong, Don McRee, Howard White, Big and Little McCollum, Dean Churchman, Red Foreman, Rob Pugh, John Barnes, Ben Boggy, Jack Crosby Herman Baker, Sivley Moore, Red Smith.

Invent Queer Bird

Chicago—Now, boys, if you come to Christmas dinner with the desire to be traditional and eat turkey, but with a mouth which prefers chicken, give thanks to the De Paul University Laboratories here, which have developed what they call the Turken. It is half chicken and half turkey.

The new bird is reported to be a cross between an Austrian white turkey and a Rhode Island Red hen.

The full-grown turken weighs from six to eight pounds.

LYNX WIN GAME HIGH, QUARTER ON ALL-DIXIE

Trample Spring Hill 13-0 In Slush of Hodges for Final Win

Thanksgiving afternoon, while a scant thousand dyed-in-the-wool football fans shivered in the stands, Southwestern's fighting Lynx Cats downed the Spring Hill Badgers 13-0 in a sea of mud. Had it not been so serious a battle the game would have been irresistibly ludicrous, so gooey was the ball, the players, and even the officials after a few minutes of playing on a field more suited for mudpies than football. Mud or no mud, Southwestern got going from the opening whistle to the final gun to decisively whip a team that was doped to win, especially since the Hillians had a seven pound per man advantage in the line, a considerable factor on a dry field, much less on a gridiron as wet as Hodges.

KNIGHT SCORES

Southwestern's first touchdown came as a result of an impressive march down the field from the fifty yard line, with Newton, Love, and High doing most of the marching. In spite of the slippery underfooting that tabooed end runs most of the day, Butch Love circled Spring Hill's right end for twenty yards and a touchdown before the second quarter had got its breath. Late in the second quarter Knight plunged over for the second Lynx touchdown, after Hebert had recovered a blocked Spring Hill punt on the four yard line. Knight hit center for the extra point. And that ended the scoring for the day.

Clough (reading French translation)—"I went up to her, put my arms around her—" that's as far as I got.

Taylor—That's far enough!

Basketeers, Swimmers and Rifle Experts Plan

With the completion of the Lynx football season of '31, Southwestern co-eds are turning toward sports of their own, and plans which have been made by Miss Louise Strattman indicate a busy winter ahead for those athletically inclined.

CAGERS READY

Regular basketball practice will begin next week in the gymnasium, practice hours to be on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. If Helen Gordon plays as good basketball as her red letter sweater from Marianna, Arkansas, indicates, the Lynx Kittens will have acquired a powerful freshette. Among those experienced players who have shown their prowess in previous years and who are expected to play again this year, are: Jane Barker, Lyle Stanage, Red Veazey, Mary Fant, and Alice Rogers, Martha Johnson, Virginia Richmond.

Miss Strattman announces that the Catholic Club pool has been secured for those who desire to swim during afternoon hours, for a small admission fee. Lyle Stanage, swimming captain, can supply further information.

RIFLERS ALL SET

And if present plans work out, Southwestern riflers will shoot every Thursday afternoon at the Municipal Auditorium. Cold weather forbids any practice on open air ranges, but the auditorium will prove adequate. Those enthusiasts who have signed for riflery practice are: Dixie May Jennings, Alicia Keisker, Catherine Davis, Elise McDaniel, Roder Trigg, Mary Kennedy Hubbard, Charlotte Stanage, and Frances Cairns.

PREACHERS HIT DOCTORS BLOW

Pre-Ministerials Defeat Pre-Meds 6-0

Religion triumphed over science Saturday afternoon on Fargason Field when the members of the Ministerial Club defeated the Pre-Med students 6-0 in an exciting game of touch football. It was a bitterly waged battle and the score reveals the comparative strength of the two teams.

During the first quarter and most of the second the two teams surged up and down the field with neither being able to muster enough strength to go over for a score. Late in the second quarter Andrew Edington heaved a long pass, but the ball was batted around in the air finally to land safely in the waiting arms of Robert Pfrangle, captain of the Ministers' team. Pfrangle dashed 30 yards for the only score of the game.

INTERCEPTS PASS

Another score coming late in the third period was not allowed on account of an offside penalty. Grover Durant intercepted a Doctor pass on the 35 yard line and went over for the score, only to have the play called back on account of an off-side.

Campus Eds And Co-Eds Discuss And Cuss Ye Old Custom Of Dutch Dating

Drake and Joyner Answer Query In Affirmative While Bynum Nonchalantly Says, "Aw, Nurts"

"Turn about's fair play," sez some. "Naw," sez others. Dutch dating would help solve the difficulties of the present financial situation," some cry. "It would drown out the last echoes of the death knell of chivalry already sounded by this modern age," others say.

The firm of Drake and Joyner, Ltd., cast their vote for Dutch-Dating. You pay part and I pay part is a good old custom, think they. But Harvey adds that if the woman must pay, she should have some say in this thing of making dates. "When a girl furnishes the car and half the funds," he says, "she ought to be able to ask whomever she wants to go with her."

Football no Pigskin

Cleveland—For years and years ever since sport pages were invented, football scribes and people generally have been referring to footballs as "pigskins."

And we'll all probably go right on calling 'em that.

But we'll be wrong. Footballs are not made of pigskin. They are made of cow-hide. Take it on the authority of the A. G. Spalding & Bros., who ought to know.

Most footballs were made of pigskin in the early days of the game and the cheaper balls are still made of it. But the best footballs are made of hide from Texas or Argentina now.

Mildred Veazey agrees with the boys perfectly—almost.

But Frances Mitchener thinks that the fifty-fifty idea is o. k. "When a girl goes with a boy quite a bit she should be willing to share the costs. Of course if he happens to have plenty of shekles, that's different."

Pooling the funds on dates wouldn't be such a bad idea, what with the depression, says Kimbrough.

"Baloney," retorts Perry Bynum to the whole thing. "The boys pull enough tricks as it is," he contends. "Besides it's just not a good idea."

PARTNERS WITH THE PUBLIC

The services rendered by these two companies are factors in promoting the progress of the community and the well-being of all the people. We count it a privilege to serve the city's economic and social life in such an important way, and try to prove ourselves helpful partners in every worthy endeavor.

Where Turkish tobacco grows

Eastward ho! Four thousand miles nearer the rising sun—let's go! To the land of mosques and minarets—so different from our skyscrapers, stacks and steeples.

Let's see this strange, strange country. Let's see the land where the tobacco* grows

in small leaves on slender stalks—to be tenderly picked, leaf by leaf, hung in long fragrant strings, shelter-dried and blanket-cured. Precious stuff!

Let's taste that delicate aromatic flavor—that subtle difference that makes a cigarette!

In every important tobacco-growing center Chesterfield has its own tobacco buyers

XANTHI .. CAVALLA .. SMYRNA .. SAMSOUN .. famous tobaccos!

*Turkish tobacco is to cigarettes what seasoning is to food—the "spice," the "sauce"—or what rich, sweet cream is to coffee!

You can taste the Turkish in Chesterfield—there's enough of it, that's why. Chesterfield has not been stingy with this important addition to good taste and aroma; four famous kinds of Turkish leaf—Xanthi, Cavalla, Samsoun and Smyrna—go into the smooth, "spicy" Chesterfield blend.

This is just one more reason for Chesterfield's better taste. Tobaccos from far and near, the best of their several kinds—and the right kinds. And pure, tasteless cigarette paper, the purest made. The many requisites of a milder, better smoke, complete!

That's why they're GOOD—they've got to be and they are.
