LYNX ON LEASH FOR BULLDOGS

SET DEC. 11 TO GIVE NATIONAL MEDICAL TESTS

Pre-Med Students Quizzes to Measure Knowledge

DR. HUBER IN CHARGE

Tests Mean Much To Men To Study Medicine

On December 11th throughout the United States the Medical Aptitude Test of the Association of American Medical Colleges will be given in more than six hundred colleges to all pre-medical students who expect to apply for admission to a medical school next fall. Since the test is a normal requirement for admission to practically all the medical schools, and since it will be given only once a year, all students who expect to apply for entrance by next fall should take the test at this time. Failure to take it will handicap chances for admission to practically all the medical schools and will prevent admission to a number of the schools.

The tests will be given at Southwestern at 3:00 P. M., on Friday, December 11th, under supervision of Dr. Huber.

SCHOOL ADOPTS TEST

The Aptitude Tests were adopted by the Association of American Medical Colleges in October, 1930, and were administered throughout the United States for the first time last year. Last year's test contained the following six parts: Scientific Vocabulary; Pre-medical Information; Comprehension and Retention; Visual Memory; Memory for Content; and Understanding of Printed Material. This year's test will be very similar in nature and will involve the general principles underlying last year's test. The actual question content, of course, will be different.

The tests are used by the admissions officers of the medical schools as one of the criteria in admitting students. Study of the test results has shown that the Aptitude Test can be relied upon to prognosticate the future success of students in the medical school more accurately than any other method used heretofore in the selection of students. The tests, however, are only one criterion for admission to the various medical schools. The student's scholastic record in his pre-medical training, his character, the consensus of opinion of those teachers who know him, and the impression he makes upon the members of the Committee on Admissions—all will continue to be carefully considered in deciding whether he will be admitted.

FIRST PANHELL ONE WEEK OFF

Thanksgiving Nite Set For First Party of Year

The first Panhellenic party of the year will be held Thanksgiving night from eight till twelve o'clock at the Casino. Music will be furnished by the regular Casino orchestra.

NO-BREAK LIST

There will be four no-breaks, two specials, and the Panhellenic Lead-Out. The first no-break will be called at eight o'clock, regardless of the number of couples present. The dance will be formal.

Since the members of the football team would be unable to attend the dance on the night before Thanksgiving, the Panhellenic Council postponed the party till Thanksgiving night after the game with Springhill.

Campus Damsels Opine On Potent Lads Among Fresh, Parading Appealing "It"

Frosh Jolly, Underwood, Moore, Ussery, Calame, Crosby, Said to Have Ye Olde Masculine Appeal

Who is the most powerful freshman on the Southwestern campus? To be powerful, you must have a superlative amount of that old come-hither charm that makes the girls turn around when you pass and dog your footsteps in herds. Intense research among the co-eds has brought to light the following disgraceful facts:

SLIM YEAR FOR SUPPLY STORE

Students Buying Less But Store Goes Well

Trade at the Southwestern Supply Store has fallen off markedly in comparison to the receipts of last year, according to Miss Marjorie Gates, manager.

The trading, however, is an indication on the part of the students that they wish to help the store as much as possible but do not have the money to do much buying, Miss Gates said.

SELL FEW BOOKS

Fewer books have been sold in the first two months of this year than for the same period last year. Miss Gates attributes this decrease to the fact that there are fewer students here this year.

In the supply department proper there has been a small slump in sales but there is no danger of suffering a financial loss in the near future. The buying has been steady throughout the year and this fact inclines the manager to optimism.

SUPPLIES VARIED

At present the store has a wide range of merchandise and is operated on a purely business basis. Miss Gates has made a conscious effort throughout the year to satisfy the students.

Students who have any books which they wish to order can secure them through the college store. Miss Gates has connections with all of the important publishing companies.

Annual Ad-Getters Start Year's Work

Albert Erskine, business manager of the annual, has announced his staff of assistants in the work of financing the 1932 Lynx. Harvey Drake and Goodlet Brown are associate business managers and Sively Moore, Roder Trigg, and Josephine Farley are solicitors of advertising.

Women Steal Men's Thunder

Short hair, knickers, cigarettes, spicy vocabularies—the girls have not left the boys many of their masculine prerogatives. And when they start chewing tobacco—well, that would be the last straw. The English lads, according to rumor, have already abandoned cigarettes and cigars for the rough and rugged pipe because cigarettes are too effeminate.

MEN ARE KISS SHY

Helen Rowland of "Marry-Go-Round" fame asserts that men are even becoming kiss shy. If women persist in their wild, wild ways the male of the species will have to take matters into his own hands and make the world safe for primness, purity, and prudery. If the girls will not be Mid-Victorian the boys will just have to, and parade about like Milton's nun, "devout and pure, sober, steadfast and demure." Somebody has to preserve the conventions and uphold the pillars of society.

BEHOLD THIS

Picture Mr. America of tomorrow.

(1) The freshman class of 1931 seems lacking in outstanding male exponents of "It." (2) There are no irresistible Don Juans in their number.

On being questioned, the upperclass women look blank, and say that they really haven't noticed the freshmen much. The freshettes agree that none of them are power-houses, but some of them are rather attractive, in their way.

THESE LADS HAVE "IT"

The few existing campus sheiks are: J. D. Jolly, Lew Underwood, Sively Moore, "Dog" Ussery, Calamity Calame, and Jack Crosby.

According to the freshettes, J. D. Jolly is an A-1 thrill-giver. They say he is "Cute, sweet, and good looking," and that it is "Them Eyes" that put him at the head of the list. It seems that all Jolly has to do is to roll those gray-blue orbs—and the world is his.

Tom Underwood rates second, for the girls all agree that he has "loads of appeal" in spite of being (as many said) somewhat conceited. He is reputed to resemble Lew Ayres, whence the nick-name "Lew," and, perhaps, the remark dropped by one Sweet-Young-Thing that he was "painfully powerful."

Several rated Sively Moore the most alluring. They could not decide just what the unknown something was, but they all agreed that he has got "that thing" and in a big way.

John Ussery is described as being "terribly attractive" and they say that it's his "sincerity" that simply knocks the ladies off their feet. No wonder, it's such a rare virtue in this day and age.

PEP PERSONIFIED

Pep personified and general cuteness are the qualities to which Calamity owes his way with the women. They also praise his discrimination. (Continued on Page 3)

See Vandy-Vols Game

Dorothy Jane Kerr, Sarah Crowe Ransom, and Corrinne and Lillian Gautier attended the Tennessee-Vanderbilt game in Knoxville last weekend.

Football Men On Hairless Sprees

The "Billiard Ball Boys."

That's the new name for Cotton Perette, Johnny Burnette, Soap Sanderson, Herb Newton, and Ruffian, now that their flowing locks have been relegated to the ash can after the "Battle of the Hair" which waxed furious in Stewart Hall Monday night when the upperclassmen attacked the "Bull-Rats" with clippers and razors.

Bull-Rats Burnette, Ruffian, and Sanderson staged a comeback after being deprived of their scalp locks that resulted in a permanent wave for Perette and a beautiful boyish bob for Newton.

Perette and Burnette have received enticing offers from fair co-eds to let the girls autograph their shining pates.

DEBATE TRIAL TO BE TONIGHT

Five Judges Will Select Five Men for Team

Try-outs for the debating team will be held in Hardie Auditorium tonight at 8 o'clock. Anyone who desires can compete, according to Ronald Hayhoe, president of the Debating Club.

Five men will be selected by a committee of five judges, from the men who compete tonight. Those two winning first and second place tonight will participate in the debate with Oxford University on the night of Dec. 5. The remaining three will go to Arkansas College on Dec. 11 to debate the question: "Resolved, that central control of industry is essential for our progress."

DEBATE IMPORTANT

The debate with Oxford is expected to be the biggest of the year and the club is going forward with plans to make it an outstanding feature of the year. The subject for debates will be: "Resolved, That American Civilization is a greater danger to the world than that of Russia." Southwestern will defend the negative side of the question.

The club is planning a series of intra-mural debates to begin the first of December. The subject for discussion is one of particular interest. It is: "Resolved, That Woman is the pursuer and not the pursued." Plans as yet have not been completed.

MINISTER CLUB SPREAD GOSPEL

The Ministerial Club under the direction of the Lookout Committee, is doing much deputation work this year. On last Sunday the club visited the Sunshine Home, a home for old men on Third Street, and gave a program.

Robert Pfrangle gave an address, while Dorothy Jane Kerr sang a solo, and Minnie Bird Lockhart played a violin solo, accompanied by Miss Reames. James Gregory, president of the club, presided.

TO VISIT AGAIN

The club will hold a service at the Home for the Incurables this Sunday. Russell Cross, chairman of the lookout committee, will preside. Norman Gibbs will deliver the short talk, and a musical program has been arranged.

The club intends to continue doing such work throughout the year, using as its motto the Master's saying, "Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel."

LOCAL LADDIES PITTED AGAINST STRONG ELEVEN

Union Brings Scrappy Men to Seek Victory

FOE'S LINE FIGHTS

Southwestern Determined To Win This Game

The battling Lynx will engage the Bulldogs of Union University tomorrow afternoon on Fargason Field at 2:30 p. m. After four unsuccessful starts in which the Lynx drew two ties and two defeats, they are determined to bring home the bacon.

In the Bulldogs, the Lynx will encounter strong foemen. Reports have it that the Union team has quite a forward wall through which the Lynx must penetrate.

The Lynx team which hasn't seemed to be able to get going in the past few games, promises to catch the Bulldog by the nape of the neck and send him scurrying back to Jackson minus a scalp.

LYNX TACKLE HARD

Ont bright side of the Lynx defense which cropped out in the A. & M. game was the hard tackling of the team. No doubt the Union backs will find it difficult to advance the ball against the fiery on-slaught of the Lynx forwards.

The Union team has a heavy line led on its rampages by Capt. Logan, husky Bulldog tackle. The Union team has a record for this season similar to the one of the Lynx. One week they look good, and one week they look bad. Last week the Bulldogs pulled an iron man stunt by playing two games in four days. The Louisiana invasion proved very profitable to the Union aggregation.

LYNX WORK HARD

The Lynx have spent another hard week of labor, polishing up on the rough spots. The passing attack has been improved by the backs learning how to get out into the clear, while the running attack has also been gone over.

The game promises to be a thriller as the Union opponents are determined to defeat the Lynx, and the Lynxmen are just as determined to crash in with a win.

FORMER STUDES SHOW PROWESS

McGhee And Parnell Hold Posts At Seminary

Mr. J. Vernon McGhee, a former student of Southwestern, has been appointed instructor in New Testament Greek at the Columbia Theological Seminary, Decatur, Georgia.

The appointment is announced in the "Thornweilan," the Seminary paper which is published four times each year.

Another announcement of interest appearing in its columns this issue is the fact that Mr. Stanford Parnell, also a former Southwestern student, has been appointed Director of Student Athletics at Columbia.

Parking Rule Old

Laws regulating parking in this country are based on a decision handed down in 1812 in England by the distinguished jurist, Lord Ellenborough. The jurist ruled it was an indictable offense for stage coaches to stand at long intervals waiting for passengers in public streets.

"No one," he said, "can make a stableyard of the King's Highway." Probably the first ruling on parking.

KAMPUS KRAX

Mrs. Dawson—I'm bothered with a little wart that I would like to have removed.

Dr. Fixem—The divorce lawyer is three doors to the left.

Dr. Monk—Can anyone give me a more elegant rendering of the sentence, "The sap rises?"

Givens—Yep. "The boob gets up out of bed."

Fair Young Thing—Yeah, I suppose that you'll tell me that my lips are like twin cherries.

Arden lad (who just will not be outdone)—No, not exactly that, I was fixing to say that they were like an old suit—they ought to be pressed.

Eaves—That fellow next door seems never to assist his wife in household duties.

Dropper—Why, I think that he does. He's been walking the baby for an hour and singing to it all the time.

Eaves—Yeah, but he's been singing "I wouldn't change you for the world."

Jolly—Old King Cole.

High—You know, coach, those boys at the training table were very thoughtful of me today. They saved me all of the soft part of the chicken.

Coach—Which part was that?

High—The gravy.

V. Reynolds—I know that he was talking to you about me. Now wasn't he?

C. Burch—Well, yes.

V. R.—I thought I heard him say something about my having a thick head of hair.

C. B.—Well, yes. However, he didn't mention your hair.

She—It's very nice of you to dance with me.

He—Don't mention it. This is a charity ball.

Jill—If I die in this flu epidemic, Jack, will you write my mother and tell her that you're sorry? That I was a nice girl?

Jack—I'm sorry that you are a nice girl.

Pedestrian—What's the idea of tryin' to run over me

Motorist—Tried to get under you but couldn't. Sorry. G'by.

Sucker—You've got my dime.

Big Crook—You're a dime liar.

A BACHELOR IS A GUY WHO DIDN'T HAVE A CAR WHEN HE WAS YOUNG.

Kim—I have a blind date for tonight.

Clutch—She'd have to be.

A FEW INJURE THE WHOLE

Students have only themselves to blame for the recent ruling shutting the driveway through the campus and should therefore not mumble about the "injustice" of the closure.

Because a few smart-aleck, racy, show-off students found it necessary to their existence to speed through the campus in high-powered cars, endangering the lives of other students, all students now are prohibited the use of the drive during school hours.

In every society there are individual members who are reckless of the interests of the whole. In every college there are students who disregard sane behavior in order to make their own lives more "high pressure," "more peppy," more most anything. This type of student has put the majority of Southwestern students at an inconvenience by closing the driveway.

Some step should be taken, preferably by the Student Council, to reopen the driveway for the convenience of those students who will proceed at a moderate rate through the campus. Such a step should, however, contain provision for reckless drivers who make the drive a campus race track.

Dean R. W. Hartley has expressed his willingness to reopen the driveway through the campus if the students will guarantee to use it with home degree of sense.

JUST A BIT OF DORM LIFE

CALVIN HALL

A dormitory student never knows what to expect when he walks into his room. Anything may have happened while he was gone. Russell Cross and William Bensberg walked unsuspectingly into their room last Sunday night only to be treated to a bath of feathers. As they opened the door feathers in very profuse quantities came tumbling down from the ceiling on them. Feathers of various sizes and descriptions were strewn all over the room, and to add insult to injury the criminal had placed an arm load in Cross' bed.

It is rumored with quite a bit of authority that an Honor Rollist this week took what the other students term his yearly bath. It was an occasion of great rejoicing for the men of the second floor of Calvin.

Someone has made a practice of putting a foot stool under J. P. Hollifield's bed. They continued this work for a week or more. Now Hollifield has decided to save them the trouble by leaving the stool under the bed all the time.

EVERGREEN HALL

Ten dollars wouldn't induce a girl to walk to the library alone after eight o'clock. It's like this; strange characters have been haunting the premises of Evergreen for the last two weeks. Something ought to be done about it. Every night a strange looking man with hair a la Paderewski, accompanied by a dog, walks by the dorm, stops and stares, takes a turn around the campus, and comes back again. And then there's that Dodge coupe which circles the block from ten to fifteen times every night between seven o'clock and ten. It's all true and cause for some concern.

MISSISSIPPI BOUND

Mississippi attracted quite a few dorm students this past week-end. Virginia West had Kate Cleveland as her guest in Shaw, and Clarence Wine-man journeyed to her home in Greenville. Nell Davis was the week-end guest of Elmer Drawn in Tupelo, and Thelma Worthington also visited in that little Delta city. Meta Russell, Eugenia Weeks, and Miriam Heidelberg saw the game at Starkville.

And birthday parties are still in existence. Anyway Red Veazey and Frances Mitchener said they had lots of fun helping Jimmy Wilson celebrate his fifteenth year the other night.

YE BONNY OFFICERS

Evergreen has quite a complete organization; here 'tis: Miriam Heidelberg is house president, and her duty is to post little notices on the bulletin board every now and then; Red Veazey as vice-president is house pianist; Nell Davis and Eugenia Weeks, proctors for the freshmen, hush them up occasionally and give them good advice; Martha Burton and Edith Graff, as the other two proctors have the unhappy fate of putting in drug-store orders every night; and of course Mrs. Rutland watches our health, safety and happiness, besides keeping the Frigidaire stocked with cokes.

MAID MADE GOOD

Ida is the maid, and has been for four or five years. She's really quite busy, laundering clothes and straightening fifteen bedrooms every morning. She must like it, because she's the first to greet you in the fall and after Xmas. That's all, and everything runs quite smoothly.

WHO'S WHO

Catherine Bigelow

The Bibelow papers declaring the advent of Catherine Louise Bigelow into this world were signed on Oct. 29, 1910, in the city of Chicago. The young Miss Bigelow attended grammar school at Burke School in Chicago and Snowden School in Memphis. She then attended Central High School and made her appearance on the Southwestern campus in September of '28.

Catherine's participation in athletic endeavors includes three years on the basketball team, one year on the baseball team and one year with the archery team.

She is a charter member of the Southwestern chapter of Delta Delta Delta sorority.

Catherine has been a member of the cabinet of Y. W. C. A. for two years. She sings in the choir and the Glee Club. She is a member of the Lynx staff.

She plans to study interior decorating after leaving Southwestern.

It is entirely possible a "racketeer king" may arise in a few years and control the business of the country.—Rosalie Loew Whitney.

SUE TO LOU

Dear Lou:

Excuse me, pal, for not writing to you last week, but what with one thing and another, I just didn't get to it. Having a holiday went to my head, I guess.

The Kappa Sigs are doing the honors this week. They gave a push and pull in their lawdge Wednesday night, and everybody had a wonderful time. And next week is the Pan—gee! I can't wait.

Speaking of not being able to wait, ask Lone Wall and Jimmy Daimwood how about Saturday night. They got to East End before the orchestra and Lone boasts she helped build the fire and was personally responsible for starting off the fun. Everybody had a huge time. Clara McGehee in particular, seemed to find everything to her liking and was enjoying the dance thoroughly.

Our old college chum, Dick Monk, is on the campus this week. Looked good to see him, but I heard him moaning that he'd never have known the place, what with objects—pardon me—persons like Albert Erskine and T. Hudson the first things he saw when he entered the library. Wish he'd speak to brother Sam about conditions.

I saw Martha West and Freshman O'Donnell ambling down a leafy path the other day. Grace Brown and Walker Turner were kicking up leaves in another direction, and trudging down sorority row went Nina Stansell, accompanied by the firm of Ussery, Jolly and Underwood.

Big excitement is scheduled for tomorrow. The Lynx play the Union Bulldogs. You'd better come. They are planning to stage a come-back in the first five minutes of that game. How could they help it with Julia Marie and Jimmy Walls as sponsors. There's the bell—write soon.

Yours, SUE.

Bible Costs $100,000
A private collector recently paid $100,000 for a paper edition of the famous Gutenberg Bible at an auction in London. Only 41 copies of the book are known to exist.

Journal Out In Two Weeks, Says Editor

Erle Howry, Editor of the Journal, stated Tuesday that the first issue of the year would be on the campus inside of two weeks. Proof on this issue is now being read and will soon be returned to the printer for final composition. Elizabeth Smith is business manager of the publication. The Journal is a student publication published once each semester and contains poems, short stories, and essays written by students of Southwestern.

Mass production is simply production for the masses.—Edward A. Filene.

I'm The Gink

I'm the chapel gink who sits through the doxology, scripture reading, and prayer with a textbook tucked away secretly or openly. I don't give a hang how much religious stuff they pull off in chapel each morning. I didn't want to come to chapel in the first place so now that I'm here I'll do as I darn please. And I please to pretend to study.

When the cranky old faculty leaves and the Dean finishes his tiresome announcements I skiddoo before the student session begins. I'm not interested in what the student body is doing so why should I stay?

If I do stay though and they have a senseless pep meeting to cheer the team I don't open my mouth for the boys. I refuse to yell.

And when the Alma Mater is sung I sit in my seat like a clam or talk to my neighbor. It's a dead old song, anyway.

If you go to chapel yourself you'll recognize me sooner or later because—I'm the Gink!

BULLDOG BEATS LYNX GRIDDERS IN GOOD GAME

A. and M. Trounces Cats 14-0 At Starkville

LYNX PUT UP FIGHT

Page Scores Twice For A. and M. Crew

Exhibiting a stubborn defense and a fair offense the A. & M. Aggies took sweet revenge on the invading Southwestern Lynx by trouncing the Cats 14-0 before 3,000 spectators down at Starkville last Saturday. Although the Lynx were defeated they were not outplayed, except in the first quarter when the alert Mississippians blocked two punts.

GAME PLAYED HARD

The game was hard and smashing from the starting whistle to the final gun. Both lines played fine defensive ball, throwing the backs for losses repeatedly. But when the crowd surged out of the stands the score read 14-0, and points are what win.

The Mississippians scored both of their touchdowns from passes, Candler Page intercepting a Lynx heave for the first tally and Page leaping high in the air to grab a pass from Herrington for the second touchdown. Herrington added the two extra points to rub salt in the Lynx wound.

FIRST QUARTER SEE-SAW

The first quarter was a see-saw affair with both teams punting rather consistently on the third down. It looked like a tame affair when Ogden, left end for the Aggies, blocked one of Herbert Newton's punts near mid-field, with Beef Maxwell recovering the rolling ball on Southwestern's eight-yard line. Summoning all the fight in the world, the Lynx line threw back three thrusts at the line. Herrington tried a pass on the fourth play but High intercepted and ran the ball back to the 35-yard line. After a 15 yard penalty High tried a flat zone pass, which proved a boomerang when Candler intercepted and raced unmolested for the first touchdown of the day. The second marker came in the third period.

GAME BITTER PILL

The game was a bitter pill for the Lynx to swallow since only last week the underrated Hattiesburg Teachers trounced the Cats 13-7 down at Hattiesburg. Out of the four games that the Southwesterners have played with Mississippi teams they have beaten Millsaps, tied Ole Miss, and been defeated by the Teachers and the Aggies. To top it all, the victory for the Aggies Saturday was the second of the year for them, and the fourth on their home field in three years.

Chi Delta Girls In War and Peace Day

Chi Delta, women's literary society, studied a subject Tuesday afternoon in keeping with contemporary times, "Aspects of War and Peace." A literary survey of war was made beginning with the poem, "Cavalier Song," read by Malline Lyon.

Virginia Richmond gave a review of the play, "Across the Border," and Sara Ransom read the following poems, "The Dugout," "The Concert Party," and "Anthem of Doomed Youth."

Champlin Is Leader In Sunday Services

The Southwestern Bible Class will meet Sunday at 10 o'clock with Harry Champlin conducting the devotional. In continuing the study of Fosdick's "The Manhood of the Master," the class will discuss "The Affection of the Master." Those who will appear on the program are Charles Power, Bill Berson and Reed Brock. Everyone who can do so is urged to attend.

To Broadcast Operas

Negotiations are under way to make it possible for everyone in the United States to listen in on productions of the Metropolitan Opera Co. at New York through broadcast of their operas from the Metropolitan stage.

Star Cast at Orpheum In Thriller of Sea

Three of the screen's most popular male stars, Bill Boyd, James Gleason and Robert Armstrong, combine their talents in "Suicide Fleet," a feature all next week beginning Monday at the R-K-O Orpheum. They play the roles of sailor buddies, all in love with the same girl, titian-haired Ginger Rogers.

"Suicide Fleet" was filmed through co-operation of the U. S. Navy, and the scenes of naval combat are realistic. They show how the U. S. trapped and sunk submarines during the World War. Boyd, Gleason and Armstrong join the navy and brave death to lay the trap for a nest of submarines. While the picture is replete with thrilling scenes, the comedy touch is said to be plentifully supplied by Armstrong and Gleason, who are renowned for their ability to produce laughs.

Finish Season With Win On Slashing Tactics

The 1931 edition of the Southwestern Bobcats wrote finis to their record for the season last Monday when they defeated the Senatobia Junior College to the tune of 19 to 6.

The record for the frosh eleven for the season was four wins and one defeat. The last battle of the freshmen was marked by the fine play of Elder and McLarty. Both of these hefty backs played havoc with the opponents' line time after time. The passing from the hands of these two also played a part in the Bobcat victory.

Elder made two of the touchdowns by driving over the visitor's goal line, games.

The other touchdown was made by "Red" Foreman, erstwhile end of the frosh via the aerial route. The frosh were able to convert but one extra point after touchdown. This was also by the air method.

SENATOBIA SCORES

The Senatobia team scored in the second period with Johnson taking the ball across on a 10 yard pass. The conversion failed. In the final quarter, Bishop, Senatobia center, grabbed a fumble before it hit the ground and dashed some 60 yards before being downed on the 10 yard line by Foreman who overtook him from behind. However, the Bobcat forward held and the run proved to no avail.

We are still wondering what they meant.

Freshman Jack Crosby is another entrant. One girl terms him as "powerful, even if he is a bit shy." Maybe he rouses the mother instinct, anyway, Crosby's shy appeal has found its way into many feminine hearts.

Well, girls, now that you know who's who and why, there isn't any reason for you to bewail the lack of heavy lovers, when there are specimens like this at large. The whistle is blowing for the race to start. One-two-three! Go after them!

"Y" WOMEN IN SERVICE TALK

Receive Contributions To Aid Needy Families

Y. W. C. A. held the weekly meeting on Wednesday in Hardie Auditorium. Dorothy Schoolfield led the devotional service, followed by a talk on Service by Sarah Elizabeth Gemmill. The meeting was closed by the Y. W. C. A. song, "Follow the Gleam," accompanied by the club pianist, Dorothy Smith.

Nell Davis, Y. W. C. A. president, announces that the class presidents, Olive Black, Mary Fant, Eloise Brett, and Margaret Mason, are still receiving contributions for the poor. Last year a number of garments were made by Southwestern co-eds for charity; and sewing machines were installed in Palmer Hall for that purpose. This year it is hoped that a still more successful plan will be achieved, since quite a large number of girls have promised to make at least one garment each, the material of which is to be bought with the money which is now being donated. Why not give a dime?

The Bull Rat's Lament

Every college has them,
You know just what I mean:
The Frosh and Upperclassmen
Against the Bull Rat scheme.

He has to learn new customs
Of the prof whose course he picks,
And of course in these courses, he'll bust 'em—
You can't teach an old dog new tricks.

Lately they've started a fashion
(We're the only ones who care)
Upperclassmen seem to have a passion
For cutting the Bull Rats' hair.

The frosh just took what they gave 'em,
And blamed it all on the fates,
But others won't be so craven—
A Bull Rat retaliates.

Declare Howard Men Ineligible

Freshman Players Played In College Before

After full investigation, seven members of the Howard College freshman team were declared ineligible for competition within the Dixie Athletic Conference by Dr. W. O. Swan, vice-president of the conference and chairman of the committee on eligibility. The action was taken Monday.

FIRST OF KIND

It is the first action of the kind taken by the conference since its inception last December.

The investigation came as a result of a request on the part of Dean Mead of Birmingham-Southern and president of the Dixie, and several other members of the association to inquire into the status of several of Howard's freshman players. It was proved that these seven men had engaged in collegiate athletic competition at other schools, thereby making them ineligible to play with any Dixie team.

These seven men will probably be barred from competition within the S. I. A. A. as both conferences have the same rules regarding eligibility.

Dr. Lackey Leads Earnest Throng Onward To Stormy Lofty Heights Of Anatomical Knowledge

High up in the mysterious nooks and crannies of Science Hall dwells a race of men strange indeed. Theirs are not the pleasures of the everyday world. No. Up in their fastness, shut off from civilization, they live but for one thing—Science. At all hours of the day and night the eerie sound of the grind-stone sharpening their dissecting implements will send cold shivers through the unlucky student who needs must enter the palls of that Building of Doom.

Eds And Co-Eds Go Down To Starkville

A large group of Southwestern students attended the Southwestern-A. and M. game at Starkville last Saturday. Among those who drove down were Dr. Diehl; Prof. McCorkle, Harvey Drake, Goodlet Brown, Jimmy Hamilton, Catherine Davis, Julia Walls, Claude Capers, Howard Cook, Mary Kennedy Hubbard, Martha Johnson, Katy Reid, Eloise Brett, Jane Barker, Nell Jones, Charlie Crump, Miriam Heidleberg, Charline Tucker, Dan Wagner, Louis Parrot, Mary Allie Taylor, Oliver Cobb, Tom Holloway, Elizabeth Beasley, Eugenia Weeks, Meta Russell, GGuy Mitchell, Charles Ledsinger, Lucille Gwaltney, and Harvey Greech, Emily Lena

DEATH HOLDS SWAY

'Tis here that the Carnival of Death holds full sway. And gruesome indeed is the work that is carried on. Such quips as, "Well, where's the body," "Slit him wide open," or "This is one tough bozo," are enough to curdle the blood in the veins of the innocent and harmless student.

Dr. Lackey, that Man of Science, is in charge of the Fish Undertakers, Inc., of which most of the Southwestern pre-med students are partners. Stretched out cold in death are the countless bodies of dog-fish, turtles, alligator gars, and other varmints which dwell in the waters of these environs. Dame rumor has it that a bucket of lamprey eels nearly gave

Tri Delt Dinner To be on Founders Day

The active chapter, the alumnae chapter and the pledges of the Tri Delta Sorority will celebrate their founders' day with a formal banquet at the Hotel Peabody next Wednesday at 7 o'clock.

Tri Delta was founded Thanksgiving eve, 1888, at Boston University.

The table will be decorated with sprays of pine, the sorority emblem and the sorority colors, silver, gold and blue will predominate.

Alice Rogers is in charge of arranging the good Prof. the slip.

CLASS DISSECTS

The Anatomy Class, especially, is being groomed in the delicate art of dissection. Every Friday afternoon the members of this august body gather in the lab and take the critters apart to see what makes them tick. And many and diverse are the strange things that they see. For instance, the file-like teeth of a deceased lamprey eel, or the bullet proof sides of the alligator gar.

The members of the Anatomy Class have many quaint and curious yells and pass words such as:

"Rip, wback, cut back
Vim and verve-cranial nerve,
Sis boom bab!
Who are we? Anatomy!
Rab! Rab! Rab!

"They keep tasting better and better to me!"

Every Chesterfield is like every other one. No matter how many you smoke, the last Chesterfield of the day is just as smooth and sweet—as cool and comfortable—as the first.

They're milder, too! Chesterfield uses only mild, ripe, sweet tobaccos—the smoothest and ripest that grow.

Notice, too, how white and fine the paper is. It's the purest that money can buy.

All this care...to make Chesterfields taste better—to make them milder. And millions of Chesterfield smokers say it in their own way—"They Satisfy!"
