TRACKMEN RUN IN DRIZZLE TO SWAMP CENTRE

Down Praying Colonels by Score of 70 to 47.

HIGH, NEWTON, STAR

S. I. A. A. Prospects Bright for Lynx Squad.

Sweeping every race and two of the field events Southwestern's Lynx won an impressive victory over the Praying Colonels of Centre College last Saturday, 70 to 47.

The Colonels showed a superiority in the field events that was comparable to the Lynx victories in the running events. At one time in the meet when there was a deluge of field events, Centre pulled up to a tie with Southwestern and gave the Lynx supporters quite a scare. The meet was won for Southwestern in the last four running events.

It was the same old story of Herbert Newton and Harold High literally running away with the dash runs for the evening. These two stars amassed a total of 31 points for Southwestern. High point man for the meet was "Chief" Tenekat of Centre who won one first and four second places to gain 17 points for

Adelaide Anderson Wins Essay Contest

The recent essay contest conducted by the "Sou'wester" to determine "The Most Needed Thing at Southwestern" was won by Adelaide Anderson, who recommended that a large girls' dormitory be built as beautiful, as convenient, and as permanent as Robb or Calvin Halls. Although Adelaide's project is too big for the students to put through, she won the five-dollar prize since no rule was made in the contest to limit the amount of money to be spent on the improvement.

By far the most useful suggestion was made by James Cowan, who urged that drinking fountains be placed in the dormitories. Cowan's suggestion was more of the type desired by the "Sou'wester."

The great interest in tennis this spring brought out a cry from Palmer Shaffer for better and more courts, and the suggestion from Russell Perry that seats be placed around the courts for the convenience of the spectators.

Mary Moore recommended the death of some rich old geezer who would leave the school an endowment of umpteen millions. According to Mary, this would solve all the problems of the college.

The "Sou'wester" feels that it has received many useful suggestions and will try to put through as many of the projects as possible.

Beta Sigs Elect

The Beta Sigmas have elected their officers for the next year. James Talley was chosen president; E. T. Holloway, vice-president; Robert Sanders, recording secretary; Louis Bornman, treasurer; Segraves, assistant treasurer; Roger Breytspraak, corresponding secretary; Sid Johnson, sergeant-at-arms; William Cobb, Panhellenic Council representative; Jack Renshaw, parliamentarian, and Clark Porteus, chaplain.

MOORE PUSHES PLANE PROJECT

Begins Collecting Money From Students.

"It can't fail."
"We'll get that airplane yet."
So says Chief Moore, Lindbergh's Indian rival, in speaking of his soaring plans for a Southwestern-owned airplane.

The Chief has been working long and carefully to get his proposition before the student body in a way to win hearty support. Going about his publicity campaign with the craftiness of a political candidate, he has succeeded in making the purchase of a student body airplane the supreme topic of conversation on the campus.

A booth set up in the cloister and covered with thrilling photographs of real actual planes in all their glory is calculated to make even the most timid eager and anxious to help buy the plane. A man is at the booth between each hour to receive the $3 fee each student will pay to buy the airplane.

A licensed pilot has been secured to run the plane free of cost. Several offers of planes selling under $1,000 have been received and all the machines are in tiptop shape.

Money is hard to get, but the students are swarming to the booth in droves to get in on what is expected to be a successful adventure.

"Every penny goes into honest hands," says Chief. The bursar is in charge of the student funds for the purchase of the plane, and should the project fail, every cent will be returned to those who have contributed. However, it is expected that more than enough men and women will contribute to make the dream of an airplane a reality.

When a student pays his $3 fee he receives a pair of cardboard wings which are pinned on the lapel of his coat. The seal of Southwestern is on the wings.

Chief intends to push his project until the victory is won. When Southwestern shall have become "airplane-conscious," the Chief will retire to his wigwam and after the fashion of his forefathers say "Ugh. Heap good. Palefaces all right."

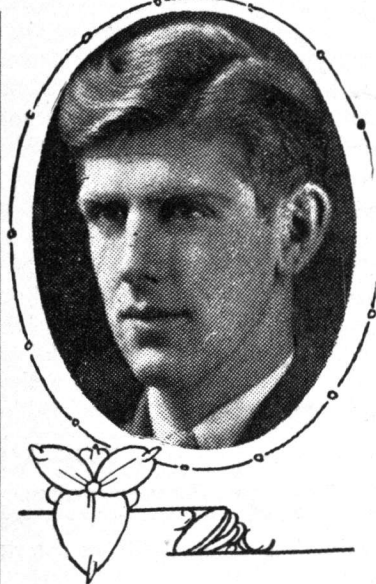

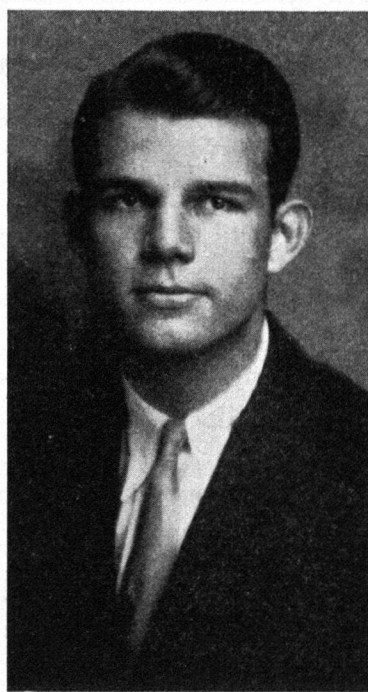

Alpha Theta Phis Pledge In Chapel

At the annual meeting of the Southwestern honorary scholastic society, Alpha Theta Phi, in Chapel Friday morning, seven new members were announced. Only juniors who have had two A and three B grades during the past five semesters, and seniors who have had the same grades for the past seven semesters, are eligible for membership. To be made a member of Alpha Theta Phi is the biggest scholastic honor that can be granted a student at Southwestern.

In order of their scholastic standing, the following juniors were recipients of the honor, and automatically become president, vice president and secretary, respectively, Alice Rogers, James Cowan and Josephine Zimmerman. The seniors honored by membership were Lois Brown, Lucille Work, Mary Carpenter and Lorinne Mitchell.

Barbara Bates is the retiring president, while other student members are Margaret Williams, Maria Hunt Negus, and Anne Shewmaker. Dr. Diehl is an honorary member, as are the following in the faculty who are Phi Beta Kappas: Dr. Strickler, Dr. Bassett, Dr. Swann, Dr. Rhodes and Dr. Hume.

Hughes and Berson Elected

Jimmy Hughes and Bill Berson, who will guide the destinies of the Sou'wester and Lucky Lynx, respectively, throughout next year. They were elected by the Publications Board Monday afternoon.

Southwestern Co-Eds Broadcast Over Station KOED For Annual Banquet

Hilarity, Jollity and Frivolity Reign Supreme at Yearly Y. W. C. A. Dinner.

Southwestern co-eds enjoyed an unusually fine radio program Monday evening, and for the benefit of those who didn't get to tune in, here's what it was all about.

Station KOED, the Young Women's Christian Association of Southwestern, broadcasting a program of food and fun from the main dining room of Neely Hall, Southwestern's finest and one of America's best.

First, after fruit cocktails have been duly consumed, Miss Ruth Parks entertains with a reading, "Lost and Found," the article in question being a young man's heart.

Next a male quartet, composed of Messrs. Nobly, Nickols, Morehouse and Saunders renders a pleasing vocal selection, a dreamy lullaby.

Our own Floyd Gibbons, Adelaide Anderson, gave a racy talk on doings about the campus. Says Miss Anderson, a movement is on foot to see that in future all makers of puny puns be severely chastised, and Jane Barker wonders if that will be punishment. She also announces that Frances Cairnes is going in for sewing in a big way, not to mention the book Mrs. Townsend is writing on "What the Co-Eds Are Wearing — The Long and Short of It."

Imogene Carmichael's beautiful violin solo calls for an encore, so she plays the ever-popular "I Love You Truly," for her charmed listeners.

Pee Wee Hines, manipulating a unique spoon monocle, does the Prince of Wales act, and concludes with "Really, dear ladies, it is indeed a pleasure to be heah, instead of riding the ole horse."

Emma Frances Robinson then reads a clever little piece, "Heartbroken and Seventeen."

The climax arrives with Julia Marie Schwinn's impersonation of Helena Rubenstein, beauty expert par excellence. She is superb, as in a trailing black velvet gown, glancing through graceful lorgnettes, she gives advice on how to achieve beauty, and charm the beast. Above all, says she, keep that schoolgirl complexion, avoid pink toothbrush and athlete's feet, use Listerine, and remember

JIMMY HUGHES CHOSEN EDITOR OF SOU'WESTER

Bill Berson Will Be Head Of College Annual.

HOWRY ON JOURNAL

Publications Board Holds Yearly Elections.

At the meeting of the Publications Board of Southwestern Monday afternoon, Jimmy Hughes, former editor of the "Sou'wester," was reinstated as editor-in-chief of the paper for next year. Bill Berson was elected editor of the Lucky Lynx annual and Erle Howry was chosen to put out the Journal for the coming year. Announcement of the results of the elections is made public today by Nate White, president of the Publications Board.

Thompson Holloway was chosen by the board to manage the finances of the paper for next year in the capacity of business manager. Albert Erskine is the new business manager for the annual and Elizabeth Smith, business manager for the Journal.

Jimmy has had a whole semester's experience as editor of the "Sou'wester."

Tridelts Hostesses At 19 Century Club

The Tri Delta sorority entertained with an informal dance Thursday night from 8 till 12 o'clock at the Nineteenth Century Club complimenting the newly-elected officers.

Members and their dates were: Lyle Stange, president, with J. P. Hollifield; Grace Carkeet with Carlington Bacon; Katherine Bigelow with Marion Painter; Margaret Gunn with Herbert Newton; Marguerite Conley with Julian Curry; Annabelle Cox with James Hughes; Anniemae McDaniel with Albert Erskine; Peggy Martin with Bernard Patton; Louise Mitchell with Marcus Tansey; Edith Graff with James Campbell; Emma Frances Robinson with Gay Bennett, and Margaret McKinstry, Sara Ransom, and Alice Rogers and dates.

Berson Discusses Women

Bill Berson, noted authority on women and their problems, gave a lecture on "The Rights of Woman" to the Nitist Club, campus philosophical group, at a meeting Tuesday night in the Bell Room.

According to Bill, man has become such a puny animal in more ways than one that woman is not content to be ruled by so inferior a critter any more, and so she has embarked from the home to satisfy her yen for action. If man dislikes woman in the business world, he should become physically and mentally so powerful that she would be only too glad to submit to his dominion.

A large argument followed the reading of the paper.

Hot coffee was added to the heat and the tongues wagged faster than ever.

Nominations Begin Tuesday Morning

Nominations for the officers of the student body will be in order next week when the selection of officers begins on Tuesday. Election of these officers and the president of the Publications Board will be held on three successive days and the election of class officers will occur in the week following.

Tuesday, May 5, is the day set for the nominations for president of the Student Body. The election of a man to this office will be held on the following day, Wednesday, May 6. On the same day of the election of the president, nominations for the other offices of the student body will be held. Nominations for the President of the Publications Board will also be in order on Wednesday. The election of these nominees, vice-president and secretary-treasurer of the student body and the Publications Board president will be run off on Thursday, May 7.

Class officers will be nominated and elected on the same day, Tuesday, May 12. This will complete the election of officers by the students.

Johnson Speaks

Mr. Johnson, make-up editor for the Press Scimitar, spoke to the Press Club Wednesday night in the Bell Room. He told the journalists about arranging the news and gave a picture of what work on a metropolitan newspaper is like.

Play Season Over

The annual feature production of the Southwestern Players will not be put on this year. Reasons for the failure in staging the play were not given. The Players have already put on three one-act plays with marked success.

"For, I ain't got no body," whimpered the chicken as she left her edible portions on the other side of the car wheel.

The worst yet is the blind man who got drunk and went into a dark room to find a black cat.

"Understand you stripped the gears of your taxi, Joe?"

"Yep. She's a toothless old hack now."

"Is this the way to treat a customer who has been doing business with you for twelve years?"

"For twelve years, sir?"
"Yes, I purchased a chair on the installment plan in 1918."

Holding her close to him he gazed into the unfathomable depths of her wonderful eyes. A cute anxiety was expressed in every line of her fair face. Ever and anon a sigh seemed to rend her being with its intensity, and she gazed imploringly into his face as if to read his very soul. For many minutes they stood thus, neither speaking, scarcely breathing... each gazing enraptured into the other's eyes. Finally... "Yes," from the oculist, "if not treated immediately the left will develop a decided squint."

Bud: "I know a girl who swallows swords."

Dutch: "That's nothing. I know a girl who inhales camels."

Pitt: "When you girls say no, do you mean no?"

G. R. R.: "No."

One: "Sneagle..."

Two: "Snoeagle, snowl."

Three: "Sneither, snostrich."

"Is she your best girl?"

"Oh, no, she's my 'neck's best girl."

Mary S. H.: "Why so downcast?"

Anybody: "Oh! Somebody told me you thought a knight errant was a Western Union boy on the night shift."

Old Maid (hopefully): "Who's that under the bed?"

Voice: "Nobody but us shoes."

Old Maid: "Aw heck!"

J. Davis: "At last I've discovered what they do with the holes in doughnuts!"

Griffin: "What?"

J. D.: "They use them to stuff macaroni with."

High: "How can you tell an old chicken from a young one?"

Sid: "By the teeth."

High: "But chickens have no teeth!"

Sid: "No. But I have!"

Old Lady: "You don't chew tobacco, do you, little boy?"

Little Boy: "No, mum, but I could let you have a cigarette."

Skinny: "I wish I had enough money to get married."

Skinny: "Buy a coonskin."

Poems of An Idiot Boy

There may be some meaning to it all, but I doubt it.

Lots of times there comes, out of a clear sky, things that

Make tobacco juice fall back in your eyes, and it burns worse than

Rotten eggs in a dry skillet, and makes a smell that reminds one of dye factories on hot days.

Even grasshoppers can crawl out on dead limbs and fall off,

Making a dry plopping sound that is not at all similar to the Cool pain of blunt rocks breasting the carved ripples of a stream.

But tin automobiles have flat tires and give out of energy, and

Lug wrenches are lost in deep rivers where the undercurrent rsewis

Muddy day after day, even when there is a pain in the neck.

POLITICS

The time for election of the officers for the student body for next year is at hand. For the last few years the word "election" has been synonymous with "politics" on the Southwestern campus. Groups have banded together and swapped officers like a band of robbers dividing up the spoils. And they have been robbers, for anything that is done to prevent a clean, honest, unprejudiced, free vote, is dishonesty in one of its most petty forms.

It is time that this school wake up to itself and realize that honor and reputation can not be sacrificed for a few offices. Have things reached such a state that organizations can "rate" on the campus through holding offices?

We believe that all of the groups on the campus are ready to back a clean election. We believe that public sentiment is strong against a repetition of the elections of the last years.

THE AIRPLANE

The plan to buy an airplane, which at first seemed to be a pipe dream, is rapidly becoming a materialized fact. There can be no doubt that the majority of the students really want the plane since 66 per cent of the student body voted in favor of it. It is up to the minority to be sportsmanlike enough to refrain from hindering the campaign with pessimism. We are sure that the minority will take its defeat in good spirit. This student body is too well united and friendly to let anything split it up into factions or breed discontent.

Those who voted in favor of buying the plane do not feel any resentment toward the objectors, rather do we admire their courage to express their views publicly. We would like for the minority to swing into line and put the plan through. If some students, after thinking the project over, still think it is a mistake to purchase a plane, we ask that they maintain a policy of silence out of respect to the expressed sentiment of the majority.

PAY UP.

It is a most unpleasant situation when the entire student body has to suffer because a few of the organizations of the campus are too negligent, lazy, or lackadaisical to pay up for their pages in the annual. The business manager has announced that the year book will not be released until every group has paid up. It is up to these organizations to get to work and collect the money if it takes every cent in their treasuries. They are already disgraced; if they fail to pay up soon stringent action will be taken by those in authority. This is not a threat so much as a plea to these groups to save their good names by paying up.

This has been a hard year financially for everybody. Money does not come easy, but there are certain obligations which must be met. The failure to fulfill a pledge is not a matter to be taken lightly.

STAY OUT

The free telephone which the "Sou'wester" helped get has proved to be a great nuisance to the editor and his staff. Hardly an hour passes without two or three students bringing the phone from its rightful place outside into the office to sit on the desk while they phone. This practice works a hardship on the editors, as they do not wish to offend anyone by pecking away at a typewriter while he is phoning.

We don't want to get horsey, but we must insist that the students stay out at the foot of the stairs when they use the phone. Chairs will be left in the hall for the convenience of the students who wish to phone. Also close the door to the Publications room before you telephone, since the talking is very distracting.

WINNING ESSAY

The following essay by Adelaide Anderson on "What Southwestern Needs Most," was awarded the five-dollar prize by the "Sou'wester," sponsor of the contest.

ESSAY.

It seems to me that the most needed thing at Southwestern is a new Girls' Dormitory.

Those buildings Southwestern has at present are so beautiful, and such perfect specimens of architecture, that it seems a shame for the Girls' Dormitory to be the one discordant note in an otherwise perfect picture.

Southwestern is already well represented by Memphis students. What it needs is an equally good representation of out-of-town girls. Now to a prospective student, and perhaps even more to a girl than to a boy, the dormitory forms a vital and a major part of the school life. And why shouldn't it? After all, it is a temporary home. It must be a very disappointing thing to the new student, after viewing the Southwestern campus, to be taken to Evergreen Hall, which, though it serves the required purpose, and is adequate, certainly does not measure up to the rest of the buildings.

The time is past when girls are considered inferior to boys. This is the age of equal rights, and the co-eds of Southwestern certainly have the right to demand as beautiful surroundings as those given the boys. Evergreen Hall can scarcely be mentioned in the same breath with Robb or Calvin. Each year a number of out-of-town girls are forced to board in town or to reside in some of the bungalows in the vicinity of the college.

I say, therefore, give Southwestern a Girls' Dormitory worthy of the other buildings bearing the stamp of Southwestern.

SUE TO LOU

Dear Lou:

All this grand spring weather is certainly hard on me when it comes to writing letters, but there's so much going on that I know you will feel neglected if I don't write, so here goes.

The tennis courts are full all the time—so full that beginners haven't got a chance. Needless to say I haven't played much, but they let me watch the tournaments. There were some good ones with Millsaps last week. Jimmy Daimwood can certainly wield a racquet.

The house party at Moon Lake was quite an event. Everybody had a big time—specially Virginia Reynolds. She won $33 on a 10-cent slot machine. Somebody else always gets the breaks.

Our track team ran away from Centre Saturday. I hope the freshmen use that as an example and wipe Union off the map.

The Y. W. C. A. banquet was lots of fun. Betty Hagan makes a fine radio announcer. Wonder where she got her experience. Floyd Gibbons Anderson gave a three-minute talk telling us tall tales of the campus. Julia Marie Schwinn as Helena Rubenstein, made a big hit.

Yesterday I saw Goof Hinson and Miriam strolling leisurely around the campus.

Well, I must close now. I know Allen Cabanis will object. We should have first have a motion for adjournment according to Roberts' Rules of Orders.

Write me soon.

SUE.

P. S.—In case you don't know it, Nell Jones holds the Endurance record. More power to her.

CALVIN NEWS

Dr. Strickler returned from the Rhodes scholarship conference to find some new developments in Calvin Hall. One was the new lounging model telephone. (Expansion: The pay telephone managed to slide from the wall to the floor and it is now necessary to get in a sprawling position to answer it.)

The four-man suite on first floor has acquired a private piano, but there are rumors that it will be eventually returned to the social room.

Calvin seems mighty quiet now that the "Pirates of Pennzance" is over and the pirates and police have stopped practicing their songs (?) in the social room and in every shower room.

Clubs Fail to Cash In for Lucky Lynx

Payments to the "Lucky Lynx" for pages taken in it by the organizations continue to hold up the issuance of the annuals to the student body. Business Manager Ohlendorf has stated that absolutely no books will be issued until the last cent owed to the annual has been paid. The annuals have been here for over a week now and are still being held due to the failure of several of the organizations to pay their debts.

Those organizations which have failed to pay are: A. P. O. Fraternity Theta Alpha Phi, the Nitist Club, the Ministerial Club, the Press Club, the Lynx Club, and the Spanish Club. All of these clubs owe twenty dollars each for the page taken by them in the annual.

These revolutions of ours are very tiresome. Personally, I cannot take them seriously.—Foreign Minister Alaba of Spain (until recently).

CLUBS SPONSOR 'GRID' BANQUET

Night of Jollity Will Be Observed May 12.

On the night of Tuesday, May 12, at 6:30 p. m., the men students and faculty of Southwestern will gather in Neely Hall for the annual Gridiron Banquet which is being sponsored by the Southwestern Christian Union and the Ministers' Club. There will be all sorts of entertainment in addition to a four-course dinner served from the kitchens of the dining hall.

The price per plate for the banquet will be twenty-five cents for the dormitory students and fifty cents for the town students. Tickets are now on sale and may be gotten from the members of the Ministers' Club. There is a limited supply of them as the dining hall seats less than two hundred and only those who buy early will be able to get them.

Malcolm Richie will be toastmaster for the occasion and music will be furnished by Bill Brinkley and his Royal Collegians. There will also be a quartet which will render vocal selections and music by stringed instruments. All after dinner speeches will be required to be short and interesting and no one who violates these rules will be allowed to keep the floor.

There will be several elections of campus celebrities among them being the election of the ugliest man in school and the most "loquacious lubricator." The character of the other elections has not yet been revealed by those in charge. Many surprises are promised also, but full details of the program will not be given out in advance of the event.

The Gridiron Banquet has been well attended in the past and there is every evidence that it will be well attended this year.

TRACKMEN RUN

his team. Newton was second with 16 points and High third with 15 points.

High's points represent three first places, the 100-yard dash, quarter-mile and half-mile. His time was good but might have been better had any of the Centre men been close enough to him to make him really run. Newton won first in the 220-yard dash, and in the high jump and second in the quarter-mile and the broad jump.

Riley McGaughran seems intent on setting a record for the two-mile event on the Lynx track that will stay for a long time. He set a new record Saturday by covering the two-mile trek in the very fast time of ten minutes 13.1 seconds. He had no pity for the visitors and proceeded to gain an entire lap and a quarter on them in the course of the two-miles. No particularly good time was registered in any of the other runs and the wet field made for unsure footing. Roger Wright followed 100 yards behind to get second in the race.

The rain and bad weather kept the meet from being better than it was in the weight throwing.

Centre's highly touted hurdlers and dash men failed to come up to expectations. The meet was the last one for Southwestern before the S. I. A. A. meet here May 9.

Summary:
100-Yard Dash—High, Southwestern, first; Bourn, Centre, second; Hasara, Centre, third. Time 10.4.
Mile Run—Wright, Southwestern, first; McGaughran, Southwestern, second; Hamilton, Centre, third. Time 5 minutes 4.4 seconds.

220-Yard Dash—Newton, Southwestern, first; Bourn, Centre, second. Time 22.8.

Pole Vault—Scott, Southwestern, first, 10 feet 6 inches; Tenekat, Centre, second, 10 feet; Lane, Centre, third, 9-6.

126-Yard High Hurdles—Drake, Southwestern, first; Goodloe, Centre, second; King, Southwestern, third. Time 17.8.

Javelin Throw—Tenekat, Centre, first, 142 feet; Arnekar, Centre, second, 137.6; Bynum, Southwestern, third, 136 feet.

Shot Put—Arnekar, Centre, first, 40 feet, 10 inches; Tenekat, Centre, second, 39-46; Knight, Southwestern, third, 36-3 1-4.

Broad Jump—Hasara, Centre, first, 22 feet; Newton, Southwestern, second, 8 1-2 inches; Knight, Southwestern, third, 19 9/2 inches.

Car Congress

A congress of cars from the surrounding states was held back of Science Hall Monday morning. Many of the more progressive and wide-awake states sent delegates to the convention to pass on important questions. Delegates, guests of a motley crowd of Memphis cars, were Harvey Drake's Ford with an Ohio license, Miles Freeman's Buick with a New York tag, Smoky Hood's Chevrolet with an Alabama tag, Dan Ross' Studebaker with a California license, Richie Morgan's model T Ford from the wilds of Arkansas, Nate White's Ford from Kentucky, Odell Sanders' Chevrolet with a Mississippi tag, Rooster Kimbrough's Ford roadster, and a Dodge from Texas that was hard to steer.

Evergreen Hall Fills Up For Next Year.

The 1931-32 session at Southwestern will see more than one-half of the co-eds now living in Evergreen Hall back in their old surroundings.

The dormitory has a capacity of twenty-five students, nineteen of whom have already reserved rooms for next year. This number includes thirteen of its present occupants and six new students.

Jimmy Walls and Allison Cole will be back for their fourth year; Martha Burton, Nell Davis, Dorothy Cobb, Grace Rowland Rogers will return for their third year; and Edith Graff, Meta Russel, Miriam Heidelberg, Imogene Carmichael, Mary Abbay, Virginia Howry and Ida Banks will reside there for their second year at Southwestern.

Mississippi offers the larger number of new students registered so far: Greenville, Laurel, Clarksdale and Tupelo are contributing five, while Forrest City, Arkansas, will also be represented.

Paper Will Sponsor Co-Eds' Tourney

The proposed Girls' Ping Pong Tournament, which was called off last month when only eight girls turned in entry blanks, will be run off immediately, since twenty girls have signed up.

The schedule has been impartially drawn up and is posted in the college store. The rules are written above the schedule. A match shall be decided by one set. The finals shall be decided by two out of three sets. The winner of the matches should post the results in their proper place on the schedule to facilitate publicity.

The contestants are given till Wednesday at 2 o'clock to play off the first round of the tournament. Promptly at 2 Wednesday all girls who still have not played the first match will be automatically dropped from the tournament regardless of excuses.

A handsome loving cup will be presented in chapel to the winner of the tournament.

This tournament is made possible through the courtesy of Dr. Pepper, who donated the table to the college store.

Harriet Shepherd Marries Mr. Pond

The marriage of Miss Harriet Shepherd and Mr. Harry Searing Pond last Saturday afternoon at the home of the bridegroom's parents in New Orleans came as a distinct surprise to their friends. The bride and her mother were visiting in the Pond home at the time of the wedding, which had been originally planned for June.

The Rev. Dr. Weed officiated in the presence of members of the immediate family. The bride was given in marriage by her cousin, Mr. Dorion Fleming, of New Orleans. Following the ceremony the couple went to Bay St. Louis, where they will remain until fall.

Bobcat Stars Croon Swan Song to Union

The Bobcats sing their athletic swan song tomorrow when they meet the Union Freshmen in a track meet on Fargason Field at 2 o'clock. The athletic activities of the class of '34 have been rather weak, but if they win this meet, they will have a percentage of .500 in track. The first year men recently dropped a very close meet to Messick.

Prospects for victory are rather bright, although the strength of the Union contingent is an unknown quantity. Several of the Frosh are improving rapidly and should rate the varsity next year. Pickens looks good on the low hurdles. Key and Sternberg are the mainstays in the sprints and broad jump. The Porteous brothers are improving in the middle distances and in the two-mile run. Busbee and Fox are adding inches to their records with the weights. Rice and Jack Brown are very capable at pole vaulting. Cloar seems to be the best bet for the high jump. Other bright prospects include the Edingtons, Durant, Hunt, and Pace.

BASEBALL BOYS DOWN MESSICK

Whip High School Lads To Tune of 5 to 2.

Starting off their season in a rather impressive fashion, Southwestern's baseball team defeated Messick High's rather formidable prep school squad by a score of 5 to 2. The game, though only a warm-up for the Lynx, proved that Coach Hughes' men have the necessary punch to win ball games and was marked by a general shifting in the line-up of pre-season.

Jim Talley, who has heretofore been performing behind the plate, was used in the outfield and turned in a rather neat afternoon's performance. The infield was generally shifted about with George Wirt playing the hot corner and Syd Johnson occupying the shortfield position. Bill Hutchinson and Jack Crawford alternated at the first sack. "Hutch" at present holds the upper hand on the job, but Crawford's hitting ability may rout him out. Carl Nickle and Jack Slack alternate at the middle bag.

Mobley and Pittman make up the rest of the outfield along with Talley. Bob Pfrangle turned out in a uniform the other day and should be good outfield material. The regular outfield is a hard-hitting trio and swung some big bats in the Messick game.

The feature of the game with Messick was the pitching of John Streete. The lanky Mississippian allowed only two runs in the five innings he twirled. McDougall worked in the box the last two innings and held the prep boys scoreless.

Coach Hughes has definitely announced that there will be no schedule for the team, but that games will be played as they are able to get them. Tech High and a team gathered together by Gil Reese will play the Lynx some time this week.

SPORT SCRIBBLE

By PALMER SHAFFER

Just something about nothing in particular. Backgammon and bridge have been shelved for the campus' latest guessing game. As the only name mentioned, Professor Francis Christian Huber is credited with being its originator. Most anyone can play, but only the shrewdest—or luckiest—can win. The game, roughly sketched: Each individual is offered a choice of about five dozen numbers. Some of the numbers are accompanied by funny names, stars, and % marks. The object is to select seven numbers, turn them over to Professor Huber and, presto, he can tell your future. Another popular form of the game is to pick seven numbers, then try to figure out what you really have. Oh, it's the campus craze.

When Napoleon crossed the River Berezina after losing all but fourteen thousand of half a million men in his Russian campaign was heading back to France he is credited with having said: "My star still will reign." Not so very long ago one of our well known campus tennisers after losing a match by a score which we, in the vernacular, call lopsided, said of his opponent: "That guy can't play tennis. He's terrible." Like flies to wanton boys . . .

Purely campus wit—Rain prevented the Southwestern tennis team from being washed out in a recent match. Did you get these prunes in fresh today?

In case you haven't heard—Herbert Newton was high scorer in three of the Lynx four-track meets. Harold High holds the campus record in the 100-yard dash, 440-yard run, and half-mile. Riley McLaughran may go under 10 minutes in the two-mile run.

Do you know any 220-pound junior college boys? This should be censored.

Love in tennis seldom goes with the match. Don't ask me how I do it.

The baseball team has played two games to date and won both. Bru, Pitt, and Nickle are still taking bows, but few strikes.

Huge Robbers Frisk Fischback

With three automatics staring him in the face, John Fischback was forcibly separated from his favorite timepiece and forty cents in change on Saturday night. The robbery occurred on Autumn Avenue, near Evergreen as "Fish" was returning from a so-called "Prayer Meeting."

According to Fischback an armored car drew up alongside and three huge highwaymen leaped from it, covering him from all sides with machine guns. After a brief struggle, Fischback saw that it was useless to resist and gave up some of his prized possessions. The bandits hurriedly sped away from the scene of the crime, leaving no clues behind.

TENNISEERS DO AN EMILY POST

Dainwood Wins Only Set For Southwestern.

Rain and an unparadonable breach of tennis etiquette on the part of one of our most likeable young men, which resulted in a very strained state of affairs, made last Saturday one of the most regrettable days in the history of gentlemanly tennis.

The weather may be blamed to some extent for it was a disagreeable day. Leaden skies and threatening showers had our young chaps furtively biting their nails during the early morning hours when they should have been practicing the proper speech with which the visiting players should be greeted. In this manner, perhaps, James Dainwood fell into a mental lapse which produced an 'orrible faux pas that afternoon; a faux pas which has left him shunned by his friends, an outcast among hundreds of schoolmates.

Oh, rash boy, why did you not think of the consequences, the school, your family, humanity.

Were you and Leland Martin to go back upon the court again this day, we believe the world would crack apart, gasp, and die.

Any young man of fine parts who would deliberately flaunt the courteous treatment accorded the guests by his teammates should be criticized, scandalized and ostracized.

Dainwood (and there was a dangerous slant to his eyes), do you realize that by taking a set from the Millsaps chaps you deliberately ignored the conventions of your teammates? Not one won a set, but each so forced his opponent that, in winning, he fairly beamed with his superiority and manliness.

And you took a set. Fie, fie, fie. Go, go to a monkey, my boy, for you have lost caste.

Girls Play Baseball

The girls of Southwestern, who have so enthusiastically adopted baseball this year, have arranged an inter-sorority elimination tourney. The following girls are captains of their sorority teams: Lucille Work, Chi Omega; Alice Cohill, Alpha Omicron Pi; Jane Ussery, Zeta Tau Alpha; Catherine Davis, Kappa Delta, and Lyle Stanage, Delta Delta Delta. The schedule is as follows, for the first games to be played on April 29: Chi Omega vs. Kappa Delta. Alpha Omicron Pi vs. Tri Delta. Zeta Tau Alpha vs. Y. W. C. A.

Candidate Kicks

ANNAPOLIS, Md. — (IP)—Officials of the Naval Academy here have been rebuked by a candidate for admission whose grades were not good enough to qualify him as a midshipman, for paying too much attention to studies and not enough to athletics.

In his letter the disappointed student wrote that he had been an active athlete in high school and college and that he had fully expected to play on the Navy football team next fall.

"You can't expect a 217-pound all-around athlete to have very much time for studies," he said.

RAZZ PREPARES FOR BIG MEET

Southwestern Will Be Host to S. I. A. A.

Climaxing the present season of track engagements Southwestern will entertain the fellow members of the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association Saturday afternoon, May 9, on Fargason Field. A majority of the teams in the association have indicated that they intend to enter men in the meet. It should prove the best Southwesterners have seen in a long time. The S. I. A. A. is composed of 35 schools.

Southwestern journeyed to Clinton, S. C., last year and with their best efforts captured fourth place. The meet last year was won by Presbyterian College of Clinton.

With the greater number of teams entered this year the competition will be stronger. Also it will mean that just a few points will give the first place position to a team. Last year the meet was won with a total of 30 points. Coach W. C. Rasberry is confident that his men can win enough races to get 30 points. He is depending more on his speed and distance men to win the victory.

The medals for the events have been on display in the College Store for some time. First place winner will receive a gold medal, second place a silver emblem, and third place a bronze medal.

Dr. W. O. Swan is in charge of all of the arrangements for the meet.
