EXAMINATIONS REAR HEAD FOR FIERCE BATTLE

Semi-Annual Fray Starts With Hygiene Test
BIG GUNS WILL BOOM
Main Encounter Set For a Week From Now

First semester examinations will begin tomorrow with the Hygiene classes under Prof. Harris undergoing the ordeal and giving warning to the rest of the student body that the regular exams are little more than a week away.

One week from tomorrow Dr. Lackey will administer to his Biology I class the test of knowledge gleaned during the semester. Other exams will begin on the following Monday, January 25.

As has been the custom in the past for the first semester exams, the schedule followed will be that of the regular daily classes with exams in the Monday first hour classes being given on Monday morning of exam week and the second hour classes taking their exams at 2 p. m. on the same day. Tuesday the third and fourth hour classes will have exams and Thursday and Friday the same plan will be followed.

On Wednesday of the examination week all classes that meet in afternoons during the week will have their exams.

Reading course examinations will be arranged for by the students with the professor directing their reading and will not be held on any set schedule.

PLEDGES BEWARE

These exams are of great importance to all pledges of fraternities for on the success with which they are accomplished depends the right to initiation into a fraternity. School requirements are that a pledge shall pass twelve hours of work in one semester before he may be eligible for initiation. This is a hard and fast rule which may not be avoided by anyone in any way.

No examinations are scheduled for the Saturday of the week of exams and the catalogue calendar records no scholastic activity for the next Monday, Feb. 1. Tuesday, Feb. 2, has been set aside for registration day for the second semester. Regular classes will be resumed on Wednesday.

Strattmann Plans Sorority Tourney

Miss Louise Strattmann, women's athletic director, announces that an inter-sorority basketball tournament will begin February 8. A week later, on February 15, an intra-mural tournament will start. Since there will be no varsity team selected this year, much interest is expected to be shown in the two tournaments. Eligibility for players will depend on at least ten practices prior to February 8. Basketball practice for girls began on December 1, and will continue on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday at 4:30 p. m. During the week of exams there will be daily practice at the same hour. Following basketball season, Miss Strattmann will inaugurate volley ball, and is planning several tournaments later during the spring.

DR. COOPER HAS WRITTEN STUDY ABOUT PARSON

Reviews "Parson" Brownlow and His Times
PAPER IS PUBLISHED
Is In December Issue Of Southwestern Bulletin

A study of "Parson" Brownlow, reconstruction governor of Tennessee, is contained in the History Number of the Southwestern Bulletin, which came off the press in the latter part of December.

Prof. W. R. Cooper analyzes the character of this "fighting parson," who had charge of the direction of Tennessee during the troublous times immediately following the Civil War. He gives an insight into the many difficulties attendant to the office of chief executive from 1865-68 and how "Parson" Brownlow through his own strength and power coped with these problems—sometimes successfully and at other times otherwise.

Much criticism has been directed against Brownlow's policies and Prof. Cooper believes "a study of the man, himself, will better enable us to interpret his motives."

The political and religious views of this Methodist circuit rider, newspaper editor, and orator are related in an interesting fashion by Prof. Cooper. The hatred from one side and the love from another as a result of his stand are set forth in a terse manner.

"Parson" Brownlow depended, Prof. Cooper writes, "for his authority on the Bible, the Constitution, and the Methodist Church."

The Southwestern Bulletin is issued quarterly by the committee on Publications of Southwestern.

The last issue of the publication was written by Prof. Ralph Hon and contained a study of the problems of transportation and their possible solution in the future.

Organize Six Week Forensical Course

The first meeting of the recently organized class in public speaking will be held at 7:30 tonight in Palmer Hall. The lectures will be given by either Prof. A. D. Kelso or Prof. W. O. Shewmaker. Each meeting will be two hours in length and the course itself will last for six weeks.

Studies in logic will be the most important feature of the course, with presentation of arguments being emphasized.

The class is open to all the Southwestern students who are interested. For further information see either of the two profs who will teach the course, or Ronald Hayhoe.

Defiant Damoselles Sheer Locks In Revolt Against Paris Decree

The campus has been stirred to its very foundation, and tongues are wagging madly about the year's greatest piece of news. This revolutionary event is none other than the fact that five socially prominent coeds appeared at school after the holidays with shorn locks. Misses Peggy Walker, Jane Barker, Grace Braun, Nina Stansell, and Eloise Brett have deserted the ranks of the long haired lassies and are now gaily sporting long bobs. Much notoriety has been gained by these young ladies; their

Students Petition Hoover To Appoint Student On His U. S. Peace Delegation

2,200 Students Discuss World Problems At Grand Conclave Of Students' Volunteer Movement

Buffalo, N. Y.—(IP)—An urgent request that one college or university student be sent to the Geneva Disarmament Conference with the American delegation has been sent to President Hoover by 2,000 students who attended the quadrennial convention of the Students' Volunteer Movement here during the holidays. The students represented 600 universities and colleges in Canada and the United States.

The move was proposed by Prof. Ralph Harlow of Smith College, who told the convention:

"You are the ones who are going to be asked to lay down your lives. They will not think you too young or immature to go over the top in the first lines of battle. If you can make war ought you not have the right to stop war?"

Canadian and American delegates voted overwhelmingly in the affirmative on the question:

"Do you favor the United States or Canada independently reducing her expenditures upon armaments?"

Meanwhile the college world was assured of at least one representative on the American peace delegation when President Hoover appointed as one of its members Miss Mary Emma Woolley, president of Mount Holyoke College since 1900.

Miss Woolley, popularly considered a conservative pacifist, is the first woman ever to be appointed to such a commission from this nation. Being the "first woman" is nothing new to her, however. She graduated from Brown University in 1894, the first woman ever to receive a degree from that institution.

A few years ago she was placed on the "black list" of several branches of the Daughters of the American Revolution, because of her activities in behalf of the cause of peace. Although she is normally a Republican, she is independent in her voting, having voted for Cox in 1920 because he favored entry into the League of Nations.

A. O. Pi Slings Kid Party 7:30 Tonite

A. O. Pi sorority will entertain in collegiate style Friday night at their campus lodge from 7:30 to 11 p. m. The lodge will be appropriately decorated in pennants, pillows and other rah-rah articles. Drinks and sandwiches will be dispensed from a drug-store counter arranged in the lodge. Bill Taylor and his "Collegians" will furnish music for the occasion.

Guests from other sororities have been invited. They are: Chi Omega, Ione Wall; Kappa Delta, Ruth Billings; Tri-Delta, Catherine Bigelow; Zeta, Dorothy Jane Kerr. The following chaperones have also been invited: Mr. and Mrs. George Newton, Dr. and Mrs. John Davis; Dr. and Mrs. George McClain; Dr. and Mrs. William Atkinson; Professors Monk and McCorkle.

Union Listens AS BOB SPEAKS

Pfrangle Tells of Student Convention at Buffalo
A report of the Student Volunteer Convention held in Buffalo during the Christmas holidays featured the meeting of the cabinet of the Southwestern Christian Union Tuesday night. Bob Pfrangle, official delegate with Harry Champlin, gave the report which was well received by members present.

The cabinet voted not to send a delegate to the State Convention of Y. M. C. A. in session today and tomorrow at Nashville.

Pardon Please

The Sou'wester wishes to correct an error made in its columns a short while ago when it said that Mary Anderson is President of Zeta Tau Alpha. Dorothy Whitten is President of the Zetas.

FIVE GIRLS IN CHARTER BODY OF ORDER HERE

Local Chapter Only One Outside Randolph-Macon Will Pledge Soon
Twelve Brunettes and One Blonde Eventually

A chapter of S. T. A. B., secret sorority founded at Randolph-Macon Woman's College in 1899, has been organized at Southwestern. The organization fosters better intersorority spirit and encourages interest in scholastic and college activities.

The group here was sponsored by two members of the Randolph-Macon chapter, Nancy Gates and Anne Trezevant. The five charter members at Southwestern are: Frances Durham, Nell Barker Jones, Jane Barker, Kathryn Harris, and Virginia Reynolds.

12 BRUNETTES—1 BLONDE
The members of S. T. A. B. are limited to twelve brunettes and one blonde. The colors, red, white, and black, are carried out in the pin which has the letters S. T. A. B. in alternating colors on a background of silver. The members appear on the campus each week on Friday wearing white with the red badge of S. T. A. B.

S. T. A. B. was the first order of its kind to be founded at Randolph-Macon, where it has the distinction of being the most exclusive and secret of all such organizations. No one but members are allowed to enter their house on the campus where all meetings are held.

HERE ARE OFFICERS
The officers of the Southwestern chapter are: Frances Durham, President, and Nell Barker Jones, Vice-President.

The chapter plans as a part of its activity to offer an annual award to the fresette who achieves the best all-round class standing. The outstanding feature is the banquet given on the Ides of March at which time the blonde member is announced.

The news of the formation of an S. T. A. B. chapter at Southwestern was kept secret until the announcement was made last night in the Press Scimitar.

ABSENCE RULES GROW STRICTER

Penalties Increased For Excessive Cuts

A drastic change of policy regarding absences has been announced by the Reading Course committee of the faculty. Hours will now be deducted for each absence exceeding the actual number of hours the student attends class each week.

Reading course absences are not considered.

WHAT THE BOOK SAYS
The catalog regulation provides that if a student's absences in a given semester "exceeds the total number of credit hours for which he is registered, one hour will be deducted from the total credit recorded for that semester," and one hour deduction for each absence thereafter.

Where formerly students were allowed 15 absences before a deduction, if they are taking a reading course, they will be allowed only 12.

KAMPUS KRAX

"He's not very amusing, is he?"
 "No, he couldn't entertain a doubt."
 * * *

Lillian G.—Who wrote the song,
 "There Is Only One Girl In the World for Me?"
 Lyle—Adam, I suppose.
 * * *

"Can't you stretch a point?"
 "Certainly," said the period. And thus was born the comma.
 * * *

An irate gent rushed into the editor's office and shouted, "See here, you've published an erroneous announcement of my death. That's got to be fixed somehow."
 Editor—"We never retract anything we have published, but I'll tell you what I'll do. I'll put an announcement in the births column tomorrow and give you a fresh start."
 * * *

"The Scotch don't like all the jokes about them being tight."
 "Why not?"
 "Because all the jokes are at their expense."
 * * *

Lady (entering store)—What do your envelopes run at now?
 Salesman—They don't run, madam;
 they're stationary.
 * * *

Bo—Are you still in love?
 Zo—Say, there's nothing still about me when I'm in love.
 * * *

Plumber—I'm here to fix that old tub in the kitchen.
 Small Son—Mom, the doctor's here to see the cook.
 * * *

Tim—Was your barn hurt during the cyclone?
 Si—Dunno yet; I ain't found it.
 * * *

Gene—Why is Santa Claus like Hoover?
 Paul—I don't know; why?
 Gene—Why, they both have white whiskers, 'cept Hoover.
 * * *

RED—DO YOU BELIEVE IN PETTING PARTIES?
 JULIA—IT ALL DEPENDS ON WHO THE PARTY IS.
 * * *

Friend—I want to know why you always hit your horse on one side.
 Cy—Well, I figure if I get one side moving the other side is pretty sure to follow.
 * * *

Flo—What is that odor in the library?
 Ziegfeld—That's the dead silence
 they keep there.

 BOY TO KEEP THE TEACHER
 AFTER SCHOOL—NOW IT IS THE SMART ONE.
 * * *

Stalled Motorist—Know anything about a car like this?
 Brilliant Youth—Sure, about a thousand jokes.
 * * *

Mr. McCully gave Mike a quarter and a dime and told him to put whatever he wished in church.
 After church he asked him: Well, son, what did you give?
 He replied, "Well, dad, I was going to put in that quarter and then I remembered that the Lord loveth a cheerful giver, and I knew I would give the dime more cheerfully than the quarter, so I gave the dime."

TAKE DOWN THE CHAINS

The Sou'wester feels that the chains have been kept across the driveways long enough now, and that the students have learned only too well the cost of speeding recklessly through the campus. We feel sure that after undergoing the inconvenience of the chains no student would drive pell mell should the chains be taken down and the students trusted to drive slowly.

Southwestern students have shown that they can be trusted. As long as the free telephone has been in the Publications Office not a single student has violated the rule that there are to be no long distance calls over that phone. No one has been posted to keep tab on the students who use the free telephone. Why shouldn't Southwestern students be trusted to drive slowly through the campus?

Public opinion would be against any student who, through speeding down the driveway, would endanger the lives of the rest of the students and the privilege of keeping the driveway open to traffic.

SUE TO LOU

Dear Lou:
 I know you wonder how I find time to write you so often. The truth is, of course, I don't, which may be one reason why I'm flunking 3 out of 4.
 You're my only alibi.
 Everybody turned out to see "Crazy Quilt." As they say in the society columns, among the prominent Southwesterners who were glimpsed during the evening were Misses Walker, Mason, Weeks, Harris, Farley, Jones, and Abbay, and Messrs. White, Sigler, Johnson, Kim-brough, and Eaton (with opera glasses). Show me the cynic who said college students didn't appreciate art!
 It's the A. O. Pi's time to give a party and tonight is the night. It's to be a kid party y'know. I heard Dan Ross say he was going, and I couldn't help thinking how irresistible he will be in rompers. Dan and Goody Brown are mighty big dogs these days; by the way, they break into rather questionable print designated as "two Southern gentlemen."
 They'll be glad to tell you all about it.
 Katherine seems to be maintaining the old Davis custom of attracting A. T. O.'s and others. I saw her the center of a group comprised of Berson, Durant, Edington, and Hamilton the other day, telling them some tall tales they were apparently muchly interested in. And when somebody else does the talking in a crowd with both Hamilton and Berson present that spells power.
 I'm about run out of key-holes to peep through, so you'll pardon me if I indulge in a few yawns and call it a day.
 Yours for prosperity in 1932.
 Sue.

Wrecks "Ben Hur"

Rome, Italy—(IP)—An order of the ministry of the interior halting the presentation of the moving picture, "Ben Hur," in 24 movie houses in this country and the confiscation of films has been revoked by Premier Mussolini. It cannot be shown in this country after its present run, however. The order was originally invoked because the movie showed the ancient Romans to be cruel.
 You always glorify the home in the same proportion that it doesn't exist.
 —Earl Bertrand Russell.

EVERGREEN HALL

Evergreen Hall
 Clarene Wineman has gone home to stay and never to return, and there are reports from Greenville that she is soon to be a blushing bride. They haven't been verified as yet, but she didn't wear an S. A. E. pin two years for nothing at all.
 Here's the sad story of Faith, Hope, and Charity: Faith and Hope are thriving steadily and nibbling daintily at fish food. Alas! poor Charity lies buried in a powder box tied with black crepe beneath the spreading elm on Evergreen terrace. Malline Lyon, possessor of the two remaining gold fish, was pall-bearer and chief mourner when the sad rites were performed last Sunday. When asked the immediate cause of Charity's death, she stated that the greedy little fish would eat too many fish wafers.
 Thelma Worthington was fortunate enough to have her mother visit her this week.
 Delightful task! to rear the tender thought,
 To teach the young idea how to shoot.—James Thomson.

Girl Student Plays House With Miceys

New York—(IP)—Katherine G. Watson, graduate student at New York University, isn't afraid of mice, or if she is, she has good control of her impulses. For four days she closeted herself with 160 of the rodents in an attempt to discover whether or not exercise increases resistance to pneumonia.

Some of the mice were in a tread mill while others were in cells which prevented moving about. Last week she had not yet completed her results.

ANNUAL READY TO GO TO PRESS

Editor Berson Prepares For Early Edition

Two weeks' holiday for Christmas were used to good advantage by Bill Berson, editor-in-chief of the annual, and several members of his staff, and much was accomplished towards the completion of the year book with the sending of most of the pictures to the engravers for preparation prior to printing. The majority of the pictures have been sent in and all remaining photographs will be at the engravers by the end of this week.

Much of the editorial work has been completed and prepared for mailing to the printer and the Lynx is rapidly nearing completion with an early publication date probable.

BEAUTIES SELECTED

Beauties who were selected by the student body and three judges will be seen as chosen for the Beauty Section of the annual in the Sunday edition of the Commercial Appeal. Judges who aided in the selection of Southwestern's six most beautiful co-eds are Andrew Lyne, Allen Tate, and Robert Penn Warren, all authors of some note. As the beauty section is always one of the most popular divisions of the annual and as there has been as yet no campus announcement as to the final selections the publication of the photographs in the rotogravure section of the Memphis paper will be the answer to the question in the minds of many students.

LYNXCAT LADS DOWN GERBERS

Lynx Cut Loose In Final Half With 31 Points

Southwestern brought into play all their reserve power last Monday night to defeat the Gerber quintet by the score of 56 to 33. The Lynx led at the half by the score of 15 to 13.

The Gerber's five led by Tommy Johnson, star player of the Jolly Cabs, held the Southwestern team in check the early part of the game, while the Lynx scoring attack failed to function. In the last half, however, the Lynx started hitting on all five and the game was on.

Both teams missed numerous shots at the basket during the first half of the fray, but in the last half, the Lynxmen were sinking them with regularity. Southwestern scored their last 20 points without their opponents scoring once.

The scoring honors of the evening went to Sheriff Knight, who led the field with 18 points. Next place went to Johnson of the Gerbers, who amassed a total of 17 points. The floor work of Johnson stood out throughout the entire game and he succeeded in keeping the goal shooting prowess of Knight down to a lone field goal in the first half. However, in the last half, the big center of the Lynx cut loose with all he was worth and sank them from all angles.

Lineup and score:

Chicago Has Horses

Chicago—(IP)—Albert Blumenthal, University of Chicago sociologist, has written a book of the good and bad details of the small village. He says the small town now has everything the city has in the way of people except the "extremely pathological" and the "genius."

Fewer horses are to be seen in a small town than in Chicago, he said.

which curls up daintily at the nape of the neck. At least that is the vogue which these style setters advocate.

At least a statement for which the entire school is waiting breathlessly has been secured. Each one kindly consented, after much persuasion, to give this paper an exclusive statement explaining how and why she took this momentous step.

Miss Peggy Walker wistfully confided that her life-long occupation has been a quest for beauty. It was in pursuing this goal that she decided to get rid of her long, blonde tresses and appear before the world as a devotee of the bob.

Jane Barker states that "long hair was so much trouble." She praises the convenience of the long bob which can imitate almost any type of coiffure.

Grace Braun admits that she chopped off her own hair one night in a fit of rage. Her fury was caused by the time and trouble it took to manage her floating locks.

Nina Stansell is the only one of the five who had a really good, wholesome, uplifted reason. You can believe it or not. It was her desire to always get to chapel on time that made her sacrifice herself to such a noble cause. Anyway, that was what she offered for publication.

Eloise Brett found that long hair required a dignified behavior which she could not maintain. Bobbed hair means freedom from worries and gives her an airy feeling of irresponsibility.

So far, the epidemic is spreading, since Pud Mahan appeared one day this week minus a large part of her crowning glory. The school applauds the bravery of these damsels.

And unlike Sampson, their power varies inversely as the length of their locks.

MUSIC LOVERS MEET SUNDAY

Einstein Returns To United States

Los Angeles—(IP)—Dr. Albert Einstein with Mrs. Einstein has arrived to spend the winter as the guest of the California Institute of Technology at Pasadena.

Meanwhile, at New Orleans, where the American Association for the Advancement of Science has been meeting, Dr. Robert A. Millikan, director of the California Institute of Technology, announced the results of experiments which, he said, are the most conclusive yet in support of the Einstein theory of relativity.

For the last nine years Drs. Roy J. Kennedy and Edward M. Thorndike have worked successfully to corroborate one of the principle assumptions of relativity, namely, that the velocity of light is constant and independent of the source of light, that, for example, no matter how fast a star is moving, the light it sends down to earth reaches here at a speed of no more than 186,000 miles per second.

The result, the scientists stated, agrees with the results obtained by the famous Nicholson-Morley experiment, which was the jumping off point for Einstein when he first advanced his theory of relativity in 1905. On this experiment Einstein based his assumption that there is no ether and that the velocity of light is constant.

Asked, on his arrival here, how he thought newspapers could best serve the cause of science, he said they could do it best by assigning to scientific stories only reporters grounded in scientific knowledge, and by refraining from attempting to make the stories sensational.

We Ain't Drifters

Tulsa, Okla.—(IP)—That continents do not "drift" as geologists have popularly supposed for some time, was the belief advanced by Dr. Bailey Willis of Stanford University in a paper he read here before the Geological Society of America.

He also declared it his belief that South America and Africa did not break away from each other, despite the similarity of their coast lines. He said, however, that some 60,000,000 to 100,000,000 years ago animals did migrate from Africa to South America over a range of mountains which he estimated rose 18,000 feet from the bottom of the sea.

He believes that animals migrated to India in the same manner.

Bible Class Meets

The Southwestern Bible Class will have its regular meeting at 9 o'clock Sunday, in Science Hall. The usual devotional will be followed by an informal report of the Southwestern representatives, Bob Pfrangle and Harry Champlin, to the Quadrennial Convention of the Students' Volunteer Movement. They will speak of the discussions and plans of the meeting, which they attended at Buffalo from December 30 to January 3, and may possibly be persuaded to give a few personal details.

Professors Won't Swear

Geneva—(IP)—The Institute of Intellectual Co-operation of the League of Nations has received a request from a group of Harvard professors, headed by Dean Roscoe Pound of the Harvard Law School, that some means be found to relieve Italian professors of taking the Fascist oath.

Twelve Italian professors were forced to give up their positions recently when they refused to take the oath, although it had been approved by the Pope, under whose authority are the universities in which the professors taught.

It is understood here that groups of educators in France, Switzerland, Spain, Germany and England are planning similar requests to those of the Americans.

Send Centurian Roses

Oberlin, O.—(IP)—With the entire student body and faculty expressing its congratulations, Dr. Ernest Hatch Wilkins, president of Oberlin College, last week ordered 100 roses sent Mrs. Catherine Boardman of Sulphur Springs, O., on her 100th birthday.

Mrs. Boardman is believed the oldest living former student of Oberlin.

In a letter to the students of the college she commented that since she was partially blind she had been unable to see all the new buildings on the campus, and added, "But some things, such as women smoking, I am glad I can't see."

She attended Oberlin in 1857 and 1858.

Lew Ayres Is Coming To Orpheum Theatre

"Guilty Generation," starring Constance Cummings and Leo Carrillo, is the attraction at the R-K-O Orpheum theater from Monday through Wednesday, followed next Thursday, Friday and Saturday by Lew Ayres in "Heaven on Earth."

"Guilty Generation" is the story of the children of two bitter enemies, and these young folk must suffer for the hatred and sins of their fathers. Boris Karloff, who scored such a hit in "Frankenstein," and Leo Carrillo are the parents.

"Heaven on Earth," with Lew Ayres and Anita Louise, is the story of Love and struggles in the flood-swept area of the Mississippi river in Mississippi and Tennessee. Ayres is cast as a steam-boater, who falls in love with a girl from the shanty boats.

LYNXCATS GRAB INITIAL GAME IN EXTRA PLAY

Defeat Catholic Club 28 To 27 At Club

OPEN WICKER SEASON

Team Works Smoothly In Exciting Game

Southwestern's stalwart cage team opened its 1932 season last Saturday with a victory over the Catholic Club cagers at the Catholic Club. The score of the game was 28 to 27 and an extra period was needed to determine the winner. Johnny Burnett, Lynx forward, slipped in the necessary basket to sew the game up as the extra period was coming to a finis.

The score was deadlocked 26 all at the end of the regulation game. The Lynx went into the lead on Burnett's basket and the Catholics came up to within one point on Getz's free throw. A few seconds later the game ended.

The Lynx started late to march on to their victory. At the half the score was 14 to 6 with the Catholic Club leading the fray. However, in the last half, the Lynx held their opponents to four points and made 10 themselves.

The Lynx attack did not start functioning until the second half was well under way. Sheriff started sinking the old ball from under the basket and Cotton Perrette sank a long field goal just before the whistle sounded to end the regulation game. Sheriff Knight was the high scorer of the fray with 13 points to his credit.

In a preliminary, the Catholic Club girls team defeated the Bell Telephone Trojans by the score of 22 to 20 in an equally interesting game.

COUNCIL PLANS CAMPUS DOINGS

Seek To Remove Chains On Campus Driveways

The student council of Southwestern met and "et" last week and discussed problems confronting the student body as a whole.

FIGHT CHAINS

An effort will be made by the council to remove the chains which close the campus driveways. Proper officials are being interviewed and it is expected that permission will be granted to remove the obstructions.

A check-up on finances reveals that there is less money in the student treasury than is usually the case. With the payment of the coming matriculation fees, however, the amount in the student treasury will be greatly augmented.

There will be few expenses to the student body fund until the annual April Fool carnival when plans call for decorating the gymnasium and for the purchase of refreshments.

One of the pleasing developments in industrial America is the recognition that beauty pays.—Otto H. Kahn.

I'm The Gink

I'm the Gink who thinks I own the College Store and can boss the clerks to my heart's content. Every day I head for the store at lunch time and have the time of my life edging in in front of the poor saps who have been waiting for five or ten minutes for service. I don't care if they are waiting for the girls to be served first. There are more important things than girls—and a couple of ham sandwiches and a coke are enough to make any guy forget his manners for the nonce.

And do I have a time pestering Miss Gates. I like to see her trying to do her work while I talk to her. Its all her fault. She ought to lay off the work while I'm around and be sociable. I don't drop in the store but once or twice a day while she has her work all day.

I like to drop wrappers and trash on the floor to get a rise out of the guys that have to clean up. Well, why shouldn't they clean up? They are getting paid, aren't they? Oh hang the whole crew of them anyway. They think they own the school. Won't pay any attention to a hard-working Gink.

FOOTBALL GETS INTO HEADLINE

Many Objections Raised Against Sport

Cleveland, O.—Some football news last week included:

AMERICAN Association of University Professors adopted a resolution opposing post-season charity football games.

UNLESS football rules are changed, Paul B. Brooks, Deputy State Health Commissioner of New York, said the game will go the way of bull fights and gladiatorial combat.

FOOTBALL is just a racket in its present form, President Henry M. Wriston of Lawrence College said.

A NEW point of view among students on the football question was noted by Prof. Hugo Bezdek of Pennsylvania State College, who predicted an early reform in playing schedules. "Duty" to turn out for varsity practice no longer is recognized by undergraduates, he said.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA'S upset of Notre Dame was voted by the nation's expert sports writers the outstanding team achievement in any sport in the last year. Seventy-two votes were cast for it, while only 36 voted the St. Louis Cardinal's victory in the World's Series the outstanding accomplishment.

NOT AN INJURY was received in

Y.W.C.A. Learns Of Buffalo Convention

Y. W. C. A. held its regular weekly meeting in the chapel Wednesday.

Mary Carolyn Lee had charge of the program. Mary Fant led the devotions, and Bob Pfrangle talked of his trip as school delegate to the Students' Volunteer Conference held in Buffalo during the Christmas holidays.

the last season by any member of the Loyola College eleven of Baltimore.

SOUTHERN Conference officials voted down proposals to abolish personal scouting, limit varsity football games to eight each season.

THE NAVY football officials gave approval of recruiting prep school stars, and arranged for the continuance of the Notre Dame system of play.

"BREATHER" games, taken on by big colleges with little colleges as "rest" periods between more important games, were called unsportsmanlike by Dr. William Mather Lewis, president of Lafayette College.

SOUTHERN California became the nation's football champions by defeating Tulane, unbeaten hitherto, at the Tournament of Roses Game on New Year's Day.

PREDICTIONS were made that football would still be a subject of controversy in the fall of '32.

LYNXCATS PLAY MILLSAPS LADS

Clash With Majors Tonite And Tomorrow

Southwestern will meet the militant Majors of Millsaps tonight and tomorrow night at Jackson in a pair of basketball games which will serve as a starter for the Lynx in S. I. A. A. and Dixie Conference competition. These games will be the second and third games of the Lynx's Mississippi invasion as they met the team of Mississippi College last night at Clinton.

In the Millsaps team, the Lynx meet a very formidable foe who bids fair to go far in the Dixie Conference race for basketball supremacy. The Millsaps team recently defeated the strong Howard College team in a pair of games at Birmingham. This invasion of the Delta may prove to just what extent the Lynx may progress in their championship hopes.

The Lynx have a very fast team but lack height, which will no doubt handicap them in their engagements with the Millsaps team. The Major team is composed of a group of tall boys who will be able to shoot and pass above the Lynx boys' craniums. The back court action and floor work of the Lynx has been pleasing to the coach.
