Gridiron Banquet For Men Will Be Held On April 28

Louis Nicholas to be "Roastmaster" For Annual Affair

The day of days has come for the men students at Southwestern. On the evening of April 28 in Neely Hall there will be held the annual gridiron banquet, sponsored by the Southwestern Christian Union. Tom Jones, newly-elected president, has charge of arrangements, and has announced the following committees.

Russell Cross heads the ticket committee; Robert Pfrangle, chairman program committee. Louis Nicholas was unanimously selected as the "Roastmaster," and has announced that elections will be held to determine the Ugliest boy in school, "The Ears of the Mississippi Valley," Loquacious Lubricator, Biggest "Big Shot", etc. Nominations will be held next week, but the final election will not be held until that eventful night of April 28.

Bill Taylor and his Royal Collegians will furnish the music for the occasion.

Campus critics predict some of the following nominations: Clark Porteous for the most loquacious of the loquacious; Goodlett Brown for the biggest big shot; Clough Eaton for the Ugliest Man in school; and Dr. Samuel Holt Monk as the "biggest PAIN on the faculty".

The gridiron is held annually and only men students are invited. Tickets will go on sale immediately, Russell Cross announced, and may be obtained from any of the following men: Russell Cross, Robert Pfrangle, Tom Jones, Louis Nicholas, David Edington, Fred Bearden, Vernon Pettit, Clark Porteous, Ed Turner, Lucien Connell, Richard Keeton, Chicken High.

Tickets will be 25 cents for the dormitory students and 50 cents for town students.

ELECT FOUR TO HALL OF FAME

High, Bornman, Brown, Drake Named

Four seniors have been elected by the students council to the college's Hall of Fame. The honored students are all men. They are Harold High, Bessemer, Ala.; Louis Bornman, Clarksdale, Miss.; Harvey Drake, Ripley, Ohio; and Goodlett Brown, Memphis.

They are the third group of students to be named to the Hall of Fame which was established at the college three years ago by the publications board. Pictures of the electees will be hung in the picture gallery in the library.

The number of students who can be elected to the Hall of Fame is limited to one percent of the number of students attending the college during the year.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

Everything has a limit—even the patience of the editor of The Sou'wester. It has been a common practice, here of late, for students to go rummaging through the desks of the business manager and the editor in the publications office.

Various things that are necessary for the putting out of the paper have been taken from the drawers and misplaced or lost. Anyone with an ounce of common sense should know better than to go into the desk drawers in the first place. They do not belong to you.

Visitors are always welcome in the publications office, but please refrain from opening the desks and prying into private property.

TALLICHET HAS 'SKIDDING' LEAD

Illness of J. M. Schwinn Forces Change

Margaret Tallchet has been given the feminine lead in the play, "Skidding", which will be presented by the Southwestern Players on the evenings of May 8 and 9. The change in the cast was necessitated by the illness of Julia Marie Schwinn.

The date was also changed to the first Tuesday and Wednesday in May. The play will be presented in Hardie Auditorium instead of Ellis Auditorium as was originally planned. The Players were unable to get the Ellis Auditorium for the performances.

Work on the play is progressing rapidly and is under the direction of Mrs. Terrell Brame. The play promises to afford the students an evening of enjoyable entertainment.

Such stellar performers as Margaret Clay Faulhaber, Eugene Stewart, Fred Bearden, John Hines, Russell Cross, and Anne Galbreath will do their best to delight and entertain.

Frat Volleyball Starts Wednesday

The Boosters' Club will sponsor its annual inter-fraternity volleyball tournament starting Wednesday. On this day the A. T. O. will play the Beta Sigma and the Kappa Alpha will play the Kappa Sigma.

Thursday the Non-Frat will play the Pi K. A. and the S. A. E. will play the T. N. E. The winners of Wednesday and Thursday games will play in the semi-finals Friday.

LYNX RUNNERS TO FACE VANDY IN NASHVILLE

Thinclads Hope to Take Measure of the Commodores

Nine Lynx track and field athletes will invade Nashville tomorrow for a meet with the Vandy harriers. Coach John Miller has been working his charges hard this week, and hopes to score at least as many points as Southwestern garnered last year against the Commodores.

Vanderbilt is strong where the Lynx are good, and they are also potent in the field events, a glaring weakness on the part of Southwestern. Coach Anderson's thinclads lost a close meet to Kentucky last Saturday, but they showed several good men, including Seymour Samuels, who was second in the Southern Conference mile run last year.

For the Lynx, Riley McGaughran is rapidly rounding into form, and hopes to give Samuels a battle on the mile. Riley's specialty is the two-mile, and he should run the eight laps in around ten minutes.

NEWTON VERSATILE

Herbert Newton is the leading Lynx hope for points. The "Amite Antelope" will run the 220, 440, broadjump, and run a lap on the relay.

"Chicken" High, who won the 880 at Vandy last year, will also run the 100. Carrol Cloar will run the 220 and 440. Jimmy Wilson, Red Foreman, and Andy Edington are waging a lively battle for a place on the relay team along with Cloar, High, and Newton.

SMITH IMPROVES

Scudder Smith is improving by leaps and bounds. The stocky distance man is specializing on the mile, as he is rather heavy for the two-mile run. "Sheriff" Knight is getting the shot out beyond 40 feet. Sid Hebert is working diligently with the discus and may place in this event.

As for the hurdles, Harvey Drake is the only reputable barrier jumper in camp. He is good on the high hurdles, but the Lynx will have to do the best they can on the low hurdles, with a converted sprinter taking the jumps. Foreman or Wilson are slated to run the 220 low hurdles.

Elizabeth Hart New Alum. Head

Miss Elizabeth Hart was elected president of the Memphis Alumnae Association at a meeting held Monday night in the Tri-Delta lodge. Miss Hart was a member of the class of '27.

Other newly elected officers are: Miss Christine Reese, '29, vice president; Miss Annie Beth Gary, '28 secretary; Miss Jeanette Spann, '30 treasurer.

Dr. Martin Storn spoke on Mexican Art. The hostesses for the meeting were Misses Lyle Stange, Catherine Bigelow and Emma Frances Robinson.

Boosters Planning Fraternity Sports

The Boosters club is planning a number of inter-fraternity sports events for the coming month, the first of which will be the inter-frat track meet which will probably be held May 6.

Inter-frat tennis and swimming are also listed on the sports card. Dates of these events have not been determined, Franklin Kimbrough, president of the club, said yesterday.

Play Semi-Finals Golf Match Today

Charles Ledsinger and Ben Weddington will meet this afternoon at 2 o'clock in a semi-finals match in the intra-mural golf tournament. The winner of the match will meet Jack Elder in the finals early next week to determine the college champion.

Elder eliminated Morris Heins in the other semi-finals match turning in a brilliant 73 on the Colonial Country Club course.

Merely a Bit Of Nonsense

Is there really such a thing as an absent-minded professor? How about the tale whispered about the predicament of Dr. Harris, when he convened his biology class after the noon lunch period?

"I wish to show you an injected and dissected specimen of a bullfrog, in order to point out how the blood is circulated to all parts of the body," he said, unwrapping a paper sack which he had meanwhile extracted from his pocket.

Before the astonished gaze of his class he displayed a very nice looking ham sandwich.

"That's odd," he muttered, "I distinctly remember having eaten my lunch!"

Once I won an office,
I thought it great,
Thought it great to gloat;
Once I won an office
Now it's done
Brother, can you spare a vote?
Once I owned the campus
Gee it was swell
Swell to sit around and dote
Once I owned the campus
Now I'm nil
Brother, can you spare a vote.
Once in flashy suits,
Hey, gee but it was swell;
Big smiles and smoking black cigars;
Now it's cheroots
That taste bad and smell.
I'm the one that gets all the jeers.
Oh, say, don't you remember
My name was Joe.
Joe College—you all knew me
Oh, say, don't you remember
I was your beau
Sister, Brother, vote for me.

And there's the one about the Scotchman who sent his friend homing pigeons for Christmas.

Chiropractor: "I'm afraid we're in for another spell.
Patient: How do you figure that?
Did the weather man say so?
Chiro: No, but I can feel it in your bones."

"Clyde," said Mrs. Newrich to Clyde Clark who is employed by Mrs. Newrich, "you may take the dog out and give him some air."
"Yes, ma'am," acquiesced Clyde.
"And, please, where will I find the nearest service station?"

First Flea: "Been on a hike?"
Second Flea: "No, on a tramp."

Prospective buyer (from the city): "I suppose I'd better buy rolling land so the crops won't have any trouble rotating."

Soft and wam its body lay,
Pleading, the glazing eye.
Slowly I drew the knife away
From the rabbit I skinned in Bi.

Bill Taylor: "For two bits I'd knock your block off."
"Trotsky": "Get away from me, you dirty professional!"

"Sorry": "You look good enough to eat!"
Priscilla: "I do eat; where shall we go?"

Dr. Monk: (walking into class): I can't begin my lecture until the room settles down.
Logan Hughes: I've always found that tomato juice was good for that sort of thing.

"Burrhead": "Hey, you can't smoke in here!"
Sigler: "I'm not smoking."
"Burrhead": "Well, you've got a cigarette in your mouth."
Sigler: "Yea, and you've got pants on, but you're not panting."

This is the Easter season. Some girls remind us of Easter eggs, hand painted on the outside and hard-boiled inside.

Angry Parent: "Why were you kissing my daughter in that dark hallway last night, young man?"
Disillusioned: "Now that I've seen her in daylight I wonder myself."

Repair Man: "Where's your radiator cap?"
Dr. MacQueen: "It's on the front of my car; and don't call me 'cap'."

"... Crazier than the Scotchman who bought a score card at a ball game and neither side scored!"

Just a Bit of Dorm Life

CALVIN HALL

Back from Easter vacations, which seemed to have been very exciting, the Calvin residents are once more returning to normality after the period of excitement that usually precedes and follows holidays. One S. A. E. was heard laughing over the fact that one of his Calvin friends arose at five o'clock Easter morning in search of the Easter rabbit.

These spring days have their charms and even the boys in Calvin fall victims to them. It is a common sight to see Russell Cross strolling across the campus in the company of Margaret Mercer. And then there is the Tri-Delta who is escorted around every day. One of the boys was saying the other day that it is no fun to walk home from Jessie Richmond's at midnight.

Training for track seems to get the best of Max Usrey. Tuesday he did a great deal of running and was complaining Wednesday that he could hardly walk.

One of the A. O. Pi's was asking the other day when Dickie Dunlap ever studied as she never saw him serious in the library but always running around. But to Dickie's rescue came an S. A. E. who claims that Dunlap puts in a great deal of time in studying.

ROBB HALL

Now that everybody is back from the spring vacation and planning to settle down for six weeks more of drudgery, several Robbites have taken a step to help them pull through until June 6.

They have organized a Lonesome Lovers' Club, composed of all the dejected-looking souls in the dormitory who have a girl waiting back in the old home town. Shorty Simmons has been elected president because his girl has got red hair; John Baker, vice-president, because his is the mournfullest case of all; and Harvey Jones, secretary, because his adored is the most miles away.

A committee on Amorous Relations will attempt to smooth out all difficulties arising between the members and their girls.

Harvey Heidelberg and Frank Goodlett are busy extorting invitations to come and visit from all the boys who live in Mississippi because they are planning to make a tour of their native state early in the summer.

Fred Bearden has the whole dormitory in mental pain with his intelligence tests that make Dr. Atkinson's look like Kindergarten stuff.

And then everybody was having a good time on the third floor until Johnny Rollow put an end to all the fun.

Progressives On Campus Lay Plans For Many Kinds of Third Parties

Prying Reporter Gets Trend of Various Movements From Well-Hidden Undercover Sources

With the conclusion last week of a series of startling talks that are expected to entirely revolutionize the present social order the budding Karl Marxes, Norman Thomases, Bakunins, Lenins, etc., have decided to settle down to a quiet spring season of bomb-tossing.

At the instigation of "Comrade" Margaret Huxtable Townsend, the club is proceeding with plans of ACTION that promise hurried recognition and adoption by the newly-enlightened but betridden masses of this crumbling commonwealth.

The campus progressives have pledged an unrelenting fight against that sinister, selfish, snobbish institution, Capitalism. Remembrance of the "forgotten man" is perceptibly slow, they argue.

A fearless third party is in the making. Partial but aloof affiliation with the LIPA (see note 1) has been decided. (The new organization reserves the right to rescind this alliance.) Conservatism is to be cast aside, DPT's (see note 2) are to be paramount. Equity will be the keyword of their unique philosophy, ACTION will emblazon their banner (see note 3).

Under the leadership of courageous (see note 4) comrade Ronald Hayhoe, the encouragement of ecstatic comrade Maurice Carlson, and the spell of comrade Tallichet's ethereal loveliness, the SSS's (see note 5) are destined for green pastures.

Note 1. League for Independent Pol. Action; capitalists grunt and call it Lots of Intellectual Poppycock, Assininity.

Note 2. Depression—Proof Theories.

Note 3. The sewing and knitting circle, which functions at the more boring of their weekly conclaves has offered to the Betski Roski act.

Note 4. Just before going to press a motion was made to do away with all capital-ism of the good comrades.

Note 5. Not three-S chill tonic; the "Southwestern Semi-Socialists."

Oberlin Prof. Praises Hitler

Oberlin, O.—Stories of atrocities against the Jews by the Hitler government are taken with a grain of salt—in fact, several grains—by Dr. Karl F. Geiser, head of Oberlin College's department of political science.

Dr. Geiser, who during the World War had to bear frequent charges of being "pro-German", thinks Hitler, if given a chance, will improve conditions in Germany.

Are You Listening?

The coming of spring seems to bring out new clubs, the latest is "The Royal Roasters" or something or other, which meets on Sunday nights and puts the Lynx lads and lassies on the "pan"—Dickie Dunlap is up to his old tricks again, he ushered in the Easter season by sending a telegram and a huge box of roses to a certain blond young lady.

A recent check-up revealed the fact that Southwestern's man about town Tom Holloway, teaches a Sunday school class—Charles Maxey and Sally Griffin are our nomination for a new campus combination. — Gladys Jane Caughlin's sister Valeria has been chosen queen of the Cotton Carniva.

What is this about Nell McMahan receiving a mysterious telephone call from Maurice Carlson.—Now, Nell, quit holding out on us.—We hear that Jean Reid went to a dance the other night with that dark young man from Teachers College.

What is so important up at Sewanee that caused Edna Barker to miss so much school this week . . . but let's not "Razz" the poor girl.

Divorce Cited As Lawlessness Cause

Prof. Edward M. Burchard of the University of Pittsburgh asserts that the growth of divorce is one reason for lawlessness in the United States. Separation of parents leaves the children to shift more or less for themselves, he says, and many of the children are drifting into lives of crime.

"Boom is Ahead for Magic Theatre"—Such is View of Leading Magicians

Professional Wizards Say That Cigarette Ads Will Bring Back Magic As A Headliner

Professional magicians see a big boom ahead for magic and the magic theatre as a direct result of the present cigarette advertising campaign. They feel that the new advertising will bring magic back as a headliner in the show business.

This became known yesterday as the result of a check-up on opinion in the profession.

While the corridors of magic hummed with the news of the new "magic cigarette ads", and protests were heard in some directions, the consensus of opinion was that a new fad for magic loomed up ahead.

Leading magicians, such as Pablo, the Spanish sleight-of-hand wizard; Joseph Dunninger, "The Master Mind of modern Mystery"; Paul Carleton, "The Man Who Mystified the Mikado"; Luis Zingone, favorite private entertainer of the "400"; and Allan Shaw, famed coin manipulator, all look to see revived interest in the form of entertainment in which they are most interested, as a result of the current cigarette advertisements.

Joseph Dunninger is reputed to be the most remarkable mind reader of our generation. Known as the highest priced magician, Dunninger has an international reputation. He has appeared before the Prince of Wales and three Presidents of the United States. In talking about the new Camel ad-

Dr. Samuel Monk Reviews Numerous Current Books in Magazine Article

Gives Opinions on Heterogeneous List From Which Reader May Obtain A Variety of Books

"From one extreme to the other" could well be the title of the article by Dr. Samuel Monk which appears in the March edition of the Alumni Magazine. Dr. Monk's object in writing the article, was to present a list of books from which the reader can choose a few to read and in this way keep up with the times.

The learned prof reviewed such entirely contrasting books as Rosmond Lehman's "Invitation to the Waltz" and William Faulkner's "Light in August". The former work, Dr. Monk describes as beautiful in form and delicate and charming in execution. On the other hand he speaks of Faulkner's book as being brilliant, but possessing the same horror and appalling grammar that characterized his previous work.

"Washington Merry-Go-Round," a popular book among Southwestern students, was described as being edited by a group of intelligent and talented reporters. According to Dr. Monk this contains better satire than "Of Thee I Sing."

"High Low Washington," a more serious and matter of fact publication along political lines, was prescribed for consideration. He describes Steffin's "Autobiography" as an important book. He describes it as being full of Mr. Steffin's egotism, and the reader should cultivate the art of skipping. The book, he says, is nevertheless interesting and instructive.

Among the other books listed were: "Can America Stay at Home," by Frank H. Symonds; "The Paradox of Plenty," by Leech; Frederick Allen's, "Only Yesterday"; and "As We Were," by Benson. Dr. Monk certainly fulfilled the object of his article, in compiling what he terms "a heterogeneous list" from which the reader may obtain a variety of good books.

FIVE COMPETE FOR NET TEAM

Hold Tourney to Decide No. 4 Berth

Yesterday an elimination tournament started to pick a fourth member of the Lynx inter-collegiate tennis team. Henry Oliver and Jimmy Dainwood are holdovers from last year's varsity. Charley Ledsinger, a star on the freshman team last year, has his berth assured.

The final member of the team will be the survivor of the matches now being played. Harte Thomas, Goodlett Brown, Charley Sherman, Tom Jones, and Douglas Grymes are competing for a place on the team.

Oliver has announced that the Tennis Association will sponsor a tournament for all men students next week. Drawings will be made early in the week and play is expected to start Wednesday. The object of the elimination tournament will be to pick the individual court champion of the school.

LYNX NETTERS TO HAVE MEET

Face Miss. College On Tuesday

Mississippi College netmen will invade Southwestern Tuesday for a tennis meet with the Lynx. It will be the first competition of the season for the local racqueteers, and not much is known of the strength of the Southwestern team. Last year they defeated the Choctaws on the Lynx courts.

Henry Oliver, Jimmy Dainwood, and Charley Ledsinger are sure to face the Mississippi College courtmen. Just who the fourth member of the team will be depends on the outcome of the elimination tournament now being conducted for a berth on the varsity tennis team.

Ever smoke "whittle" tobacco?

Well... here it is... already whittled FOR you. Granger Rough Cut is tobacco whittled right . . . that's one reason why it burns so slow and cool.

WHEN we started to make Granger Rough Cut we knew that fine tobacco burnt hot because it burnt so fast. It kept your pipe hot. You could hardly hold your pipe in your hand, it got so hot at times.

Then we remembered that some folks back yonder used to "whittle" their tobacco. So we made GRANGER just like "whittle" tobacco — "Rough Cut." It smokes cooler and lasts a lot longer. And also, you'll find it never gums the pipe.

So far, so good. Now we wanted to sell this tobacco for 10c. Good tobacco—right process—cut right. It was a question of how to do it for the price.

So we put GRANGER in a sensible soft foil pouch instead of an expensive package, knowing that a man can't smoke a package. We gave smokers this good GRANGER tobacco in a common-sense pouch for 10c.

GRANGER has not been on sale very long, but it has grown to be a popular smoke. And there is this much about it—we have yet to know of a man who started to smoke it, who didn't keep on. Folks seem to like it.
