N.S.F.A. HERE UP TO COUNCIL

Permanent Record Due For Final Vote

Entrance of the Southwestern student body into the National Student Federation of America was to be discussed by the Student Council today.

If this move meets with the approval of the Council, a delegate will be chosen to attend the N.S.F.A. convention at Washington, Dec. 27-31.

Establishment of a permanent record of Southwestern student activities will be voted on. The record will contain names of various campus officials, organization activities and their leaders.

Formation of a budget will also be discussed.

Kappa Sigs Pledge

Kappa Sigma Fraternity announces the pledging of Robert Johnson, Memphis. Johnson is a transfer from Pasadena Junior College.

Josephine Barry, Lynx Co-ed, Is A Successful Young Authoress

Miss Barry Is Now Working On A Novel. She Has Sold Both Short Stories And Verse

Southwestern harbors a successful young authoress within her portals. Josephine Barry, a special student, but prospective graduate nevertheless, is now working on a novel and has had several of her compositions printed. "Smooth Passage," "No Sandwiches Today," and "Kate Tinney's Son" are three short stories which have appeared in Holland's Magazine under the name of Josephine Barry. The first two stories were also sold to a British magazine.

Miss Barry had "The Magic Jar" printed in Tower and "Island of Evil" in Weird Stories. Her "Children of God," a one-act play, was included in the State Normal's Book of Plays.

She is very versatile, having had verse printed in Contemporary Verse, second ranking poetry publication in America, and in Bozart.

Josephine's short story, "Smooth Passage" won the press club prize at Col-

Oldest Grad Dies

THOMAS H. ELLIOTT

T. H. ELLIOTT IS DEAD AT 99

Graduated In 1854 From College At Clarksville

Southwestern's oldest alumnus is dead. At the age of 99 years, Thomas H. Elliott died at Madison, Tenn., last Sunday.

Mr. Elliott was born Aug. 3, 1834, the son of William H. and Mrs. Frances Elliott of Mississippi. At the age of two his parents moved to Clarksville, Tenn., where he lived the remainder of his life.

He attended Southwestern, then known as Masonic College, and graduated in 1854 with the degree of Bachelor of Science.

Mr. Elliott was a large landowner and a progressive farmer, having the distinction of making 75 consecutive crops. He probably owned bank stock longer than any other man in the nation, purchasing some in 1867 and holding the original certificates until the time of his death.

Mr. Elliott joined the Methodist church in boyhood. He delighted in playing the role of philanthropist and benefactor to all worthy causes.

Dramatic Sermon To Be Repeated

Dr. Walter Holcomb, pastor of Madison Heights Methodist Church, located between Union and Madison on Claybrook, will give for the second time his dramatized sermon, entitled "The Fool and His Soul."

Sunday before last, Dr. Holcomb, preached a sermon on the rich fool, later rewriting it into a dramatized sermon.

It was so successful that popular demand was made for Dr. Holcomb to repeat the sermon, which he will do Sunday. All interested Southwestern students are invited, and a special section will be reserved for them.

The sermon will be interesting from a dramatic point of view, as well as from an ethical one.

DUEEASE WINS

Bill Ducease showed the keenest foresight in the old guessing game last week, leading the field with only 6 misses and three ties. Boyce Leigh Sadler was a close second, but did not finish in the money.

For the third week straight, Bob Pfangle demonstrated his uncanny ability to pick the wrong team, this time missing 15.

HERBERT CAIN LEADS CLASS

Makes Highest Mark In Entrance Tests

Freshman Herbert Cain made the best score on the tests given all new students on entrance to Southwestern. Cain made a mark of 302.

The test given was the American Council for Education Psychological examination. This supplants the former Army Alpha Test, thus eliminating comparison of this year's class with former freshmen classes. However, a comparison can be made on this test with other colleges. This data will not be available until spring.

As the middle score was only 153, it is evident that Cain made a remarkable showing. Waldemar Smith, freshman, was runner-up with 278. Norma Lee, sophomore transfer, led the girls with a score of 268.

Other high score were as follows: Virginia Hoshal, 266; Robert Johnson, 258; Kendall Reinhardt, 256; Shirley Freshman, 252; Josephine Barry, 248; and Erin Gary, 246.

Debating Club Meets Wednesday

Members of the debating team and other interested students will meet Wednesday at 7 p.m., in Dr. Kelso's classroom.

Prof. Siefkin is to be the invited speaker and arrangements for the Inter-frat meet, which starts the first week after football season ends, will be discussed. A committee composed of Francis Benton, John Fishbach, and Robert Walker, has been named to arrange the meeting.

Each member of the teams in the meet will be allowed to submit one question to be debated upon. One of these will be selected and used until the final round is reached. Then a new question will be used by the finalists.

As yet, no foreign debating teams have been booked for the regular season, which begins in January, but negotiations are under way with several colleges to complete the schedule.

Team Primed To Drop Jinx In Mississippi

Squad In Good Shape For Annual Tilt With Foreign Foe

Southwestern's Lynx, hoping to break the jinx which has followed them in their last three games left yesterday for Starkville to meet the Mississippi State Maroons tonight.

The Lynx came out of the Howard game in good shape. Dick Whitaker was the lone injured participant. His pulled leg muscle will keep him out of the Maroon game.

However, Coaches Haygood and Miller expect to put a rejuvenated team on the field to give the Mississippians a hard fight. Jimmy Wilson, veteran end, will probably see his first action this year, having recovered from an injury received in early practice. Bill Pickens undoubtedly will be shifted from end to backfield.

Last year's contest resulted in a 7 to 0 victory for Mississippi State, and although rated as underdog, the Lynx will be fighting tonight for victory.

STYLUS CLUB HOLDS CONTEST

Prizes Will Be Awarded To Best Compositions

Stylus Club of Sigma Upsilon will award a prize of $2.50 to the best student prose composition, and a similar award to the best poem.

All students are eligible, and the contest closes Nov. 28. The best works will be published in the Journal.

At the same meeting the men's literary organization initiated Clark Porteous into its membership.

Rodney Baine was elected to succeed John Fishbach, resigning secretary, and was also appointed to fill the post left vacant by Henry Oliver's resignation as chairman of the program committee.

The club set the fourth Tuesday of each month for its regular meetings.

Morris Heins, former Lynx student and member of Pi. K.A., has been inducted into the debating and dramatic societies of the University of Virginia.

Students Express Varied Opinions Of Various Phases Of Married Life

Sou'wester Conducts Unusual Contest. Connect Opinions With Students and Win Show Passes

Several Lynx students were interviewed recently concerning marriage. They were asked if they would marry for love or money, above or below social level, how many children they would have, whether they would have a career or marry, and what their stand was in regard to having parents or in-laws live with them.

The students questioned were Grover Durant, Sarah Gemmill, Olive Black, Charlie Taylor, Sidney Strickland, Don Johnson, Sally Griffin, Evelyn Hester, Martha Shaeffer, Bill Ducease, and Eleanor Trezevant. The answers, in scrambled order, are listed below. A brace of picture show passes will be awarded the one who can match the names with the opinions best. Just list each case and the one you think gave the answers. Put these answers in the football contest box in the supply store.

- Case 1. (a young lady) would marry for love alone.
- (2) Marry on or above social level.
- (3) Have children if you can afford to take care of them in the proper way. However, she would not care to have over three.
- (4) She would take marriage in preference to a career, but thinks a woman should have some interest outside of home life.
- (5) She takes a definite stand that

"And do you mean to tell me you laughed in the face of death?" "Laughed? I thought I'd die."

ABOUT THE STORE

Displays of candy, tobacco, etc., have been moved from the counter to a more inaccessible place in the store. The reason for this is that some people think it is clever to purloin sweets while the attendants are not looking.

This may seem trivial, but it eats into the profits of the store. Every cent earned in the store goes into a scholarship fund for worthy students. Students are stealing from themselves when they take things from the store.

The honor system should apply to this as well as to academic dishonesty.

At Washington and Lee, no attendants are hired, and students help themselves in the shop.

We do not suggest displacing the workers in the store here, but we do urge that the students assume such a responsibility of honor. Behave in such a manner that attendants will not be necessary, except as a convenience.

While on the subject of the store, we would like to urge all students to patronize it whenever possible. The student dispensary is not to make students spend money, but is for their convenience. However, since the proceeds go into a scholarship fund, money spent at the store which would otherwise be spent elsewhere will be appreciated.

At considerable expense, a new ping pong table has been placed in the store, courtesy of Coca-Cola Co. The store will furnish paddles. All students are asked to refrain from abusing this table. Use it to play ping pong, but do not lounge on it.

Just a Bit of Dorm Life

Evergreen Hall

LEAF FROM AN INMATE'S DIARY: Slept through the alarm clock this morning so had to run to breakfast and beg Bob into letting me in late. Had bacon and eggs!—Went to the cloisters and watched people coming to school. Wonder what it is like to live out in town?

Got to talking and was almost late for chapel. Ran up the back way. Faculty looking blue and hard-boiled. Sure wish I'd studied. Bet we have a quiz.

Announcements made and I had three meetings to attend. What to do? Class at nine. Off at ten. Rushed back to Evergreen for mail. I believe that postman's holding out on me.—Back to campus to hang around Book Store. Classes at eleven and twelve. Whatta Life!

Rushed to lunch. Back to room to watch for postman. Two letters. Feel very stuck up over them. Tried to take a nap, but too much noise. Decided to go to Sorority House.

Back in time to dress for dinner. Strolled over early with the crowd to talk with the boys. Quite a bunch of boys over after supper for laundry, telephone and other purposes. Freshman Butler played piano for us and is he good! Phone call from boy friend. Well, that's nice. Eight o'clock. Upstairs to a bull session. Consumed several cokes and Red Robins.

Real excitement about 9:30. FIRE! Mrs. Rutland officiated. All over soon. The awning had caught from a spark—from the chimney.

Went out in my cute pajamas and robe but none of the Stewart Hall boys came over. Weren't they gallant? Back upstairs for bigger and better bull sessions. Eleven o'clock—too late to study. Guess I'll get up early tomorrow.

Robb Hall

We hate to bring Frank Goodlett's name into this column every week because we hate to see any one run Max Usrey such a close second in publicity, but its almost necessary that we tell you about Frank Oliver being burnt out of his room the other night. Frank was trying to get away from Baker for a little while in order to do some reading. Baker, feeling in a playful mood, rounded up several Robbites and began trying to burn Frank out of Gilliam's room where he had taken refuge. After pouring alcohol under the door Baker and his associates set it on fire. In less than a second Goodlett was flying out of the said door now wrapped in flames and yelling "fire" and running for the alarm. 'Twas funny as could be, but where was Dr. Cooper all this time?

Robb Hall Romeo, Sidney Strickland, is still that way about the young lady from Mississippi even though she has given "Strick" the run around for some one else. Maybe you will have to try to pick up your lost trail over at Stimson's or has she put you in a similar fix, Romeo?

News leaks out that Room 303 is getting up a one-act play to be presented on the stage in the near future. The title and cast has not been made public yet but we will let you know more later.

Benton our best scholar is back from Bessemer after having testified in a law case down there.

They say that "pop-gun" Kelley, of 203, became all excited last Friday at the Bobcat game, when his roommate Bill Barr entered the fray, and ran in search of a camera to snap him in action. "Pop-gun" Kelley was so dubbed by the dishwashers because of the resemblance of his surname to that of a very picturized and publicized machine-gunner. In reality Kelley is a mild sort of fellow, unless he is riled.

We had some goers-home last weekend. Walker Turner hied away to Paducah, Ky.; and Henry Oliver and "Egg" Williams to Union City, Tenn. Flash. Just discovered that Curtis Johnson resides in this dormitory.

Quiz for the Inquisitives: Didja ever see Tommy Fuller on a week-day night not pouring laboriously over a stack of books which he never finishes?

Tall Tale of the Week Department: A bespectacled K. A. sophomore noted for his "Boy, do I love the limelight!" propensities now has as his theme song, one would gather, "Who's Afraid of the Big, Bad Fence?"

Nothing loth after catapulting Saturday night over a three-foot wire railing adjacent the Parkview to sprawl on Kenilworth in an excellent imitation of the Scarecrow of Oz, said sophomore tripped gayly over the marble bannister of the State staircase very early Monday morning to sail headforemost into the venerable spinal column of a befuddled and flabbergasted old lady, who, so they say, was equally as eager as he to gaze rapturously at the antics of one, Mae West, and thus know the joie de vivre.

The most-amusing-squib-of-the-week: "Stewart's play will be composed of him and his room-mates, Tom Jones, Hinky Jones and Harvey Jones." (The write-up of the story was by Wiley Jones).

An ex-active KA with a last name signifying to bake is very much that-away about the president of the AO Pi pledges. So much so that several afternoon sojourns to the cinema have been the course of events, not to mention reams upon reams of nocturnal delights (Blah!)

Our Eddie Cantorish Kappa Sig extra-curricular activity hound is also enraptured with the beautiful president of the above sorority's rival pledge group. We suggest that Tater-bug LEE-ave her alone.

A KA sophomore pledge whose last name is seemingly a subject and predicate is now following the doctrine of "Faith, HOPE, and Charity." We humbly suggest that we have faith that his hope for charity will be realized (ung, ung, ung).

Among the Tennyson's Brook Club Members ("Love like ours goes on forever and ever") are an SAE sophomore whose last name sounds like a synonym for colors and a tall AO Pi seniorita, a KA junior whose last name means corridor and an ex-Kappa Delt with a last name the same as that of a well-known brand of candy, and a tea-hound Kappa Sig pledge with the last name that of a trade and a Clara Bow-ish Chi O who can shake a wicked light fantastic.

A Chi O sophomore whose last name sounds like, "Get up thar on the horse, lady" is having a hard time with the attentions of a diminutive SAE pianoplayer who can really tickle the ivories, and an equally diminutive Kappa Sig soph who is a charter member of Sphinx.

Ug's Looks Bring 15-Yard Penalty

Peeps from under the berth on the Howard trip—

Ug Hammond's reputation is widespread. When he went in the game, the safety man came tearing in to tell the linesmen to beware of the Big, Bad Wolf. So eager were they to beware that they roughed him, a 15-yard penalty resulting . . .

Well, it seems that going down everyone slept tight (soundly) except when the train would slow down and Charlie Crump and several others would begin trembling—it was sort of cold . . .

On the other hand, or rather, in the other berth, Manager Metcalf, the Man Mountain, didn't stop trembling until he got back to Memphis. He was confronted with quite a problem. It is the custom for a manager on his first trip to beat all the football players. Wishing to uphold Southwestern tradition, he is quoted as saying: "I will try to handle the situation adequately, but not to be too harsh on the boys . . ."

On the Birmingham-Southern trip last year, Howard White turned up sans pants (football pants). Nevertheless he is a smart man. This year he profited by past mistakes, and with Coach Miller's help in checking his equipment he managed to get to Birmingham whole . . .

After the game the players went to see Mae West in "I'm No Angel." The Lynx should trounce Howard next year, if the backs are half as shifty as Mae.

I keep coming back to that word "balanced" on the back of the Chesterfield package

YOU often hear the word balance—something is out of balance—top-heavy, not on an "even keel."

What you read, "Chesterfield Cigarettes are a balanced blend," means that the right amounts of the right kinds of tobacco are welded together; that is, home-grown tobaccos, the right kind, the right quantity—are blended and cross-blended with tobaccos from Turkey and Greece.

When these tobaccos are balanced one against the other, then you have a mild cigarette.

When they are in balance, then you have a better-tasting cigarette.

May we ask you to read again the statement on the back of the Chesterfield package?

May we ask you to try Chesterfield?

HOWARD BEATS LYNX 26 TO 7

Southwestern's Defense On Passes Weak

After putting up a stiff battle in the initial quarter of last Saturday's game, Southwestern's pass defense cracked and the Howard Bulldogs had little trouble in vanquishing the Lynx-cats 26 to 7.

The Alabama boys scored in every period, with two of the tallies being on intercepted passes.

Seven Southwestern passes fell into hostile hands, with a much lesser number being completed. This inadequate passing attack, coupled with mediocre punting, was a large factor in turning the tide in favor of the Howard team.

Southwestern scored in the third quarter, when, seemingly coming to life, the Lynx began a march down the field. After a fifteen-yard run by Jones, Hammond made a beautiful and difficult catch of a pass over the goal line.

The defeat was costly to Southwestern in more than one respect, for Dick Whitaker, stellar quarterback, suffered a pulled muscle in his leg and will be out indefinitely.

Southwestern	Pos.	Howard

HERRINGTON IS MAROON STAR

Miss. State Captain Is Great Back

Led by the brilliant Capt. Bobby Herrington, Miss. State will be tough opposition for the Lynx tonight. Herrington, who hails from Rolling Fork, Miss., is the field general of the Maroons.

Capt. Herrington is a triple threat, passing with his left hand and kicking with his left foot. His forte is broken field running and he is one of the greatest ball toters ever to wear the Maroon. He is an excellent blocker, and is strong on defense.

Since the tie game with Vanderbilt, Herrington is being hailed as potential All-Southeastern quarterback. He is a senior, and has gained his experience under three coaches at State—"Red" Cagle, Ray Dauber, and the present tutor, Capt. Ross Mackechnie.

HOLMES BEATS BOBCATS 22 TO 0

Freshman Pass Weakness Causes Loss

Holmes County Junior College defeated the Bobcats Friday 22 to 0. Coach High's crew allowed Holmes to intercept too many passes, and did not show an adequate aerial defense.

Good football was exhibited by the Bobcats during the first half but they were unable to keep up the pace throughout the entire game.

The Goodman team scored first on a 62-yard drive and twice on intercepted passes and once on a completed pass. Their last tally came as a result of a drive to the yearling 22-yard line, followed by a pass from King to Boggan.

Completely outplaying the Bobcats in the last half, the visitors ran up their score in that period. Although outscored, the fighting freshmen never gave up and kept their opponents busy until the last whistle.

Gartside and Weeks showed up well in the Bobcats' backfield.

The line-up:

HOLMES	Pos.	BOBCATS
Butler	R.E.	Houts
Oakes	R.T.	Evans
Walker	R.G.	Davis (c)
Hill (c)	C.	McDonald
Speerman	L.G.	Sowell
Oliver	L.T.	Medaris
Boggan	L.E.	Chapman
King	Q.B.	Tipton
Marrett	H.B.	Weeks
Stonestreet	H.B.	Gartside
Sikes	F.B.	Williams

Score by periods—	0	7	6	19	32
Holmes	0	7	6	19	32
Bobcats	0	0	0	0	0

Scoring—Touchdowns—Holmes, Boggan, Pressley, Marrett 2, Hill. Points after touchdowns—Oliver (placement); Butler (pass from Marrett).

Bobcats—Jones for Chapman, Barr for Medaris, Van Neste for Sowell, Quanthy for Weeks, Mitchell for Houts, Reinhardt for Weeks, Ratliff for Medaris, Merrin for Reinhardt, Nelson for Sowell, Hammond for Houts.

Bill Taylor To Play At Sewanee

Bill Taylor and his "Royal Collegians" will leave bright and early tomorrow for Sewanee, where they will play for a gym dance to be given tomorrow night following the grid game with Cumberland.

The dance is being sponsored by the Senior German Club. Last year Bill's orchestra played for the Pre-Lenten dances.

Among the Southwestern students going to Sewanee for the dance are Ellen Canale, who will be the guest of Doc Cravens; Peggy Walker, Alex Wellford's guest, and Sis Portlock, who will be Paul Tudor Tate's (cousin of Tom and Hinky Jones) guest.

Dan Ross Writing Fiction In Spain

Dan Ross—maybe in a few years some of you will be saying "I knew him when he went to school at Southwestern"—for Dan has decided to take a chance on authorship. He has long been interested in fiction and last fall when he did well in "Creative Writing" under Prof. McIlwaine, he set out to make writing his career. Today finds Dan living in a little two-room house on the shores of the Mediterranean at Cala Ratjada, a village in Majorca, Spain—the place that has in recent years ben the American Art colony center.

The days are filled with reading and writing—with swimming in the Mediterranean and bicycling trips about southern Spain as the necessary diversions.

Dan sent an excellent short story recently to Prof. McIlwaine entitled "Sparks," the story of a drunken radio operator and his dog. "Excellent," that's the word McIlwaine used to describe it.

Dan will spend next year in Majorca, where living expenses are very cheap—and atmosphere abundant for creative work.

Zetas Paint Lodge

Zeta Tau Alpha will have their lodge painted and redecorated in the near future. The house will again be painted white.

WHO'S WHO

Charles Crump has been a prominent figure in Southwestern athletics throughout his college career. Though not a participant in the field of sport, he has rendered valuable services in the capacity of manager. For the past three years, Crump has been varsity football manager.

During his sophomore year he also discharged the managerial duties of basketball and track. During that year he was a member of the annual staff, and was awarded the sophomore cup for being nearest to O.D.K. ideals.

Charley's biggest moment is the day when Harte Thomas fails to come to chapel, for then he, as vice-president of the Student Body, can take the platform and shine a wee bit. A peculiar fact about Crump is that he holds an office in every organization to which he belongs. He is president of Pi K.A.; vice-president of O.D.K.; secretary and treasurer of the "S" Club, and secretary of the Law Club. He has been prominent in intrafraternity athletics and a booster in all college activities. (This is not an obituary—he just happens to be all these things).

Eleanor Hooker, Charlie Taylor, Jimmie Meadow, Eva Carroll, Earl D. Christian and Marion Butler will attend the Southwestern-Miss. A. & M. game today.

Chi Delta Phi Meets and Elects

Chid Delta Phi, national literary sorority, met Wednesday at President Olivia Reames'. Julia Marie Schwinn was elected secretary and Mary Kennedy Hubbard, secretary.

Papers of the candidates for membership will be due Nov. 9. Members will be selected and announced soon afterwards.

Initiation banquet will be held Nov. 14 at Peabody Hotel. Malline Lyon is in charge.

O. D. K.

O.D.K. circles in the Southwestern Province of Omicron Delta Kappa are planning a convention to be held November 23-25. The place has not been decided upon, but the University of Alabama, Louisiana State University, and Millsaps College are bidding for the conclave. Heretofore, it has been customary to hold a general convention of all the circle's biennially, but at the convention held at Duke University last March it was decided to divide the circles into provinces and hold conventions every other year. The object of this is to create a better interest between the circles by bringing the members together more often. Among the national officers who will attend this conclave will be Dr. George Lang, national president, a Southwestern graduate. More information in regard to the convention and the names of the delegates will appear in a later issue of The Sou'wester.

The classes organized by O.D.K. to give aid to freshmen who are having difficulty in keeping up in their studies are being held regularly with a large number of students taking advantage of this opportunity. All freshmen needing help in any subjects are welcome to attend these classes.

K.D.'s Entertain

Kappa Delta actives and pledges will entertain with a spaghetti supper for members and alumnae Tuesday night at the lodge.

All Play Casts Finally Selected

Casts for the fire one-act plays to be produced by the Southwestern Players in Hardie Auditorium November 20 have been selected by the student directors Kate Galbreath, Margaret Clay Faulhaber, Dixie Mae Jennings, Boyce Leigh Sadler, and John Hines.

Kate Galbreath's play, "The Flower Shop" will have Savilla Martin, Martha Bailey, M. A. Lightman, Tommy Fuller, and Maurice Carlson.

Boyce Leigh Sadler's production, "Overtones," will be acted by Cornelia Henning, Betsy Anne Mohead, Virginia Reynolds, and Allete Gates.

Dixie Mae Jennings will take the only feminine role in her play, "The Last Meeting." Alvan Tate and Charlie Taylor will play the other characters.

Louis Weeks, Mary Walton Sohm, and Walter May will enact the characters in Margaret Clay Faulhaber's production, "A Leap-Year Bride."

"Love Is The Sweetest Thing," John Hines' comedy, has Fred Rehfeldt, Norma Lee, and Betty Bloompot for its cast.

College Debts Must Be Paid Before Initiation

All financial obligations to the school must be settled by a fraternity or sorority pledge before he can be initiated into the order. This new rule was passed by the faculty recently.

Baine Crowned As Chess King

Student chess players got their revenge on the faculty Monday when Rodney Baine won his third consecutive game over Prof. Haden.

This victory definitely establishes Baine as the winner of the long-drawn-out Southwestern Chess Tournament.

LYNX NOT AFRAID OF RUSSIAN BEAR

With the recent announcement of "de facto" recognition of Russia by President Roosevelt, much student discussion has been in evidence, most of which has been that of approval.

Conflicting ideas were expressed by Vernon Pettit and Dickie Dunlap. Dunlap believes that, "We have truly carried out the Christian ideal," while the Student Volunteer leader opined, "From a religious standpoint the recognition of Russia is a grave misalliance."

Dr. Cooper declared, "Economically it is a splendid thing, however, there are certainly sufficient reasons why relations should not be resumed."

Harold Simmons said, "It will do a great deal toward world peace, and in an economic way its benefits will almost equal those of the NRA."

Charles Sherman vehemently stated, "I think the Soviet should assume the old imperial debts before they are recognized."

Kate Galbreath gave an unusual answer, stating, "I think Borah expects to get something out of it for himself."

Jesse Richmond, Rodney Baine, and Logan Hughes believed that the move should have been made long ago.

Shaler Houser is afraid: "All raw materials will be sent to Russia and our factories will be left holding the bag."

Dr. Monk thinks that Recognition was "a very wise political move." Dr. Wilson's ideas on the matter were, "I think our goods should be sold on credit to those in our own country who so desperately need them rather than sending a deluge on long term payment to the U. S. S. R.

Erin Gary is quoted, "The purchase of cotton by Russia will probably make the market rise. However, it may tend to send wheat prices downward and be disastrous to the Western farmers, as Russia is a large exporter of wheat."

Louis Nicholas was the first Southwestern student opposed to the conciliatory move. He said, "I am a strong conservative, and do not approve in any way of Russia's tactics or motives; it was a big mistake."

Wilson Northcross declared, "I think just like President Roosevelt does," while Frances McKinnon in her own inimitable way said just, "I don't think."

BOBCATS MEET CENTRAL HIGH

Play Warriors Nov. 4th On Hodges Field

Bobcats meet Central High Nov. 4 on Hodges Field. The "Warriors" have a powerful, undefeated team, and will give the Baby Lynx a good scrap. Central plays Little Rock high school tonight.

Coach High has worked his yearling crew hard this week in an effort to iron out the weak spots shown in the Holmes game. Glaring weaknesses in pass defense have been improved upon, and the Bobcat aerial attack has been polished up.

The cripples are rounding into shape, and the entire squad, with the exception of Tompkins, will be available. Don Owens is again ready to go and will probably see service against Central.

Twenty-five Students Attend French Club

Twenty-five students attended the first meeting of the French Club Wednesday afternoon at the Kappa Delta House. President Norma Lee read the constitution, which was drawn up by John Hines and herself, and a short discussion of by-laws was held.

Members agreed to meet once a month and to participate in the programs, which will be arranged by John Hines, program chairman. All members of the club will converse entirely in French, whether on the program or not.

Dixie Mae Jennings and Kate Galbreath, secretary-treasurer, arranged for the refreshments of coffee and cakes. Drs. Wilson, Townsend, and Haden were present.

Zeta Tau Alpha Plans Open House

Zeta Tau Alpha actives will entertain in honor of their pledges with an open house at the lodge on the evening of Nov. 4.

What you want in your pipe

... is tobacco that's made to smoke in a pipe. This means the right kind of leaf tobacco—the kind that grows for pipes.

It means that it's made right . . . and old man Wellman, who taught us how to make Granger, knew how. It means that it's cut right.

Just pack Granger good and tight in your pipe and strike a match. Folks seem to like it.
