Purpose of the Course

The class will undertake an examination of the interaction between industrial nations of the “developed” world and the tribal and peasant societies of the “developing” world. The course will focus on the increasing exploitation of these peoples, not only by the industrialized world, but, also, by “developing” world elites. The approach will be both historical and critical.

Course Requirements

1. Class attendance is required.

2. Required Books:

IMPERIAL EYES, Pratt, Mary Louise
THE BUSHMAN MYTH, Gordon, Robert J. and Stuart S.
Douglas
THE LIFE AND TIMES OF GRANDFATHER ALANSO,
Muratorio, Blanca

3. Means of Evaluation:

There will be a series of (2) essay exams (take home) given throughout the semester. At the beginning of each class period for which a reading has been assigned you will submit to me (in writing) 3 questions or issues that particularly interest you and can be used to stimulate discussion of the reading.

4. Evaluation of Performance:
