

WHO'S WHO SELECTIONS MADE BY STUDENT COUNCIL; LYNX ON NATIONAL FEDERATION ROLL

COUNCIL PICKS FIVE Southern Convention Here Next April

Representatives for this year's Who's Who of American College Students, sponsored by the National Students Federation of America, were selected at a recent meeting of the Student Council. Southwestern students to be included in this national roll are Curtis Johnson, Norma Lee, Jameson Jones, Richard Dunlap, and Harvey Jones.

This election is held every year, and representatives are limited to one per cent of the student body. The Student Council, representative of the Student body, makes the selections. Students are chosen as a result of their outstanding leadership on the campus. All selections were made from the senior class members.

Curtis Johnson is president of the Southwestern Student Body; Norma Lee, president of the Publications Board, Jameson Jones, president of Omicron Delta Kappa, national honorary fraternity; and Dunlap and Jones are outstanding in campus sports, Dunlap in tennis and Jones in football.

This is the second year Southwestern has had names in this students' Who's Who. Southwestern's student body is a member of the National Students Federation of America, and the southern convention of this federation will be held here on the campus this coming spring, April 15th.

Last year the convention was held in New Orleans, with Jimmie Meadow, Alvan Tate, Harvey Heidelberg and Louis Duffee attending. Through their influence Southwestern was able to get this year's convention. Lyle Bates, president of the University of Mississippi student body, is this year's president of the Southern Student Federation of American Colleges.

TEA WILL HONOR CHI O MOTHERS

Will Be Held In Lodge From 4 To 6

Chi Omega sorority will entertain this afternoon with a tea from 4 till 6 in the sorority lodge. The affair will honor the mothers of the active members, patronesses of the sorority, and wives of the Southwestern faculty members.

The sorority colors, cardinal and straw, will be carried out in the decorations and refreshments.

Mrs. Barndon Lemmon, president of the alumnae chapter, and Mrs. W. B. Dunham will preside over the tea table.

Those in charge of arrangements are Nancy Warden, Bernice Cavett, Claudine Davis, and Susie Ellen Knowlton.

YW MAKES PLANS FOR THANKSGIVING

Y. W. C. A. held its Thanksgiving meeting Wednesday, November 13. Dinner was served to 75 of the 90 members in the Lynx Lair. After the devotional, led by Marian Spencer, Mrs. Rouscher spoke on "Social Service for Young People."

Thanksgiving baskets were planned for two families, with Betty Hunt chairman of the social service committee.

PIRATE PARTY

The pledges of Chi Omega have selected December 14, as the date for their annual Pirate Party. Further plans will be announced later in The Sou'wester.

ZETA TEA DANCE FOLLOWS GAME

Charlie Nichols To Play For Afternoon Affair

Zeta Tau Alpha is having their first tea dance Saturday evening from 5:30 to 8:30 in the lodge. It is a welcome party for homecoming, and the house will be attractively decorated with school colors. The committee in charge of decorations is composed of Margaret Brachey, Marjorie Walker, Grace Johnson, and Margaret Drake.

The sorority members and their dates will dance to the music of Charlie Nichols and his orchestra. "My Z. T. A. Sweetheart" will be played during the lead-out. The chaperons for the evening will be Dr. and Mrs. C. L. Baker and Dr. and Mrs. W. R. Atkinson.

Members and their dates are: Sarah Fox Martin with Richard Alexander, Shirley Ham with William Blue, Sara Gracey with J. D. Beauchamp, Margaret Drake with Fred Dickson, Lucille Woods with Herbert Pierce, Frances Flournoy with Roger Lawrence, Laura Lee Cooke with McKay Boswell, Gladys Crump with John Pierce, Grace Johnson with John Brewer, and Mary Frances Baker with Tommy Greer.

Pledges and their dates: Lillie Roberts Walker and Jack Terry, Mary Louise Davenport with Robert Kincaid, Mr. and Mrs. John Miller, Jane Alvis with Robert Williams, Ouida Bicknell with Bruce Crill, Margaret Brachey with James Blackwell, Aubrey Crow with Douglas Bateman, Juliette Crow with escort, Jean Kincaid with Wayne Paulus, Grace Wunderlich with Paul Freeman, Virginia Brown with Sam Mays, Marjorie Walker with Porter Chappel and Robert Lee, Lucille Doan with Edward Ham, Cathrine Thompson with David King, Julia Parks with Hillard Jordan, and Vera Ann Ulrich with H. R. Holcomb.

Alumni who are invited are Mary Rothschild with Lee McCormick, Helen Moore with Jack Brown, Minnie Lee Hamer, Sophia Hunt, and Hortense Loukes with escorts.

Representatives from other sororities are: AOPi, Levin Coe; Delta Delta Delta, Nell Jackson; KD, Jane Bray with Leslie Bachman, and Chi Omega, Elizabeth McKellar with escort.

EPISCOPAL CLUB TO MEET

The Episcopal Club will meet next Tuesday, November 19, at the AOPi lodge at 7:30 p.m. Some visitors from other Episcopal student groups in the city will be present at this meeting.

PRESIDES

The Rev. W. J. Millard, president of the Southwestern Alumni Association, will preside at the annual Alumni Banquet tonight in Neely Hall.

ALUM BANQUET THIS EVENING

Reverend W. J. Millard Will Preside

Tonight at 6:30 the annual Homecoming Banquet for Alumni will be held in Neely Hall. Approximately one hundred guests will be present besides the members of the faculty. This banquet is held every year for the entire Alumni membership.

Reverend W. J. Millard of the class of 1920, pastor of Evergreen Presbyterian Church, and president of the Southwestern Alumni Association will preside. Dr. Atkinson will speak on "What Every Alumnus Should Know." Coach Propst will speak.

Music will be provided by the newly-organized Southwestern Band.

Of great interest will be the attendance of Duncan Martin of the class of 1885. He will be the oldest alumnus to attend and is the father of Miss Martin who is a member of the staff in the bursar's office.

PANHELLENIC HOP SET FOR NOV. 29

The Pan-Hellenic dance, the first to be given this year, has been set for Friday, November 29. The original plan to charter the Casino has been discarded, and negotiations are now being made with the Peabody and the Gayoso. The orchestra has not yet been engaged, but it is guaranteed to be one of the best. In fact, says Dorsey Barefield, "it will probably be the maestro, himself."

Chattanooga Moccasins To Battle Lynx Tomorrow As Feature For Homecoming

BONFIRE TONIGHT 7:30 Downtown Parade Starts At Court Square

Following the bonfire tonight at 7:30 in the field at University and Tutwiler, all Southwestern students will meet in the downtown loop to parade. Speeches by the coaching staff and members of the football team will be made at the bonfire.

Dr. Charles Diehl, who in the past has struck the match starting the blaze, has again been asked to be present and officiate. The Southwestern band will also be present to lend pomp and ceremony to the occasion.

Milton Smith, head yell leader, has six new yells which the students will learn tonight. To insure attendance by the freshmen, the first year roll will be checked. All freshmen who do not attend will be disciplined next week by the Sanhedrin Council.

The parade, to follow the fire, will begin at Court Square where students will meet immediately after the pep meeting here at school. A tour of all the downtown hotels will be made by the cheering, shirt-tailed and pajamaed freshmen and upperclassmen. Following the custom of former years, gatherings and cheers will be made in the lobbies of the hotels and on street corners. However, the students are requested to forego any destructive or damaging work on their trip.

The bonfire is an annual affair held before one of the important games of the season. The game tomorrow is designated as homecoming game. The boxes for the fire were gathered by freshmen, and under the direction of Ewing Carruthers, president of the largest freshmen class in the history of the school, the different fraternities and non-fraternity men were given special days on which to collect the boxes. This work was begun several weeks ago, but due to inclement weather and no fixed date for the bonfire, the boxes were slow in being assembled.

MILLSAPS IN FORMAL STAND AGAINST WAR

Nearly 60 Millsaps College students took a formal stand against war in the course of an Armistice Day program given in the college chapel last Monday. These students immediately rose to their feet, following the reading from the platform by the student body president of a peace pledge sponsored by the National Student Federation of America.

This pledge reads as follows: "I will not support the government of the United States in any war it may undertake."

Secure Reports

The Registrar's Office announces that students may secure their reports for the first report period tomorrow (Saturday) morning at nine o'clock from their faculty advisors.

LYNX SET FOR HOMECOMING

Lodges Will Be Decorated With Pennants

Fraternity and sorority rows will present a gala appearance tomorrow for Homecoming Day. Alums and the University of Chattanooga football team will find all lodges decorated in true college style, with open doors and a cordial invitation to visitors.

Although neither frats nor sororities made definite statements as to how their lodges would be decorated, they all agreed that Southwestern colors and a varied assortment of college pennants will predominate in the decorations.

Homecoming Day activities will continue into the night. After the game, the Zeta Tau Alphas are giving a tea dance in their lodge, and tomorrow night, Sou'westerners hope to celebrate victory at the "S" Club dance.

C. U. CABINET TO HAVE XMAS TREE

Proceeds From Apple Sales To Be Used For Toys

At the regular meeting of the Southwestern Christian Union Cabinet last Monday evening in the Bell Room, the members decided to begin preparation for the annual Christmas tree.

The Christmas tree is held every year before the holidays begin for the benefit of needy children. Beginning December 1st, an apple box will be placed on a conspicuous spot on the campus, and the proceeds from the sales will go to buy toys and clothing for the children. It is hoped and expected that all Southwestern students will enter into the spirit and purchase their "apple a day."

An appropriate celebration of the 400th anniversary of the first English printed Bible was also discussed during the course of the meeting. Twelve members were present.

LYNX FOURTH PLACE

Cy Williams Is Out For Season With Broken Leg

The Moccasins from Chattanooga will invade Memphis for their game with the Lynx tomorrow at 2:30 on Fargason. The game features Southwestern's Homecoming, and is preceded by a bon-fire Friday night at 7:30, and topped off with an "S" Club dance at the Gayoso honoring the players of both teams.

Due to the incimate weather, the Lynx have gotten in relatively little scrimmage. However, Coach Shorty Propst has drilled the team in the gym and had a light workout yesterday. The Lynx go into action with the Moccasins minus the help of Cy Williams, star line-backer, who broke his left leg above the ankle in the Birmingham-Southern tussle. The rest of the Lynx are in pretty good shape.

As a result of last week's upset dealt by the Panthers of Southern the Lynx were knocked from a tie of first place with Howard and Springhill down to fourth place. The only hope for a first place in the Dixie Conference now depends upon whether the Lynx win their last three games with Chattanooga, Union, and Springhill respectively. Chances are good that the Lynx will do this, but some team must also defeat Howard, the present league leader.

Advance reports indicate that the Moccasins will have their full strength to pit against the Lynx. Coach Propst has drilled into the boys the fact that they will have to play their best brand of football in order not to repeat last week's results.

The Lynx will end their preparations this evening with a light work-out and signal drill. The players and coaches will appear at the bonfire to give short talks.

Probable line-up for the Lynx will be Bob Lee and Haygood at ends, Davis and Pepper at tackles, Houts and Benton at guard, and Nichols at center. In the backfield Coach Propst will probably start Jones, Tapp, and Pitt; with Mays at quarter.

Sponsors for the game will be Mary Helen Gilliam from Clarksdale and Cornelia Henning, chosen by Murray Rasberry and Harvey Jones respectively.

LYNX CO-ED TO RECEIVE AWARD

$50 Scholarship To Be Given January 1st

For the second consecutive year, the Memphis Chapter of the American Association of University Women is offering to some Southwestern co-ed in either the junior or senior year a scholarship of $50.00.

Any girl in either of these classes is eligible to compete for the award. Full particulars and application blanks can be secured from Miss Annie Beth Gary in the registrar's office.

These blanks must be properly filled out and returned to Miss Gary on or before December 1st. The scholarship is to be awarded January 1st.

BIBLE CLASS WILL HEAR PROF. LINTON

Professor Linton will speak to the Men's Bible Class Sunday evening at 6:30 p.m. in the Social Room of Calvin Hall. The meeting was postponed from last Sunday because of the Vesper Service.

Edward Atkinson, who will preside over the meeting, invites all men students to be present.

THE POISONOUS VIRUS OF MODERN YOUTH

Editor's Note: From time to time such articles as "The Poisonous Virus of Modern Youth" will appear in The Sou'wester in an effort to comply with the policies of the National Student League.

By KATHLEEN NORRIS

Modern boys and girls have become "social-minded." And they do not hesitate to say what they think is wrong. This, thinks Kathleen Norris, is bad; youth should be disciplined. The point of view expressed by the author is not universally shared these days.

A college boy of twenty had an article published in a magazine the other day. Probably a good many of his elders read it with concern; troubled, helpless before its youthful bitterness. The article caused no special sensation, because it only said what we all know that the rising generation is saying, or rather shouting and babbling and screaming at us all the time.

Reading it, I wondered if the old days of flogging youngsters had been wholly mistaken, after all. Not that there is any answer in a flogging. Martyrs have been flogged, and their causes have lived on. But these boys and girls of ours who are so sure that every other country in the world is smarter than their own, who attack their Constitution, their national ideals, their parents and society in general so mercilessly, have no cause. They are simply undisciplined children who weren't told to keep their young mouths shut, and mind their manners, and obey their elders, and do their duty.

Life has been made too smooth for them; learning has been substituted for character development; their ab-surdities have been permitted to develop until their most ridiculous opinion is received with respect.

"We of my age were born in the darkest hour of so-called civilization," says the boy who wrote the article, sternly and darkly. "We have been cheated of the birthright of intelligent human beings and we know it. From those who went before us, from the stupid time-serving, fanatic flag-wavers whose hallucinations formed our first ideas, we will some day take our bitter toll. Graft, corruption, greed, cupidity, the glorification of might and the repression of man's rights, these are all we see about us. We are given no standards, no clues in the darkness of the world's decay." We... we... we...

There is a great deal of it; five printed pages. And I can imagine the boy, for I know such boys, swaggering about with a bitter smile on his young face as his awed mates praise him for his courage in saying what he believes.

His mother, alarmed but admiring, sent me the article, with a despairing letter.

"How have we failed the children?" she writes, on her handsome monogrammed paper with its ultra-smart address. "For the awful part of this is that boys and girls seem to be feeling it everywhere! And one feels that they must be right."

Well, does one feel that they must be right? I, for one, not only feel that they must be and are entirely wrong, but I feel that we, their elders, are somehow entirely wrong, too, in letting them get so far as to express this sort of adolescent folly. I feel that all high schools and colleges ought to stop all other courses, for a space of years,

HOMECOMING SPIRIT

Each year there comes a time when the mind of every loyal alumnus drifts homeward and he turns himself either bodily or at least in spirit back towards his old stamping ground.

To the alumnus we say welcome home. To the undergraduate we say make your honorable predecessors feel that they are home.

The friendships which are made and renewed in this way are something which cannot be bought. To you, as an integral part of the college, they are presented merely for the asking.

Let's, therefore, join together for a day of gladness, keeping in mind at the same time that underlying principle which makes for a greater college, that certain undefinable something which is the motivator of good will and progress, that priceless gem of good fellowship—college spirit.

LET'S CHEER

Again tomorrow the loyal and hard-working cheerleaders of our up and coming institution will attempt to draw from the crowd of students and alumni present at the Southwestern-Chattanooga game, some of that pep and enthusiasm which The Sou'wester believes exists in the souls of those who attend and have attended the college even though it has not been especially apparent for the past few years.

Whether it will be forthcoming we cannot venture to say, but at least every effort has been made towards seducing it from its hiding place in the warm hearts of our beautiful coeds and the cold, calloused souls of our gallant males.

As a partial solution of our ever-present cheering problem—in spite of the good work of the newly formed Pep Club—we suggest that the dashing young cavaliers of this year constitute the freshmen class of our respected institution might be lined up in the shadows of that bulwark of learning, the administration building, and, from there marched bodily to the glorious confines of a section designated for them within the football gates where an effort could be made to extricate from their lusty throats enthusiasm in the form of collegiate cheering that would echo from bleacher to bleacher.

and the raz-ma-taz sophomore to put the fire behind their cheering. Can the upperclassmen do it? Well!

A LITTLE MORE HEAT

This thing of living in a chilled dormitory is getting to be a nuisance! What does it take to get a little heat in Calvin and Robb Halls? From the amount of warmth that has been stingily let into the dorms via boiler-pipe-radiator route, one would think Southwestern had gone Eskimo, and that her students were as hardened to cold as a penguin.

Although the winter months are hardly under way, several cool spells have already descended upon us, and have been sufficient causes for heat at such times.

On three occasions the dormitories received heat for a portion of the day, and on the other occasion—the 7th of November, to be exact—no heat whatsoever reached the student rooms during the entire day or night. Of course a dorm "hot-box" would be very undesirable, but enough heat to make the rooms comfortable is not asking too much.

Also, the student who has to do his studying late has a pretty bad time of it, because even in middle winter the heat is cut off early in the evening, and, to counteract this, he has to keep his windows shut tight, which soon produces a "stuffy" effect, or either open the window and take the cold.

When the cold spells come, why not cut down on the afternoon steam, and let the boiler run a little longer at night? If its expense you're worrying about, that would increase it none.

INCONSISTENCY.

Heard in passing the other day—"What kind of a newspaper is this? (Speaking of The Sou'wester). Anybody with any journalistic sense wouldn't run a date list on the front page of a paper."

It so happens though that the gentlemen saying this are members of a certain organization that was very eager indeed to have a date list of the first big dance of the year printed in any conspicuous place, on the front page.

This was done, with no obligations, strings, or misgivings tied to it. All the writer asks is a little consideration when the same is done for some other campus group.

THANKS

Colonel Roane Waring of the Memphis Street Railway Co. is due thanks for his kindness in furnishing the students with a telephone pole to "support" the bonfire tonight.

BONFIRE

All students are expected to attend the pep meeting and bonfire to be held tonight on the vacant lot at the corner of Tutwiler and University.

Your support and presence is an essential factor in the winning of the Southwestern-Chattanooga grid tilt tomorrow, and the least any student can do is to lend a cheer tonight.

Don't be a slacker—be on hand for the igniting.

By RALF BROWNE

One time that a man doesn't have anything to do with tying his necktie, is when he is about to be hung.

If Southwestern plays many more games like they did at Birmingham, when the Dixie Conference championship chain is examined, we will be the missing Lynx.

Since our paper has been justly and rightly criticized as not being a work of journalism, I have made a few notes of some of the works of a famous and learned man, hoping that my column will not be called a directory that tells of this Romeo's promenading with that Juliet. "If one is not a gallant Lothario, he never gets his name in the Sou'wester." Even though this is a bitter and near prejudiced statement, it is true to some extent. But you erudite celebrities read on!! I shall try to satisfy your hunger and thirst for knowledge.

How many of you know that you quote Shakespeare everyday? "Bill's" phrases have integrated into our speech so we unconsciously use them daily. You, Sophomores, see how many you recognize. and teach our children only what their country really is.

Three years of intensive study of America, with travel trips and films and radio programs and books and poems and programs to illustrate the glorious, the unique, the significant history of this country. Then two years of study of other countries would be my Five Year Plan for America's youth.

Where did the boy get the half-cooked poisonous virus that has saturated his poor little half-cooked mind now? Who told him that Russia had a better theory of social and political action than he could have under that unparalleled, that astounding and revolutionary and magnificent document we call our Declaration of Independence? Where does he see youth happier, freer, more favored than his own youth? What boys have more privilege than he? Don't the words political, social, religious freedom, freedom of speech, freedom of movement and thought, mean anything to him?

Human rule is a faulty rule. Great governments make great mistakes. Corruption will creep in, no matter how honest a great proportion of our public servants.

That doesn't mean that any name in all the list of great names of all time has yet come even within the shadow of our great names: Washington, Jefferson, Lincoln.

Do we live up to their ideals, are we worthy of them? We do not, we are not. We don't live up to our personal ideals, much less our national ones. No country, as a country, has ever forgiven its enemies.

Never, not even in the comparatively simple medieval days, did any great Christian ruler say: "Let us forgive them. Let us give them twice the domains they demand of us. Let us remind them of the one divine rule; that

"Bear Hylton"

The Sou'wester has moved into its new office. Such a headline should cause no comment except— The except comes in after the office was moved.

Everyone knows how cold blooded Hylton Neill, grid picks editor, is. Everytime he gets cold, he just wants to turn bear and hibernate.

But when they fixed the office, they kept poor Hylton in mind and put in a gas heater.

Then it got cold Wednesday morning and "Bear Hylton" decided he would take advantage of the kindly heater. He lit a piece of paper, as the directions specified, and turned on the gas.

Now it happened. What? Why the darn thing exploded and poor Hylton was almost blown away by the flying debris. But the bear was ambitious and flying ashes did not worry him in the least. So he tried again. The same thing happened, but—hurray—the stove lit.

(The next paragraph was censored by "the bear" who saw the story on the editor's desk).

Just the same, The Sou'wester is going to do its part—buying brooms from blind men to keep the office clean after each explosion.

'SOUTHERN' TEAM BLASTS HOPES OF LYNX LEADERSHIP

BIRMINGHAM IS FAST

Sou'western Lacked Needed Punch

Gone are the fond hopes for a Dixie Conference title as Birmingham-Southern Panthers sunk the fast travelling Lynx under a 12-0 score. The game played at the Legion Field, Birmingham, was one of the day's upsets. Although highly favored to take the victorious Panthers, the Memphians were caught napping on two occasions resulting in the tallies for the home team.

The game started with a blast of offensive strength, passes, and runs that netted the Panthers their first score. Shortly after the kick-off, the Southwestern first team took the field for the remainder of the quarter.

The Lynx attack got under way soon after the second period opened with a drive deep into Southern territory, but the offense bogged down when the Lynx failed to complete their passes. McKay, stellar Panther back, punted out of danger and by his excellent kicking kept the Lynx in midfield for most of the quarter. The Cats threatened twice more during the quarter, but each time the Southerners held and took the ball over on downs.

Early in the third canto, Prewitt ran the ball to the Panther 30, and Clay Nickells slipped away to the three. Once more the Panthers held for downs and punted out of danger. Again the Lynx forced their way into Southern territory, only to be held as the quarter ended.

The Southwesterners showed flashes of offensive strength during the first half of the last period, but resorting to passes as a last threat, a heave from Prewitt was intercepted by Perry on the Lynx 22. Two line plays and then a pass, McKay to McLendon, gave the Panthers a second score. The game ended shortly thereafter with the Lynx still trying desperately to score with passes.

"Is it true that the leading lady lost her job because of her double?"
"Yeah, her double chin."

WHO'S WHO

This is the last of a series of articles featuring prominent senior Lynx athletes. They are done in appreciation of the hard work and sacrifice of these men for Southwestern.

The mighty midget of Southwestern sports, none other than atomical Rick Mays who sees only the "puny" side of life, cavorts on Fargason for the last time tomorrow. Rick, although handicapped by lack of weight, is known among the football men because of his fight and leadership. This coupled with his running ability makes him quite valuable as a pigskinner.

Mr. Mays breezed through Central High, graduating with second honors. There he started his athletic career in football, basketball, baseball and tennis. These sports he continued during the four years at Central. Also, Rick was elected president of the Hi-Y Club, a national high school organization similar to the YMCA. He handled the school money as school bank cashier, and at the same time he remained the most popular senior—by election. This last—uh—honor is a bit surprising since Rick emphatically states that, "I never messed with the women"; which, on second thought, may clarify matters.

Rick entered Southwestern in '32, where he continued his athletic career in football, basketball and tennis. He dropped tennis after his sophomore year to give more to the other two sports. Rick's quarterbacking has helped the Lynx pull many a game out of the fire. He has the ability to get the most out of the team when it is most needed. Like the well known "Chicken" High, he believes that the game is never lost until after the final whistle. Because of this, Rick has captained the Lynx several times this season.

Rick is a member of Sigma Nu. As the High Priest of the San Hedrin he has given the freshmen much good advice, reminding them that, "They ought to be freshmen until they become sophomores and not try to be sophisticated after two weeks." He goes on to say that, "A freshman is a freshman for one year."

Once out of school Rick plans to study law at the University of Virginia.

By virtue of their 12-0 defeat engineered by the Panthers of Birmingham-Southern, the Lynx now decorate the fourth notch in the Dixie Conference standing. Prior to last week, the Lynx were tied for first, along with Howard and Springhill. It is easy to ask why the Lynx lost to a team that had lost five out of five games; but it is not easy to answer said inquiry. However, one of the main reasons the Lynx lost is due to "Ole Man Let-down." The "Ole Man" also beat Notre Dame and Mississippi State among other teams last week. No matter how much coaches guard against it, a team will, in spite of itself, relax just a bit after a tough game. The Lynx played the highly "tooted" Howard Bulldogs before they tackled the Panthers. This was the hardest tussle on the Lynx conference schedule. They surprised the fans by tying the Bulldogs; as a result, they surprised the fans again by being taken by the lowly Panthers.

Another factor which probably went far in causing the down fall of the Lynx will not be mentioned in this article because we believe that it is poor sportsmanship to alibi about anything, especially about the refereeing. However, it will be pointed out what may happen if, and when, such a situation did occur. In the first place, the team being imposed upon would easily lose all morale, or fight, or whatever you want to call it; and would start to argue and fight, even, among themselves. In the second place, just because the coach of the team was man enough to stand up to his rights and give his personal opinion, in no uncertain manner, of the so-called fishy refereeing, the scribes and fans would be quick to shout alibier, etc. Of course, this is what probably would happen if such a situation occurred.

Anyway, Gus Pitts, of the loquacious Pitts, wants it clearly understood that, "I wasn't in the game when all them passes was thrown." Pitt goes to say that the Panthers "Were just 12 points better'n we were." Pitt emphasizes the "were."

Tomorrow's Home-Coming game is sure to be a peach from start to finish. The Lynx have been pretty quiet this week but it's easy to see that they are out for blood. The loss of "Cy" Williams may hinder the Lynx some but not enough to count. In fact, it's hardly probable that the team will disappoint the Home-Coming fans. The Lynx should win by at least one touchdown and an extra point.

Since the start of intra-mural activities, a new club has seen the light of day. We mention this because the club is growing fast. In fact, Marion Cobb has recently joined. The club?—Oh yes, the Doggers Club," with Dickie Dunlap and Dorsey Barefield the charter members.

Where regular football coaches go on the field with tape, splints, etc., in their kits, we know of two embryonic mentors who go forth equipped with safety pins, nipped milk bottles, and small squares of cloth that look like "Jughead's" handkerchief. These blossoming coaches are none other than "Duck" Lumpkin and Dickie Dunlap, who have been assigned the coaching jobs of the Chickasaw-Baby-Sand-Lotters. Those two are self made men, being appointed because of their belief in the powers of said Dunlap and Lumpkin.

just had to come up to say "how do you do?" and to help celebrate or to ejaculate highs and moans.

Aubrey and Eutelle went home. Saturday was the former's birthday and her home town gave her a dance in honor of the occasion. Such attention! Betty Hunt slipped off home, and Ellie also abandoned the old place for the week-end. Marjorie Tappan came up to visit Nannice. Mildred's family came to help her spend a very pleasant spell.

Briefs: A fad of days gone by seems to be invading Evergreen. If you'll notice carefully and wait patiently you may see the well known "Charleston" being done in the halls, or the sidewalk, or most any place. The "Wynne" that is blowing the "Cobb" around... The Lynx in the dormitory... A "Duck" and a "Crow"... A "rug party" that is about to be scheduled in Gladney's and Given's room. If you don't know what such a part is like, ask them—not me.

Championship Game To Be November 26

Intramural basketball got into the second week of play with the Sigma Nu's and the ATO'S still leading the parade. These two teams are the only undefeated crews in the race, and if they continue their winning streaks, they will meet for the championship on November 26.

Results of this week's games are as follows:
ATO defeated PIKA, 19-18.
Non-Frat defeated KA, 27-16.
Sigma Nu defeated Kappa Sigma, 15-14.

Grid Picks Winner

The winners of this week's Grid Contest sponsored by The Sou'wester are Virginia Morrow, Eldridge Armistead, and Margaret Stockard. They will be awarded one theater pass each.

BOBCATS TO MEET NOR'WEST CREW ON NEXT FRIDAY

FOURTH FROSH GAME

Senatobia Team Defeated U. T. Junior Crew

The Southwestern Bobcats will play their fourth game of the season next Friday on Fargason Field when they meet the strong grid crew from Northwest Junior College of Senatobia, Miss. The Babylynx have dropped two games out of three starts and are not conceded any margin over their next opponents.

The Mississippi team is probably the strongest aggregation the Southwestern freshmen will come up against as they have an impressive string of victories to their credit. Among the more important of the wins chalked up to their side is a 6 to 0 victory over a hard-charging University of Tennessee Junior College team from Martin, Tenn.

The freshmen have been put through a hard session of work along with the varsity and should be able to muster enough strength by next week to give the Senatobia crew a busy afternoon. However the Bobcats are not the favorites and will have to show more fight during the next few days to be given an even chance.

The contest will be the next to the last one for the Southwestern team as they close their season in December with a final game with the All-Memphis team. The Bobcat-All-Memphis game will be the third of its kind to be held in as many years.

Next week's assignment for the Miller crew will probably consist of continued scrimmaging the varsity during the early part of the week, with the last few days devoted to the brushing up of signals and signal drill.

Sou'wester To Assist Commercial Appeal In Polling

NEXT WEEK'S ISSUE WILL CARRY BALLOTS

Only One Or Two Per Cent Inaccuracy Shown In Polling Nation-wide Vote

In next week's issue of the Sou'wester a ballot will be run on some national question of importance in conjunction with the Commercial Appeal, and the results will appear in the following week's issue of this paper. The Commercial Appeal will also run the results of the Southwestern ballot in their Sunday issue following the publishing of our results.

This nation-wide balloting was started some time ago to voice facts about the public opinion on certain current questions in which the whole country is interested. Last week's poll was on the Liquor Question—whether the repeal of prohibition has bettered conditions in the nation. Results showed a 36% vote specifying a better condition; 33% said that conditions were worse; and 31% considered conditions the same as they were in prohibition days.

Results as ascertained by the American Institute of Public Opinion, sponsors of the balloting, show an accuracy to within one or two per cent. The ballots are sent out by the Institute through 45 newspapers throughout the country. Three-fourths of the votes are sent through the mail and one-fourth are carried direct to the people by trained interviewers. States are issued ballots in proportion to the number of voters registered.

The forty-five newspapers represent 10 Republican, 5 Independent Republican, 4 Democratic, 7 Independent Democratic, and 19 Independent publications. Through the courtesy of the Commercial Appeal, one of the above 45 newspapers, the Sou'wester has been able to connect itself with the nation's polling.

The results of this week's balloting, on the question of peace, will be found in the Sunday Commercial Appeal.

"S" CLUB BALLYHOO TURNS INTO PITT-FRESHMEN EXTRAVAGANZA

Shrewdly appealing to the feminine half of the student body as controlling the purchasing power thereof, the "S" Club, Wednesday in chapel, opened a publicity campaign for its second dance.

Admittedly unshaven, Gilbert Pitt, with one elbow torn from his jacket and his shirt tail flapping, made his way through the curtain to deliver a brief but elegant summary of reasons for attempting the dance.

CALVIN HALL

An unusual tone was provided last week to life in Calvin by the visitors from Ole Miss. Strangers sleeping within the walls will add spice and variety to anyone's life.

Biological discovery of the week is the way Harry Phelan's eyes become crossed when he gets into a tight place. When this embryo Lindbergh returned from his weekly flying at the airport, his peepers looked as if they were focused on the end of his nose. It seems that he, with Bob White, had taken a ship up in an unusually high wind.

Bashful Stewart boys are reaping the rewards for venturing into Calvin to call up their girls. "Bonecrusher," groomed like a Mdivani prince, was sitting at the telephone when, swish! From out of nowhere with the cataclysmic quickness of a tidal wave he found himself soaked in a deluge of water. But it proved to be the perfect crime, for the villain has not yet been apprehended.

Erle Mulherrin, who says with an evil grin that he never had so much fun in his life, put the hall into an uproar, and all with one package of itching powder. Messieurs Brasher, Crenshaw, Humphrey, Edington, Phelan, Mayton, Falls, and last but certainly not least McDermott all experienced the unpleasant presence of this odious substance upon their delicate skins.

Calvin men are wearing black in

STEWART HALL

Stewart has been unusually quiet this week in view of the grades going in soon, although some of the boys still maintain that college is no place to get an education. Stewart's scholastic standing should take a jump with such intellectuals as Bergfeld, Owey, Flussie, and many others boning.

Owey Elles, the Covington exterminator, is determined to finish his course in tele-phony science—this lad in his efforts to make good religiously answers all Stewart's bells (and some that ain't), and even in his off moments calls up all of his "good buddies" in the vicinity.

Complaints: Stewart's men have shown by a recent vote that a new sports editor is desirable—one who can adequately cover the football games and other sports—it was also voted that Quanto, the present mistake, should get behind "Old Beck" instead of a pencil.

Notes: Razz's arm has at last mended—Stewart's own Robert E. Lee is just timid, girls—R. L. "Fluzzie" Littlefield is going home to Arkansas next week-end.

mourning for the passing of Wade Lott's hair. When the barbers' union threatened to toss a bomb into his abode, he broke down and got a haircut.

The audience, now keyed to an emotional pitch, was ready for the ingenious freshmen actors Mobly, Bronson, Turner, Blair, Phelan, and Worthington to display their dramatic talent in two short skits. The first, which revealed a secret fraternity, featured the pledging of Barefield. The second, starring coeds Phelan and Worthington, presented an intimate glimpse of a female bull—or more properly—a cow session.

ROBB HALL

Do you remember that picture of Bull Benton in the Commercial Appeal last week, the "Grinning Guard Goes Charging"? I went down to Bull's room to congratulate him on it, and, although Bull wasn't it, there was the paper with a pair of scissors lying on it and the picture missing. I suppose Bull does have to keep his admirers contented.

The light fuses have been blown consistently during the last week on the first floor of Robb, but "Hi" Lumpkin has come to the rescue. He has taught the floor the art of studying by burning newspapers in the wastebasket. Richard Barnes refuses to take part in any such proceedings, as he doesn't believe in hiding his light under a bushel, much less in a wastebasket.

"Co" Cam was visited by his brother, "Hurry," during the week-end and the boys got along well enough until they tried to brew tea together. Each of the boys is so temperamental about his tea—deah, deah!

Doug Bateman has been to see his Jane, and Earle Calvin's love has been up to see him. Now that the girls are gone, Doug and Earle mope across the campus to sit through their classes with blank, sad faces. But, as Doug says, "Christmas is only forty days away."

Happenings of '34—CHI BETA PHI TO PUT ON SHOW

With a strong running and passing attack, the Kentucky Wildcats defeated the Lynx 33-0 before a homecoming crowd of 2,500 at Fargason Field Saturday. The passing of Jones and Dunlap was the feature of the Lynx offense.

Nine students made the honor roll for the first report period. They are Francis Benton, Rodney Baine, Mary Brewster, Herbert Cain, Jameson Jones, Olivia Reames, Mildred Brandes, Richard Dunlap, and Young Wallace.

The Science Club has been reorganized and will hold its first meeting on Wednesday. Vernon Pettit is the acting head of the organization.

The "bow-legged blocker," Dorsey Barefield, has succeeded in "blocking

At sometime in the near future Chi Beta Phi will put on a chemical show demonstrating some of the more spectacular experiments and phenomena of the scientific world. The show will be staged in the Science Hall and the student body will be invited to come and behold the marvels of science.

At the regular meeting Wednesday night Charles Barton delivered a paper on "Amateur Astronomy."
