GRID BANQUET NEXT FRIDAY WILL HONOR TEAM

Joe Williams, Sports Editor,
Will Speak

BAND TO ATTEND

Everyone Invited To Buy
Tickets

The annual football banquet for the Southwestern Lynx will take place next Friday, November 27, at 6:15 P.M. in the main dining room of the Hotel Gayoso. The entire Lynx football squad including seven seniors and the twelve "iron men" of Vanderbilt fame will be honored at this event.

As the principal speaker for this occasion, the Thousand Club has obtained Mr. Joe Williams, a Memphis and former member of the Commercial Appeal staff, now with the Scripps-Howard chain. Mr. Williams, a graduate of Christian Brothers College of this city, is now sports editor of the New York World-Telegram. As fine a speaker as he is writer, Mr. Williams is expected to prove a worthy successor to Bo McMillin, Indiana coach, who was the guest speaker at last year's banquet.

Southwestern's red and black uniformed band will also be guests at the banquet and will furnish music for the occasion.

Mr. M. A. Lightman, who in his own words has "adopted Southwestern," will serve as toastmaster for the event. He will also be host to the entire football squad at a theater party after the banquet.

Because of the size of the dining room, attendance at the banquet will be limited to 600 inclusive of the football team, band, and the frosh squad. Tickets can be purchased from Bob Metcalf, at 8-3166, at Hotel Gayoso, or from any member of the Thousand Club. The price is $1.50 per plate, and all students and backers of Southwestern are cordially invited to attend this celebration of the most successful fall campaign ever staged by the Lynx Cats.

YWCA WILL MEET NEXT WEDNESDAY

The next regular meeting of the Y. W. C. A. will be Wednesday, Dec. 2, in the Lynx Lair. This will be the last meeting before the Christmas holidays, and the speaker will be Miss Proutt, head of the Children's Bureau. All who expect to attend please sign up in the Women's Social Room before 10:00 Wednesday morning. Good attendance is urged.

LOVE "THE SWEETEST THING" TAKES BEATING FROM WITS

While looking through Mr. Webster's dictionary the other day, my wandering eyes fell upon the very misused word, "love." The meaning, as stated by Mr. Webster is: a strange feeling of affection, especially to one of the opposite sex. Now, you would be surprised how the students of Southwestern disagree with Webster, but they do decidedly.

Take, for instance, Bernardine Taylor's definition of the so-called word. She says, "Love is that thing that makes the world go 'round.'"

Bruce Crill is very blunt and to the point. When asked to define love, he didn't even take time to bat an eyelash, and said, "Love is blind."

Margaret Kyle goes very emotional on us and says, with a sigh, "Love is an overwhelming emotional state of mind."

Jimmy Sasser—you know, football—says, "Love, as they call it, is something very fickle, not to be fooled with, for more than likely it will leave you very unhappy—or something." (Sounds like the voice of experience.)

Shirley Scarborough has the right idea. When approached on the subject, she had a snappy answer ready.

News Flash

Charles Barton, one of the latest neophytes of O.D.K., rather knocked everybody off their pins by not making the Honor Roll. Even if not upholding his usual record of first, he was at least expected to make the second. Your roving reporter has delved into the depths of the mystery, though, to bring to light that demon REASON. No later than Friday he received six, no less, portraits of our current movie sirens. And, to top that off—we'd have you know—they were not merely rubber-stamped but personally signed by the fair ladies' hands!

FRATERNITIES RESTRICT PAN

Kalford Ratcliff Sponsors Limiting Motion

Led by Kalford Ratcliff, all fraternity men, in a meeting Friday morning after student assembly, voted to place definite limitations on the Men's Panhellenic Council.

The motion which was passed states that: (1) The members of the Panhellenic Council shall give no dance except their three regular formal dances during the year, (2) the surplus which is bound to accrue from the inexactness of assessments shall be used toward lowering the assessments for future dances, (3) the Panhellenic council shall submit, after each dance, to each fraternity an itemized account of expenditures.

Ratcliff, who asked John Farley, president of the student body, to call the meeting, first spoke saying that in previous years the council had exceeded its authority in using council funds for private dances and other purposes and proposing the previously mentioned motion as a remedy for the situation.

Charles Taylor, president of the council, then answered Ratcliff. He said that the council members because of the work they did during the year should be entitled to use part of the surplus for a private party.

James Breytspraak moved to table the motion until Saturday, but this motion did not carry.

Others who spoke before the vote was taken were Eugene Grissom and Robert Armstrong.

MEN'S BIBLE CLASS

The Men's Bible Class will meet in the Music building Sunday evening at 6:30. Professor C. P. Lee will speak on the subject, "England's Religion in the 20th Century."

All men students are invited to attend.

Guests Asked To Appear In Costume

The pledges of Chi Omega will entertain members of the active chapter Saturday night with their annual Pirate Party from 8 until 12 o'clock.

The sorority lodge will be transformed into a tropical island and in one corner of the room will be placed a treasure chest containing pirate gold.

Guests are asked to appear in costumes in accord with the theme. A prize will be awarded for the most appropriate costume.

Joe McCoy and his orchestra will furnish the music. There will be an active and a pledge leadout.

Block bids have been extended to all fraternity men and all non-fraternity men are cordially invited.

Refreshments will be served during the course of the evening.

Active members to be honored and their escorts are:

Pledges and their dates include: Frances Smithwick, president, with Carl Roth; Mary Louise Hughes, vice-president, with Maitland Patton; Josephine Daniels secretary, with Fred Dickson; Annie Rose Wallace, treasurer, with John Watts; Marjorie Abbey with Joe Rohan and Buddy McKay; Marie Bender with Bobby Elder; Nancy Caradine with John F. Canale; Ann Eckert with Val Huber; Margaret England with Alfred Page; Kate Scott Patterson with Albert Price; Fredricka Moore with Bill White; Jeanne Johnson with Louis Parotte; Margaret Jones with Thayer Houts; Elizabeth Jones with McKay Boswell; Mary Hunt with Charles King; Stella Jones with Hyton Neill; Mary Churchill with Billy Kelly; Jane Lederer with Cecil New; Elizabeth Henning with Woody Butler; Harriet Kimbrough, Carol Krausnick, Lucile Coleman, Nancy Donelson, Mary Elizabeth Cooper, with escorts.

Representatives are: A.O.P.I., Elizabeth Cobb; Zeta Tau Alpha, Lillie Roberts Walker; Kappa Delta, Jane Bray; Tri-Delta, Nell Thompson. Chaperons invited are: Dr. and Mrs. John Henry Davis and Dr. and Mrs. Wm. A. Atkinson.

EPISCOPAL CLUB TO MEET TUESDAY

The Episcopal Club will hold its next meeting Tuesday night with a supper at the Campus Hearth. The supper will begin at 6:30, and after it is over the club will go to the social room in Palmer Hall, where the Rev. Alfred Loaring Clark will discuss a book of current interest. The cost of the supper will be twenty-five cents apiece, and it is requested that all those who plan to come or to bring friends will pay their quarters to Janet Tucker or George Humphrey as soon as possible.

Smith Rests Peacefully

Lovers of both the plastic and the athletic arts may gaze in admiration at the cast of the facial features of Gaylon Smith, varsity halfback, reposing calmly (?) on the table in the biology research lab. The cast was made by Professor Baker.

LYNX TO HAVE CLASS PHOTOS

Editor Plans For Individual
Pictures Of All

Individual pictures, not only of the seniors, but of all classes will be included in the 1937 annual, according to Jim Merrin, editor.

Through the fraternities and sororities Merrin is planning to determine whether each student is willing to have an individual photograph made. He has sent a letter to the president of each fraternity urging that a vote be taken to ascertain how many members of that fraternity will pay for the photographs.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon, which met last Thursday, agreed to have individual photographs of each member and to pay for two pages in the annual. With these separate portraits, it is necessary for each fraternity to take two pages instead of the one. The other fraternities were expected to come to a decision at their meetings Monday and Tuesday nights.

The sororities have always had individual pictures and two pages in the annual so that the two pages for them will be the same as in years before.

With this system, the group photographs will not be necessary. The student's pictures will be included in his fraternity section, his class section, and in the section of any other organization to which he may belong.

The pictures are to be made by Avery Stratton and the price has been reduced to $1.50 because of the larger number of pictures.

JOURNAL TO BE CONSOLIDATED

Editors Decide To Publish
One Large Edition

The customary two numbers of the Southwestern Journal are to be consolidated into one large number, according to a change of plans announced by the Journal editors.

This enlarged issue is scheduled to appear about March 15, and will include a variety of matter besides short stories and poems.

It is believed that this consolidation will permit the editors to produce a Journal of more attractive and lasting form, and that the postponement of publication will allow many more students to write.

Professor A. S. McIlwaine is acting in an advisory capacity and will assist any student interested in writing for publication in the Journal.

DEBATING CLASS HAS NEW MEETING TIME

The meeting time of the debating class has been changed from Tuesday afternoon to Monday afternoon at 3:30. Offers for debates have been received from Austin Peay Normal College at Clarksville, Tenn., Springhill College at Mobile, and University of California at Berkeley. The first two of these schools will probably be met on the platform this spring.

ADRIAN McDOWELL

M'DOWELL TO FURNISH MUSIC

Continental Room Decorated
In Thanksgiving Motif

The first Men's Panhellenic formal dance of the year will be given tonight at Hotel Peabody from 9 until 1 o'clock. The Continental ballroom, which will be the scene of the dance, will be decorated in a motif carrying out the Thanksgiving theme with pumpkins, autumn leaves and corn-stalks in the corners of the room.

Music will be furnished by Adrian McDowell and his orchestra, featuring Jane Markle. This orchestra comes here direct from the Wagon Wheel in Nashville for a one night engagement only. There will be four no-breaks, two specials and a Panhellenic council leadout.

The feature of the evening will be the grand march led by Charles Taylor, president of the council, and Beatrice Spivey.

A floor committee has been appointed composed of the following men: Sam Hill, Herman Davis, John Ford Canale, Carrol Smith, Henry Walker, Norman Shapiro, Dunlap Cannon, John Watts, and Billy Betha.

Those in charge of the decorations are Fred Dickson, Jim Breytspraak, and Billy Lapsley. This committee will be assisted by Sara Gracey, Elizabeth Cobb, Nancy Warden, Helen Acroyd and Virginia Hoshall.

CHARITY DRIVE IS PROGRESSING

Committee Hopes To Reach
Goal Of $750

The Southwestern section of the Community Fund drive is progressing, satisfactorily toward the goal of $750, according to Joe Bell, student chairman of the Community Fund committee.

The drive is scheduled to end Friday, November 27th, and the committee is attempting to see every student individually before that date.

No cash check-up had been made Monday but from the number of envelopes turned in, Warren D. Howell, bookkeeper, estimated that if contributions continue as they should until Friday, the committee should have no difficulty in reaching the goal.

In the event, however, that the goal has not been attained by that time, the committee plans to send out pleas to campus organizations for amounts sufficient to make up the deficit. The "S" Club has already pledged $5.

RAILROAD PLACES ADS IN 79 PAPERS

In student newspapers of 79 colleges and universities throughout the mid-west and south, the Illinois Central System is running a series of advertisements.

The purpose of this program is to arouse the interest of youth in the railroads. It is intended here to give students an idea of the progress in transportation facilities which the railroads are making, such as streamlining, air-conditioning, and faster schedules.

JINGLES EXPRESS THANKSGIVING SENTIMENTS OF DATELESS TRIO

Please peruse this article tenderly and with understanding. It was supposed to be written on "The doings and goings-on of the socialites of Southwestern," but the more people I asked, "What are YOU doing Thanksgiving?" the less I learned. Only three people are going to be different. They are Dot Roberts, Helen Young, and Emily Lee. They fully intend, after selling the 15 hundred baby chicks they "hatched" last week-end, to go out to the city limits, sit on it, and calmly wait for the 1937 Fords to go by. By Thursday they should be medium well done or how do you like your dates? This is how they feel about Thanksgiving.

I. What's we got to be thankful for? All our lives have been trouble and sorrow. More trouble still; we have no escort—
For the Pan—of any sort—
So we thought if we advertised in the paper
We'd get one (for each of us) sooner or later.

Boys, please phone Murrayhill 8-9933;
If I'm not there, just tell my Daddy.
II. I want turkey for dessert—
I'm tired of eating that stuff first
Anyhow I saw in a newsreel where There'll be enough white meat this year for everybody.
III. Once upon a midnight dreary
I'd laid my haid down, oh so weary;
Of a sudden I heard a fearful noise,
Almost as loud as those dormitory boys . . .
Says I to me, "It couldn't be . . .
'Cause it sounds just like a wild turkey . . ."
I grabbed my gun, slapped on my shoes
I jumped out the window and lit in a tree—
Landed right beside that wild turkey . . .
He (she, it) glared at me with a baleful eye
And said "Boo."

Our Football Team

The Southwestern Lynx completed their most successful football season last Saturday in taking a 20 to 6 licking from the Praying Colonels of Centre. In a ten game schedule, they have won seven, lost two, and tied one to take second place in the Dixie Conference of which they are a member. The entire squad, including seven seniors has come through a hard schedule in a manner which makes them worthy of, and entitled to, all the praise which we may bestow upon them. On behalf of the student body, we wish to express again our appreciation for their continued effort in pushing Southwestern to a new high in the football world.

Thanksgiving Is Thanksgiving

The Sou'wester takes this opportunity to wish the student body, faculty, and staff a happy Thanksgiving. We have no doubt that everyone will enjoy the holiday. There will be plenty of pleasures for all. What with the dance tonight promising as it does to be the most brilliant event of the season, and the holiday tomorrow with turkey dinners for all, there will be few unhappy souls.

But in the midst of all these enjoyments is it not a good idea to take off enough time to remember that Thanksgiving is actually Thanksgiving? It is a good wholesome sensation for one to spend a while in meditating over the things he has to be thankful for.

We all can find plenty of things to be thankful for, even if our souls are no more profound than to be most elated over that D in biology instead of the sixth alphabetic letter which was expected. Take the fact that the football team won seven games, for instance, or that you are invited to the Chi Omega pirate party. Yes, there are many joys in any one's life. So let's all be thankful; it's a good feeling.

The Post-Season Game

The Committee on Athletics met Monday afternoon and decided that it would be inadvisable for the Southwestern football team to take part in any post-season games. Under the circumstances, we suppose that there wasn't much else for the committee to do, but we are still of the opinion that such a game would be a good thing for Southwestern. Understand, we don't say that it would be a good thing for the football players. We realize that the additional weeks of work necessary for such a venture would indeed be a heavy burden on them, but we would still like to see such a game played.

Perhaps this dream may become a reality after some future season. If so, may we be there to see it.

ON OTHER CAMPUSES

Freshmen at Southern Illinois Normal University are getting smarter with the years, according to the results of the intelligence tests given this fall. A slightly higher average is augmented by higher individual scores as compared with returns from similar tests last year and previously.

Dr. Francis Carter Wood, director of the Institute of Cancer Research at Columbia University, announced recently that an international atlas on cancer, which is expected to aid materially in prevention and treatment of the disease, will be completed in about two years.

RHODES APPLICANTS

In the fall of 1932 there passed for the year, and was elected president of the student body for his last two terms.

He was allowed to read for distinction in mathematics during his senior year, was appointed a member of the Panhellenic Council and also an applicant for a Rhodes scholarship. James Tipton Merrin has been a quiet but none the less important cog in the college wheel at Southwestern. Entering in September, 1933, he proceeded to make a numeral on the freshman football team. He pledged and was later initiated to SAE. Quietly and serenely pursuing his way, he allowed years to creep past while he laid the foundation for his success in the final years. He was a library assistant during his junior year. He was elected to the Honor Council, and ended the year with third scholastic honors.

His sophomore year was crowned by his making Stylus Club, national literary fraternity. He served as chemistry assistant during this year, and secured the above-mentioned appointment as varsity football manager. He was also editor-elect of the Sou'wester.

He was unable to return after his second year. He delayed returning for his third year until 1935. On his return he was welcomed with open arms by ATO, being elected president of that organization. He served as library assistant throughout that year, and fulfilled requirements for membership in Alpha Theta Phi, local scholastic fraternity. Later in the year he was tapped for Omicron Delta Kappa, national leadership fraternity. He acquired second scholastic honors

"Pennies From Heaven"—Malco.

A typical Bing Crosby picture, "Pennies From Heaven" has its full quota of crooning, sentimentality, and romance. Set against a background of small-town carnival life and social work, this Columbia film tells of a modern troubador and his search for happiness. Madge Evans is the glorified welfare worker who proves once more that "love is akin to hate" and ends up by becoming Bing's inspiration. Edith Fellows, the devil-child of the movies, does her part in portraying an irresistible run-away befriended by Crosby. As "Gramp," Donald Meek is dragged through the Old People's Home and out again before he has time to do much about it. The title of the show is the most unique thing about it, but on a whole it is fair and likable romance. If you have eaten too much turkey, "Pennies From Heaven" will amuse you, and still not prove dangerous to your delicate condition.

Ancestors Not Recognized

These brilliant students! Wendell Whittemore and P. S. Weaver, engaged in a heated argument concerning one of the small skeletons in the freshman biology lab, Wendell stoutly maintaining that the animal had been a domestic cat, and Pinkus no less vehemently declaiming that the tail was so long that it must have been a wildcat. And Shapiro just laughed 'cause he knew all the time that the bones were those of a monkey!

"Love on the Run"—Loew's State.

A good cast, an amusing plot, and just enough drama to spice it—"Love on the Run" contains all the essentials of a good Thanksgiving pudding. Stirred vigorously through London, Paris, and the Riviera, it turns out to be swell fare for movie-goers.

Opening with an excellent version of the "bride-ditches-groom-at-altar" situation, this MGM production tells of the bride's exciting adventures across half of Europe to escape the pursuing groom. Joan Crawford finds wide range for her talents in the role of the glamorous American heiress, and Clark Gable is better than usual as the reporter who helps her escape from the clutches of her Russian count. They swipe a special plane, only to become involved in a dangerous affair with a pair of international spies. In addition to the jilted fiancée and the spies, Franchot Tone, a rival newspaperman, has to be outwitted. Though Tone is the goat of every situation, he shines in his small comedy role and nearly steals the show. A wild jumble in which all the characters are bound and gagged in shifts adds the final comic touch.

One of the particularly amusing scenes take place when Joan and Clark seek refuge in the Fountainbleau Palace near Paris, where they are mistaken for the ghosts of Louis XIV and his mistress by the superstitious night-watchman.

COMPETITION FOR COACH HUG FOUND

A running mate for Coach Hug has been found. The fact that Alexander Franklin Wojciechowicz, Fordham's brilliant center, was such an insignificant high school freshman that his coach refused him a uniform is only one odd item about him.

Five feet eleven, and 192 pounds, he plays a bruising game and is hailed by some critics as the greatest center in Fordham grid history. One of Wojciechowicz' hobbies is crocheting. When at home, he often helps his mother make rag rugs. He likes to cook, too.

But if you think that his crocheting and cooking make him soft, just talk to a few of the centers he has faced.

Set on "Three Men on a Horse" and be at the finish line when this hilarious comedy of "Oiwin," the marvel of the age, wins the laugh Sweepstakes of the year.

"Three Men on a Horse"—Warner.

"Three Men on a Horse" will undoubtedly prove the white meat of the entire appetizing Thanksgiving array of Memphis movies. Film-fans will sink their teeth into this picture and declare it the farce of the year as soon as they can stop laughing. Taken from a stage play of the same name, it owes much of its success to Frank McHugh who piles up laughs as "Oiwin" as the Brooklyn mob called him. Joan Blondell and Guy Kibbee are only two of the exceptional supporting cast.

"Oiwin" wrote sugary verses for Mother's Day cards and was a model bridegroom, but—every time he tried his luck at picking horses, the book-makers had strokes of financial apoplexy. Lured from home by big-time gamblers and a blonde vamp, he made millions for the mob, by his long shots and nearly wrecked the betting industry. Finally he forgot about races and went back to his rhymes and the arms of his neglected bride. The audience is left to pick itself up out of the aisle and tape its aching sides.

Set on "Three Men on a Horse" and be at the finish line when this hilarious comedy of "Oiwin," the marvel of the age, wins the laugh Sweepstakes of the year.

MONA MONKEY
"Sees all evil—hears all evil—prints all evil"

The Dean of Women is really living up to his title, what with making all the sorority functions this season. What will the week-end bring forth? . . . Have you noticed Courtney White's new accent?

Freshman Page went Sir Walter two better—he carried brother Alfred over the mud puddle . . . Warren Prewitt played electrician at the Zeta dance . . . H. G. Robinson has a rah-rah club for men only. It's exclusive, so you'd better join now while you can.

We were afraid Howard McKenzie's broad smile would disappear since those 8:30 'phone conversations ceased, but 't'other P.M. the space outside Sasser's door was again occupied by our male Mona Lisa.

The song, "P. S., I Love You," has been conspicuously unsung recently . . . Side-show: Chilly Breeze, the domestic cat, peers out the window. Dean Page, the wildcat, prances on the fence. Amid a confusion of yowls, the argument rages. Wildcat wants to play—housecat doesn't wanna.

A break in the dark: Shapiro cuts in on Evelyn Hurst. The latter: "My, how you've changed." . . . Jim Breyt-spraak's favorite dish is stewed tomatoes . . . How about V. Dilatush at the Zeta dance? . . . Who kicked a football through Dr. Diehl's window?

The K. A. ping-pong table-top was captured at the far end of the field, but the legs escaped with the net. All students please be on the lookout. Shapiro's ushers shouldn't have any trouble locating legs after Wednesday and Thursday nights.

A shady lane, rose-tinted clouds above . . . oops, a delegation of some dozen students with murder in their eyes is heading in my direction . . . to be continued next week.

S'WESTERN REPRESENTATIVES ARE "HIT-PARADE" INCARNATED

Your roving reporter has uncovered great musical talent. Did you ever stop to think how many of your "Hit Parade" is represented right here on this campus?

The first person I stumble upon is Beatrice Spivey who reminds me of "If I Had a Million Dollars." Then comes Ann Potts, "You Do the Darndest Things." Down toward the bookstore I see "Stardust" Foley and Sam Mays "I Got the Jitters." Across the campus walks Leon Jones, the typical "Did You Ever See a Dream Walking." Going then to the football field I find that "Stars Fell on Alabama" and they are well represented in Morton, Jennings, Dabbs, Self, Bergfeld, McKenzie, Ashley, Chappel, Parker, etc. Henry Hammond "I'm Wild about Animal Crackers." And I can certainly believe that after the way he has eaten up the opposing teams this year.

"A Little Bit Later On" I run into Carter, "Pardon My Southern Accent" and Charley Taylor, "Don't Blame Me," but "I'd Rather Lead a Band." Then Gene Grissom, our "Sonny Boy" and Sasser, "I'm a Ding Dong Daddy from Dumas." I wonder if Val Huber misses "The Sidewalks of New York" and there's Nan Bloodworth, typical "Glad Rag Doll."

"Oh, My Goodness," have you heard? Smithwick is taking horse-back riding lessons. No doubt, she and "Empty Saddles" would go nicely together. A little freshette was overheard to say, "You Are My Lucky STAR." She replied, when asked of whom she was speaking, "I'm Talking to Myself" but about George Jennings.

"Soon," upon my vision strolls Wark Archer, "Lost," but "Don't Let It Bother You," Ward. Remember, "You've Got Everything." Shirley Scarborough, "A Rendezvous With a Dream," "Until the Real Thing Comes Along." Laughlin, "Sophisticated Lady" and Warden "Lovely Lady."

Now, I am approaching Buchman and Smith and my first thought is "I'm Putting All My Eggs in One Basket." "Remember, It's a Sin to Tell a Lie."

Billy Lapsley is my impression of "Just a Gigolo" and Marion Keisker, "A Rhapsody in Blue." Billy Smith "Orchids to You" but Vera Denton "It's Been So Long." (How about another one, Billy?) . . . Humko, "It's Wonderful" (or should I say "He's Wonderful").

Who would "Stay As Sweet As You Are" fit better than Margaret Kyle? and can't you just see Jane Bray "On a Bicycle Built for Two?" And then there's Carroll Smith looking for "Pennies From Heaven."

"Okay, Toots," this is the "Last Round-Up." Approaching is Varner, "I'll Never Let You Go" (how about it, Elizabeth?) "Remember," Bob Leake's theme song for so long, "I Won't Dance." Helen Graham, "You're Lovely to Look At." Dorothy Steuwer, "Life Is a Song," and W. Worthington, "The Organ Grinder's Swing." Alice Hagler, "The Girl With the Dreamy Eyes"; Breytspraak, "I Can't Give You Anything But Love."

Tully and Cavender, "A Fine Romance," Pletchnow, "I'll String Along With You," and last but not least, Bob Armstrong, "Have You Ever Been Lonely?" "Please Believe Me" "It's No Fun," "Bring Back My Betty to Me," "Keep the Home Fires Burning," "Bye, Bye, Baby."

PICK-UP AND DELIVERY

HERE'S A PLAY with punch and results—a winning touchdown combination for the railroads! It has to do with the handling of less-than-carload or package freight. Some railroads have gone into motor trucking. Others have developed large metal containers that can be swung on and off flat cars. Others have provided rail transfer for loaded trucks or trailers. ● All have combined at length in offering a complete free pick-up and delivery service, using motor trucks to and from freight stations. This reduces inter-city trucking and assures railway responsibility for the whole movement at no increase over the previously existing rate for the rail part of the movement alone. ● The Illinois Central pioneered among the railroads in giving free pick-up and delivery universal application. This railroad also led in offering less-than-carload freight service via passenger train at freight rates, in providing free pick-up at the feed-lot for livestock awaiting consolidation into carloads for movement to market, in establishing overnight freight service between points as far apart as Chicago and Memphis. ● In such ways an alert railroad makes its own "breaks" for the touchdown that insures victory in business.

REMINDER . . .
Modern railroads operate on definite principles—principles which have been developed by sifting theories through facts.

One major railway principle is this—it pays to please the public. Investments in convenience, comfort, safety, speed are sound investments.

As users of railway service and as the educational beneficiaries of railway taxes and security endowments, young people should find much of interest in the applied theories of our progressive railroads.

KITTY CARLISLE IN RADIO DEBUT

To Make Guest Appearance With Ed Wynn

Ed Wynn will present Kitty Carlisle, charming brunette star of the screen and stage, as the guest artist on the opening program of his new series with Graham McNamee and Don Voorhees' orchestra over WMC on Thursday, December 3, at 7:00 p.m. During vocal numbers Wynn will accompany her at the piano.

Miss Carlisle, who is currently appearing in the Broadway musical extravaganza, "White Horse Inn," will not only demonstrate her ability as a leading soprano but will also play opposite the Perfect Fool in an original drama of his own concoction. Screen audiences will remember her work in such hits as "A Night at the Opera" with the Marx Brothers, "Here Is My Heart," "She Loves Me Not" and "Murder at the Vanities."

Born at New Orleans, the attractive singing-actress prepared for her career with an elaborate European education. She studied for several years in both France and Switzerland. Her first roles upon her return to the United States were in "Rio Rita," and later in "Champagne Sec."

Blossoming out as a radio pianist will find Wynn exhibiting talent in a field not usually associated with his hisping, fluttery-voiced characterizations. As a matter of fact, the piano is but one of half a dozen instruments he plays capably.

HEART EFFICIENCY

Chicago, Ill.—(ACP)—To the writer of romantic poetry, it might seem sacrilegious to call the human heart an efficient blood-pumping machine.

Be that as it may, Prof. Maurice B. Visscher of the University of Minnesota medical school told the opening session of the autumn meeting of the National Academy of Sciences that the heart is just about twice as efficient, in regard to fuel economy, as modern steam or gasoline engines.

WHAT CHARITY MEANS

"Charity is important to us as students. You notice that I think of myself as a student, just as you are, for this is one of the greatest pleasures which I have in being here. The very essence of the student's progress toward knowledge is freedom from prejudice. That is charity; to take the facts of the case as they are, to receive them with an open mind, and to draw your conclusions from them." Colonel Amos W. W. Woodcock, president of St. John's College, explains that the mind should be open wide enough to allow preconceived ideas to escape and make room for honestly appraised facts.

Campus Mystery

Don your billed caps and get out your magnifying glasses, all you amateur Sherlock Holmes. There is a real mystery of a week's standing still unsolved.

The Kappa Alpha's ping pong table got the wanderlust and waltzed out of the house. Only clue so far was the discovery of part of the top lying alone way out on the back campus. Dr. Baker's confession is thought to be a fake. He is probably shielding someone.

BIG FACTOR IN COACHING IS LUCK

"The element of luck is a bigger factor in the success or failure of a football coach than in any other occupation I can think of. A coach works a whole year to build up his team for a 'crucial' game. He develops a strong player for every position and plenty of reserves, if he has the material. And then zowie! Fate jumps up and hits him in the neck. A fumble, a bad bounce of a football, a bad piece of judgment by the quarterback, a momentary malfeasance by a player who has been carefully coached to do the right thing and the game is lost and with it sometimes the coach's reputation." Coach Gus Dorais of the University of Detroit believes the breaks can make the scales go either way.

MEN NEEDED

Connecticut College is joining hands with Wesleyan University this year as far as drama is concerned. The former school, a women's college, has had to cast females in all roles in the past. With cooperation from Wesleyan men, the performances should be more realistic.

MUSIC OF POETRY

Donald A. Smalley, instructor of English at Indiana University, thinks that the poetry of John Donne and Robert Browning presents the "effect of the alarm clock and not of the harp, or of 'Wagner rather than Mozart.'"

A FAIR TEST

The new piano in the Union music room at Purdue University was chosen by the blindfold test. Seventeen musically inclined people sitting behind a screen voted on the different makes by "hear" and eliminated the less desirable instruments.

The only useful resolutions are those which one can have an interest in breaking.—H. C. Bailey. Surely imagination and not fear lifted man above the animals.—G. W. S. Brewer.

Intramural News

The intramural basketball season will swing into being Friday night when the Sigma Alpha Epsilon squad will tackle the goal tossers of the ATO's. The tournament will be of the round robin type, in contrast to the elimination brand of previous tourneys.

The scores for the first four events of the year show the Kappa Sigs leading the pack with a comfortable lead of over twice the score of the runner-up team, the KA's. Trailing in order are the Sigma Nu's, PiKA's, SAE's, and ATO's. The non-frats have the distinction of being the only team on the red side of the ledger, having a total of minus 7 points.

NEW RACKETS

"Rags, rags, old newspapers." Girls at New Jersey College for Women don't actually go around from house to house shouting for old rubbish, but they do save it.

In order to boost their gym fund, they sell all rags and newspapers that would otherwise collect nothing but dust. A while ago they put their gym fund back on the "silver-paper" standard by collecting tinfoil from candy bars, gum, and other articles, taking in $9.66 from this venture.

When Louisiana State University's new mascot, "Mike," a $750 tiger cub, came to town, he was met at the station by the 200 piece band. The parade through the campus included scores of cars and even a garbage wagon to add color to the procession.

TO NAME PLANTS

Ten undergraduate students working under Josephine E. Tilden, professor of botany at the University of Minnesota, have the trying task of finding names for 100,000 plants never previously classified.

Father—Why are you so far behind in your studies, my son? Holloway—So that I may pursue them, father.

WEBSTER IS POOR MATHEMATICIAN

Urbana, Ill.—(ACP)—The charge of inaccuracy made by Dr. George A. Miller, professor of mathematics at the University of Illinois, against 11 mathematical definitions in Webster's New International Dictionary has the nation's lexicographers talking overtime these days.

Among the definitions challenged by Professor Miller are those of the following terms: "spherical excess," "primitive group," "dicyclic group," "binomial theorem," "dyhedral group," "metacyclic," "transitive group," "permutabile," "group of an equation," "group of function," and "hexagram." Professor Miller alleges he found in addition, two alleged errors of fact in the biographical date on two mathematicians and an error of omission in leaving out the name of Evariste Galois, whom he describes as "one of the most noted French mathematicians."

JUST FRESHMAN

A germ of communism in the matter of lockers has shown itself on the campus of Texas Christian University. Five freshmen sharing a one-foot wide locker have jammed 18 textbooks, eight notebooks, two coats, and seven pencils into the cubicle.
