Edwin Kubale Is New Lynx Football Head

Was Head Coach At Centre
College For Eight Years

SUCCEEDS R. C. PROPST

Comes to Memphis Jan. 24
To Meet Lynx Officials

Southwestern's new football coach is Edwin Kubale from Centre College in Danville, Kentucky.

Kubale's selection was announced last Saturday after some five weeks of interviewing a wide array of prospects by a special Selection Committee. Kubale was tendered a three-year contract and will assume the coaching reins here on March 1.

Pivot For Centre

Kubale is a native of Fort Smith, Ark., and matriculated at Centre in 1920. He played the pivot position for four years with the Prayin' Colonels and was a member of the great Centre team that beat Harvard 6 to 0. After that game, Charlie Moran, then Centre coach, called Kubale "the greatest center in all football history."

Kubale's first coaching was at Texas Christian where he was assistant to Line-Coach Matty Bell. In 1929, he returned to his alma mater to become head coach there. In his eight year reign at Centre, Kubale's teams won better than 80 per cent of their games.

Single Wing-Back

Kubale uses a single wing-back attack with slight variations. He will come to Memphis on January 24 for a brief visit to meet Southwestern officials and the Lynx gridders. The Fumble Club will fete him with a luncheon that day.

New Service Is Offered

Lynx Lair Will Take Orders; Radio To Be Installed

With the opening of the Lynx Lair after the holidays, a new type of service is being offered to the students of Southwestern. No longer will a selection be confined to the prepared dishes found on the steam tables. Salads and sandwiches will be made to order and the prices, as in the past, will be most reasonable.

A radio will be placed in the Lair very shortly and smoking will be permitted.

Rachel Beasley, cashier and student manager, will welcome suggestions and criticisms. "The cafeteria is operated for the convenience of the Memphis students and their support and cooperation is earnestly sought," C. L. Springfield, bursar, said Tuesday.

TERPSICHORE REPLACES SUZIE Q. AS DIVERSION OF EDS AND CO-EDS

The day has passed when Southwestern students could be accused of lack of interest in the 'higher things of life!' Joe College and Betty Co-Ed have now gone in for culture and aesthetics! Witness the Ballet Russe at the Auditorium last Monday night. The campus heroes turned out with dates, putting out their shakels for terpsichorean instead of Suzie-Q's. Many of the co-eds turned down parlor and picture show dates to go en masse.

Several of the students even went so far as to join the cast! Thomas McLemore played the part of a soldier. He wore a beard, a helmet, carried a shield, and marched across the stage! Too bad he had no opportunity to display those histrionic talents that won him the title of "Freshest Freshman" two years ago.

Courtney Rettger portrayed a peasant dressed in orange with a bright handkerchief upon her head. Hers was quite an important role for she had THREE things to do! First, she came on the stage and beckoned to someone in the wings. Secondly, she came out to weep for the king who was dead. And then she helped pull the king's bed off the stage.

English and Economics Are Favorite Majors

Politics appeals to juniors according to figures obtained from the office. Twenty-seven juniors are majoring in economics, 23 prefer history, and 10 take to political science. English, however, remains the favorite, with 83 students selecting it for their major.

Biology has 17 majoring in it, 18 in chemistry, 65 in economics, 5 in French, 3 in Greek, 40 in history, 4 in Latin, 22 in math, 4 in music, 5 in philosophy, 2 in physics, 18 in political (Continued on Page 3)

Campus Groups Support Annual

10 Guarantee $4 Per Member
To Cover Complete Cost;

"All of the fraternities and sororities except one have approved the new plan for financing the Lynx," Gerald Burrow, editor, announced Tuesday.

Acceptance of the proposition guarantees the Lynx a fee of $4 per member for which each organization will be given $40 worth of space in the annual. This $4 fee from each member will include payment for an annual and the cost of having individual photographs made.

In reference to the pictures, Burrow stated that each organization will be assigned a week in which its members will have their pictures taken. He asks the cooperation of each organization in order to prevent any waste of time.

All those who would like to apply for places on the staffs should see Editor Gerald Burrow or Sam Hill, business manager.

Photographs for the Annual will be made by Avery N. Stratton, and the engraving will be done by the Bluff City Engraving Co.

Formerly the fee was $3 for the Annual, $1.50 for the picture and $40 for each of the fraternities and sororities to have a page in the Annual.

Frank Campbell and Henry Mobley have been appointed assistant editors and Ward Archer will be a special sports writer. Sam Hill, business manager, has chosen Majorie DeVal and Robert Montgomery as circulation managers.

The selections for the beauty section of the Lynx will be made in the latter part of February in connection with the new Southwestern Players production, "The Fallen Saved or the Drunkard".

PROF. TUTHILL SPEAKS

Prof. Burnet C. Tuthill, director of music at Southwestern, gave his second in a series of four lectures at Brooks Memorial Art Gallery Wednesday night. His topic was "A Brief Survey of the Main Essentials of the History of Music."

KAPPA DELTAS TO ENTERTAIN WITH DANCE TOMORROW NIGHT

Celebrating the new year with a New Leaf dance, Alpha Delta chapter of Kappa Delta sorority will entertain in honor of its pledges from 8 until 12 o'clock tomorrow night.

The Kappa Delta lodge will be the scene of the party and will be decorated in green and silver leaves. On the wall opposite the fire place will hang a large K. D. emblem fashioned of leaves.

Invitations written on green leaves have been extended to the fraternity and non-fraternity groups. Bill Hardwick and his orchestra will play. A Kappa Delta trio singing the sorority song, "Roses of Picardy," will be featured during the leadout.

Bess Brazell, president of the active chapter, will receive the guests with Hal Claffey, and Jean Walton, president of the pledge group, will receive with John Spence.

Other members of the sorority who will be present with their escorts are: Jane Bray with B. A. Brady, Elizabeth Day with William McBurney, Ruth Gaskell with Wallace Mayton, Priscilla Schumaker with John Bagner, Ann Spence with James Powell, Deola White with Steve Frazier, Patty James with Harris Patton, Mary

College of Music Gains Recognition

Affiliate of Southwestern Joins the National Association of Music Schools

The Memphis College of Music, affiliated with Southwestern, was elected to membership in the National Association of Schools of Music at the annual meeting last month in Pittsburgh.

The national association is the official accrediting agency in music for the United States. It is the authority on music education for all colleges which are members of the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools and on independent schools of music approved by the State Board of Education.

The association was formed in 1924, with 20 members, and now includes more than 80 outstanding schools and departments. Prof. Burnet C. Tuthill, who is director of the College of Music, has been secretary of the association since its organization.

The College of Music became affiliated with Southwestern in 1936. Southwestern students for a major in music receive part of their instruction at the College of Music, and students in the music school are given credit for courses taken at Southwestern. Through this membership, Southwestern will receive the benefits of the National Association of Schools of Music.

Debate Team Plans Trips

Freshmen Will Debate In Little Rock
And Conway

The debating team has two trips planned in the near future, announced Prof. C. P. Lee Tuesday. The freshman team, whose class meets every Thursday night with Herbert Bingham, H. R. Holcomb, and Steve Frazier, will make trips to Little Rock and Conway, Ark.

There will be a trip for the upperclassmen in March. On March 24 they will debate Swarthmore College of Swarthmore, Penn., on the advisability of extending the tutorial courses.

Sigma Upsilon Meets

Nash Buckingham Speaks On Future
Of Writing

The Stylus chapter of Sigma Upsilon, honorary literary fraternity, met Thursday, Jan. 6, in the Bell Room.

Nash Buckingham, well-known Memphis sporting story writer, was the speaker. He discussed the future of writing as a profession and the best technique of sport stories.

The talk was followed by a forum in which all members took part. The group plans to have several other Memphis writers to speak.

After the discussion refreshments were served. H. R. Holcomb, president, presided at the meeting.

Representatives from other sororities who will attend with their escorts are: Chi Omega, Minna Deen Jones with Frank England; Alpha Omicron Pi, Courtney Rettger with George Humphrey; Delta Delta Delta, Marion Dickson with Richard Chauncey; and Zeta Tau Alpha, Frances Walker with Bonner Ragland and Fred Walker.

Bids have been sent to the Kappa Delta chapters at the Universities of Kentucky, Mississippi, Tennessee, and Millsaps College.

Members of the faculty who have been invited to chaperon are: President and Mrs. Charles E. Diehl, Dean and Mrs. A. T. Johnson, Dr. and Mrs. C. L. Townsend, Dr. and Mrs. W. R. Atkinson, Dr. and Mrs. J. Henry Davis, and Prof. and Mrs. B. C. Tuthill.

Bridge Players Enter 2nd Round

Another Contest Is Planned For Second Semester; Prizes
Are Offered

The bridge tournament, sponsored by Eldridge Armistead, began the second round yesterday. The 15 couples entered played 3000 points in the first round, and must play 4000 points or four out of seven rubbers in the second. In the semi-finals and finals, the winner must get 5000 points. Prizes will be awarded to the winners.

Contestants are Elizabeth Jones and Jim Breyspraak; Rose Lynn Barnard and Dick Jones; Lucille Coleman and Hubert Turley; Martha Ann Moore and Art Pople; Mary Elizabeth Harsh and H. R. Holcomb; Linda Catherine Terry and Ralph Turley; Mary Hunt and Shepherd Tate; Margaret Kyle and Sam Mays; Anne Potts and Maccon Smith; Louise Jennings and Sam Carter; Nancy Donelson and Waddy West; Anne Tuthill and Buddy Miller; Frances Manire and Lewis Donelson; Mary Churchill and Bob Montgomery; Martha Ann Kelso and Donald Ross.

It is planned to have another tournament after the beginning of the next semester.

Special Meeting Planned

Herbert Harper Will Lecture On
"Spain Today"

The Spanish Club will sponsor a special meeting in Hardie Auditorium at 4:45 o'clock next Thursday, Prof. Martin W. Storn announced. Herbert Harper, Memphis attorney and professional lecturer, will speak on the topic, "Spain Today", dealing especially with the present revolution. Mr. Harper has specialized in the study of European countries. His lecture will supplement the speech given by Prof. Storn at the last meeting of the club on Spain up to the present time.

Before the lecture a program of Spanish songs and Mexican folk-dances will be given by members of the Spanish Club. All students interested are invited to attend this program.

Co-eds Will Be In Revue

Five Women to Model Resort Wear and Spring Fashions

A group of Southwestern co-eds will model in the annual cruise revue presented by Levy's Ladies' Toggery today in the main dining room of the Hotel Peabody at 1 o'clock. Those who will be models are Jane Bray, Shirley Scarborough, Mary Thweat, Lillie Roberts Walker and Hazel Jane Ward.

The revue will feature attractive apparel for cruise, resort and the beach. There will also be shown a group of spring fashions. Most of the fashions will feature soft blues which are the most popular colors for Southern resort wear.

Prominent Educator Discusses Athletics

New Orleans.—(ACP)—The National Collegiate Athletic Association heard recently a prominent educator declare it is impossible to eliminate commercialism in college athletics.

Dr. John J. Tigert, president of the University of Florida, told delegates to the annual N. C. A. A. convention he had concluded "prohibition of emoluments to athletes is as impossible as prohibition of the consumption of intoxicating liquors."

Dr. Tigert made the address at the Southwestern Century Club's dinner in Neely Hall last fall.

Thirteen Attend Youth Convention

Presbyterian Meeting Attracts
Over 1400 Young People;
Discuss Missions

Thirteen students of Southwestern attended the Presbyterian Youth Convention on World Missions held Dec. 28-30 in the First Presbyterian Church, Atlanta, Georgia. The convention, held under the auspices of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, U. S., attracted over 1400 young people from various parts of the South.

Herbert Bingham, Betty Wells, Dorothy Givens, and Tom Mobley represented the college at the meeting. The Rev. S. E. Howie, director of public relations, was the faculty representative.

Other students who attended as delegates from the various Presbyterian churches of Memphis included Marion Dickson, Eugene Keller, Bob Sidentopf, Virginia Ragsdale, John Pond, Tom Simpson, Georgiana Awwumb, Walter Hall and George Jackson.

The convention program consisted of addresses by outstanding religious leaders, panel discussions, and discussion groups. The theme, "Facing Our World with the Living Christ", was carried out in the program for the three-day meeting. The purpose of the meeting, according to the Rev. Wallace M. Alston, convention director, was to present the challenge of missions to the youth of the church.

Among the speakers were Dr. John A. Mackay, president of Princeton Theological Seminary, Dr. Oscar Blackwelder of Washington, D. C., and Dr. C. Darby Fulton, foreign mission secretary of the Presbyterian Church. Also included among those speaking were two Southwestern alumni, the Rev. R. P. Richardson, missionary to China, and Dr. W. V. Gardner, pastor of the host church.

PRESIDENT TO SPEAK

President Charles E. Diehl will deliver the opening address at the meeting of the National Association of Biblical Instructors in Chicago on Jan. 17. While in Chicago he will also attend the meeting of the Association of American Colleges, Jan. 20-24.

MAGAZINES IN LIBRARY PROVIDE EVIDENCE OF "STUDENT APPEAL"

The library is such an interesting joint, it's difficult to stay away, especially since there are not only stacks of books and people up there but also magazines. A fellow has to buy a Wild West Story but that's about the one and only Miss Marsh doesn't have in stock.

"Magazines are veritable storehouses", once said an Elizabethan gentleman, and at that time he spoke as much truth as he knew. Then there were no penny presses and so the printing world was safe for autocracy. But today's, and Southwestern's students' favorite magazines are numerous and democratic. Life, for instance, is the busiest piece in the library. Everybody thumbs it, and carelessly tosses it aside. You can tell at a glance the dog-eared Athletic Journal is a "take". These two magazines have qualities that draw idlers to them like the "ole swimmin' hole" on a July day.

With photography being so rapidly developed and commercialized, magazines containing information and illustrations concerning cameras and picture-taking, are widely read. Spec-

Student Council Sets Point Limit Over Activities

System Restricts Students
In Extra-Curriculars

TO SUPERVISE DANCES

Committee Is Appointed,
Rules Adopted

To restrict activities of campus leaders, a limit of 50 activity points was set by the Student Council which adopted the new point system at a meeting in the Bell Room of Neely Hall Wednesday. This plan has been suggested several times in the past and will go into effect next fall.

The constitution of the commission to regulate conduct at student dances was presented to the council by Herbert Bingham. Members of the commission appointed by Clark McDonald were Eldridge Armistead, Jim Breyspraak, George Jennings, Lewis Donelson, Fred Dickson, Herbert Bingham, Charles Blackburn, Sam Hill, George Griesbeck, and Chester Carden.

April Fool Carnival

Henry Mobley was named chairman of a committee to make plans for the April Fool Carnival. Other members of the body are Bernadine Taylor, Ward Archer, and Elizabeth Cobb.

The council learned that Mrs. Anna Hyatt Huntington who had been asked to execute a bronze lynx for the campus, while interested in the idea, could not undertake it at present because of ill health.

Omicron Delta Kappa, which is in charge of the proposed fraternity road, reported that it has brought the matter to the attention of the city authorities.

Sam Hill, president of the Student Service Club, announced that present sales of the student directory have amounted to $33.80. The Service Club, he said, hopes to bring the total up to $50.

YWCA Holds Last Meet

Cabinet Plans Membership Campaign
To Start New Semester

The Y. W. C. A. held its last supper meeting of the semester Wednesday night in Neely Hall. Emmie Vida Slaughter, Margaret England, and Betsy Fowler were on the program, which was under the direction of Frances Gladney.

The membership campaign for the second semester will be opened the first week of the new term, Dorothy Givens, president, announced. Plans were discussed in a meeting of the cabinet held in Mrs. Charles E. Diehl's apartment Monday afternoon.

tacular front covers figure largely in their appeal to this public e.g. January Popular Photography with semi-nude Ina Ray Hutton posing for candid camera shots. Hot stuff for the over-worked student.

Sundry deserving and quiet magazines are not neglected, though. The very tattered condition of the "Book Digest", the "American Mercury", "Time" edition, and the "Readers Digest" attest their popularity and usefulness. Most indispensable on the magazine shelf are foreign publications. These also prove helpful in making Prof. Boeker feel at home. A glance around revealed "Fortune" in the hands of Russell Peete, C. Sharp playing with "Trombone", Jane Lederer getting a kick out of "Punch", and Skinny Roth meditating over the "New Yorker". We might mention, in leaving, the splendid assortment of political, scientific, and economic magazines.

We left fingermarks in the dust on the "Journal of Higher Education" and the "Missionary Review of the World" showed no sign of disturbed slumber.—A. P.

A Tribute To the Library

Consistent excellence because it is consistent sometimes goes unnoticed. As far as many Southwesterners are concerned this is true of the library which is too often taken for granted as that place on the third floor that stays open from 9 o'clock in the morning until 10 at night.

Since the library is certainly the outstanding feature of Southwestern it ought to come in for praise now and then, it might be bragged about occasionally and it certainly should be held in respect (though not in awe). Several alumni studying in seminaries and other graduate schools have made the statement that the Southwestern library was what they missed most. Prof. Boeker who has just left Oxford and has studied in other European universities was impressed more by the library than by any other part of the college. He immediately pronounced it "frightfully good."

The library in September contained 40,500 volumes. It is being increased at the rate of about 2,000 or 3,000 a year through the college's own funds and until last year through two grants, one for $10,000 from the Carnegie foundation and another for $3,000. There is space now for only a few thousand more books and within about two years some of the books will either have to be stored or a new library building constructed.

The library subscribes to a wide range of periodicals and is quick to order the latest books in all fields.

The staff, too, impresses us as being outstanding. Besides Miss Mary Marsh, the head librarian, and Miss Cornelia Murfree, her assistant, there is a capable group of student library workers. James Carpenter, William Kelly, Hylton Neill, Margaret Stockard, David Osborn, Tom Mobley, Mildred Carney, Katherine McCulloch and Henry Turner are always ready and willing to go to the last row in the last stack three times in ten minutes for any student.

Second Play Is Chosen

"The Fallen Saved, or the Drunkard" Will Cast Fifteen

"The Fallen Saved, or the Drunkard", Prof. C. P. Lee announced Tuesday is the name of the second play that the dramatic club will give. The play is a melodrama. Tryouts for the cast which will consist of 15 players will be held the second week of February.

Psychologist Reveals Woman's Duplicity

Chicago, Ill.—(ACP)—According to a Loyola University psychologist, Dr. Alexander A. Schneiders, the bachelor girl who tells you that she simply loves her work and wouldn't think of leaving for home or family, is kidding at least 50 per cent of the time.

"It goes back to Freud's theory of the free will," he said, "The girl may have had a frustrated love affair, she may fear that the man she marries will dominate her or she may have half a dozen other reasons, all in her subconscious mind, and none of which she will admit."

"The chances are that she will say she simply is not interested in men or perhaps that the right man never came along. In her case no man would be the right man."

Harvard Honors Cannon

Graduate Is Chosen For Membership In Law Society

Dunlap Cannon, a graduate of June, 1937, was selected as one of the 24 students of Harvard Law School for membership in an honorary society which has been named for the vicedean of the school, Calvert Magruder. Eight members from each of the three classes are chosen for their reasoning ability and meet on equal terms with the faculty.

While a student here, Cannon was Tennessee intercollegiate singles tennis champion, president of the Publications Board, a member of Omicron Delta Kappa, and a member of Alpha Tau Omega fraternity.

RECORDS MUST BE CLEAR The library record of each student at Southwestern must be clear before he will be allowed to take his semester examinations. Miss Mary Marsh, librarian, requests that all fines be paid as soon as possible.

Prof. A. S. McIlwaine attended the meeting of the Modern Language Association in Chicago during the Christmas holidays.

Alpha Epsilon of Kappa Alpha initiated Neal Brien, Walter Hall, and Pyne Tucker on Dec. 20.

SOUTHWESTERN REPORTER FINDS GOOD FIELD FOR LIBRARIANS

(Ed. Note: This is the first in a series of vocational interviews with various representative professional men of Memphis. Most of the articles will deal with uncrowded fields.)

By ROTHROCK MILLER

"Librarianship offers college graduates a stimulating, constructive, and highly useful life work," said Mr. Jesse Cunningham, head librarian of the Cossitt Library, when interviewed Monday. "It is a field that is not crowded and offers a position to every up-and-coming young man or young woman who has had adequate training."

Requirements for library work are quite as important as those for any other profession. One desiring to take up librarianship must have a pleasing personality, and must be accurate, intelligent and neat.

The preparation generally required is a college degree supplemented by at least one year's study in a library school. The college work should include a good background in history and literature, and a working knowledge of foreign languages and science.

Among the varied types of work are the county librarian, the circulation librarian, the reference librarian, the children's librarian and the school librarian.

"For a library school graduate $1000-$1200 is the most usual beginning salary, and after two or three years of experience $1500-$1800. Salaries of $2500-$3000 are common in the higher executive and administrative positions. Librarians of large public and university libraries receive generally from $4000-$10,000, and some are receiving more," said Mr. Cunningham.

The average librarian works about forty-two hours a week. Vacations are usually about one month.

The library profession is uncrowded. The demand, especially for men who are qualified workers, is daily becoming more urgent. Unusual opportunities are in prospect for students of vision and ability who possess qualities of leadership. The able librarian has no difficulty in securing positions. At least two Southwestern alumni,

Commercial Appeal Photo Jesse Cunningham

Edmund McGiveran and Albert Johnson, are now actively and successfully engaged in the profession. McGiveran is head of a library in New Orleans at a salary of $4000 a year and Johnson is head of the reference department of the Cossitt Library.

Collegians of Today Are More Studious

St. Louis, Mo.—(ACP)—College students of today are more studious than their prototypes of ten years ago and less given to religious skepticism, drinking and moral infraction, adult leaders of the National Methodist Student conference believe.

Improvement in the moral tone of college life over that of the "too-leg era" was noted by Dr. Hiel D. Bollinger of Chicago.

He said the chance was strikingly evidenced by the increased proportion of students working their way through college and by the interest of students in social questions.

"There is now," he said, "about as much drinking among students as among the public in general. In fact, students constitute a pretty good cross-section of the average citizenship."

Dr. Bollinger believed the "jazz element" of the 1920's was "always overplayed" although the sobering atmosphere of the depression had turned students from drinking and other frivolities to serious problems.

According to the State Teachers College "Tiger Rag", the perfect new story is not "Man bites dog" but "Bull shoots professor".

Big Apple and Shag Are Favorite Dances Of Modern Collegians

The Collegiate Shag is near the top among the season's popular ballroom dances, reports Thomas E. Parson, widely known dancing master whose "Popular Ballroom Dances" has just been published.

Mr. Parson also finds The Big Apple and the Manhattan Strut as highly popular currently with those who prefer the more lively, eccentric styles and the Rumba, The Parisian Tango, the modern Waltz and the Fox Trot as those having the biggest appeal to conservative dancers.

According to Mr. Parson, the various types of dancing are basically an interpretation of the music being played. The past year or two has brought a radical change in the trend not only of the so-called "trick" dances but in the conservative styles as well. Principal influence has been the effect of "swing" music on the movement of the body—the swiny effect of our present-day dance tunes "doing something" to the dancer with an inclination and the ability to answer to the dictates of the music played.

"Don't strangle your partner," is the first rule of dance etiquette, writes Mr. Parson. A "strong" lead does not necessarily mean that the man should grab his partner around the waist with a strangle hold. His lead can be just as strong if she is permitted to dance well away from him. The man's right hand is placed at an advantageous spot between his partner's shoulders and waistline. The lady's left hand should rest lightly on her partner's right shoulder with her left forearm following the line of his upper right arm. His left and the lady's right hand may or may not be joined, according to the style of dancing adopted.

Speaking of the Rumba, Mr. Parson states, "Its distinguishing feature is a slightly exaggerated movement of the hips which if executed in true Rumba fashion does not cause obvious reaction above the hips."

Georgia Gets 2 Rhodes Scholars

Students From Virginia, Florida, Also Chosen By Committee In Elimination Dec. 20

Representatives from Georgia, Virginia, and Florida were selected in the Rhodes Scholarship final competition held in Atlanta on Dec. 20. Prof. John H. Davis, of the history department, was a member of the final committee of three to choose the four southern district winners.

Students selected to enter Oxford University next fall are: E. Timmons of the University of Georgia, Fenwick Noble-Jones of Emory University, both representatives from Georgia; Armitage Lee, student at Yale and representative from Virginia, and Louis Hector of Williams College, representative from Florida.

Prof. Davis, a member of the committee which selected Tennessee's delegates at Southwestern on Dec. 13, was also a member of the Georgia elimination committee.

The four candidates were selected from 12 representatives, two from each of the six states in the southern district. Tennessee's candidates were James Schultz of the University of Tennessee and David Mayson of Vanderbilt University.

Clark McDonald and Lewis Donelson, Southwestern's applicants in Tennessee, and Eldridge Armistead and Herbert Cain, applicants in Mississippi, were eliminated in their respective state competitions.

Thirty-two students in the United States, four from each of the eight districts, won scholarships.

Sasser's Bracelet

Sasser's proof of his belief in charms for the charming is the novelty bracelet which now bedecks Draper's wrist. . . . Besides many good-looking gifts Santa brought Sarah Powell a new romance—it answers to the name of "Pilkly" Phillips. . . . That little circle over Steuwer's head is none other than a halo resulting from her devoutness to "Buddhism". . . . The best excuse given yet for a standing luncheon date is the one about Elise and John Patton. It seems that they set special diets for each other and are personally seeing that each sticks to his word.

Change in Pins

. . . The change of Charlie King's fraternity pin from Delta Sig to A.T.O. apparently pleases Carolyn Carroll who finds the college pin much more becoming to her outfits. . . . Lewis Hayden's interest in Friday's biology lab is more than scientific. His eyes invariably stray from the study of the microscope to the study of a fair damsel across the room. It's not an uncommon occurrence for Jane Lederer's glance to meet his. (P.S. It is rumored that the sponsor of this timid affair was the field trips held last fall.)

Hyere Rip

. . . The best way to get Rowan's attention is to start whistling because he has already been broken in to that call by Rosa. . . . An unanswered question of the day—is there an underlying meaning to the dinner ring which Haygood gave Letitia? . . . Chappell is a boomerang where Drake is concerned. Even a job couldn't keep him away from his lady love. . . . In spite of the forthcoming exams Leslie Buchman has been one continuous smile, and his cue for this part was Annie Rose's return to Southwestern. . . . Susan O'Brien's current interest in the Little Theatre is attributed to one of its new actors, Aubrey Hyman.

Faithful to Felicia

. . . The brightness of "the" old flame outshines Hylton's attempt to light a new one with the aid of Elizabeth Paine. . . . Seen having dinner at the Peabody the other night were Linda Catherine and Gerald Burrow. . . . Again an explanation is lacking—one for Minna Deen Jones' trip home the first week-end after the holidays. . . . The first topic was Sasser and the last is also about the campus "heart-breaker". This time it is Fredrika who spent a most enjoyable visit with Jimmy on the Gulf Coast—How does he do it???

A.O.Pi Entertains With Lodge Dance

Balloon Motif Stressed At First Party Of New Year On Campus

Alpha Omicron Pi pledges entertained with the first dance of the New Year Saturday night from 8 until 12 o'clock in honor of the active chapter of the sorority. The A. O. Pi lodge was decorated in a balloon motif.

A. S. U. For Militant Peace Student Union Rejects Oxford Pledge Adopted Last Year

Poughkeepsie, N. Y.—(ACP)—The American Student Union, during its sessions on the Vassar campus, rejected the Oxford pledge against participation in war and adopted a resolution which in some of its principles resembles the Roosevelt policy.

The Oxford pledge was accepted as a policy by the union's convention last year. This year's sentiment marked a reversal.

The present resolution pledges "the American Student Union support to a program which will make the United States a genuine and active force for peace. In answer to the urgent danger of world war, we favor immediate steps to restrain fascist aggression by contributing America's decisive influence in behalf of world peace . . ."

The panel on labor urged unity of the C. I. O. and the A. F. of L. on a plan for industrial unionism wherever feasible. It also voted to help establish junior chapters of the American Newspaper Guild on college campuses and to give aid to labor unions by establishment of educational projects.

A panel on Negro student problems, which all Southern delegates were asked to attend, adopted a program calling for a bi-racial student conference in the South on specific programs, support on the Anti-Lynching Bill, protest against discrimination, and more pay for Negro teachers.

February rushing was discussed at a meeting of the Women's Panhellenic Council Tuesday.

Hearing Begins For Dr. McIntosh

Mississippi Synod Applies To Court For Settlement Of Director Feud

The hearing of the Mississippi synod's application to have Dr. W. J. McIntosh of Jackson, Miss., seated as a member of the Southwestern board of directors began Tuesday in the Chancery Court here. Opposing this application are the synods of Alabama, Louisiana, and Tennessee which also support Southwestern.

According to these three synods, by a unanimous agreement made in 1927 when the number of representatives from each state was increased from three to four, this fourth director must be a Memphis man. Mississippi asserts that it is not being given equal representation and that the charter of Southwestern is being violated by refusing to allow it to select its own director.

STILL "TOPS" . . . after 31 Years As a Tobacco Auctioneer

"I recently sold 489,000 pounds of tobacco in one 6 1/2 hour day," says Mr. J. N. Edwards of Farmville, North Carolina.

"There was a buyer, naturally, for every one of those 489,000 pounds. . . . But there was as much difference between the best grades and the inferior, as between a pretty girl and a homely one.

"At auction after auction, I've seen Lucky Strike go after the prettiest lots of tobacco. It's no wonder Luckies taste so good. I've smoked them since 1917.

"And another thing . . . even after yelling out tobacco bids

all during a seven hour day, Luckies are still just as easy as ever on my throat."

Only Lucky Strike offers you the finest tobacco plus the throat-protection of the exclusive process "It's Toasted". This process takes out certain irritants found in all tobacco—even the finest.

Men who know tobacco from A to Z—experts like Mr. Edwards—are surely good judges of cigarettes. . . . Sworn records show that, among independent tobacco experts, Luckies have twice as many exclusive smokers as have all the other cigarettes combined.

Basketball Team Left Wednesday For Road Trip

Play 1st Conference Game With Howard Tonight

EXPECT GOOD SEASON

Eight Cagemen On Squad To Meet Five Foes

By WADDY WEST

Having wiped the Christmas egg-nogg off their chins the Lynx cagers left Wednesday for a road trip through Alabama and Mississippi that will give them their first taste of collegiate opposition. Howard is their second foe tonight.

The training period has been sufficiently long for the already well-experienced Lynx, and Coach Hug hopes to unleash a hard shooting, close guarding team that will bag its first Dixie Conference title for Southwestern. For the past week the squad has been drilled to break fast and should show improvement.

In his cagey way Coach Paul Hug announced following the dismal showing of his cohorts against the All-Memphians, "the boys are not in high yet and are not as far along as I hoped they would be. This trip should show just what we are capable of."

The Lynx swung into action last night against the Jacksonville, Alabama, Teachers at Jacksonville, Ala. Tonight in the first Dixie Conference start for the Hugmen, they match goals with Howard College at Birmingham. In a crucial tilt the Lynx meet Birmingham-Southern tomorrow night. The Panthers, winners in the football race, will be out to make it two straight conference titles. On Monday night the basketweavers slip into the Magnolia State to encounter last year's titleholders, the Mississippi College Choctaws at Jackson, Miss. Winding up the trip the Millsaps Majors will be engaged in Jackson also. Before leaving Coach Hug commented, "I look for the Jacksonville Teachers and Mississippi College to give us the most trouble, but none of them will be easy picking."

Hug looks for his starters to be Gaylon Smith and Red Garrison, forwards; Levon Self, center, and Captain Clois Neal and Virgil Cox, guards. Other men making the trip are Carl Roth, Jimmy Sasser, and Alvin Wunderlich.

Archery Contest Completed

Maxine Allen Wins; Holzmark Second; Newburger Wins Medal

The women's athletic department held the archery and riflery contests the week before the holidays began. Maxine Allen won the archery contest with a score of 388 points, Muriel Holzmark was second with 386 points, and Eugenia Carter was third with 360 points. The riflery contest was won by Joy Newburger whose score was 121 points out of a possible 150. Eugenia Carter placed second with a score of 106. Miss Allen and Miss Newburger received bronze medals in recognition of their victories.

Both contests were won by members of the newly organized Non-Sorority group. In total points for women's intramurals, they also lead with 29 points; the ranking order of the sororities is Kappa Delta, 8; Chi Omega, 4; Delta Delta Delta, 2; and Alpha Omicron Pi, 1. This is the first time that the Non-Sorority group has led.

Women's basketball is now under way, and space on the bulletin board in the Women's Social Room is reserved for women to sign up for practice. Practice in the gym is scheduled for Tuesdays and Thursdays, 2:30 to 4 o'clock, and Wednesdays and Fridays, 3:30 to 5 o'clock. The Women's Athletic Board asks that each team elect a manager and captain as soon as possible.

By THOMAS PAPPAS

Wise Choice—The selection of Ed Kubale for the head Lynx coach job. Wise, because Kubale uses practically the same type of offense "Shorty" Propst used here for three years, a single wing-back attack.

To have picked a coach who taught a different system might have ruined Southwestern's chances for a winning team this fall. A new football system would have meant most of the Lynx players would have to learn a brand new type of football almost overnight. Consequently, the Lynx attack would have been ragged to say the least.

The committee is to be congratulated on their wise selection.

Incidentally, the name is not "Cueball", but "Kew-bolly", like in "dolly".

Unfortunate—"Shorty" Propst is gone but we think Southwestern let him go a couple of months too soon.

You've all heard, of course, that the proposal to allow junior college transfers to play three years instead of two was rejected at the recent Dixie Conference meeting in New Orleans. That decision cost Southwestern the services of Jimmy Sasser and Arnold Herbert next fall, who are junior college transfers.

Where does Propst come in? Well, we have a sneaking hunch that had "Shorty" Propst been there the decision might have been different. Not that Coach High and Dr. Rhodes, Lynx representatives at the meeting, did not try their best, but you will recall how Propst battled for the choice dates in Memphis for his football teams. Propst was a veritable bear when aroused. Seldom did anyone summon enough courage to cross him. We believe it would have been the same in New Orleans.

Also to be remembered is that Propst once had strong connections at Howard College and is well acquainted in Birmingham. Howard and its tricity rival, Birmingham-Southern, are Birmingham universities, and the feeling in Birmingham is that "Shorty" Propst got a raw deal here at Southwestern. Though ours may be a far-fetched theory, we believe this feeling might have had something to do with the 5 to 3 decision against the 3-year proposal. Birmingham-Southern and Howard were among the five "nays". Only Southwestern, Mercer, and Millsaps favored the idea.

Honor—A recent All-Opponents eleven chosen by Loyola of the South included one Gaylon Smith of Southwestern. Loyola played such teams as Louisiana State, Texas Tech, and Catholic U.; and Gaylon Smith was the only unanimous choice of the Loyola squad. So it would seem Mr. Smith is quite some shakes as a footballer.

Intramural Basketball Starts

The Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity continued its drive to overtake the leading Kappa Alphas in the intramural standings by winning the volleyball tournament and then defeating the Pi Kappa Alphas 30 to 7 in the opening game of the round robin basketball tournament last Friday.

In the two most exciting games played to date, the Kappa Sigma quintet defeated the Kappa Alphas by a 21-20 score, and the Non-Fraternity team won over the Alpha Tau Omegas, 17 to 16. In the former game, played last Monday, "Rip" Rowan and John Edwards led the Kappa Sigmas to victory, while Van Downie and Pyne Tucker starred for the Kappa Alphas.

In Tuesday's contest, Leonard Ellis, Non-Fraternity forward, and William Moorhead and Wallace Mayton of the Alpha Tau Omegas were the outstanding players on the court.

Four teams are as yet undefeated in the basketball tournament. They are: Sigma Nu, with victories over Alpha Tau Omega, Kappa Alpha, and Pi Kappa Alpha; Kappa Sigma, winners over Kappa Alpha and Pi Kappa Alpha; Sigma Alpha Epsilon, with a win over Pi Kappa Alpha; and the Non-Fraternity team, who defeated Alpha Tau Omega.

High point men are: Justus Edrington, Sigma Nu—22; Van Downie, Kappa Alpha—21; Earl Johnson, Sigma Nu—19; John Edwards, Kappa Sigma—18.

Frosh Basketball Squad Includes 20

Coach High Says Team Equals Yearlings of 1936; Have Won 2 Games

Future cage hopes for Southwestern mount with the fast bunch of first year men being turned out by Coach Harold High. Consisting of 20 cagers, the squad is the largest in school history. Eight of the Bobcat football team have cast aside their grid togs to climb into shorts and shirts. The yearlings will not lack for height with Adrian Vernon looming six feet five inches into the ozone, and Fred Partin combing his hair over a six foot four inch frame.

After winning two games handily, Coach High states, "I believe our 1938 Bobcats are on a par with the excellent freshman team of 1936."

However, the team has not locked with the varsity to allow any comparisons to be made.

The Bobcats are unusually good at ball handling and passing. With George Blakemore, all Tennessee state forward in 1937, firing at the goal, Gaylon Smith will have to step next year if he is to continue as the high point man for the Lynx. Blakemore has averaged fifteen points in the two games played by the future Lynx hopefuls.

Good games are needed for the Bobcats and Coach High is busy lining up first-class opposition.

The second Men's Panhellenic formal dance will be held Feb. 4, the Friday of examination week.

Junior College Rule Fails

Southwestern's Proposal Defeated; Cage Meet Here in 1939

Southwestern's proposal to allow junior college men to play three years instead of two was defeated by a score of 5 to 3 at the Dixie Conference meeting held at New Orleans Dec. 31-Jan. 2. Another Lynx proposal, to allow freshmen to compete on all varsity teams except basketball or football was approved.

Southwestern also made a bid for this year's conference basketball tournament, but the offer was turned down because of a controversy over suitable dates and the tournament was awarded to Mercer University at Macon, Ga., for March 2, 3, and 4.

Southwestern offered to stage the event early in February, but the conference preferred a later date. However, it was generally accepted that Southwestern would stage the meet in 1939.

A. E. Wood of Mississippi College was elected president of the Conference, and Dr. Peyton N. Rhodes of Southwestern was chosen secretary-treasurer.

The Men's and Women's Panhellenic Councils met together yesterday to draw up the second semester social calendar.
