Letter To Town Students

The Southwestern Christian Union and the Sou'wester wish to thank the town students for their cooperation in making Fall Sunday a success. What looked as if it were a full-sized and difficult task turned out to be a comparatively easy one, through the fine spirit shown.

It is hoped that Fall Sunday will do much to increase the spirit of friendliness between town and dormitory students, and a better Southwestern spirit.

Sincerely, GEORGE JACKSON, President of the Christian Union.

Wanted: More Between-Halves Entertainment

The half-time at Southwestern football games seems to have reached the lowest level possible in dullness, despite the valiant attempts of the band to lighten the general ennui that sends two-thirds of the stands racing for the refreshment concessions.

Two years ago, as you may remember, the sponsors appeared in a Victorian hack pulled by panting freshmen. Now they arrive, very much sans eclat, escorted by the cheerleaders. Even the old high school stand-by—the opposing team in effigy being rushed off the field in a coffin—has not been attempted. Freshmen racing for their shoes or wobbling feebly about in night gowns can hardly, in our opinion, be classed as amusing to the student body, and less to the townspeople who, after all, fill the stadium. Little wonder we prefer to be gypped on cokes and hot dogs than run the risk of falling through the stands while dozing from sheer boredom.

With the exception of the band's maneuvers with lighted caps and batons at the Sewanee game, Southwestern has offered nothing even slightly approximating other colleges. Certainly we have more to crow about in our football team, yet we do less about it.

By way of suggestion we refer you to the circus staged by the University of Kentucky between the halves of their W. & L. game. Our social groups might also be informed that the Sigma Chi's on that campus selected a "sweetheart" to be crowned at the half-time. There is no reason why Southwestern fraternities could not put on creditable stunts, and, at little loss of dignity, the sororities, too.

Card stunts require some time and effort, but always help give the stand a collegiate appearance. And there are the colored balloon releases and more band maneuvers. At the Birmingham-Southern game, even the usual quota of sirens, cow-bells, and hunting horns, helpful when the cheering, such as it is, lulls, was absent.

In connection with this subject, we would like to say that, while the cheers submitted so far in the cheer-writing contest are great fun and all that sort of thing, they are not suitable and, by now, unamusing. Cheering is an integral part of the football set-up and the lack of interest and gravity of the student body is certainly to be deplored.

As a worthwhile project, we suggest relieving of the between-halves boredom, to the Pep League, the Service Club, the fraternities and other campus groups, and guarantee grateful commendation.

Cooperation Requested

With the selection of sub-editors and a tentative staff, the Sou'wester organizes for the year's work. We have only one request to make of the student body: give us your cooperation and support. In accordance with the policy of the Sou'wester, effort will be made to cover all news of interest on the campus impartially. We ask that those not on the staff of the paper cooperate by informing the news editor of unexpected changes in plans and suggest the appointment of publicity agents to work with the paper staff.

In regard to the down-town newspapers, we can only ask that those with news of campus interest report it to the Sou'wester first and refrain from rushing to the nearest telephone. We are endeavoring to make the Sou'wester interesting but cannot do so without the loyal cooperation of the entire student body.

Lynx Chat

At the Peabody Friday night: Well, of course you've all heard about the surprise birthday party for Betsy Fowler, but I insist on giving you some more low-down. . . . George Jackson was there with Lelah McLaine; last week George and Mac had dates the other way around if you know what I mean. . . . Dorothea Wyatt was seen there without Harry Nill, Dempie Morrison, Henry Lynch or Charles Reed, but, nevertheless, vowing it was the best party she had ever attended. . . . Warren Prewitt was dancing with "Be" Waggener, who, you knew, was meeting Harry Morris at nine under that certain tree those mornings. . . . Sam Mays and Dorothy Waller started some kind of a romance all over the song "Reverie" . . . also seen was the steadiest of couples, Jean Venn and H. C. Robertson; they were also at "S" Club the following night together. . . . all thirty-four of them (yes, really) had a wonderful time, and does Betsy Fowler rate!

At the "S" Club Dance: "Greek" Steuwer looking better than she has ever looked. . . . those debutantes again, and this time in street clothes. . . . but that's better than johhpurs. . . . Ethel Wetherby getting a wonderful rush while date "Dub" Worthington stood by and shook his head. . . . Jack Hamilton giving Margy Curry and Jeanne Reeves quite a rush. . . . Frank Morgan having his long waited for date with Minna Dean Jones. . . . Mary Ware looking good enough for the S. A. E. chapter as her date soon discovered to his sorrow. . . . Dempie Morrison dying to meet Toni Noce. . . . Grace Mays getting the rush from Bill Little. . . . Joye Fourmy trying her hand with Herman Crowder. . . . that "love in bloom" couple, Russell Weiner and Margaret Ford. . . . Carolyn Carroll in town just to be with Henri Watson for the "S" Club dance. . . . Waddy West still escorting Nancy Donelson. . . . Queen Anne Potts getting a wonderful rush. . . . rain messing up all of the girls' hair, but it didn't seem to bother the boys. . . . everybody wondering who that was in the sequins and the crazy hair-do when it turned out to be Talley. . . . Betsy Foster arriving late after attending a picture show in formal attire.

At the football game: Everybody's motto when attending the football games is "if you have a date, come late." Among the "new fadders" were Oscar King with Blue but he seemed anything but blue about the whole affair. . . . I would mention BeBe and H. R. but that ain't news. . . . "Old Woman" playing the other side of the drum for a change. . . . Kate Weaver with B. Derrick hiding behind dark glasses. . . . Dub leading his cheers while the S. A. E.'s made up their own. . . . the Zetas in a body pulling for the team and Sponsor Steuwer. . . . Paula Harris and Dorothy Esch sharing a rattle with dates Nesbitt and Buckingham. . . . Sarah Boothe with Tom White and from now on we will consider that one will be with the other. . . . a parade of fur jackets led by Mary Kathryn McGuire and Betsy Foster. . . . Elizabeth Greer seen with Robert Watts; it's getting to be a habit. . . . Mary Martin Dunscomb swaying on the word "goal" onto the shoulder of a total stranger.

Scoop!!!! This week's victim of the press is a young Romeo who made a very special trip all the way to Brownsville just to eat dinner. 'Tis said that Mr. Perry, that's the guy, was decked in the latest attire slightly resembling Mr. Esquire. Evidently it was a course dinner, being as Mr. Perry didn't return until very, very late. Accompanying him on his return trip was a life size beautifully tinted picture which Mr. Perry gazes at every night before retiring, especially if the music is sweet and slow. Ha ha—you didn't think we would get it printed, did you, Charlie?

At the Chi O's steak fry everybody had a grand time except Blue and Dickson who had an accident with Betty's head going through Fred's windshield (it cracked the windshield). . . . A bumper crop of this year's debs

Letter To The Editor

In a recent editorial you commented on the excellence of the dances held in the gym and requested more of them. I think this to be a very good suggestion, but certain things make the idea improbable.

Those using the gym for a dance are charged $15 plus electricity charges. While almost every sorority and fraternity would prefer to use the gym for their dances, they feel that the increased floor space is not worth the expense when they can use their own houses.

We feel that the charges for the gym should be enough to pay all expenses and to provide for a "small" sinking fund, and while we would not accuse the school of trying to make any profit from the dances, it does seem that $15.00 and expenses is rather large.

While this letter may seem rather critical, I would like to add that we do appreciate very much the privilege of having dances in the gym, but would appreciate also the chance to use that privilege at less expense. Sincerely, JAC RUFFIN.

Tri-Deltas Plan Benefit

Fashion Show To Be Special Feature; Party Will Be At Casino

Tri-Delta sorority will give a benefit bridge party Saturday, November 5, 1938, in the Casino, at the fair grounds from two to four o'clock.

Table and attendance prizes will be awarded. A fashion show of the latest winter styles from outstanding ladies' shops will be a special attraction.

Marjorie DeVall, president of the active chapter, is in charge of arrangements. She will be assisted by the following committees: Mildred Lou Hubbard, fashion show; Marion Dickson, tickets; Geraldine Allen, attendance; Elizabeth Scarborough, candy; and Grace Mays, table prizes.

showed up. . . . There were about four bonfires scattered over Hog Hollow with each little clique having its own. . . . Heathie bumming cigarettes. . . . Why did Potts and date borrow flashlight??? To hunt firewood, of course. . . . A. Paine lost her jeweled cross and Geran Baird his glasses to make it a perfect evening. . . . Kitty and Peek sorta distant. Whassa matter? . . . Among those singing, or would you call it hog-calling, were Sara Powell, Barbara Dean, Mary Ware and Erin Gary with dates coming in on the choruses. . . .

Odds and ends around the campus: . . . Midge Fleming taking a week off to get her clothes she left behind at Sweet Briar, or so she says. . . . Have you seen the new transfer who came in Tuesday? . . . Too bad, though, boys. . . . she's married, her husband attending U. T. Med School. . . . However, as consolation, we recommend Bettie Cazort from Little Rock. . . . and, by the by, you aspiring politicians, her father's lieutenant-governor of Arkansas. . . .

Prize faux pas of the week was made by Priscilla Sheumaker at Panhellenic meeting the other day. . . . Protesting against parties ending at 8 o'clock, she burst out, "But, that isn't any fun. It isn't dark yet!" Well, Priscilla!!!!

We hear so much about certain European dictators of whom we do not approve in the least, and there are so many biographies of them that we can't get excited about reading any more about them. We did, however, at one time, after seeing a March of Time movie about Ataturk (named Mustafa Kemal before he became the Gazi), get quite excited about him and how he's dictating Turkey, and we were pleased no end to find several very choice biographies of him in the library. Now that reports come that he is seriously ill and not likely to recover we're all worked up over what will happen to Turkey without the leadership of this powerful and picturesque personality. We liked Armstrong's biography best. It's called Grey Wolf.

From the movies again, when the Albanian princesses were barnstorming the U. S., our intellectual (boasting) curiosity was piqued over King Zog and Albania. Alas, at that time the library let us down. Quite recently, however, we have acquired two books on the subject and have found them most informing and entertaining. One is Barnes' Half a Life Left, a continuation of the author's Half a Life, which covered the first twenty-seven years of his life. This volume takes him down to his forty-fourth year, dealing with his experiences in Albania and with the Italian army in Abyssinia. We found the historical summary of the Albanian situation very interesting, particularly since the author, an Englishman, was an important figure in the scene, having been in the running for the throne himself at one time before Zog was crowned.

The other book we recommend is Sons of the Eagle, by Ronald Matthews. The Albanians call themselves "Sons of the Eagle" on account of living among the many rugged mountains in their small country. The author's wanderings bring him into contact with all the different phases of Albanian life. He pictures the wild peasants of the hills, the young educated and ambitious patriots, and the old, avaricious politicians. He gives a very sympathetic portrait of the youthful and energetic King Zog, "the loneliest ruler in Europe."

But to jump from dictatorships and kings to democracy, Thomas Mann states the case for freedom versus despotism, and devastates German fascism completely in The Coming Victory of Democracy. In a very few pages he gives us a lucid interpretation and something serious to think about.

However, lest we get to thinking too seriously, the bewildered Bertie and the jitterless Jeeves are with us again getting into ever fresh difficulties in the current Wodehouse offering, The Code of the Woosters. Sample: "His face was square and slightly mustached toward the center."

Lynx Cat Eleven Defeats Panthers By 46-7 Margin

Captain Vines Makes Only Panther Threat

Tied 7-7 at the end of the first quarter, Southwestern called on Gaylon Smith for his touchdown specialty and the Lynx annexed their second victory in a row by trouncing Birmingham-Southern's indifferent Panthers Saturday afternoon in Crump Stadium, 46 to 7.

Smith came into the game in the second quarter with the Lynx in possession of the ball on the Panthers' 4-yard line. One thrust off tackle and Southwestern was ahead 13 to 7. Twice more during that period did the burly battering-ram cross the Birmingham-Southern goal line. Once on a slashing 23-yard drive off tackle and once on a 46-yard sprint around right end. The Lynx were ahead at halftime, 26 to 7.

Winfrey Scores

Southwestern, sparked by Smith and Will Rhea Winfrey, opened the scoring in the first few minutes of the game after an 85-yard drive down the field. Winfrey found a hole over guard and ran 16 yards for the marker. Ed French added the extra point from placement.

On the kickoff, Dick McMichael of the Panthers ran the ball back 60 yards to the Lynx 35. He ripped off five yards more, then passed 30 yards to Captain Charlie Vines for the score. Vines kicked the extra point to tie the score.

That was Birmingham-Southern's one and only threat of the game. For in the second quarter came Smith's three touchdowns to settle the argument. The 26-7 score at the half was Southwestern's margin of victory against the Panthers in Birmingham last year.

In the third quarter, the Lynx continued their assault on the hapless golden-helmeted team. In five plays, Southwestern moved from its own 27-yard line to a touchdown. The score was the direct result of a brief air attack. Icky Orenstein passed to Bill Little for a 25-yard gain, and then passed 30 yards to Luke Dawson for the six points. Rex Wilson kicked the extra point from placement.

Poor Panther Punt

Later in the same quarter, Birmingham-Southern got off a bad punt, the ball going out of bounds at midfield. Down into Panther territory drove the Lynx backs. Twice Southwestern scored, only to have the play called back and a penalty assessed against them. Undaunted, the team bucked forward again and Orenstein climaxed it all with a 20-yard sprint to a touchdown. Wilson again converted.

In the final period, with an entire reserve team in the fray, the Lynx scored only once more. Bernard Lockridge intercepted a Panther pass on his own 30 and dashed 70 yards for the score without a hand being laid on him. "Lock" was almost in the clear when he caught the ball and the Lynx gathered around him in a huddle and escorted him all the way down the field.

Smith Ranks Third In Nation's Scorers

By virtue of his three-touchdown assault on Birmingham-Southern Saturday, Gaylon Smith jumped into third place among the nation's high scorers with a total of 60 points. Only Everett Elkins of Marshall and Leroy Fry of Texas A. & I. are ahead of the Beebe brain-buster. Both are tied for the lead with 66 markers.

Bobcats To Meet Ole Miss Frosh

Game To Be Played in Como, Miss., Tonight With Andrews As Center Of Attack

Southwestern's Bobcats meet the Ole Miss Freshmen at Como, Miss., tonight. This will be the Bobcats second start this year, having been beaten 6 to 0 by Holmes Junior College in their first. Coach High is confident that the freshmen can take the Ole Miss Yearlings into camp, although they have only 16 men on the squad.

The Bobcats' attack will be centered around Jimmy Andrews, of Princeton, Ind. Andrews is one of the hardest running backs seen on Fargason Field in some time, and he should give the Ole Miss team no little trouble. He will start at full-back.

Beginning in the backfield with Andrew will be Leon Underwood at quarterback, and Doug Waller and Lem Williams at the halves. In the line, Malcolm Hayles, a 205-pounder will play center, flanked by Norman Cast and Dumpy Bailey at guards. Tackles will be Hayes Heaton and Moonbeam Rutherford, with Red Goodrich and Pete Laird at ends.

More than 20,000 balloons were released at the opening kick-off of the Minnesota-Michigan football fracas.

S.A.E. HOLDS INTRAMURAL LEAD WITH TENNIS CHAMPIONSHIP

Sigma Alpha Epsilon continued their march toward the intramural championship by winning the tennis tournament Tuesday and by taking their first game in the soccer tournament. They now have a total of 150 points, twice as many as their nearest rival, Non-Frats, with 75 points.

In taking the tennis championship, the S. A. E. netters, Virgil McCraney and Henry Boothe, were pushed to the limit of three matches by the Non-Frat team, Bob Meacham and John Woolsey. The two singles matches played Monday were split, with Meacham taking Boothe 6-0, 6-1, while McCraney defeated Woolsey 6-3, 6-3. The deciding match, the doubles, postponed until Tuesday, was won by McCraney and Boothe, defeating Meacham and Woolsey 6-3, 6-3.

In soccer, four games had been played through Wednesday, with one ending in a tie and a fifth going to the Non-Frats by a tie over the Pi Kappa Alphas. In the first two games, played Monday, Sigma Nu defeated Kappa Alpha 2 to 0, and the S. A. E.'s defeated Kappa Sigma 1 to 0 in a hard-fought game which went three extra periods. The game scheduled for Tuesday went to Non-Frats by a default over Pi K. A. Wednesday, Alpha Tau Omega took the Pi K. A.'s by a score of 3 to 0. The Kappa Sigs again went through a three-extra period affair with the Sigma Nu's, the game ending in a scoreless tie to be played off Friday at 1:30.

The standings to date are:

Lynx and Loyola Tie For Dixie Conference Lead

Southwestern moved into a tie with Loyola of New Orleans for the leadership of the Dixie Conference by defeating Birmingham-Southern 46-7 last week. Loyola did not meet a conference foe, journeying to Chicago to win over DePaul, 13-0. Chattanooga defeated Howard, 12 to 7, in the only other league game of the week.

By THOMAS PAPPAS

Since I have predicted two Lynx Cat victories in succession (please, let's forget that Centenary "mistake"), I am going to stick my neck 'way out again and pick the Lynx to claw their way through the Loyola Wolfpack by a four touchdown to one margin.

There now, ye axe-men, prepare for the slaughter.

Those of you who saw Pentecost-Garrison and Charlie Lee's Red Shirts play football at the half of the Lynx-Panther game will of course be glad to hear why the P-G's had so many number "44's" on their squad.

Well, I get this straight from secret operative seven millyan, eight hundred sixty-wan t'ousand, nine hundred ninety-t'ree, (Miss Annie Few Work to you-alls).

It seems the lads have a hero named Gaylon Smith who wears number "44" for Southwestern. So, when these youngsters got their dads to order their jerseys this year, what number would they select but 44. At first there were only two regulars who bore that proud number, three others warmed the bench. But now the bench warmers have improved and it's hard to keep any of the 44's off the first team. Soon there may be a whole team of 44's.

Last year, number "24" was all the rage with the lads—that was Gaylon's numeral last year, you know. One of the P-G. pigskinners who proudly wears a "24" today is Operative 7,961,993's kid brudder, young Master Work.

Personal note . . . A gold medal to you, Operative Work! I am depending on you for more scoops in the future.
