Course Materials

We will use Integrated Chinese Level II which consists of a textbook and a workbook. We will start from Lesson 1 and finish 6 lessons this semester. The audio CDs to accompany the lessons can be accessed on the Rhodes website under the section of the Language Center. You are required to listen to audio CDs regularly. There is also a workbook audio CD on the website. You must access it so as to do the Listening part of homework (go to the website of Acad dept and select Mod_Lang, then select Language_Lab, Chinese, and Integrated_Chinese_2). Furthermore, a variety of short stories, jokes, video clips, and Chinese songs which are relevant to the text content may be included in class.

Course Objectives

This course aims at improving students’ aural-oral skills to achieve fluency and comprehension, further developing their proficiency in reading for understanding, and enhancing their ability to write in Chinese and to translate from Chinese into English and vice versa. At the end of the year, students should be able to communicate with each other in Chinese, to read authentic materials of reasonable degrees of difficulty, to write simple compositions in Chinese characters, and to translate chosen materials from Chinese into English and vice versa.

Grading

Attendance and participation: 15%
Homework: 20%
Tests: 25%
Quizzes: 15%
Final examination: 15%
Oral exam: 10%

---------------------------------------------------

Total: 100%
Attendance and participation: Since attendance is crucial both to learning and participating, I will take attendance and grade participation every class. However, I realize that you may occasionally have legitimate reasons to be absent from class. More than three unexcused absences and more than five absences in total will lower your final grade by a minor letter grade (e.g., from A- to B+). Additional absences will lower your participation grade. Repeated tardiness will also begin to count as additional absences. A word of caution: If you miss more than 30% of the semester’s class sessions, you will fail this course. If you are ill or have another legitimate excuse to miss class (i.e., conference participation, family emergencies – documentation may be required), you must notify me either via telephone or via email.

Homework: Basically, we have homework every class and the due time always be next class except special notice. If you miss or delay turning in your homework, that will lower your homework grade. More than five missing homework in total will lower your final grade by a minor letter grade. Three delaying homework will be counted as a missing.

Tests and quizzes: We have a test right after the end of each lesson. Essentially we have a small vocabulary quiz every class.

Remember: If you have difficulties of any kind, please do not hesitate to ask the instructor for help.

Note: Learning a language well always requires an environment of this language. Students will be encouraged to speak Chinese as much as possible in the class.

Activity:

Chinese Night: This activity is designed to give you a chance to taste some interesting Chinese cultural aspects and give you a space to speak Chinese with native Chinese speakers and your classmates. We will have topic discussions, listen to Chinese songs, watch Chinese videos and have culture panel etc. The time is every Wednesday 6:00-7:00 pm (1/16-4/23). The place is 410 Rhodes Tower. The attendance of this activity will be taken as a part of participation grade.

Final Exams:

The final exams will be comprehensive. Here is the schedule:

Place: Kennedy Hall 104

Written Exam: (including listening)  5/2  Friday  5:30 – 7:00 pm

Oral Exam: 5/2  Friday  7:00 – 8:00 pm
