Monday, December 29, 2008 -- (Meditation: I Peter 1:24-25)
God, we are grateful that Your Word is truth, not just a collection of religious myths and stories designed to make us feel better today. God, "we are like grass, and all our glory is like the flowers of the field. The grass withers, and the flowers fall. But the Word of our God stands forever." Praise be to You, O God. Amen.

Tuesday, December 30, 2008 -- (Meditation: John 14:27)
God, we pray for our world. Break the reign of tyranny, terrorism, and oppression. Make it no longer necessary to take up the force of arms to secure freedom. Make our whole world a place of human liberty, human rights, and human dignity. Through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Wednesday, December 31, 2008 -- (Meditation: Psalm 46:1-3)
God, You are my refuge and my strength. Your everlasting arms hold me close. In trial, trouble, and tribulation, You shield me . . . protect me . . . comfort me . . . keep me safe. God, hide me in Your arms until fear turns into trust, and trust into service, and service into joy. In Jesus' name. Amen.

Thursday, January 1, 2009 -- (Meditation: Psalm 100:3-5)
Almighty God, at the beginning of this new year, I thank You for my life, my work, my health, my home, my family, my friends, my country, and, most of all, for Your forgiveness and the gift of eternal life. May I walk today, and all this year, in Your path, repentant and yielded to Your will. In Jesus' name. Amen.

Friday, January 2, 2009 -- (Meditation: II Thessalonians 2:16-17)
God, You have been gracious and merciful to me throughout last year. Hear now my thanks and my praise. And hear my prayer that the new year will bring new commitment in my faith, new depth in my love, and new strength in my service to Jesus Christ, my Lord. Amen.
