Memphis Area Residence Life Association

Dear Friends and Colleagues:

We would like to invite you to the very first Memphis Area Residence Life Association (MARLA) RA Drive-In Conference.

What is the MARLA conference?

The Memphis Area Residence Life Association Conference was created as an opportunity for paraprofessionals that work in residence life in and around the Bluff City to interact and learn from one another. This one day conference is designed to:

- Foster community
- Develop networking within the area
- Enhance leadership skills
- Share programming ideas
- and much more

When is MARLA?

MARLA will be held February 9, 2008 from 8:00-4:00 on the campus of Rhodes College in Memphis, Tennessee.

Who will participate in MARLA?

Colleges and universities in and around the Memphis area are the primary audience, but any institutions with Residence Life Programs are welcome to attend.

MARLA will feature a keynote speaker, informational/educational professional development break out sessions and entertainment during lunch.

The theme for this year's conference is The Rhythm of Residence Life! The cost is $10 per RA. There is no charge for professional staff.

WE HOPE TO SEE YOU ON FEBRUARY 9, 2008!
