Visit Rhodes

Take the road to Rhodes and discover the excitement of Memphis!

The best way for you to get to know Rhodes—and for Rhodes to get to know you—is to visit the campus during the academic year. We’re looking for students who want to be involved. You’re looking for the college that will encourage your involvement.

And, to get the most from Rhodes, consider Memphis: one of the mid-South’s most dynamic cities, located on the great Mississippi River and “home of the blues”. Arts and cultural opportunities abound. Rhodes and Memphis make music together. Visit us and see for yourself!

Look, Listen and Feel the Excitement

No matter how great the brochure or website photos of “one of America’s most beautiful college campuses” may be, you have to see us to believe us.

Our volunteer student tour guides are excited to be part of the Rhodes community and they will give you the straight story about living and learning at Rhodes.

During your one hour tour of our magnificent campus, you will see and feel the real Rhodes, up-close-and-personal.

Can We Talk?

We don’t require personal interviews, but we do strongly recommend them, especially for students competing for one of our competitive scholarships. Every interview is different, just as every student is different. Come to the interview prepared to talk about your goals and interests, your questions and concerns.

NOTE: We limit information sessions and interviews to Mondays, Fridays and Saturdays during the last two weeks of January and the entire month of February when the admissions staff is busy reviewing applications.

Come to Rhodes, Go to Class!

While you’re here, you can sit in on one or more classes. As one of America’s top liberal arts colleges, Rhodes offers more than 800 courses, everything from Southern Literature to Medical Ethics, Coral Reef Ecology to the East Asia Miracle. Here’s your chance to sample a course and see Rhodes’ superb faculty and talented students engaged in learning and sharing ideas.

Think You’re Special? You Are.

Let us know if you want to meet with a professor from a certain department or a coach or a member of the financial aid staff, and we’ll do our best to arrange a meeting with the appropriate person during your visit.

Ah, the Good Life... Spend the Night.

We invite high school seniors and transfer students to spend one night, Sunday through Thursday, in a residence hall with a student host. We’ll treat you to some good meals too! (Please bring a sleeping bag, pillow and towels.)

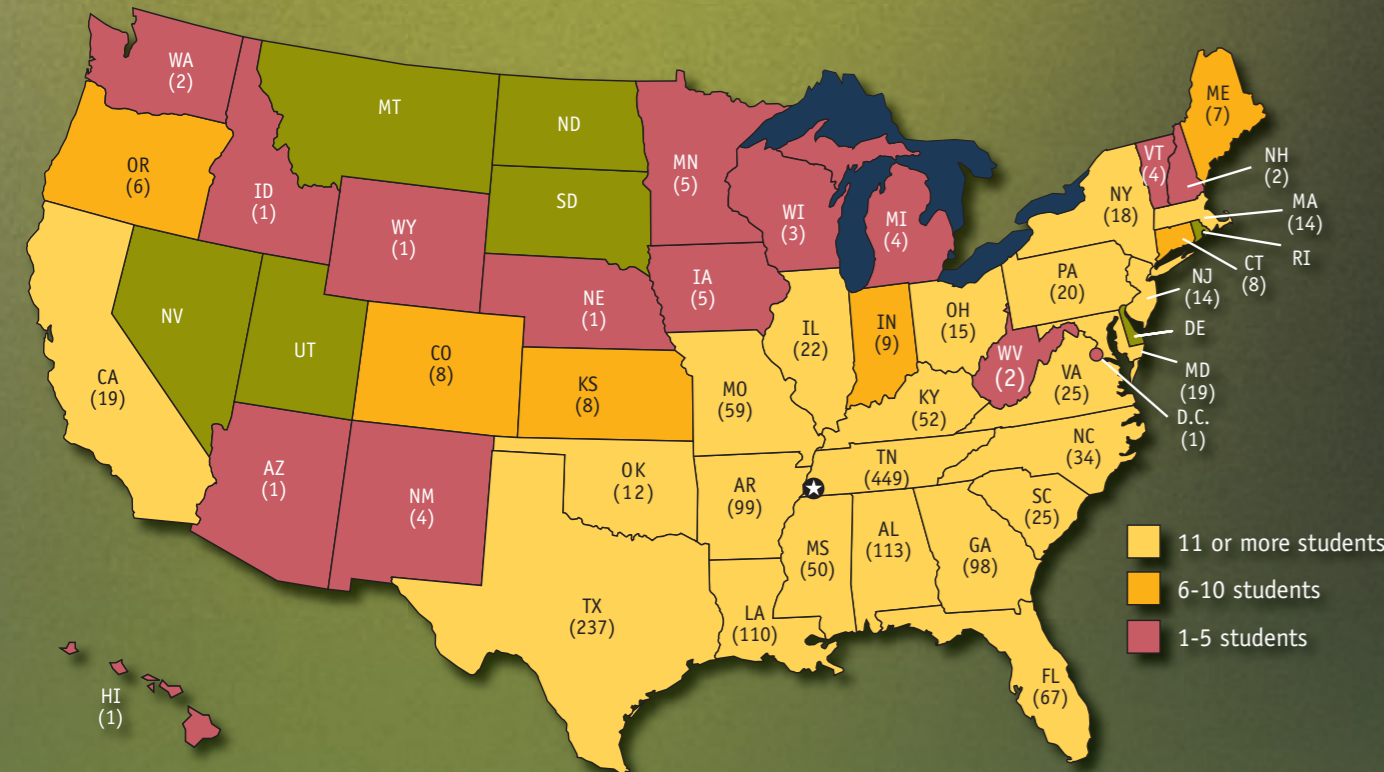

Give Us A Call

At least two weeks prior to your visit, call one of our Campus Visit Coordinators at 1-800-844-5969 or locally 843-3700. They’re available Monday through Friday from 9:00 a.m. until 4:00 p.m. central time.

Or Arrange Your Visit on the Internet

You can make your campus visit reservation online at www.rhodes.edu/campusvisit
