McCoy Theatre
Southwestern At Memphis
presents

Another Part of the Forest

From the Artistic Director

The productions in Season 2 at the McCoy Theatre were selected by a playfinding committee which had representatives from Southwestern's faculty, students, administration, and alumni as well as from the larger community of Memphis. I want to express my deep gratitude to that committee for its long hours of deliberation. The members of that committee were: Julia Ewing, Raymond Hill, Betty Ruffin, Diana Williams, Bill Watkins, Loyd Templeton, Michael Lupfer, and Bennett Wood.

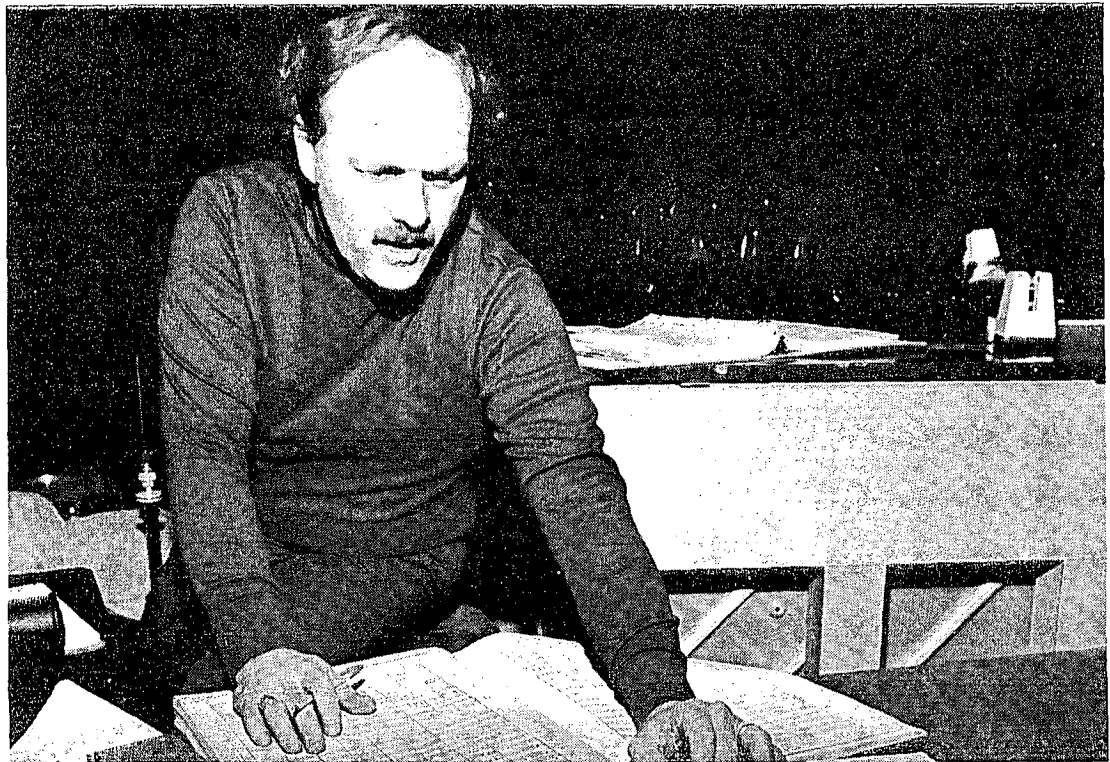

Our Theatre program is so new that we are still building our support groups. We need volunteers to help in backstage areas, in the Box Office, and in our subscription drive. If you are interested in becoming a part of these activities just leave your name and number at the Box Office and note any particular interests you might have.

We want the McCoy Theatre series to be enjoyable, stimulating and educational. We want our audience to be made up of members of the community who go to the theatre because they realize the value of that unique experience known as live theatre. We want people who go to the theatre because they want to watch the players develop over a period of time and encourage that development. We want people who go the theatre to listen to the changing accents of playwrights from various countries and periods of history. In other words, we want an audience that knows theatre as a living art form capable of moving the emotions, stimulating the intellect as well as satisfying the need for entertainment.

If you are not a subscriber, you can apply the cost of your ticket to a subscription by presenting your ticket stub along with a subscription form. As a subscriber, you have the first opportunity to acquire tickets for each production and receive discounts for productions which are not in the subscription series.

Welcome to Season 2 at the McCoy Theatre. We hope you will continue your support of our program.
