

Rhodes College Digital Archives - DLynx

Letter from Edith Mertz to W. M. Farrington

Download date	2026-03-14 16:30:07
Link to Item	http://hdl.handle.net/10267/35309

BURROW LIBRARY

Southwestern at Memphis

Brenham Texas

Mar. 10th 1928

A 104

Mr William M Farrington

Dear Sir:

I saw in the Banner Press that you was working on for the Heirs of Southern Cotton Raisers Have Chance to recover Civil War Tax. My Father was a Civil War Veteran and I believe he is the one who is meant as you wrote Williams (deceased) his name was Andrew Jackson Williams. He always did sign his name A. J. Williams. I have a sketch of his life which he had printed in 1912, and he said in it that he has been living on the same place, within one mile of Greenville ever since 1865. Father died in 1913.

Can you give me further information about the matter if so kindly do so I am sending Envelope for same. And thank you for your trouble

I will appreciate any help from you. My maiden name was Edith Williams.
Your Truly

a 104

Mrs. Edith Wertz
R 8 Box 57, Tex. Brenham