PRACTICE PUTS LYNX GRIDDERS IN GOOD SHAPE

Teams Prep For Saturday Games On Campus

FINISH THIRD WEEK

High School Stars Strut Stuff For Coaches

With two weeks of hard practice behind them, the Lynx gridders are rapidly getting into somewhat of a football shape. The squad under the direction of Coach Haygood and his assistant, John Miller, is fast taking form. The fundamentals are being stressed to the 'th degree and blocking and tackling are coming in for their share of emphasis.

One of the brightest spots before the coaches eyes is the fine way the freshmen are responding to varsity training. The lay of the land at the present time seems favorable for several freshmen breaking into next year's varsity lineup. Especially is this true in the line. There is no dearth of line material, and it looks like the Southwestern team of '32 will have a very substantial forward wall.

Several high luminaries have been attending the Lynx spring outing and have made some very impressive showings. Among those that have graced the bounds of Fargason Field are Henry Hammond, stellar end from Central High School; Neal Tapp and Jack Lloyd, stalwart lineman from the champion Tech High aggregation; and William McDonald, former M. U. S. star. All of these boys are out showing their wares to the coaches. Hammond has shown up especially well in practice.

Some quite vigorous scrimmages have been unrehearsed and the squad has come out sans injuries, outside of a few minor scratches. The coaches plan to increase the work as time goes on so that the boys will be getting some real football dishes before so very many days have passed.

It is planned to start having some regulation games on Saturdays, after the completion of the basketball season. This will give the boys an opportunity to show how they have responded to the week's work. The coaches plan to get quite an eyeful of how the varsity will stack up next fall from the way the pigskinners show up in the early spring work.

Thirteen Club Gets Southwestern Boys

The Thirteen Club has recently added a group of new members to its number. These include James Hughes, John Hughes, James Hamilton, Goodlet Brown, Paul Jones, William Cobb, Harvey Drake, J. P. Hollifield, Jack Bullard, John Ussery, J. B. Schorr, Davis Biggs, William McDonald, Leslie LaNieve, Joe Patchen, Marvin Satterfield, Nath Gullett and Tom Bronson.

The election of officers was held last Tuesday night at Southwestern with the following results: Julian James, president; Harold High, first vice-president; Wayne Grout, second vice-president; Donald Watson, third vice-president; Leslie Nicholson, secretary, and Oscar Hurt, treasurer. The club will entertain with a dance Saturday, Feb. 27, at the Hotel DeVoy.

T. N. E. Pledges

Theta Nu Epsilon takes great pleasure in announcing the pledging of Harry Walsh.

THEY'LL MAKE PEACH OF PAIR

Katy and Clough Will Don Regal Robes

Katy Reid and Clough Eaton will reign over the April Fool's Carnival this year. Queen Katy and King Clough succeed to the crowns worn last year by Meredith Davis and Harry Walton. They were elected by the entire student body in Chapel last Tuesday morning. According to custom, the boys chose the queen and the girls the king.

T. Hudson and Paul Jones, who were the closest contenders for the royal scepter, will serve as lady-in-waiting and first gentleman to their majesties. Other court attendants are: Mildred Veazey, Frances Durham, Miriam Heidelberg, Margaret Mason, and Sarah Elizabeth Gemmill, and Jinx Joyner, Johnny Hughes, Jimmy Hamilton, Albert Erskine, and Bill Berson.

The Carnival, an annual event, will be held on April 1. For this gala occasion the gym is to be decorated in appropriate gay profusion, and merriment will run riot as each class presents its novelty stunt and other amusements typical of carnival time.

At a meeting of the Student Council Friday, Jimmy Hamilton will appoint committees to arrange and execute definite plans for the Carnival.

Y.W.C.A. Hostesses At Supper Tuesday

The Southwestern Y. W. C. A. gave a supper in the Chi Omega lodge Tuesday evening to which all girls were invited. A large number attended and in addition to a delicious repast, enjoyed an impromptu program rendered on request by certain of the more talented guests.

Mary Caroline Lee, vice-president of the association, was in charge of the entertainment. She was assisted by the other officers: Nell Davis, president; Harriet Storms, secretary; Virginia Richmond, treasurer, Lyle Stanage acted as hostess.

A. O. Pi's Dine In Lodge On Campus

The members of the A. O. Pi Sorority entertained with a banquet last night at 6:30 o'clock in the lodge on the campus. A red and white motif was carried out with a centerpiece of red roses and red and white tapers burning in silver holders. Place cards contained poems for each guest and toasts were made by the President, Virginia Richmond, and Charline Tucker, who presented the ring given each year to the best pledge.

Gals Flock to Levy Fashion show at KD

Levy's Fashion Show drew many of the Southwestern co-eds to the Kappa Delta House Wednesday afternoon, to see the classy chic spring outfits and to hear the soft melodies of Bill Taylor's Collegians, as the boys furnished romance for the co-ed models. Tea and sandwiches were served after the show.

Girls serving as models were: Katy Reid, Margaret Mason, Miriam Heidelberg, Peggy Henderson, Ruth Billings, Dixie Mae Jennings, Julia Marie Schwinn, Peggy Walker, Anita Wadlington, Mary Fay, Mary Anderson, and Sarah Elizabeth Gemmill.

Kappa Sigs Initiate

Phi Chapter of Kappa Sigma takes pleasure in announcing the recent initiation of Jack Crosby and Alvan Tate, Monday night in the chapter lodge.

Student Preachers

Fishbach and Gregory, two of the ministerial students at Southwestern who are often called upon to deliver sermons in Memphis and the immediate environs.

Young Ministerial Students Much In Demand Around Memphis For Sermon

Call On Southwestern Boys To Take Pulpits In Absence of Regular Church Pastors

Maybe you didn't know it, but Southwestern is developing a group of young parsons that is already in demand not only in Memphis, but even outside the state. Every Sunday these young men carefully brush their shoes, neatly part their hair, ascend the pulpit, and with fiery invective attack the evils of the present day. The Ministerial Club has done exceptionally fine work this year, both in supplying pulpits and in deputation service.

EMPLOY RADIO

The latest venture upon which the club has launched is a monthly-sponsored program of religious dramas to be given over W. N. B. R. If plans newly adopted by "Camel" Cabaniss, who is strongly suspected by his fellow members of having views savoring of Romanism, do not miscarry, these programs will terminate in a series of the early mystery and miracle plays so popular in England before and during the Elizabethan Age. Cabaniss has quite liberally decided, however, that it might be best to give these plays in their English translations instead of in the original Latin.

GREGORY LEADS

But to return to the pulpit work of the Ministerial Club. James Gregory tops the list with four sermons to his credit so far this year. He has been heard at the Westminster, Court Avenue, and Parkview Presbyterian churches, and at the Mount Pisgah Methodist. Paul Jones has led prayer meeting at the Parkview Presbyterian, and James Breazeale has delivered sermons at McLemore Ave. Presbyterian and at Campbell's Clinic.

FROSH PREACHES

Woodrow Taylor, the active freshman member of the club, has one sermon, at Court Avenue Presbyterian, to his credit. Bob Pfrangle has filled the pulpit at the same church, and has led an afternoon service at the Sunshine Home for Veterans. Allan Cabaniss has delivered a learned lecture on "Modern Paganism" at the Court Avenue Church. And Harry Champlin, usually busy rounding out the choir at Evergreen, was absent one Sunday for a prayer meeting at Campbell's Clinic.

PROFESSORS AT COLLEGE OFFER CUT IN SALARY

$1,000,000 Endowment Is Plea of President

RE-ELECT OFFICERS

Draw Up Financial Drive Plans With Citizens

In the interest of balancing the budget of Southwestern all faculty members and employees of the school have voluntarily agreed to a ten percent reduction in salaries. This action was one of the highlights of the annual meeting of the Board of Directors which was held during this week for the purpose of electing board officers, presentation of annual reports, and a discussion of a financial campaign.

Dr. Diehl, in his annual report to the board, stated that money and a select student body were the greatest needs of the college at present, basing his assertion concerning the student body on fears expressed by Dean Hartley that Southwestern may not be getting "as many high grade students as formerly," due to the falling off of Freshmen enrollments in Latin, considered a barometer in a liberal arts college. He also stated in the report that while sorority members had higher averages in scholastic work as a rule than do non-members, the non-fraternity men have a higher standing than do the fraternity men.

The college executive committee will meet with a citizens' committee to draft plans for a campaign to be made in an attempt to raise money for the carrying on of collegiate work, as it is asserted that the college would require an addition of at least a million to the present endowment before the budget can be balanced properly. The purpose of the campaign will be to relieve the situation as much as is possible at the present time.

Officers of the board were re-elected without discussion and the curricular work of the college was endorsed in principle and operation, the work of the tutorial reading course plan being praised by members. An increase of 3,722 volumes in the library during the past year, bringing the total to 24,342, and a greatly increased use of library facilities were a part of Dr. Diehl's report. This increased use exists in spite of a decrease of 25 in the first semester enrollment this year over the enrollment of last year.

Southwestern Quint Primed for Tourney

Southwestern basketballers are planning on invading Birmingham on next Tuesday for the Dixie Conference basketball tournament, which begins next Tuesday night. Ten teams of the Dixie Conference will be entered in the meet and it will no doubt prove to be a hotly contested tourney for the championship.

The Lynx team will take eight men to Birmingham in all probability. The men who will probably make the trip are Sheriff Knight, Cotton Perrette, Chicken High, Herbert Newton, Johnny Burnett, Butch Love, Jinx Joyner, Harvey Drake.

The Lynx team has shown a remarkably improved amount of teamwork the last two weeks and no doubt they will show quite some form in the tourney. The Lynx may also enter the S. I. A. A. tournament in Jackson, Miss., the first part of next month.

Zetas Sling Party In Lodge Tonight

The active chapter Zeta Tau Alpha will entertain with an open house tonight at 8:00 p. m. in their house on the campus, complimenting their two new pledges, Grace Johnson and Minnie Lee Hamer. There will be two no-breaks and the Zeta lead-out. Bill Taylor and his Collegians will furnish the music. At intermission a light refreshment course will be served.

Members and their dates are: Eugenia Weeks with James Guess, Meta Russell with Baxter Scloss; Sophia Hunt with Arthur Smith, Rosemark Burke with Robert Pond, Barbara Porter with Reinhold Matherson, Ethel Mae Reeves with John Streete, Dorothy Jane Kerr and Mary Anderson with escorts.

Tri Deltas Initiate

The pledges of the Tri Delta Sorority will be initiated Wednesday and Friday of this week at 8 p. m. in the Tower room. The initiates are Sara Elizabeth Gemmill, Alice Brook Kilpatrick, Minnie Byrd Lockhart, Nell Sanders, Thelma Worthington, Olivia Reames, and Malline Lyon.

KAMPUS KRAX

Valentine to a math prof.
Roses are red,
Violets are blue;
What similar natures!
Shylock and you!

Jinx—You know you're not a bad looking sort of a girl.
Mitch—Oh, you'd say so even if you didn't think so.
Jinx—Well, we're square then. You'd think so even if I didn't say so.

Detachments of American and Japanese soldiers were cantooned near each other. A feeling of jealousy was running high. A Jap soldier assailed a hump-shouldered Yankee.
"Say, what's that hump on your back?"
Immediately the American answered: "Bunker Hill. Wanna climb it?"

Mrs. Laughlin—I hope that he isn't one of these bold young men.
Mary—Bold! Why when I said: "If you wait until next Christmas I'll let you kiss me under the mistletoe," he said he'd wait.

GRACE—DO YOU THINK OPPOSITES MAKE THE BEST MARRIAGE PARTNERS?
DRAKE—YEAH, THAT'S WHY I'M LOOKING FOR A RICH WIFE.

Theme songster boxing meets:
1. "Sock of Ages."
2. "Let's do the Breakaway."
3. "Lead Kindly Right."
4. "Brown Eyes, Why Are You Blue?"

THE NAVY HAS NEVER GIVEN A SPECIAL MEANING TO THE "LOVE" FLAG, BUT UNOFFICIALLY IT MEANS "BREAKERS AHEAD."

It was after the concert and the talent was, as usual, being criticized.
"I certainly did enjoy that man who sang the bass solo," ventured a young man.
"Who," inquired one of the young ladies in astonishment. "I thought he had a very poor voice."
"So did I. Just think of his nerve!"

Painter—Won't you let me kiss you?
Billings—Well, I don't "no."

GREEN LIGHTS MAY RUN THE TRAFFIC IN NEW YORK, BUT EVERYTHING ELSE IS RUN BY ISRAELITES.

Indignant Parent at 6 a. m.—What do you mean bringing my daughter in at this hour, young man?
Plebe—Heck, I've got to be at formation at 6:40!

Sam—What am a cootie?
Bo—Sumpin' dat wears short dresses, uses lipstick, an' am red-headed!

Ledsinger—I see where they have arrested a man in London for trying to hold up a crowd entering a night club.
Buckingham—Well, go ahead; what'll be his defense?
Ledsinger—That it would be useless to hold up anybody after they left the night club.

Co-ed (during intermission)—Why did you bring me out in Overton Park?
Frosh—Well, if you don't know, I guess we'd better be moving along.

Breathes there an athlete of a shower old,
Who never to himself has told,
As he turned on hot and it ran cold,
**&—(38!!!!!!?)@.

"DON'T KICK A MAN WHEN HE'S DOWN, HE'S LIABLE TO GET UP."

Wright—Do you remember the song hit of the show we saw
"King" Eaton—All I remember is the chorus.

Fortenberry—Rives reminds me of an almond bar.
"Will" Knight—How so?
Fortenberry—Sweet, but nutty.

Officer—Who takes charge when the skipper dies at sea?
Plebe—The chaplain, sir.

We have at last discovered what the boys in Stewart Hall do with old razor blades—they shave with them.

WATCH YOUR EXTRA-CURRICULARS

College organizations, most of which are valuable, potential agencies for the training, diversion and employment of their members may, by their own multiplicity, defeat the very end for which they strive and for which they stand. Membership in too many organizations may injure the student more than membership in none.

Too often the student makes the mistake of affiliating with too many extra-curricular activities and in this way allows them to take the time originally intended for his specialty in life. Affiliation with a few extra-school activities, while not of vital importance, is often a great help in broadening the scholar. No student should under any condition allow his outside activities to usurp his sap and energy until his primary purpose of attending college is completely annihilated.

The facts are evident that a student attending meetings of the various organizations until late in the evening will have very little time left to devote to his scholastic endeavors. It is an honor to be a member of various school organizations. The quest of such honors often change the head of students and when they are accomplished, they have only passed one milestone on the road of reputation.

It is the milestones on the road of success that each one is striving to pass: to do this, one has to be mentally alert and maintain his equilibrium when offered an invitation to outside activities.

EVERGREEN HALL

Spring is here, and we know it by the large number of packages and hat boxes delivered every day from up-town stores. The first sunny Sunday will see quite a few shiny straw bonnets on parade.

You can't say that Evergreen was neglected on Valentine's. Flowers, corsages, and boxes of candy were seen in every direction, and the telegraph boy wore a little path to the door.

Ethel Mae Rives was seen all day Sunday in the company of quite a handsome stranger. No one knows just who he is, but just a friendly warning to—well, you know whom.

It's All Right To Say "It's Me."

New York—(IP)—Do you say, "It's me?"

You may not get by with it in English class—although you may if the prof is on the side of certain educators who are for liberalization of grammar rules—but you are certain to get by with it in society spelled with a capital S.

Authority? None other than the eminent Emily Post, who knows what Society does, says, eats and drinks.

Furthermore — Emily speaking again—when you say "not at all," it is perfectly "proper" to say "not at all." But you must never, in Society, talk about "the little woman," or "the gentleman friend."

SUE TO LOU

Dear Lou:

Place—in the Library; mind—wandering. Mary Alice Taylor just upset my firm resolution to be a better girl and study harder by detailing to me the plans for the Leap Year dance. The poor original 13 Club died at the hands of the faculty, but the girls' Pan-Hellenic Council will carry on, and give the hop Feb. 29 over at the Zeta Lodge. Won't we have fun?

Speaking of Zetas, they're introducing Minnie Lee Hamer and Grace Johnson to the campus formally tonight at an open house. It's the first sorority dance of the new semester; everybody's going.

I've gone temporarily nuts (or nerts, if you feel that way) over basketball. The Millsaps games were simply too exciting for my girlish heart and I found myself pounding on poor Gene Stewart who was unfortunate enough to sit in front of me. The report is that he will pull through. The sorority games, if not so exciting, are lots of fun. I'll take Muff Gordon as the classiest player this school has seen in days and days. It's all in knowing how, I guess. Oh well, I just wasn't born to be a star.

I could write on for hours, but I'm not, though, because here comes one of my dear teachers, and if he knows I'm trifling, I'm sunk.

I'll write next week, so till then consider me (with apologies to Walter Winchell) your Southwestern correspondent,

SUE.

Don't Groom Oscar For The Presidency

New York—(IP)—If the old man has kicked recently about your grades, or your failure to attain a job as college president, clip this out and send it to him.

Dr. Frankwood E. Williams, psychiatrist, is responsible for the most recent blast at the hopes of parents who think Willie is bound to be next President of the U. S., or at least a great artist or writer as second choice.

"Parents may not talk about such ambitions for their children," he said, "but nevertheless they plan, push and demand that their children shall do thus and so in line with such silliness. Their children may have a genius among them, of course, but it is far more likely that every one of them will turn out to be just decent, ordinarily fine, average adults like the rest of us."

FRAT CAGE MEN WAGE BATTLES

Competition Is Keen In Meet Between Frats

First round of play in the fraternity basketball tournament was finished last night with the game between the Alpha Tau Omega and Pi Kappa Alpha fraternities.

The second round of play and the games of the consolation tournament will begin Monday night, continue through Tuesday, with the championship game scheduled for next Wednesday night.

T. N. E. WINS

Tuesday night the T. N. E.'s defeated the K. A.'s 26 to 6. Tommy King was high scorer for the night with 15 points made for his team. Monk Dabney starred for Kappa Alpha. In the first game of the tournament, the non-frat team sent the Beta Sigs down in defeat 17-8.

Kappa Sigma and Sigma Alpha Epsilon played Wednesday night.

The Non-Frat and Theta Nu Epsilon teams will begin one second round of championship play Monday night. The winners of the Kappa Sig-Sigma Alpha Epsilon and A. T. O.-Pi K. A. games will play Tuesday night.

Beta Sigma and Kappa Alpha will engage in the first game of the consolation tournament Monday night, with the losers of the first round meeting Tuesday night. The winner of the consolation tournament will be decided Wednesday night.

Line-up and scores of the first two games.

Non-Frat (17)	Beta Sigma (8)
Gibbs 3	F. Holloway 2
Fishbach 2	F. Cobb
Pfrangle 6	C. Fox 5
Hill 5	G. Oliver
Crawford	G. Porteus 1

Substitutions: Beta Sigma, Bornman, 1; Non-Frat, Overholser, 1.

Theta Nu Epsilon 26	Kappa Alpha 6
Mapes 2	F. Hall
Huffman 2	F. Roseborough 4
King 15	C. Dabney 2
Creech	G. Willis
Agan 5	G. Coleman

Substitutions: Kappa Alpha, Gaither. (Roseborough made 2 points for Theta Nu Epsilon.)

Purdue Will Meet Notre Dame Squad

South Bend, Ind.—(IP)—The two strongest teams of Indiana are to meet again on the football field next year after a ten-year lapse of grid relations. Contracts have been signed for a home and home series of two games, the first to be played in 1933 at the Notre Dame Stadium and the second in 1934 at Purdue.

Notre Dame and Purdue played their last game together in 1923. In thirteen games played previous to that Notre Dame won eight, lost three and tied two. Purdue last season tied for the Big Ten title, which it won in 1929. Notre Dame last season was defeated for the first time in years, by Southern California and the Army.

Edgar Allen Poe's Thriller At Orpheum

A half-demented doctor, intent on crossing the blood of a gigantic ape with that of a living girl, animates the terrifying story of "Murders in the Rue Morgue," Universal's strange drama which comes to the RKO Orpheum Theatre Monday for a week's showing, with Sidney Fox and Bela Lugosi, of "Dracula" fame, in the leading roles. It is the famous Edgar Allan Poe story renovated for the screen. Rumor from Hollywood says "it is a Dracula" and "Frankenstein" rolled into one.

The story is laid in Paris in the year 1840, and the sinister Dr. Mirakle, impersonated by Lugosi, causes the death of three young women in his made experiments, until the dumb affection of the gorilla is attracted by Miss Fox, in the character of Camille L'Espanaye. Mirakle, feeling that Camille will form an ideal subject for further experiments, captures the girl with the assistance of the ape, and the ensuing events, it is said, make of "Murders in the Rue Morgue" the most gruesomely thrilling picture in the history of the talking screen.

CO-EDS' TEAMS FIGHT IN GYM

Sororities Clash In Epic Hardwood Battle

The Tri Deltas and A. O. Pi's are leading the inter-sorority tournament in the number of games won, both having two victories and no defeats to their credit. However, the tournament is being conducted on a point basis, and so the cup will not necessarily go to the team winning the majority of games.

Last Thursday the Zetas went down before a determined Chi Omega team under the score of 46-9. That same day the Tri Deltas, boasting two teams, trounced the Kappa Deltas with the score of 52-24.

On Monday victory went to the A. O. Pi's with the score of 39, the Zetas coming behind with 22. The Chi Omega-Kappa Delta game, which followed, was a bit one-sided, the Chi O.'s piling up 46 points, and the K. D.'s only ringing 3.

Up to the date the most exciting game of the tournament was that between the Chi Omega team and the Tri Delta quintette, the Chi O.'s losing by 3 points. The Tri Deltas so far have shown the best promise of a winning team, but the outcome of

Shake Students For Rough Riding Facts

Lafayette, Ind.—(IP)—Purdue University students have taken up a new kind of rough riding, sitting on a "shake-table."

In ten minutes they are given bumps equivalent to riding 50 miles in an automobile over rough roads. The table produces jolts at the rate of from one to fifteen a second.

The riders sit on seats fitted with various kinds of upholstery. The object is to learn the relative effects of the different types of upholstery on the comfort of the passengers, and particularly of the drivers. Professor H. M. Jacklin, instructor in automotive engineering, is conducting the tests.

Each rider has bands stretched across his knees and thighs, which are connected with recording instruments to show the extent to which correct and comfortable posture is lost during the jolting.

the tournament is by no means certain.

Next Monday the A. O. Pi's and Tri Deltas will play in what is expected to be one of the best games of the tournament. The Kappa Deltas and Zetas are scheduled for a game on that same afternoon.

Faculty Argue They Ain't Guilty Atall

New York—(IP)—The Columbia Spectator, Columbia University undergraduate daily, announces that the faculty of the university, which has been on trial before the students recently for the "murder" of the English language, has pleaded not guilty vigorously and with a number of counter charges against its accusers.

Defending the faculty, Mark Van Doren, professor of English, said that the professors generally were grammatical, and that on the whole the students were more conservative than their instructors and often hold out for "corrections" where the language actually has changed, and the "correct" use is no longer the correct use.

"I was afraid Grandfather would be Shocked.."

"HE'S rather a bossy old darling, and I didn't know how he'd like the idea of my smoking.

"The first time I lit a Chesterfield in front of him, he sniffed like an old war-horse...and I braced myself for trouble. But all he said was, 'That's good tobacco, Chickabiddy.'

"You know Grandfather raised tobacco in his younger days, so he knows what's what. I don't, of course—but I do know that Chesterfields are milder. It's wonderful to be able to smoke whenever you want, with no fear you'll smoke too many.

"And it doesn't take a tobacco expert to prove that Chesterfield tobaccos are better. They taste better...that's proof enough. Never too sweet. No matter when I smoke them...or how many I smoke...they always taste exactly right.

"They must be absolutely pure...even to the paper which doesn't taste at all. In fact...as the ads say...'They Satisfy!'"
